The Caledonian.

A FAITHFUL WIFE.—The Mareschal de Luchy, having been conducted a prisoner to Luxemburg, had scarcely arrived there when his wife entered the prison. The jailor observed to her that the order for the Mareschal's arrest made no mention of her. She answered with mingled gaiety and sweetness, "Since my husband is a prisoner, I am her also."

When he was carried before the Revolutionary Tribunal, he was still attended by his wife. The Public Accuser having informed Madame de Mouchy that she was not called upon to appear, she replied, "Where my husband is called for, I am also called."

In a word, when the fatal sentence of death was pronounced upon the Mareschal, his faithful wife ascended the cart with him; and when the executioner objected, because she was not condemned to die, she answered, "Since sentence is passed upon my husband, it is passed upon me also."

HOW HE DID IT.—I gave her a rose and gave her a ring, and I asked her to marry me then; but she sent them all back, insensible thing, and said she'd no notion of men. I told her I'd oceans of money and goods, tried to frighten her with a growl; but she answered that she wasn't brought up in the woods to be scared by the screech of an owl. I called her beggar, and everything bad; I lightened her features and form; till at length I succeeded in getting her mad, and she raged like the sea in a storm. And then in a moment I turned and smiled, and called her my angel and all; she fell in my arms like a fearsome child, exclaiming, "We will marry this fall."

IMPORTED MESSENGER AND HIS DESCENDENTS.—A gentleman, fully competent to the undertaking, is preparing a concise description and history of Messenger and his immediate descendants, for publication in the American Stock Journal. In order to render this as full and complete as possible, all persons having any knowledge of these horses, are requested to aid in the matter, by communicating such facts as they may deem of interest. Information is particularly desired in relation to Mambrino, Chancellor, Whynot, Hambletonian (General Coles,) Plato, Tippoo Saib, Financier, Engineer, Ogden's Messenger, Rush Messenger, and others of which any person may have definite knowledge. Like intelligence is desired concerning any mares by Imported Messenger, and particularly as to the dam of Young Bashaw (sire of Andrew Jackson,) the grand dam of Andrew Jackson, the dam of Columbus, and of all mares by Imported Messenger which are in the pedigrees of noted trotters.

Communications should be sent as soon as practicable, and address to American Stock Journal, No. 140 Fulton Street, New York.—Stock Journal.

Buy the Premium Bitters!

THESE Bitters have been before the public about three years only, and yet in this short time they have gained a notoriety that is truly encouraging to the proprietors. Some persons buy half a dozen bottles for their own use, so highly do they value these bitters. And when the public fully understand their worth the sale will amount to thousands a month. The alcohol they contain is pure, their composition entirely vegetable and their preparation conducted with care and attention.

Most persons want some kind of bitters in the spring of the year, and when they pay out their money, would like to receive the worth of it in return. This doctrine, of honest dealing, we have endeavored to keep in view in the preparation of our bitters. We have not contrived to put together a few inert or hurtful medicines with a large share of alcohol or poisonous compound that is dealt out silly to the people under the name of Spirits, (though if they would put evil to the same, so it might read evil spirits, it would be tolerably appropriate.) But we have studied and experimented for years to get up an article that would meet the wants of the public, and we flatter ourselves that we have succeeded and would say to all who want a fine tonic bitter to give them an appetite, prevent and cure Jaundice and Costiveness, promote the circulation of the blood, remove drowsiness and restore tone and give elasticity to the system, without any mixture of rot gut. Buy the Premium Bitters.

Sold wholesale and retail by HOVEY & GREEN, St Johnsbury, Vt., and by traders generally.

MITCHELL'S PATENT
Metallic Tip Shoes,
—FOR—
Misses, Children, Boys and Youth.

This new and most desirable invention was produced by G. A. Mitchell, of Turner, Me., and consists of a small metallic tip, neatly constructed and covering the top of the shoe to such a manner as effectually prevent that part which with children usually gives way first, from wearing out, and causes the boots and shoes to protected to do two or three times the service of shoes without the tip.

The invention commends itself to Parents who well know that children always wear out their shoes first at the toe, and little need be said to the Farmer, Fishermen or Mechanics who are subjected to the same inconvenience and loss from calling the attention to their boots and shoes.

