For the Spirit of the Age.

AN EVENING IN SUMMER.

TO ELLA.

The sun is down, dark grow the glades,
The stars are gathering in the deep
And o'er the earth night's mighty shades
Are stealing like a dream in sleep.
The cool winds wandering through the sky,
Stoop from their paths as day declines,
And nestle, with a shivering cry,
And weary wing, among the pines.

The twilight fades and all the earth
The night with solemn gladness fills,
The moon, as fair as at her birth,
Where heaven is wedded to the hills,
Through fleecy clouds around her flung,
Wheels up beside the same, sweet star,
That, with her, when the sky was young,
Looked over Eden from afar;

And small, white clouds, like tufts of down,
Blown o'er the bosom of the deep,
Are wandering round the mountain brown,
As sweet thoughts wander, when we sleep;
While faintly, in the west afar,
Is lingering still the day's last light,
Around those kingly hills that bar
The circled heavens from the sight.

The cool winds sweep the dark blue lake,
The wild brook to its sweet self sings,
And the quick night bird now awake,
Brushes the wave with glancing wings.
Sweet hope with fair and gentle smiles,
Looks in the sick man's face and tells,
How fresh-lipped health, from fairy isles,
Is in the cool breeze as it swells.

Oh would that THOU wert here to gaze
With me, upon this evening sky,
To hear the Summer wind that plays
Among the tree-tops, green and high—
Stirring the myriad leaves, until
Their rising murmur swells along
With all lifes' utterances, that fill
The world with a perpetual song.

With thee beside me, oh! more pure
Would be the prayer I send on high,
And, I should learn, the world t' endure,
More meekly from thy tender eye.
Thy love would teach me, what no book,
O'er which I've pined for years, hath taught—
Calmly on baffled hopes to look,
And bless the changes they have wrought.

☞ We understand that the Canadians are making preparations to celebrate the Battle of Fort Meigs. How is this? Are the Federalists on this side, and their Tory friends on the other side entering into competition in this matter, or do they intend to celebrate in concert, as the British Whigs and the British ships did in New-York?

How changed is Federalism since 1813, '14 and '15. Then they would not celebrate a real victory at home. Now they will go 300 miles to celebrate a disaster.—Buffalo Repub.

☞ The nominations for State Officers, so far as we had opportunity of learning, are generally well received by the democratic party. The prospect of electing it we by no means conceive to be discouraging. "Hard cider" is apt to make the head ache in hot weather. All the arts of federal humbug whiggery will fail to persuade sensible people to swig much of it for the next three months.

Patriot.

WONDERFUL CHANGES.

No doubt you have heard of the wonderful changes in Bloom in favor of Harrison, in proof of this, I give you the following, at Mr Spangler's barn raising on the west side of Bloom township, Fairfield county, on the 20th inst., at which there were forty persons and not one whig.

This I give you to let you know
How the people in Bloom will go;
And when they come to the polls to vote,
They'll leave at home Granny and his petticoat.

FARMER TRUE BLUE.

Mr Medary, published the above, and oblige a friend.

SPRING CREEK MIAMI CO.,
May 8th 1840.

Messrs. S. & M. H. Medary:

The Democratic cause in our township is on the advance. We carried our Spring elections by an increased Democratic majority over last fall of 19—our majority last fall being 28, this spring 47.—If there are any changes they are in our favor.—I was at a log-rolling about two weeks since, where, of 31 hands present, there was but one single Whig, and he a minor. I have never seen, in 30 years' personal observation, less wavering in the Democratic ranks, or more determined firmness exhibited in sustaining our glorious principles, than at the present time. AN OLD DEMOCRAT.—Chicago Dem.

"ALL THE DECENCY."—A party of British Whigs assembled, we understand, at the Point House, Hoboken, yesterday (Sunday) afternoon, and after raising a petticoat or some other kind of Harrison banner, and partaking of more than a proper quantity, perhaps, of "hard cider," proceeded to make the air ring by chanting Tippecanoe songs. Mr Webster declared there were no Sundays in revolutionary times, and we think the followers of his party are truly carrying the idea out. What are we coming to?—New Era.

The steamboat New England brought about fifty single ladies, destined for the Rock River market. Pull up your dickies boys!—Chicago (Ill) Democrat.

BANK SWINDLING.

