The Caledonian.

LOCAL AND STATE.

Jubilant.

The whole town went crazy on the receipt of the news of the success of the Atlantic Telegraph on Thursday week,—the twelve pounder "belched" forth—the bells rung—the steam whistles screamed—and there was a confounded din generally; much to the astonishment and alarm of our quiet neighbors who had not "heard the news," and to the injury of some who were sick.

We learn that the public spirited citizens of Coventry made a prompt demonstration of their joy at the success of the Atlantic Telegraph enterprise. The faithful cannon, which has done service on so many occasions of rejoicing, was speedily put in requisition, and a dozen heavy guns woke a thousand echoes from the surrounding hills.

—The impression seems to be prevalent in the cities and larger towns that an occasion so great as the connecting of England and America by a telegraphic wire, should be more generally celebrated. It is therefore proposed that when the congratulations between the Queen and President Buchanan shall have passed, it shall be the signal for a general jubilee throughout every city, town and village in the Union. Mr. Field has promised to give a day's notice of this event, so that all may be prepared to celebrate at the same hour. That hour may come before our readers see this, and it may not. The event is expected on Friday. "Man the ropes!"

Personal.

Among the arrivals here last week, were Bartlett Smith, Chester Smith and Charles Philbrook, all from Hardwick. They stop at the stone house kept by Mr. C. P. Goss, on Cherry street. It is expected that after the repairs upon this building, now in contemplation, it will be a good jail, but, after all, not a very pleasant place to stop at. The above-named persons were committed for stealing.

Camp Meeting.

We learn that there is to be a camp meeting at St. Johnsbury Centre, commencing Sept. 13.

Our Outside.

The great horse-taming secret, as taught by Mr. Rarey, will be found on our fourth page. Those who read the first part of the story published on page 1, will be pretty likely to finish it in our next. There is also a short history of the telegraph enterprise, which will be read with interest. Any who would like a more definite idea of "how the thing looks," can see a piece of the cable by calling at this office, which we got from the Niagara after her first attempt to lay the wire, about one year since.

Heavy Rain.

Probably most of our readers hereabouts know of the very heavy rain on Wednesday night; but none know it better than those who were out in it. There was a fall of two one-hundredths inches of water as shown in the rain gauge. It did much damage to the roads and ripening grain. Aside from this rain, the weather has been very warm and pleasant for a week past.

Picnic.

The catholic Sabath School of this place, had a picnic last Wednesday. There were one hundred or more, including the older ones, who took an extra train at half-past eight in the morning, going to a grove in Barnet, and returning about seven in the evening. The day was fine, but some caught a wetting in the shower that poured down upon us just after their return.

Military Company.

Signers to a paper for a military company to be formed here, met at Union Hall on Wednesday evening last, and organized by choosing Joseph Boles, Chairman, and E. F. Brown, Clerk. It was voted to have a Light Infantry company; and Messrs. G. A. Merrill, W. A. Wells, and Horace Alden were appointed a committee to obtain additional signatures. They voted to adjourn to next Monday evening at half-past 7 o'clock, at Union Hall. There are already about forty signatures on the paper.

Accidents.

A horse of Mr. Wilcox, got a terrible wound in his breast on Monday, by getting frightened and running on to a wagon on Railroad Street. There was no other injury done, and the horse will probably recover. —An Irishman who had brought two young ladies here to join the picnic on Wednesday, "dumped" his load out at the passenger station in so bungling a manner as to dislocate his arm, and greatly endanger the life and limbs of his fair companions. For his careless driving, he was forced to forego the pleasures of the picnic, and visit a physician instead.

At Liberty.

The notorious scoundrel, W. H. M. Howard, of Bradford, was released from Chelsea jail last week, bonds being given by Messrs. John Sanborn, Lewis Worthley, Henry Humphrey, Wm. Armstrong, and James Armstrong of Bradford; Jesse Worthley, Aaron Kidder, and Chas. Childs of Fairlee; Rylando Parker and —— Worthley of Corinth, for his appearance at trial, in January next. Howard's wife died on Saturday last. The Telegraph says that warrants were issued for his arrest, together with Lewis Worthly, on Saturday evening last, on a charge of trespass on the premises of Charles McDuffee, formerly occupied by Dr. Howard. Worthley was arrested, but, at last accounts, Howard was not to be found.

