[illegible] to make the Caledonian valuable for [illegible] and our friends in Caledonia, Essex [illegible] will confer a great favor to us [illegible] duality to the interest of the paper by [illegible] items in a brief, legible form.

Locals.

[illegible] a lot of binding at this office [illegible] delivery to those persons who [illegible] to July 1st.

[illegible] directed to the advertisement [illegible] at Woods' hotel Passumpsic [illegible] evening.

[illegible] excursionists to Magog Wednesday [illegible] the most charming days [illegible]. The St. Johnsbury band [illegible] the party and everything passed [illegible]. There is another excursion [illegible] Saturday, when a train will [illegible] Bradford, leaving that place at [illegible] Wells River at 7.30, Barnet 7.53, [illegible] 8.20, Lyndon 8.45. Leave [illegible] to return, about 4. P. M.

[illegible] first stock train was coming [illegible], and when about half a [illegible] Derby, the engineer discovered [illegible] on the track. He stopped [illegible] before it was done, the colts [illegible] the track, and one of them run[illegible] bridge was killed. He was a [illegible] colt, and was owned, we [illegible] to Willard Hastings former[illegible].

Fatal Accident.

[illegible] years old son of David [illegible], had both feet cut off [illegible] came into the station [illegible] afternoon. We understand [illegible] common for many of the [illegible] to catch on to the cars as [illegible] go out from the station, [illegible] upon the rail in front of an [illegible], and in several ways [illegible] careless and reprehensible. On Wednesday night Eddie [illegible] way to the freight house to [illegible] the up to the platform, [illegible] footboard, he swung under [illegible] Wheels completely severed [illegible] part of the other. He was [illegible] by the men about [illegible] the sight of his bleeding [illegible] track, and his mangled [illegible] bars from eyes not a[illegible]. Both feet were re-am[illegible] by surgeons, but it is yet u[illegible] he lives or dies.

[illegible] that comes from the dying [illegible] Hibbon (which we publish [illegible] too late for Eddie Ancil; [illegible] be heeded by the many careless [illegible] boys who are not [illegible] through their own carelessness [illegible] good will be accomplished [illegible] amount of suffering. It is [illegible] to us to say that it is [illegible] parents to keep their children [illegible] railway stations, and that it is [illegible] on railway officials and train [illegible] to keep boys away from moving [illegible] to be severe with those who [illegible] their rules.

Marble Works.

Messrs. Fairbanks continue to in[illegible] their facilities for the manufacture [illegible] world-renowned scales. In addi[illegible] new shops built last season, [illegible] putting up a two story brick [illegible] 40 feet, the lower floor to be [illegible] extension of their machine shop, [illegible] upper floor as a polishing room. [illegible] story building, brick front, [illegible], to be occupied for cleaning [illegible] castings, and a brass foundry. [illegible] these new buildings are to be [illegible] with plastic slate, and fire [illegible]. Within the last five years this firm [illegible] (with the buildings now in [illegible] construction) six large brick [illegible] containing about an acre and a half [illegible], besides storehouses and [illegible]. This summer they have also added [illegible] wing to their main board[illegible] wing being nearly a hundred [illegible] and three stories high.

[illegible] Saturday Mr. Walker's foundry [illegible] biggest day's work, melting [illegible] half tons of iron, and [illegible] small castings. One [illegible] last week's work, was the [illegible] sending away of seventy-six [illegible].

Fire.

[illegible] fire is an accident to John [illegible] Burke, who were riding [illegible] place from Hardwick, and [illegible] Mr. Joel Dole's in Danville, [illegible] the harness gave way, letting [illegible] and causing the horse to [illegible] out both the men. Mr. [illegible] leg broken in two places, [illegible] sustained no serious injury, [illegible] broken but the horse was [illegible].

Burning.

[illegible]

[illegible] G. Dow raised 301 bushels [illegible] on ⅞ of an acre of ground. [illegible] Kimball raised 14 bushels of [illegible] on one tree, from which he has made one and one-half barrels of cider, which, for quality, is superior to that made from common apples. People in this vicinity are turning their attention to raising this variety of apples, as the trees are sure to succeed on any soil, and are abundant bearers. J.

ADDISON COUNTY.

Anson Keese, a highly respectable citizen of North Ferrisburgh, committed suicide by drowning in a well. He was found standing upright, with the water hardly covering him. Mr. Keese was about 35 years old, in perfect health, and a well-to-do, prosperous young man, and it is difficult to assign a motive for his act of self-destruction.

CHITTENDEN COUNTY.

The First Annual Convention of Young Men's Christian Association at Burlington was well attended and the exercises were very interesting. Undoubtedly it will result in enlarging the number of associations through the state and an increase of religious sentiment and fervor of spirit.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.