The following paragraph gives another fine specimen of the beauties of that banking system which the federal party so enthusiastically extol:

BRANDON BANK.—G. T. T.—The Vicksburgh Sentinel says that Wm. H. Shelton, President of the Brandon Bank, and Samuel M. Puckett and Richard Hobson, directors of that institution, have left Mississippi for Texas.—They took with them 300 negroes. Shelton armed fifty of his negroes, and procured ten armed white men, to enable them to force their way out of the State. The others withdrew in the night. The marshall went in pursuit, but could not overtake them.

MILITARY.—"Feller ossifers and gentlemen rogers" said a Connecticut Jonathan who had just been appointed to the honorable station of corporal in a company of militia invincibles—"I'm tarnally obliged to yo, by gosley, for 'pointing me korperal, for I'll be darn'd to damnation if I can't cut out Jo Hawky now, and git Poll Higgins in spite of broomsticks and punkins."

MARRIED.

At West Fairlee, on the 18th ult., by Rev. J. Perrin Alfred Neal Esq. of Hartford Vt., to Miss Clarissa Fish, of the former place.

In Windsor, on the first inst., by Rev. E. Hutchinson Mr Ezra Stoddard, to Miss Mary Hendrick, both of Hartland.

DIED.

In Bridgewater, on the 19th ult., Mrs. Louis, wife of Seth Fletcher, aged 40.

In Hartland, very suddenly, on the 17th ult., Mr Elisha Clarke, aged 59.

THE
A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF NEW AND POPULAR TALES,
Poetry and Engravings.

The characteristic feature of this work is signified and portrayed in its title. The monthly wreath which we intend offering to our readers, shall be literally composed "Evergreens." Our design is to collect into a shape at once neat and suitable for preservation, the best and most interesting specimens of the periodical and fugitive literature of the day; to carefully separate the chaff from the wheat, the dross from the pure gold, and to present a composition which, like good wine, shall be heightened in value by age, and be, in the language of our motto "Perennial and Fragrant."

Of course it will not require a proper exercise of taste to render a magazine founded on this plan the richest depository of elegant and entertaining literature ever published, and this we sincerely hope of THE EVERGREEN shall be; for we are quite sure that we have the materials to render it so. We can boast of a more brilliant list of contributors than any contemporaneous periodical, as may be seen by glancing at the contents of our present number. Indeed there is no author, deservedly known to fame in these or any former times, to whose productions we do not have access. We shall always also, however, at presenting what is now and comparatively long and to the readers of this country; believing at the same time, that an old and familiar piece so it be excellent in itself, is far preferable to an original article having no claim upon the attention of persons of refined literary taste.

A great portion of the talent of the age, both in this country and Great Britain, has been exercised in the periodical department of literature. We need but mention the names of Campbell, Wilson, Bulwer, Washington Irving, Jeffrey, Lockhart, Knowles, Moore, Marryat, Ainsworth, Miss Mitford, Fenel, Mrs. Hemans, T. K. Hervey, Barry Cornwall, Thomas Hood, Poole, Peake, Leigh Hunt, and hundreds of other distinguished and agreeable writers to prove this fact. These and many others of eminence have given a brilliancy to the magazine literature of the last ten years; and such of the productions of these as may be new and unreflected, shall find a 'local habitation' in the Evergreen.

Our work will be embellished with engravings on wood or on steel, and each number will contain 32 pages neatly printed.

TO THE BALD HEADED
AND OTHERS.

Does any know a neighbor or a friend who has been Bald, and whose head is now covered with fine hair?—One whose coat collar was covered with dandruff, though brushed every hour—which has now vanished entirely? Or one whose hair at early age were turning grey, who now has not a grey hair? Children whose heads were covered with scurf,—whose hair would not grow, that are now growing the fullest crops of hair? Some cases must be known to most persons. Ask them the cause, and you will be told these things have been by the use of the BALM OF COLUMBIA. Of 20 years growth is this article, its demand increasing annually some hundred per cent.—though when discovered not opposed by any thing for the same purpose, now assailed by almost numberless mushroom trash preparations that will ruin the hair if used to any extent. Can more than these facts be wanted—refer to the recommendations by a list of names of respectability, unequaled by any other article. Look to these things—by this article Stay and preserve your hair by its use, or if bald restore it. Ladies, attend to this—hundreds in fashionable life are using it as the only article really fit for the toilet. Long hair is very apt to fall out. Ladies, use the Balm of Columbia in time to save yourselves the disgrace of baldness by neglect of your persons.