This is probably the last that will be seen of Howard in this section. We do not know how it may appear to others, but it seems to us a great wrong that this man was let his liberty; but after all, the greater the rascal the more likely is he to have sympathy, and friends to go his bail, and thereby defraud justice of her dues. We doubt if the poor fellows put into our jail last week for stealing old clothes, will find friends to bail them; but, with their families upon the town, they will pay the penalty of their crime by serving a term in the State prison; while he who commits murder, buys his liberty. Outraged justice demands a reform.

Some Squash.

Mr. C. P. Goss of this village, has a marrowfat squash which measured, Aug. 10, three feet and ten inches in circumference.

Political Conventions.

Probably most of our readers were prepared for the announcement, which was made by telegraph last week, of the re-nomination of Hon. J. S. Morrill, for member of Congress from this district. The report of the Convention will be found in another place.—The Convention was very harmonious, and we trust the Republican vote for him in September will be as unanimous as was the desire for his re-nomination. The land bill which he introduced, and which passed the House, was one of the best and most beneficent measures devised in Congress for many years. It distributed to the several states a liberal amount of the proceeds of the sale of public lands, for Agricultural education, and had it passed the Senate, and become a law by the President's approval, it would doubtless have proved a great blessing to the country.

The Republican Convention for Orleans county, is to be held at Irasburg, Aug. 25th, at 10 o'clock, A. M. It is expected that the Hon. Homer E. Royce will address the Convention.

The Republican district Convention at Rutland, last week on Wednesday, unanimously nominated Hon. E. P. Walton for re-election to Congress from that district.—Mr. Walton has done credit to himself and honor to the State in his first term at Washington, and we presume his district will re-elect him with a hearty good will.

There was a good representation as to numbers at the Convention of the democracy at Bradford on Wednesday. Hon. E. B. Chase, of Lyndon, was nominated for Congress, by acclamation. Speeches were made by Messrs. Rand, and Walter Harriman, of N. H. The old District Committee were chosen.

Musical.

We are happy to learn that Mr. C. H. Clarke has decided to make St. Johnsbury his permanent residence. So we presume his Musical Academy will become one of the institutions of our village and perhaps we may have a Band worthy of the name. Mr. Clarke pursues a course with his pupils which is calculated to give them an easy, graceful style of performance which results in part from a weekly public rehearsal in which the pupils are required to take part. For full particulars see advertising columns.

IMPROVEMENTS AT MONTPELIER.—The Freeman says that "the roof to the new State House is upon the walls, and preparations are making for the dome. The work has progressed with a good degree of diligence, and is being well done, although it will not be quite in readiness for occupancy the coming autumn. The new Academy promises to be the finest school building in the State. The new jail is already roofed, and the work shows that its Superintendents have been peculiarly fortunate in selecting the contractors—Messrs. Camp and Trow of Montpelier—to erect it. We are pleased to see the spirit which animates our people to make improvements, and from the numerous and most successful efforts to beautify the town, and render it a desirable place for residence and business, we are assured that a new impulse has taken possession of the live men of the town, that we have passed the stationary period of the dark age, and that every thing must now meet with such an impetus as shall make Montpelier the fit town for the Capitol of the Green Mountain State." Glad to hear it.

☞ The Brandon Advocate says, that Captain Bush of our village, has written to His Excelenay, Governor Fletcher, in relation to a general muster of the volunteer companies of the State; also that the Governor is favorable to the suggestion, and that he is disposed with his staff to review them at a time and place to be hereafter fixed upon.

MRS. DILLON AGAIN.—On the 15th of last month, a complaint was filed before Justice Bellows of this town, against Wm. Driscoll, a brother of the noted Mrs. Dillon, now living with her in the capacity of a boarder, agent or clerk, and taking charge of the liquor business of the establishment, as appeared from the testimony. At the trial on the 15th, the jury were not agreed; the case was continued to the 29th and tried again by jury, who returned a verdict of guilty of two offences. While the jury were out in charge of the officer, two of them separated for a few moments from their fellows; and after a verdict was rendered, the counsel for the respondent moved to set aside the verdict because of such separation. The case was again continued to the 31st for a hearing on that motion, at which time the motion was overruled by Justice Bellows, and the respondent sentenced to a fine of $20 and the cost, amounting to about $25. Then the counsel for the respondent moved to be allowed an appeal to the county court, and offered as bail the old lady herself, but on objection of the State's Attorney, the Court refused to accept her as bail; at which her wrath waxed furious and she belabored justice and jury, most zealously, with a most foul tongue, but more especially did she pray the curses of heaven on the State's Attorney's head; and what terrified him most, promised to meet him next September at the ballot box with 500 voters.—St. Albans Messenger.

