Brief Locals.

—Collector Dana has removed his office to rooms over the Post Office.

—The reader's attention is directed to an advertisement in our columns of the Phœnix Mutual Life Insurance Company, an institution well known and well established.

—See the notice in our advertising columns in reference to coal for sale.

—L. B. Mooney, who escaped last week with a fine for intoxication, reported himself to officer Rollins, and was taken before a magistrate, and fined five dollars and costs.

—George W. Carr was brought before Justice Howard on Wednesday, for assault upon Mrs. Wilson, wife of one of his tenants, and fined seven dollars and costs.

—A special train on the Passumpsic road on Saturday, July 13, commencing at Hanover, will run from Lyndon, leaving Lyndon at 7 o'clock A. M., and St. Johnsbury at 7 o'clock A. M., at a reduced fare.

—On Tuesday night, the down express train on the Passumpsic road was delayed several hours about three miles this side of Newbury, by an iron rod in some way having been driven into the boiler. No one was hurt, but the train did not reach White River Junction until morning.

—The fourth with us was a remarkably quiet day. The town authorities having prohibited the use of fireworks, the boys could only make a compromise in the morning by resort to tin horns. The day was ushered in by ringing the village bells at sunrise. So many of our people joined the Sabbath school celebration at Lyndon, and excursion to other places, that the day was as quiet as the Sabbath.

—An acquaintance who was at Newport on the fourth, informs us that there was drinking and any amount of rowdyism there on that day. Canada whiskey is too plentifully dispensed there for the reputation of the place. Why do not the business men of Newport take this matter in hand and stop this free sale of liquor? No place can prosper permanently where there is so much liquor used with its usual concomitants.

—A Pleasant Interview.—Mr. Horace Fairbanks spent the last week in Concord, N. H., in watching the progress of the bill before the N. H. Legislature, chartering the Portland and Ogdensburg railroad. It was known that he was to return Saturday evening, and also, that the object of his mission had been successful. A large number of the friends of Mr. Fairbanks, and of the railroad enterprise, accompanied by the St. Johnsbury band, visited Mr. Fairbanks at his residence, about 8 o'clock, Saturday evening. After a piece by the band, Mr. Fairbanks answered the call of his friends, and gave a detailed history of the passage of the bill by the N. H. legislature. When he had concluded his remarks, on motion of Judge Dana, three rousing cheers were given, complimentary to the speaker, and expressive of the joy of the company at the good news he announced. The band then played another tune, when the company dispersed, many of them, however, embracing the occasion to congratulate Mr. Fairbanks personally, upon the cheering prospect of the enterprise in which he has taken so deep an interest.

—New Buildings, etc.—We are glad to have enterprising men visit our towns, and to witness the fruits of their energy and perseverance. In passing Mr. Nelson M. Johnson's new building now in course of erection, located on Railroad street, we could but notice that in size, form and outline it more resembled buildings erected for business in large cities than any building in this place. It is 54 feet front, 46 feet deep, three stories. On the lower floor Hastings & Gale, merchant tailors, are to occupy the south room, and Mr. Johnson will continue his mercantile business in the northern. The front entrance to the upper apartments is between the two lower stores. The second story is for offices, and the third, for the present, for dwelling. Mr. Johnson has already rented some portion of the building as to assure him an income from his large investment in erecting the building. Mr. Johnson has been among us nine or ten years, and we are sure that all must commend the enterprising spirit he has always manifested. He has done a large and successful business as a merchant, as we hope he may in the future. He has introduced a new style of building among us worthy of imitation. Other new buildings going up in our immediate vicinity we have heretofore noticed. But in passing over the road towards the East village a few days ago we noticed that Ely, Balch & Co. had commenced the erection of two new dwelling houses for the use of their workmen. This company added largely to their manufactory last year, and have done, of late, a largely increased, and as we are glad to know, a successful business. They will need more houses if they do not now. And by the way, we may say that school district No. 15—bordering upon the village upon the east, but across the Passumpsic river, has been increasing for several years in population and wealth, more rapidly than any other part of the town, except that part within the limits of the village corporation. All are now ready to decide that the construction of the new road leading to east part of the town was a profitable expenditure on the part of the town.

—The Fourth at Lyndon.—The "Glorious Fourth" was celebrated with all the honors at Lyndon by at least two thousand children and friends of the Sabbath school. Eleven schools—embracing three from Lyndon, two from St. Johnsbury, two from Wheelock, two from East Burke, one from North Danville, and one from Kirby—were convened in the beautiful grove near the new railroad shops, and enjoyed a most interesting season in celebrating our nation's independence.