It is your duty, as a moralist, to preserve the beauties of nature, with which a bountiful Creator has endowed you—use the Balm, for it will do it.

CAUTION
TO BE REMEMBERED.

Several most flagrant attempts have been made to counterfeit the true Balm of Columbia. Some of the impostors have gone so far as to counterfeit the splendid wrappers, and the Falls of Niagara, and every external mark except the name of Comstock, which they dare not forge.

To avoid impositions therefore, always look for the name of Comstock & Co. or L. S. Comstock, and never buy the article unless it has that name upon it.

Sold Wholesale and Retail, only at No. 2 Fletcher street N. Y.

From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10.

☞ We see by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Comstock & Co., the American Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have depatics to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere—We know a lady of this city whose hair was so nearly gone as to expose entirely her phrenological developements, which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mourned the loss of locks that she had worn, and, after a year's fruitless resort to miscalled restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not puffing—none of the commodity has been sent to us, and, indeed, we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, through its virtue, hair enough, and of a passable quality, of our own.

DARING FRAUD.

The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Look never the purchased or unless it have the name of L. S. COMSTOCK, or the signature of COMSTOCK & Co. on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from a deception.

CAUTION CIRCULAR.

☞ TO DRUGGISTS AND COUNTRY MERCHANTS Those valuable articles, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA for the Hair, and HAY'S LINIMENT for the Piles, &c., have been extensively counterfeited. Those wanting these preparations, will please always write, when ordering from any other house for Comstock's articles.—The true articles have that name or signature always on the wrapper, and venders will remember that, when ordering, as the imitations are so exposed in nearly all the newspapers throughout this country, that they could not be sold, should they be so unfortunate as to get them.

Our friends throughout the Union are requested to give us immediate notice, by letter should any of the counterfeits appear in their respective places. Respectfully,

DR. SPOHN'S
SICK HEADACHE REMEDY

For the permanent cure of this distressing, complaint never fails. When perserved in, it effectually renovates the system, and cures away the cause of the SICK & NERVOUS HEADACHE. Thousands have tried it, and testimonies of the relief which the article promises to bestow, certificates of the strongest kind, and from the most respectable persons, are in possession of the proprietor, some of which have been published, testifying to the permanent cure, and others to immediate relief given by the remedy. It allows relief to the suffered in 15 or 20 minutes from the first dose. If taken when the symptoms of an attack are first felt, it prevents the further progress of the complaint, and can produce no danger at any time by an excessive dose; as in such a case it would only throw off the contents of the stomach, leaving it sweet and healthy with an excellent appetite. All afflicted with headache should not fail to procure the article, and relieve themselves from so distressing a complaint.

Physicians have in many instances given it to their patients, and in every instance, to our knowledge, with great satisfaction have found it a certain cure. Sick and Nervous Headache is a complaint with which physicians do not wish to have any thing to do, and generally prescribe only for temporary relief; consequently, Dr. Spohn's Sick Headache Remedy escapes the opposition which some other proprietary articles meet from that source.

Try it once and you never will regret it. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and contains no mineral, or poisonous drug of any kind, and does not require any change of diet or exercise.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher-street N. Y., and by the principal Druggists in the Union.

JUDGE PATTERSON.

Read the following from a Judge Patterson for thirty years the first Judge in the County in which he lives.

Bolthelmer, N. J. March 12, 1840.

Messrs. comstock & Co.

Gentlemen—You are at liberty to make such use of the following certificates as you deem will best subserve the purposes for which it is intended.

[CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE PATTERSON.]

I HEREBY CERTIFY that my daughter has been afflicted with sick head ache for the space of about 20 years,—the attacks occurring once in about two weeks, frequently lasting 24 hours, during which time the paroxysms have been so severe, as apparently soon to deprive her of life.—And after having tried almost all other remedies in vain, I have been induced as a last resort to try Spohn's Headache Remedy as sold by you; and to the great disappointment and joy of herself and all her friends found very material relief from the first dose of the medicine. She has followed up the directions with the article, and in every case when an attack has threatened has found immediate relief, until she is now permanently cured. The attacks are now very seldom, and disappear almost immediately after taking the quantity directed. A hope that others may be benefitted by the use of this truly invaluable medicine, has induced me to send you the above, and remain your obedient servant.

JERU PATTERSON.

ASK, INQUIRE—ASK THOSE WHO KNOW.