THE POISONING CASE AT BENNINGTON.—Mrs. Safford and the other two women residing in Bennington, who were reported to have been poisoned by drinking coffee prepared by the husband of Mrs. Safford, are still living, though not out of danger. A preliminary examination of Safford on a charge of poisoning his servant girl, has been made, and he was held to bail in the sum of $1000 to answer, and then committed to jail to await the result in the other cases. Some of the coffee sent to Albany for analyzation was found to be strongly impregnated with arsenic.

POOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In our advertising columns is to be found an advertisement of this popular restorative. We know nothing of its merits save what we read but that is sufficient. We, particularly when we see such testimony of its efficacy as the following, which we clip from the Ottawa Free Trader:—

"Having tried successively sundry highly recommended 'hair tonics' on our own half denuded crown, we about lost all confidence in nostrums of that sort, until about a week ago we met a distinguished politician of this State whom we had seen three years ago with thin hair and as 'gray as a rat,' but now boasting as fine a head of hair as one could wish. We demanded the secret of his improved appearance, which he readily acquitted for it by ascribing it to the virtues of Pept. Wood's Hair Restorative. We shall try that next."

Sold by all respectable Druggists. 6t

☞ We advise every one who suffers from Dyspepsia or debility to try one of the famous Dr. Shaw's celebrated Bitters a medicine more favorably known than any remedy ever discovered for the positive cure of these troublesome complaints.

INVALIDS, NOTICE THIS FACT!

For the past Fifty years Dr. S. O. Richardson's SHERRY WINE BITTERS have been unrivalled as an effective and valuable tonic and invigorator. And while almost every one of the thousands of remedies that have been introduced within that period has been abandoned, Dr. Richardson's medicine has been sustained with increased popularity. For sale at Dr. Dexter's office, No. 34 Hanover Street, and by dealers in medicine everywhere.

FRIEND STONE: With your permission I wish to speak kindly and understandingly to the staid people of this vicinity, that they may fully appreciate my active labors in behalf of spiritualism, and give them an opportunity to change my belief or show me Christian charity.

I am a conscientious, out-spoken spiritualist.—My whole soul is enlisted, without a shadow of a doubt—but it is God's last, best gift to man.—Hence, I act like all zealous Christians who believe in what they profess. I spend money and time to bring this all-important truth before you. It is you I labor for. You must see my heart is right, if my head is wrong. I say to all, hear the facts, and see the evidence. Let us reason together, and then judge. My constant prayer is—Heavenly Father increase our wisdom, and perfect our ways.

Special Dry Goods Notice

GEORGE P. GOODWIN would respectfully announce to the citizens of St. Johnsbury, together with those of the adjoining and surrounding towns, far and near, that, at the solicitation of a large number of his friends and former patrons, he has been induced once more to resume business in this place, and that he has leased his former store at the Passumpsic House, Railroad St.

The Store has been refitted and greatly improved. It is now one of the most spacious, best lighted, and convenient Dry Goods Stores in Vermont. It will be opened

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 1, 1858.

In resuming once more in this place, I would state, that my way of doing business for the future will be on an entirely different principle than has ever been introduced in any Store in Vermont, and in fact in but few places in New England; but where the principle has been introduced, it has met the unqualified approval of a large majority of the people, viz:

THE ONE PRICE PRINCIPLE.

Every piece of goods at the lowest Cash Price, in plain figures, and no deviation.

NO BANKRUPT STOCKS, NO OLD GOODS.

But all my goods are new and fresh from Market, bought for cash, and selected with great care for the Fall & Winter Trade!!

My goods will not be noted altogether for the extraordinary cheapness, as so-called cheap goods can be found anywhere, but as for styles, variety and prices for the same, I do not hesitate to say will be

UNSURPASSED.

In the Silk Department will always be found the latest and most fashionable styles of FANCY SILKS.

