THE HARVEST HOME.

NEW-ENGLAND HOMESPUN.

Written on request, and sung at the Vermont State Fair, Rutland, September 9, 1852.

Air—"La Marseillaise" Hymn.

Yeomen! Yeomen, wake to glory!
Hark! it calls you, one and every,
Lovers of your sires' and country,
Lovers of the right to freedom,
Lovers of the land of boasting,
Lovers of the "Green Mountain State!"
Lovers of the "Free and Brave!"
Up! ye sons of Freedom! Freemen!
Up! ye sons of Freedom! Freemen!
Rouse, rouse, ye hills!
The mountain spirit free.
Chorus—Huzza, huzza, ye mountain sons,
Congregate at the harvest home.

Yeomen! Yeomen! Wake to glory!
Hark! 'tis Ceres bids you rise!
Yeomen! Yeomen! Wake to glory!
Hark! 'tis Ceres bids you rise!
'Tis Science, Art, Commerce, Industry,
That cite you onward for the prize,
That cite you onward for the prize.
Our fields with verdure brightly glowing,
Our flocks and herds make glad the hills,
And enterprise in dales and rills,
And knowledge, wealth are richly flowing,
Rejoice, rejoice, Vermont!
To heaven all honor due.
Chorus—Huzza, &c.

Our mountain homes! upon your sons bequeathed,
The warrior sires, bold and free;
Your valor, and as carefully moulded,
Your hearts that no enemy may be,
The shrine that no enemy may be.
Those souls that may cry out with gladness,
Our toil of ye, lightly bearing light,
Your dreams from out that troubled night,
Yeomen! Yeomen! Vermont!
Be worthy to be free.
Chorus—Huzza, &c.

Yeomen of sires, who woke to glory,
When dark and heavy night appeared,
Prove ye your sires' fire, brave and heavy?
Who direct dangers never feared,
Who direct dangers never feared.
And when your land lay cold and bleeding,
"Twas After then all danger dared,
And Warner's breast was boldly bared,
Where home and fireside aid was needing,
To arms, to arms, they cried,
To victory then or death.
Chorus—Huzza, &c.

Yeomen of the mountain, wake to glory,
Hark! 'tis Ceres bids you rise!
'Tis Science, Art, Commerce, Industry,
That cite you onward for the prize,
That cite you onward for the prize.
Our fields with verdure brightly glowing,
Our flocks and herds make glad the hills,
And enterprise in dales and rills,
And knowledge, wealth are richly flowing,
Rejoice, rejoice, Vermont!
To heaven all honor due.
Chorus—Huzza, &c.

EDUCATION OF OXEN.—A Glenburn farmer in the Bangor Whig contends that the merits of working oxen, at cattle shows, by the mere ability to drag the heaviest possible burden, is unsatisfactory and unsafe, as not exhibiting the most valuable qualities of the animals, nor showing their most useful capacities in the performance of their ordinary work. We annex a portion of his sensible remarks.

"I would suggest that at the next trial of oxen at the Society's Show, it would be upon a judiciously loaded cart, and that the exercise should consist of drawing, turning and backing. What the public want in regard to working oxen is, an exhibition of the best trained cattle for farm purposes. Nor is this all. We want to see the man who trained them, and his manner of doing it. We want an exhibition of good teamsters as well as good teams; for very much of the merit of a yoke or team of cattle belongs to the teamster. And instead of giving all the premiums to good oxen, half at least should go to good drivers. No driver, however, should receive a premium for himself or oxen, however good they may be, who uses profane language during the exhibition. A rule of this kind would have changed the direction of more than one premium at the late fair.

Good teamsters are worth from five to ten dollars a month more than poor ones; and yet, with this difference in price, it is easy to find a thousand poor ones to one good one. No man can be a good teamster who is not a gentleman. He must be gentle, kind and careful. No good teamster will put his oxen to an unnecessary waste of strength, or to unnecessary pain by the use of goad stick or brad."—Maine Farmer.

Has a good variety of Piano Fortes, Melodeons, Seraphines and Reed Organs to let, for city or country, on low terms. If, within one year from hiring, the party should conclude to purchase the instrument, no charge will be made for rent of it, except the interest on its value.

MELODEONS, CHURCH AND PARLOR

SERAPHINES.

George P. Reed & Co. respectfully inform the public that they are the sole agents of Boston and New England, for the sale of Geo. A. Prince & Co's CELEBRATED

MELODEONS AND SERAPHINES.

It is now universally acknowledged that these are the best instruments of the kind made in this country. The many improvements Mr Prince has made on the original "Cabinet" Patent," which he uses, render them so much superior to what the instrument has hitherto been, that the Melodeon and Seraphine are now just becoming the most popular musical instrument of the day. The Seraphine, so long formerly found in them now gives place to a fine, pure, sound tone, similar to that of the Flute Stop, in the Organ. Every musical family should have one. These instruments are especially adapted to Church use, as, if properly taken care of, they will last a lifetime.

☞ Reed & Co. are also agents for the sale of Pianos.

PRICES.—Melodeons Six Octaves $175 to $75. Pianos, Rosewood, Mahogany and Gold or plain Ornamental Case, $300 to $500.

Keeping Pace with the Times.

Having made extensive alterations to meet the demands of increasing trade, the entire range of apartments at Oak Hall is now open, with one of the largest stocks of ready made clothing, which can be sold at wholesale and retail, for gentlemen, youth and boys, ever shown in one establishment. The style and manufacture is a century different from the general run of ready made clothing, much care having been taken in getting the articles up, and the style of garments, the making and trimming, will compare favorably with custom made clothing. My department of gentlemen's furnishing goods is completely stocked with every article in that line adapted to the season. In the Piece Goods department I have the finest fabrics and most fashionable cloths in the market, & with the expert, accurate and stylish cutters, I am prepared to furnish any garment to order, and warrant perfect satisfaction.

I shall endeavor to keep pace with the times, and to merit the liberal patronage with which I was favored since the opening of this old clothing house, in 1842.

Bottles formerly sold at	50 cents	reduced to	25 cts
do	do	do	75	do	50 do
do	do	do	1,00	do	75 do

The many worthless imitations of this celebrated hair restorative, rendered the public under the lure of cheapness, has determined the inventor to crush them by selling his genuine "Fluid" at even a less price than they can afford to sell their vile trash. At the same time, he assures the public that the Hyperion will always continue to be as good a beautifier, which has given it a celebrity throughout the globe. This, with Bogle's Electric Hair Dye, and other preparations, are sold by his Agents everywhere in the United States, and Canadas.

PATENT AMERICAN ACTION-PIANO.

BOSTON, AUG. 14, 1852.

The undersigned, who were officially associated with the Great Exhibition in London, are happy to bear testimony to the commendations bestowed on the instrument manufactured by our townsman, Mr George Hews, by gentlemen capable of appreciating both the tone of a Piano, as well as its external finish and elegance of workmanship. The municipal signet, THALBERG, who was on the musical jury, pronounced it one of the sweetest as well as most perfect toned instruments in the exhibition.

EDWARD EVERETT, United States Commissioner to the London Exhibition of 1851.

J. V. C. SMITH, M. D., 56 Washington street.

MEDICAL NOTICE TO FEMALES.

DR. C. W. CALKINS, Physician, Surgeon and Accoucheur. Office 145 Pleasant st, Boston.

Special attention given to diseases of women and children. Many diseases considered incurable, or relieved only by an operation, permanently cured by means at once simple and safe.