On Friday of last week the clothes of Mrs. Catharine Hodges, of Enosburgh, caught fire while she was in the act of covering up a kettle in which were boiling pumpkins and potatoes, burning her arms and body in a shocking manner. At last accounts Mrs. H., was alive, but her recovery is doubtful.

On Monday, Mr. Aaron Bradford, of Montgomery, died from the effects of eating too much honey.

On the 8th inst., Patrick Conelly of Fairfield, while attending a threshing machine, had his hand caught in the cylinder, drawing his arm in above the elbow and completely crushing it. The great exertion which he made stopped the force of the machine, or probably he would have lost his life. Amputation was performed near the shoulder joint.

ORANGE COUNTY.

A. N. King, Esq., of Tunbridge, had a ram, thoroughbred, that broke away from his place of confinement the 16th of Sept., carrying chain and stake he was fastened with. Search was made for him in almost every direction; but all to no avail. The ram had once been in the pasture of Mr. Silley with his sheep, and that was thoroughly looked over. On the morning of Oct. 6th, Mr. S. missed one of his sheep, and in making search for it came upon the lost ram of Mr. King, by the side of an old bass stub, hitched to the clog of wood, without a solitary green thing near him: he had gnawed the bark from the old dry stub as far as he could reach. All the room the ram could have was about 2½ by 3 feet, between the log and the old stub, which had brought him nearly to a perfect stand still, and in this situation he had lived for twenty days, with food or water, save that of the dry bark of the old stub. The weight of the ram a few days before he left was 150 pounds, but when found he weighed but 80 pounds.

ORLEANS COUNTY.

The Standard has an account of a painful accident at Crattsbury on one of the days of the fair. A horse ran into the crowd and with great violence hit a Mr. Marsh, an old man of about 65, knocking him down, breaking a couple of ribs and otherwise injuring him. Some $40 were raised for him by the people.

WINDSOR COUNTY.

Henry C. C. Johnson of Woodstock found a very valuable two year old Merino buck of his flock dead in his meadow, a day or two since, having been shot by some unknown person. When a lamb, Mr. Johnson was offered $300 for him. Language is hardly adequate to stigmatize such an act, whether the result of design or carelessness.

Windsor is to have a course of lectures the coming winter. President Smith of Dartmouth gives the first.

☞ The San Francisco (Cal.) Musical Times, in a specific notice of the different church organs in that city thus gives the following complimentary testimonial to the American Organ. The extract says: "What the most successful church organ makers have accomplished in pipe organs, Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith of Boston, Mass. have accomplished in reed organs. To their mechanical genius and enterprise, is due the perfection of instrument they now produce, giving the power of the pipe organ, and a tone almost identical. The American Organs manufactured by Messrs. Smith, are infinitely superior to any other reed organ made in the world."

At the New Hampshire State Fair, "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" took the First Premium, over all other competitors, awarded by the judges among whom were some of the best chemists in the country. Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced ten fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists to a remarkable degree in whose value in curing coughs, cold, bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, asthma, pulmonary affection and incipient consumption is inestimable.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry,

FROM J. D. HOSMER, ESQ. OF TOPSHAM.

TOPSHAM, VT., April 21, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Foale & Co.:

Gentlemen: I take a great pleasure in adding mine to the mass of testimony in favor of that invaluable cough remedy—Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. During the past winter my wife was affected with a severe cough and inflammation of the lungs. After suffering severely for many days, Wistar's Balsam was recommended, a trial of which have immediate and permanent relief. I have known of the Balsam having been used in cases of asthma, with the most favorable results. I am sure that if the community were as well acquainted with the merits of this great remedy as I am, you would be unable to supply the demand. I would advise all who suffer from coughs, colds, &c., to give this medicine an early and thorough trial.

Dr. Schenck's New Office.—DR. J. H. SCHENCK of Philadelphia, has opened an office on second floor of No. 35, Hanover street, Boston, where he will be professionally every Wednesday, from 9 to 3. Every person complaining with consumption or any diseases leading to it, is invited to call on him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his respirometer the charge is five dollars.

Dr. Schenck can explain to patients very correctly the stage of their disease, and how to use his medicines, namely, his Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, without the use of the Respirometer, but by it he can tell exactly how far the lungs are gone, and what part also; whether it is tuberculous, Pulmonary, Bronchial or Dyspeptic Consumption, or whether it is merely an ulcerated throat and catarrh, or from liver complaint.

His medicines have full directions, so any one can take them without seeing him, but if they live near by and are able enough, it is best to see him. All three of his medicines are required in nearly every case of lung disease, for it is impossible to cure consumption unless the stomach and liver are kept in perfect order. To get lungs in a healthy condition the stomach must be cleansed, and an appetite for good, rich food created, so as to make good blood, before the lungs will begin to heal; then the chills and night sweats will stop, and the expectoration begin to ease and stay.

He keeps a full supply of medicines at his rooms, which can be had at all times.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half-dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents per box.