MITCHELL'S METALLIC TIP BOOTS AND SHOES will wear three times as long as the old style and cost but a little more. The invention was patented January 4, 1859, and infringement of it will be prosecuted to the utmost extent of the law by the Patentees, who have disposed of the rights in all the states to parties who are rapidly introducing it.

THE BOOT AND SHOE DEALERS

OLD
BOURBON WHISKEY,
PUT UP BY
WILSON, FAIRBANK & CO.,
—FOR—
MEDICINAL PURPOSES.

RECENTLY two years since the subscribers first introduced their pure old Bourbon Whiskey into the market. It was a doubtful experiment in many respects—but they were assured by eminent Physicians that it was actually one of the best remedial agents for Lung Complaints and other diseases. It is unadulterated article could be obtained; they immediately made arrangements with a large distillery to supply the best article that could be made. When their first invoice was received, it was fairly tested by analysis, and we publish the following, knowing that our they have in no instance whatever put up an inferior article; and the reputation that their Whiskey has now acquired, is such that it is universally recommended by the sick who have used it, and especially by our most eminent Physicians.

Its purity cannot be questioned, as a thorough analysis has been made, as will be seen on referring to the following Certificate, a copy of which accompanies each bottle.—

STATE ASSAYER'S OFFICE,
32 Somerset street, Boston, May 20, 1857.
Messrs. Wilson, Fairbank & Co.

Gentlemen:—I have made chemical analysis of the samples of Bourbon Whiskey, you sent to me, searching them for drugs or adulterating matters, and have to inform you that the samples of Whiskey are free from any adulteration. It do not contain poisonous or injurious matters, and hence are suitable for medicinal use.

Respectfully your obedient servant,
CHARLES T. JACKSON, M. D., State Assayer.

In order to prevent deception, observe that the fac simile of the signature of our firm covers the cork of every bottle—without this protection none is genuine.

The above is put up in quart and pint bottles, and is for sale by all the druggists.

ST. JOHNSBURY
ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

THE St Johnsbury Academy of Music is located in the pleasant Village of St Johnsbury, Vt., having a special act of incorporation from the Legislature of Vermont establishing the school upon a permanent basis. The organization of this institution is conceded the most thoroughly musical education at an expense very much less than has been usual where such advantages are offered, and yet very many persons possessing the finest talents have been deterred from studying Music as a profession, on account of the enormous expense which has hitherto attended such a course of study.

The St. Johnsburry Academy of Music offers advantages and facilities of the highest order, at from one-fourth to one-half the expense attending such a course of study if pursued at Boston or New York. For the benefit of teachers and all others desirous of obtaining superior excellence in the science of music, both as performers and theorists, a College of Music is formed as we believe, and will in a few years, at most, The first year is devoted to a thorough course of elementary study, using as text books, only the works of the most celebrated teachers, which teaching were specially noted, beyond their number of excellence. Pupils devoting all their time to music usually perfect the Piano Organ,—or whatever instrument they may prefer,—from four to six hours per diem, and the vocalization occupies hours, devoting six hour to the study of harmony. Each pupil is required to study the Piano sufficiently to accompany well. Pupils in thorough bass are required to play correctly music as a daily exercise.

Instrumental music is taught exclusively by private lessons, two lessons per week being the usual allowance. The study of harmony and composition is taught in several classes, at the rate of two lessons per week. Classes are added to advanced pupils in singing. Vocalizing is also taught in several classes with daily recitation.

The Music Department has been connected with some of the best Bands and Orchestras in New York and Boston a considerable portion of the last twelve years, is prepared to teach all the various BAND and ORCHESTRA Instruments.

Besides the various lessons and class exercises in which pupils attend, a Public Rehearsal is given every Saturday afternoon to the pupils, who are allowed to attend, and also some other parties who are invited to attend, and friends only, being present. In addition, a Musical Soiree is given twice during each quarter, a large audience being present. The year is divided into four terms of eleven weeks each.

Pupils graduating with honor will be guaranteed good situations, or a good business, if they prefer it. In the Commencement week, which will take place at the close of the fall term of each year, pupils graduating in 2?? ??? completed the full course in study.

LIST OF PRIZES.