Those only who know by trial or immediate observation can form any idea of the effects of the perfect relief of the almost charm-like cures effected in cases of the CHRONIC RHEUMATISM ALL SWELLINGS, AND ALL EXTERNAL PAINS, no matter how severe, by the use of HAY'S Liniment Find one who has used it that will not hand it above all things ever used, and you will find—what cannot be found.

For the relief of suffering human beings who may be afflicted, I beg you to ask—ask of those who know—ask the Hon. ALFRED CONKLING, U. S. Judge for that district, residing near Auburn; ask MATTHEW J. MYRER, Esq., Athens, N. Y.; ask Gen. DUFF GREEN, late of Washington city each of those gentlemen know of cases unconquerable by all other remedies or physicians, though tried for many years, that have been cured by use of the genuine HAY'S LINIMENT. Thousands of other persons known similar cures. We appeal to their sense of justice—their kindness to fellow beings.

It is but a duty you owe to your suffering fellow beings to let this great remedy be known. Speak it then to all your friends. This will save much pain where the newspapers are not read, or where readers are incredulous, because so many worthless articles are advertised for the same purpose. To buyers we say, if all who have used it do not say it is beyond all praise, then do not take it.—The proprietor will not allow this article to be paid for unless it cures, when all the directions are duly followed. Will any one suffering refuse now to try it? if he does, he ought to be pitied more for his obstinacy than his suffering.

Mr Hays would never consent to offer this article were he not compelled by his sense of moral—of religious duty—so do all in his power for victims of distress and misery. For this purpose he would sooner devote a fortune, than secure a dollar for any worthless article.

LOOK OUT.—Some swindlers have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of COMSTOCK & Co.; this name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it.—Take this direction with you, and test by that, or never buy: for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine. SOLOMON HAYS.

Sold by COMSTOCK & CO. 2 Fletcher-street, N. Y.

LOOK OUT!!

"Caution" is the Parent of Safety.

An attack of the 'PILES' may be positively prevented by using (when the premonitory symptoms are felt) the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT. There are more than one hundred people in this city, and in the United States an immense number, who have suffered beyond endurance by this dreadful complaint, who keep themselves wholly free from attacks by applying this Liniment when they feel the symptoms of its approach; or this there is most perfect proof.

☞ None Genuine without the name of Comstock & Co., written on the wrappers. SOLOMON HAYS.

THOMSONIAN INFIRMARY,
—AND—
INSANE HOSPITAL.
EAST RANDOLPH, VT.
DR. J. SMITH,

TENDERS his grateful acknowledgements to his friends and the enlightened public, for the liberal patronage bestowed on his establishment for more than three years past, and which he is happy to say, has more than doubled every year, until it is admitted that he does double the business of any other physician in Randolph; and the sum of thousands for his medical services—have passed him $40 for his medical services—and himself and the rest of the regulars only from $10 to $20 each.—This shows the estimate which is placed upon the skill and practice of Dr Smith in his own town—even by those whose interest it is to oppose him.

He desires most respectfully to inform invalids of every description, that now is the spring of the year, is the time for them to resort to the Thomsonian system of medicine for relief; and he is ready to receive them, and give them the best of medicine, medical attendance, and nursing—with board and washing, at his Infirmary.

He continues to have patients from all the region round about, and to apply the safe and expectorant remedies on the concocted Thomson, according to their situation and circumstances.

Many have been cured—others greatly relieved, after having tried the whole round of the regular family and found it worse than useless.

Many ladies have been relieved of various female complaints, and many more are under a course of treatment and will soon regain their usual health—though they have employed other physicians in vain. Some of the worst forms of insanity have been cured and others greatly relieved and for the encouragement of the friends of this most unfortunate class of invalids, the Dr. begs leave to state that, from long experience with cases of this kind, he is of opinion that nine out of ten may be successfully cured by a timely and judicious application of the Thomsonian Medicine, as any other. Among those who have been cured, are the following viz.—Mr. C. of East Bethel VT, after having been given over by his physicians about three years ago, has been well and rational ever since. Miss B. Dymouth, Mass.—given over by her physician made entirely rational, by 3 courses of medicine. Mrs. E. of Woodstock; Mrs C. Dymouth, Vt. Mr. W. of Williamston, Mr. Ira of Plymouth Mr. G. of Thetford.

Those who are troubled with any of the following complaints—such as Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Rheumatism, Gravel, Colic, Fever, Ague and Fever, Dropsy, Scrofula, Old sores, all kinds of humors, general debility, weakness, &c. &c., will do well to make a fair trial of the Thomsonian medicine, before it is too late; and if they call here, they shall be attended to faithfully.