How calm and peacefully she rest
In slumber's sweet embrace,
No corse annoy her tranquil breast,
No sorrows mar her face;
Her hands lie idly by her side,
As if her work was done;
It is, "our house in order laid,"
She left her earthly home.

I place my hand upon her brow,
'Tis cold, ah! can it be
That Death has set his signet there,
And hurried spirit now is free?
Her lips are dumb I hear no more,
Fond words of love and praise;
Can she be chanting now in heaven
Its anthem, hymns and lays?

We miss the at home, yes, we miss thee,
He's lonely and weary without thee,
Thy presence so gentle and lovely,
So kind—so pleasant and free;
He does miss thee at the table,
At morn, at noon and at night;
But, oh, heaven blesses the bitter
Than earthly treasures ever can be. M.

ACROSS THE SIERRA NEVADAS.

THE

CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD,

THE WESTERN HALF OF THE

Great National Trunk Line Across the Continet,

Being constructed with the AID AND SUPERVISION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, is destined to be one of the MOST IMPORTANT LINES OF COMMUNICATION IN THE WORLD, as it is the sole link between the Pacific Coast and the Great Interior Basin, over which the immense overland travel must pass, and the Principal Portion of the Main Stem Line between the Two Oceans.

Its line extends from Sacramento, on the tidal waters of the Pacific, eastward across the richest and most populous parts of California, Nevada and Utah, contiguous to all the great Mining Regions of the far West, and will meet and connect with the roads now building east of the Rocky Mountains. About 100 miles are now built, equipped and in running operation to the summit of the Sierra Nevada. Within a few days 35 miles, now graded, will be added, and the track carried entirely across the mountains to a point in the Great Salt Lake Valley, whence further progress will be easy and rapid. Iron, materials and equipment are ready at hand for 300 miles of road, and 10,000 men are employed in the construction.

The local business upon the completed portion surpasses all previous estimate. The figures for the quarter ending August 31, are as follows, in GOLD:

Gross Earnings,	Operating Expenses,	Net Earnings
$487,579 64.	$86,548 47.	$401,031 17.

or at the rate of two millions per annum, of which more than three-fourths are net profit on less than 100 miles worked. This is upon the actual, legitimate traffic of the road, with its terminus in the mountains, and with only the normal ratio of government transportation, and is exclusive of the materials carried for the further extension of the road.

The Company's interest liabilities during the same period were less than $125,000.

Add to this an ever-expanding through traffic, and the proportions of the future business become immense.

The Company are authorized to continue their line eastward until it shall meet and connect with the roads now building east of the Rocky Mountain ranges. Assuming that they will build and control half the entire distance between San Francisco and the Missouri River, as now seems probable, the United States will have invested in the completion of 865 miles $28,592,000, or at the average rate of $35,000 per mile—not including an absolute grant of 10,000,000 acres of the public lands. By becoming a joint investor in the magnificent enterprise, and by waiving its first lien in favor of the First Mortgage Bondholders, THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT, IN EFFECT, INVITES THE CO-OPERATION OF PRIVATE CAPITALISTS, and has carefully guarded their interests against all ordinary contingencies.

The Company offer for sale, through us, their

First Mortgage Thirty Year, Six per Cent. Coupon Bonds,

Principal and Interest payable in Gold Coin, in New York city. They are in sums of $1,000 each, with semi-annual gold coupons attached, and are selling for the present at 95 per cent. and accrued interest from July 1st added, in currency, at which rate they yield nearly Nine per Cent. upon the Investment.

These bonds, authorized by Act of Congress, are issued only as the work progresses, and to the same amount only as the Bands granted by the Government; and represent, in all cases, the first lien upon a completed, equipped and productive railroad, in which have been invested Government subsidies, stock subscriptions, donations, surplus earnings, etc., and which is worth more than three times the amount of First Mortgage Bonds which can be issued upon it.

The Central Pacific First Mortgage Bonds have all the assurances, sanctions and guarantee of the Pacific Railroad Act of Congress, and have in addition several noticeable advantages over all other classes of railroad bonds.

First—They are the superior claim upon altogether the most vital and valuable portion of the through line.
Second—Beside the fullest benefit of the Government subsidy (which is a subordinate lien), the road receives the benefit of large donations from California.
Third—Fully half the cost of grading 800 miles eastward of San Francisco is concentrated upon the 150 miles now about completed.
Fourth—A local business already yielding three-fold the annual interest liabilities, with advantageous rates payable in coin.
Fifth—The principal as well as the interest of its Bonds being payable in coin, upon a legally binding agreement.

Having carefully investigated the resources and prospects of the road, and the management of the Company's affairs, we cordially recommend these Bonds to Trustees, Executors, Institutions, and others as an eminently sound, reliable and remunerative form of permanent investment.
