Judgment.
Mrs. M. A. Garter, District
vs. Court, Rap-
John McCurley, her ides Parish-husband. No. 87.

In this case the plaintiff having established her claims against her husband, the defendant, by competent evidence, and the law and evidence being in her favor, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed that she be separated in property from her said husband, and that she be permitted hereafter to administer her paraphernal property free from the interference and control of her said husband. It is further ordered and adjudged, that she recover from her said husband the sum of three hundred and thirty three and one half dollars with legal interest thereon from judicial demand that to secure the payment of said sum and interest she have a legal mortgage on all the real estate of her said husband, to have effect from the first day of July in the year 1851.
It is further ordered, that the defendant pay the costs of this suit to be taxed.

Judgment.
Sarah C. Wright, No. 82—
vs. District Court,
Her Husband, Rapides Par-Leroy A. Stafford's ish, October Succession. term, 1865.

In this cause by reason of the law and the evidence, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the plaintiff, Sarah Catherine Wright, widow of Leroy A. Stafford, do have and recover of the succession of her late husband, the sum of eighteen thousand dollars, with five per cent. interest from the rendition of this judgment.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the plaintiff resume the administration and control of her separate property, and that she be separated in property and estate from the succession of her late husband, that her tacit and legal mortgage be recognized and enforced against the immovable property of the succession of her late husband, dating from their marriage, and that plaintiff's privilege on the moveables be recognized and allowed to the full satisfaction of her rights under this judgment, and that she have and recover her costs in this suit to be taxed.

Cruikshank 1865.

In this case by reason of the law and the evidence being in favor of the plaintiff, Martha E. Texada, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that said plaintiff do have and recover of the defendant, her husband, Robert Cruikshank, the sum of twenty one thousand and six hundred dollars, with legal interest from date hereof.
For the reasons aforesaid it is further ordered, and decreed, that plaintiff's tacit mortgage for eleven thousand dollars be and is hereby recognized to take effect from January 1st 1865, on the immovable property belonging to defendant, and it is further ordered for the reasons aforesaid that plaintiff's tacit mortgage be and the same is hereby recognized on all the immovable property of said defendant. For further the sum of nine thousand six hundred dollars, to take effect from January 1st 1862, and that the community of acquets and gains existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same is hereby dissolved; and that she resume the administration of her paraphernal prop-