☞ A general assortment of books and medicine on hand constantly, as agent for Dr. Thompson.

☞ Charges, will always be reasonable.

☞ Patients, to visit patients at a distance, will be attending per mile.

☞ Advice gratis.

PROSPECTUS
THE CITIZEN SOLDIER;
A MILITARY PAPER TO BE PUBLISHED AT Norwich, Vt.

Circumstances not only of vast importance in themselves, but of the most vital consequence to individuals and to the nation in their results, have evidently combined to render indispensable the addition of a new Journal to the social dissemination Press of American Freemen.

It is a matter of deep regret that while the feelings of every sect and party, whether, moral, religious, political, scientific or literary have been excited, and their energies roused, to advance even to altruism, their favorite schemes and doctrines, and to defend and preserve unchanged and unmolested the civil institutions of our country,—the very corner stone on which the whole superstructure is built and on which all depend for their future existence, and permanency, has been forgotten, neglected, and suffered to dilapidate and moulder back to decay.

While the text book of our political existence, declares, that, it well regulated Militia is necessary for the security of a free State," and that "every State shall always keep up a well regulated, and disciplined Militia,"—and while history and observation have taught us the utter impropriety and danger of a standing army in a popular government, the conviction is fastened upon us, that the safety of our common Country, both against external invasion, and internal commotion, as also the enjoyment of those invaluable privileges, which our Revolutionary Sires have bestowed upon their posterity, must depend alone upon her citizen-soldiery.

With these views the stranger would look with astonishment upon the least neglect, or slight or indifference of our citizens toward the institution on which all our hopes and rights depend, without supposing it possible that Unions, many of those, who were enjoying its protection over their persons or property, could be secretly plotting to weaken or amputate this right arm of our common defence. But so it is, and the numbers, are not few, who anti secretly and publicly put forth their utmost exertions, overrule, disgrace, and render inefficient the Militia, of our own country. The spirit is poured forth, from our seminaries of Learning from the Pulpit and the Bar, and at without effect, the excrescences have been fastened upon the system, which have well nigh caused its dissolution.

In order the where to resuscitate and invigorate the constitutional defence of our country, to render effective our citizen-soldiery, to elevate, and encourage the Militia of our own State, of each state, and of the whole nation,—we propose to publish "The Citizen Soldier." This is our apology. In this fellow soldiers we believe we have a common interest, we will make the effort, and if you sustain us, it will be successful.

THE CITIZEN SOLDIER will be published weekly at Norwich Vermont, on a fine large Royal Sheet, and will be devoted to the interests of the Militia. It will contain a synopsis of the Militia laws of the several States, the monthly statements of the resignations, discharges promotions, elections, and dates of commissions in the different units so far as they may be furnished us by the proper officers. Notices, Resolutions, and Reports of Military Conventions, Military Biography & History, Revolutionary History of Anecdotes,—History of ancient and Modern campaigns, Military Science, Literary and Scientific matter, Foreign and Domestic Intelligence. In relation to party politics the Soldier will be strictly neutral, but every candidate of whatever party will be supported or opposed, precisely as he shall support or oppose the Militia, and this course will be rigidly adhered to without fear or favor, reserving ourselves the right to make such comment, or remarks upon the conduct or measures of any party, as to us they may appear to deserve. As a general rule, few, if any active Democratic save those of a military character will be admitted into our columns.

CONDITIONS.

Two Dollars per Annum payable on the reception of the first regular number. Military Corps Subscribing for 20 copies to be sent in one bundle will receive the paper for $1,50 in advance. The first No. will be issued as soon as possible. ☞ Those holding Subscriptions will please return the names of Subscribers as fast as obtained.

THE SPIRIT OF THE AGE.
BY C. G. EASTMAN.

THERE never has been a time in the annals of the State, when an enthusiastic and energetic action of the democratic party promised results so flattering as the present.—The marked favorable change in public sentiment since the almost unanimous approval, by the people of the Independent Treasury plan, and, especially, since the nomination, for the presidency, of a man deemed by the intelligent and honest portion of the "whig" party wholly unfit for the office,—the unconcealed disapprobation with which a large portion of the present dominant party view the corruption and illiberality of the present state dynasty,—and, above all, the undisguised determination of the YOUNG MEN to tear away from the vitals of the State an aristocracy enervated by age, corrup