And a wide range of qualities in blacks, of the most approved and desirable make, and brilliant lustres, making in all the largest and most complete assortment ever kept in my store in this part of the country.

The Shawl Department

Will always comprise every well known style of fashionable shawls, from the most costly and elegant, down to the lowest price, and at prices that will please the closest buyers. In the

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT,

The variety will be of the first order, and will be unsurpassed in New England for styles, qualities, and cheapness, to which constant additions will be made every week.

THE LINEN AND HOUSEKEEPING DEPARTMENT, will be worthy of the especial attention of customers, comprising a complete assortment of Linens, together with all varieties of Domestics. Ladies will recollect that in this Department they will find all the sizes of Lancaster and Allendale Quilts, together with a complete assortment of French Toilet Do. No such variety was ever brought into St. Johnsbury before, all of which will be sold cheap for cash.

Particular attention will be paid to the EMBROIDERY AND WHITE GOODS DEPARTMENT. Cambric and Muslin Collars, of the latest importations, from 12 1-2 cents to the highest cost. New French Mislin Sets, very cheap. Having made arrangements with several Stamped Embroidery Designers in Massachusetts, I shall be prepared to furnish

Stamped Embroidery

To work, at a very short notice. Ladies will find at the store some 500 different patterns to select from, and new patterns will be furnished as fast as possible. I shall keep constantly on hand a large assortment of

HOSIERY, GLOVES, TRIMMING GOODS, VELVET RIBBONS, &c.

Ladies will always find the very best

KID GLOVES,

In all sizes and colors, (the best are the cheapest.) ☞ To my friends who wished for my return, I would tender them my sincere thanks, and trust that the ONE PRICE PRINCIPLE, which is the only true one, will meet their hearty approval and kind support.

In conclusion, the undersigned would state, that it is his intention to make his Ware House a Model Store, where purchasers can go with the assurance of finding a first rate assortment of Goods in his line, and always at uniform low prices, together with courteous treatment, and unremitting attention to business; and relying confidently upon the discrimination of the community, he trusts that his efforts to cater to their wants will be duly appreciated, and rewarded by the same liberal support as in times past.

To the People of Caledonia County and Vicinity:

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN MECHANICAL DENTISTRY!

DR. KILBOURNE

HEREBY announces to the public that he has purchased the right to use Dr. Blandy's new method of inserting ARTIFICIAL TEETH by the CHEOPLASTIC PROCESS. This method is far superior to all others now in use, and is used and highly recommended by the most eminent dentists in the United States. There has long existed a void in Mechanical Dentistry which scientific men have studiously endeavored to supply, but without success, until about two years since Dr. Blandy (one of the Professors in the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery) discovered this process of making sets by cheoplasty, and published it to the world, since which time over two hundred of the most skillful Dentists in the large cities are now using it, almost to the exclusion of all other methods.

Among the advantages which this process has over all others, are 1st, an absolutely accurate fit to the mouth, thereby rendering its firm retention a matter of course.

2d—By this mode the teeth and plate are united in one solid piece, and as no spaces are left for the lodgment of food, or the secretions, this work is remarkable for CLEANLINESS; a property which it retains unimpaired as long as it is worn.

3d—The ease and comfort with which it is worn—requiring no time to get used to it—will strongly commend itself to those who are under the necessity of wearing artificial teeth. By this process also, the mouth and cheek where they have sunken away can be fully restored to their original contour and fullness.

4th—By this method the teeth are not liable to get out of repair, which is a matter of no little expense, and a source of great annoyance to those who have teeth inserted by the old methods of gold or silver plates. In fact as to its STRENGTH, DURABILITY, and BEAUTY, I challenge for it a comparison with any known process for inserting artificial teeth.

And lastly, but not least in these hard times, it can be made MUCH CHEAPER than sets by the old method, thereby putting it within the reach of both rich and poor.

Persons in want of whole or partial sets of teeth are invited to call at my office and examine the work; and if desired they will be referred to persons in this village and out of it, who are wearing whole sets manufactured in this way by myself.

DR. KILBOURNE is the only dentist in this county who has the right to, or does, use this cheoplastic process. Teeth will be inserted in the usual way, on gold or silver plate, as formerly, if desired by the patient, and on reasonable terms.