At 10 o'clock, A. M., the several schools were formed into line under the direction of Capts. Randall and Thompson, the marshals of this day, each school under its superintendent's charge, and each class headed by its teacher; and the procession led by the music, and with banners flying, marched to the speaker's stand at the grove. The exercises at the stand were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Jones, of St. Johnsbury. Rev. Mr. Bickford, of Lyndon, was elected president of the day. The declaration of Independence was read by Henry Chase, and an introductory address delivered by the president; then followed brief addresses to the Sabbath schools by Revs. Perkins, Joslin, Barton, and others. These exercises were happily interspersed with anthems and patriotic songs by the choir, and music by the St. Johnsbury cornet band.

From the stand, the people repaired to the tables to partake of the collation, prepared by the friends of the several schools. Tables were made to accommodate a thousand or more persons; and the ladies deserve much credit for the bountiful and tasty manner in which they were furnished and decorated.

After partaking of the collation several sentiments were read and responded to. Among the regular toasts were the following:

The Day we Celebrate—May it ever be held in remembrance by us and all succeeding generations.

The Bible—The world's own book—the universal directory.

America—The pride of her people, the "hope" of the world.

The Clergy—Liberty and religion; may they teach the principles of one in connection with the truths of the other. Responded to by Rev. Mr. Titus, of St. Johnsbury.

The Nineteenth Century—So marked an age of progress; May it witness the downfall of tyranny, and the end of oppression.

Christianity—The pioneer and polisher of all civilizations; the only adequate force to lift up the nations into the sunlight of heaven and the favor of God.

Our Republic—The brightest star in the galaxy of nations.

Free Discussion—The safety-valve of a republic.

Our Institutions of Learning—May they be perpetual, and as long remain nurseries of liberty and public morality.

Sabbath Schools—The gymnasium of the church; the most prolific source of its recruits; the germ of progress; her officers and teachers, the true nobility, worthy of all honor; her students, the most hopeful subjects of care and culture, and special objects of Divine regard.

"Suffer little children to come unto me." —Christ.

Vermont—The star that never sets; may the loyalty of her sons, and the virtue of her daughters be as permanent as her hills and mountains.

The Boys and Girls—Nowhere braver, fairer, than in our own Green Mountain State.

By Rev. Mr. Barton: The Clergy, the Magistracy, and the Military—a beautiful triplet. This sentiment was happily responded to by Capt. Randall.

By Dr. Miles: The Spirit of '76 alive in '67.

At the close of the exercises, a resolution of thanks to the speakers, the choir and the band was passed; a doxology sung, and the proceedings of the day closed with three cheers for the president of the day, and the day we celebrate.

INCOG.

The Law.

The rum-sellers of Lyndon were looked after a little, by State's Attorney Willard, on Friday last, and fined about $50 each. One Joe Berry, a keeper of a dirty "hole in the ground," at the Centre, on learning that the officers were out, turned the key to the "hole," and took leg bail for parts unknown. The law was made for just such customers.

Celebration at Groton.

At 10 o'clock on the morning of the 4th, the Sabbath schools of this place and Peacham united for the purpose of celebrating the day with appropriate festivities. They met at the M. E. place of worship, and under the supervision of our indefatigable superintendent of Sabbath schools, L. H. Stowell, and the Rev. Mr. Cox, pastor, preceded by the band of this town and that of Ryegate, formed into line, and marched to the ground selected for the purpose, the bands playing the most popular and inspiring airs in excellent style. Each class had its own banner with devices and mottoes tastefully arranged. Among others, the flag of our Union, and U. S. Coat of Arms. Motto: "Union—we are all united, surrounded by an endless chain;" Noah's Ark. Motto, "we trust in God;" a beehive in perspective, raised motto, "the busy bees;" a large banner with a cross, motto, "under this banner we enlisted for life;" The miners; the pioneers; a scroll of parchment, motto, "we love one another;" another scroll, motto, "we come again, with love, to greet you," and others. Arriving on the ground, which was an open field, but shaded by transplanted trees, the band took their seats on a commodious stand, and all others found seats had been erected in the form of an amphitheatre, capable of accommodating more than were present, although the assemblage was large. The exercises were opened by prayer by the Rev. O. M. Boutwell, of Peacham. Dialogues, speeches, recitations, singing and music followed until 1 o'clock, when the parents and children repaired to the tables to appease their appetites. There were three tables, each 108 feet long, that were arranged in the neatest manner, and loaded with the choicest delicacies in abundance. Next in order came those who had contributed their mite, and lastly all who were on the ground; all were invited to partake of the bountiful supply, and large quantities were left. After dinner, the exercises were continued until 3 o'clock, when the procession made a retrograde movement to the place from whence they started, in the same order, preceded by the band as usual, and marshalled by the superintendent. Everything was harmony, peace and concord; there was not one dissentient word, and when they parted, received a very neat and appropriate speech from Mr. Stowell. Taken altogether, it was a very imposing spectacle.

