THE PIKES.—We understand that the pikes found in "Old Brown's" possession were manufactured at Unionville, by C. Hart, who voted for "J. H." for President, and has ever since voted the administration ticket.—Of course, according to the logic of the Buchanan papers, the administration is implicated!—Hartford Press.

☞ Anson Burlingame left Kansas to return home, on the 23d ult. During his stay in the territory, besides making numerous public addresses, he went on an exciting buffalo hunt, in which he is said to have killed nine of the animals.

☞ It is a curious fact in regard to persons who are killed by an explosion of steam, that, in some cases, for a few moments after the accident they are apparently unhurt, and are able to walk about and converse. Where not begrimmed by the smoke and ashes, the peculiar bright, soft whiteness of the face, hands or breast, however, tells at once that the skin, though unbroken, has in fact been boiled by the steam, and they soon sink from their injuries. One man on board the Great Eastern, when the late explosion occurred, said quietly, "I am all right; others are worse than I; go after them!" while at the moment, though walking about, the flesh of his thighs was burnt in deep holes and he was the very first to die.

☞ The N. H. Statesman says a clergyman of Concord met a little boy of his acquaintance on the cars, and said to him, "This is quite a stormy day, my son." "Yes, sir," said the boy, "this is a very wet rain." The clergyman, thinking to rebuke such hyperbole, asked him if he ever knew of any other than wet rain. The boy answered that he never knew personally of any other, but he had read in a certain book of a time when it rained fire and brimstone, and he guessed that it was not a wet rain.

☞ On Tuesday last a Vermont ninny—a drover by occupation, past middle life—was loitering, with a pocket full of money, in Hay Market Square, Boston, when a nice looking lady accosted him and invited him to her neat little parlor (as did the spider the fly,) and there relieved the simpleton of his pocket-book, containing $773 in cash, a check for $123, and notes to the amount of $2842. Happily, he gave the alarm in season, and a policeman recovered the money. The pocket-book was hid under a plank in the yard.—This paragraph is condensed from the Boston Traveler.

THE NEW YORK HERALD'S OPINION OF JAMES BUCHANAN AS A CANDIDATE FOR THE PRESIDENCY.—The Philadelphia Press copies the following editorial opinion given by the New York Herald when Mr. Buchanan was running for the Presidency:

"James Buchanan is a cold dotard, an imbecile, a miserable, gabbling old granny, who has lost his mind and his memory, and who is consequently utterly unfit for the important duties of the President."

The Herald is the great gun of the democratic party.

LOSS OF CONSTITUTIONAL VIGOR.

After a life of gaiety and sensual pleasure comes the never lasting premature loss of manly vigor, with its gray hair, trembling nerves and general debility. It seldom can be kindle the nearly extinguished fire, and bring back the vision to vigorous health it is the Protoxyde of Iron in the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.—Volumes might be written to show the benefits resulting from the use of this valuable remedy. It has been tested, and in every case brought to our notice, it has speedily and effectually cured all kinds of coughs, wounds, burns, corns, &c. Sold everywhere for 25 cents a box. 6i

OFFICE IN ST. JOHNSBURY, Rail Road Street, a few rods north of Hurt & Green's dwelling house, where he may be consulted on all diseases common to the people of this climate. My medicines are prepared of roots, herbs, and barks of the forest, made up in concentrated form, so that 50 per bottle is better than 100 of the Tennessee tricks and other humbugs, which will promote and not destroy the source of life, and when you are cured of a complaint there are no concealed poisons to get rid of afterwards. 5301