Piano Forte—1st honor, Gold Medal, 2d do Silver Medal, 3d do Bronze Medal. Singing—1st honor, Gold Medal, 2d do Silver Medal, 3d do Bronze Medal. BARTLETT'S PATENT,
Novelty, $5, Self-Threading,
SEWING MACHINE!

A Practical Family Sewing Machine, for the Astonishing Low Price of $5.50!!

THE construction of this wonderful machine is so perfectly simple that any person giving little attention to its parts, will in a little time become so familiar with its arrangements that they can readily use, and always keep it in good working order, without any assistance—an immense advantage, possessed by no other machine. It makes no noise, and can be attached like a Sewing Bird, to the work table, occupying very little room. It sews broadcloth, full cloth, and cotton goods generally, in a most perfect manner.

The long wished for period has arrived, when every family can have brought within its means a sewing machine adapted to their wants.

The subscriber can refer to the best families in town, fully endorsing all that is said in praise of this wonderful machine, who use it constantly, and testify to its being worth double its cost and more too. It will save the expense of a tailor bill in many families. Extra needles always to be had.

ESSEX COUNTY,

CONSISTING of 550 acres of land in South Victory, 80 acres cleared, well fenced and watered, soft water running into the house and barn-yard. There is a house, two barns, and corn-house, mostly new; also a young apple orchard and sugar lot.

The above is located in the centre of the business part of said town, and near a sawmill. Also 90 acres of good land 3-4 of a mile from the above, with 20 acres cleared and plenty of sugar trees. For further particulars inquire of the subscribers.

W. H. & C. W. KNEELAND.

Also, 6 1-2 lots pine land, which I will sell and take 1 2 in spruce, birch and merchantable pine boards. The above is easy of access to a sawmill 10 miles from St. Johnsbury Depot.

WILLARD H. KNEELAND.

Important to Farmers!

The Subscribers are Manufacturing the
PREMIUM, VERMONT
MOWER and REAPER.
(WILLARD & HOSS PATENT)

SOME of the points of excellence and peculiar advantage which this machine has over others may be enumerated as follows:

1st—In having the cutter-bar hinged to the frame so as to adjust itself to the unevenness of the ground. 2d—Having two driving wheels to drive the cutters, if one slips the other does the work. 3d—The whole weight of the machine is on the wheels where it is required to give power to the stroke of the knives. 4th—When the machine is backed, the knives cease to vibrate; consequently you back away from obstructions without danger of breaking the knives. 5th—The machine cuts on the right, and is geared so that either oxen or horses can be used. 6th—The cutter bar can be raised 18 or 20 inches so that the former can gather his grass seed before he mows his grass if he chooses. 7th—The cutter-bar is easily raised by a lever which is very convenient when coming to the corner of the land. When raised, the machine can be turned as short as you please, or go over the mown grass. 8th—The machine is mostly iron, and very simple in its construction; a boy can manage it with ease. The boxes are all Babbitted, and the guards of Malleable Iron. 9th—It has no side draft.

We desire that every farmer wishing to purchase a mowing machine, should see the Vermont Mower, and test its good qualities. We are confident it will please them, and that there is none better. It is warranted to cut grass equal to the best mower with a scythe, at the rate of nine acres per hour, or ten acres per day, with a light pair of horses and a driver.

We would be glad to get the address of every farmer intending to buy a mower this season, and will send them a cut of the Vermont Mower, and will have a machine in the neighborhood early in the season, that they may examine it and judge for themselves of its merits.

We will simply add one of the many certificates which we have in our possession:

SOUTH HADLEY, Massachusetts Co., N. Y., Sept. 30, 1858.
Messrs. Williams & Ross—I hereby certify that one of your Vermont Mowers has been in use for the past season in this vicinity, where I had constant opportunity for testing its operation, and am willing to say, for the benefit of correspondent, absence of side draft, lightness and adaptability of cutting, capability of adapting itself to uneven grounds, facility of passing obstacles and hitting corners, ease of control, compared to other machines, and other convenience of the driver, it leaves equal to this part of the country. At the Annual Fair of the Washington Co. Agricultural Society, held at Salem, the present month, the committee on Farm Implements, to which I am one, unanimously gave it preference over every other machine exhibited and to such in the country.