Base Ball.

The Union Base Ball Club of this village visited Cabot on the Fourth of July, and played a friendly game with the Winooski Club of that place. The game lasted two hours and fifteen minutes, and was won by the Union Club. The "Winooski" has been organized but a short time, but their playing showed that they had not been idle during that time, and with a few months practice will be able to compete with any club in this part of the state at least. The Union club return thanks for the courteous manner they were treated by the "Winooski" and the citizens of Cabot.

CLUB.

Property Recovered.

A Mr. Toof, living just over the State line in Canada, in the town of Freelingsburg, on Monday, 8th inst., saw two men going into a barn belonging to him, that stood out in one of his fields, and he followed them in, and asked their business. They said they had been walking some ways, and had turned in there to rest. He did not like their looks, and stayed around the barn until they were gone; he then thought he would just look about a little, and soon discovered a large silver service in his hay mow. He found the communion silver service, and much more of the silver ware that was stolen from the churches in Burlington. There was a great variety of other articles, such as albums, kid gloves, silver knives and forks, and spoons, etc., all of which will now be given back to the owners as soon as they can be known.

Island Pond.

The Sabbath school in this place celebrated the 4th of July with a pic-nic. The rain which fell copiously in the morning, prevented the exercises being held in the grove, as it was intended; but the school had a very pleasant time in Gilkey's Hall, where, after recitations, music, &c., the pic-nic was served.....A young Frenchman, named Severelle, fell some 25 feet from a ladder, at the engine house, on which he was painting, on the 5th inst., and was precipitated upon the railroad track, breaking his nose, and otherwise severely, but not fatally, injuring him.

Concord.

The dwelling house of Mr. Abel Stacy, of Concord, was struck by lightning Thursday morning, July 4, and considerably damaged. The inmates received a severe shock, but have recovered with slight injury. The lightning passed down the rod about four feet below the eaves, where it passed into the house, tearing off the boards some six or eight feet; then into the buttery, and followed the top shelf half way round the room, when it went down the casing, through the floor; it then made a turn, and passed into the kitchen, where Mrs. Stacy was sitting, tearing up the boards that her chair was sitting on, and out through another partition into the water room, where all traces of it were lost.

West Concord.

Two small birds have this season taken possession of a small box of Pinks on the piazza of Mr. Hibbard, at West Concord, and have built a nest, and raised a brood of young ones, which took wing last week. The parent birds were so familiar as to enter and fly about the house, alighting on the table while the family were at meals. During the period of incubation, it was both amusing and instructive to watch their habits. They would allow the family to approach them without being in the least alarmed.

BENNINGTON COUNTY.

At the June term of the Bennington Co. Court, one Dr. Oakes, a travelling doctor, who made some stir in this and other parts of Vermont some two years since, was found guilty in an action for an outrage committed on a Mrs. Harwood, during a medical examination, and in default of $500 damages was committed to jail.

Mrs. Polly Pendolph of Sandgate, wife of Pendolph who was convicted of the murder of Hinsman, died very suddenly the other day, from the effect of drugs, taken to produce abortion.

CHITTENDEN COUNTY.

Cheese sold in Richmond, Vt., on Monday at from 9 to 10 cents a pound. A large quantity was in the market. Butter sold at from 20 to 22 cents.

A mascalonge was caught at the lower falls of the Lamoille river, in Milton, on Thursday last, which weighed 34 lbs., and measured four feet four inches in length. This monster was caught by Mr. Norman Lamphear, on a set line, on which a small pike had been caught.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.

Butter brought a better price in our market on Tuesday than it did for two or three weeks before. The ruling price was 26 cents, though lots were sold for 28 cents. A good quantity was brought in on Monday and Tuesday.—St. Albans Messenger.

Mr. W. Draper of Sheldon, has erected a large and well arranged cheese factory on the Missisquoi river near the "narrows bridge," where the milk from some four or five hundred cows is manufactured into cheese.

This spring is attracting to Highgate Falls quite a large number of people from various parts of the county. The water is possessed of many curative properties and invalids confess to being greatly benefitted by the free use of it.—Transcript.

ORLEANS COUNTY.

A child of Mr. H. B. Hanson, Derby Line, fell from the verandah of his house on Sunday last and broke its arm.

GOOD SALES.—H. C. Cleveland, of Coventry seems to find a ready market for those choice cattle of his, proving beyond question that raising such stock pays, and that our farmers are beginning to realize the fact. He has recently sold a bull calf, 3 months old, and weighing 325 lbs., to Henry Black, of Coventry, for $100; also, one bull and one heifer calf to J. G. Hall, of Barton, six and seven weeks old, for $50 each. He has one bull calf left, only nine weeks old, which weighs 325 lbs. We doubt very much if any farmer in Vermont can boast of a finer calf than this. They are of the Kent short horn breed, which in size, beauty, and in fact, in all respects surpass any other stock grown among us.—Newport Express.

ASSAULT.—Yesterday O. D. Harvey, of this village became somewhat salubrious, using noisy and offensive language in and about the store of B. E. Shaw, and finally committed an assault upon Shaw as he attempted to pass him on the side-walk. Harvey was accordingly arrested, brought before Justice Sargent, and fined $7.50 and costs. We trust it will prove a beneficial lesson to him, and prevent further repetition of such scenes. We did not learn that Harvey was requested to disclose where he procured his liquor. This was evidently forgotten.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—Martin Keith, a resident of Troy, about forty years of age, was killed on Thursday last by a bull. He went into the pasture to cut some brush for bushing peas, and being gone longer than necessary, search was made for him, when his body was found stripped almost entirely of its clothing, terribly mangled, and life extinct. It is supposed the bull came upon him unawares, and disabled him at the first, else he might have defended himself with the axe he had with him. The bull was but two years old, and had never shown signs of being cross or vicious. It was, however, killed immediately, to save a repetition of such treatment.—Newport Express.

JAY PEAK.—The Jay Mountain Road Company have built a house on the Peak 30 by 40 feet. It was dedicated on the 25th inst., about one hundred couple being present. The house is kept by Mr. A. D. Cutting, and is about two miles from the summit, on the Jay side. A wagon road goes within three-quarters of a mile of the tip-top. Jay Peak is but little inferior to Mansfield in height, and now that a house has been built for the accommodation of visitors, a large number of pleasure-seekers will probably be attracted thither.—Richford Sentinel.

ORANGE COUNTY.

A cheese factory at Brookfield is making from 400 to 600 lbs. cheese per day. They charge about two cents per lb. for making, and as factory cheese brings as much in excess of other cheese made for nothing,—an arrangement which farmers wives are very naturally in love with.

RUTLAND COUNTY.

The grave of Senator Foot in Evergreen Cemetery, at Rutland, is marked by a monument of Barre marble, 19 feet high by 6 feet square at the base, bearing the following inscriptions:

SOLOMON FOOT,

BORN IN CORNWALL, VT., NOVEMBER 19TH, A. D. 1802.

Died in Washington, D. C., March 28th, A. D. 1866.

In the third term of his service as a Senator of the United States From his native State.

On the cap of the monument, on the same side is the name of "Foot," and immediately below it on the main shaft a heraldic device.

On the north side of the shaft is inscribed his dying words:

"Expiring, he raised his eyes towards Heaven and exclaimed: 'I see it! I see it! The gates are wide open! Beautiful! beautiful!'"

About noon yesterday, during the severe shower at Rutland, Morse's new block, in process of erection, was struck by lightning. The "third" knocked out a piece of the brick wall of the building, making a hole some four feet square, and then passed down the staging poles to the ground. Several persons who had sought shelter from the rain in the building were more or less injured by the shock. A man named Henry McMaster of Middlebury, was knocked senseless, and it was thought for a while he was killed. He recovered, however, sufficiently to be taken home, and though nearly blinded can see a little. Two sons of Mr. Hewett of Rutland, a girl 14, and a boy from Cuttingsville were also somewhat injured.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

A GIRL HORSE THIEF.—To-day (Tuesday,) a Mrs. Buck came into our village to trade off her butter, eggs, &c., and left her team fastened on Main street while she investigated the state of the market. On returning for her commodities, behold team and all had disappeared. It seemed a young French girl, by the name of Mary Miner, taking a fancy for a ride, had boldly appropriated team and baggage, and left for parts unknown. Pursuit was instituted, and the youthful John overtaken near Northfield, brought back and lodged at Jailor Camp's boarding house. Mrs. Buck, who is a "fair, fat and forty" lady of the rural districts, kept as cool as could be expected considering the state of the thermometer; but when the team was returned to her, just at night, declared she "knew the folks would be concerned about her, because they wanted the mare to get in hay with this afternoon."—Freeman.

Send danger from the East into the West,
So honor cross it from the North to South,
And let them grapple. Oh! the blood more stirs,
To rouse a lion than to start a hare."

But many would rather face even a lion (provided he were safely caged,) than to have their hair all fall out before the period of old age, and the disagreeable "start" the hair sometimes takes toward premature greyness is capable of stirring the blood a good deal. If it only stirs you to obtain "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative, a sure cure and preventative to these evils you will have your blood stirred to some purpose." 1t
