ELECTION.—The voters of Dubois will bear in mind that Monday next is the day on which the Spring elections ae held. We trust that the officers elected on that occasion to fill the various places of trust in the respective townships of our county, will, by their entire competency to discharge faithfully the duties of their offices, reflect credit both on themselves and their constituents.

AND STILL THEY COME.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. F. Mader has opened a Boot and Shoe store, in the large brick on the corner of Main and Lawrence streets, where he has a well selected stock of goods in that line, and of the latest styles. Mr. Mader, being an excellent workman himself, is very competent to lay in a first rate stock of boots and shoes, and persons purchasing of him may feel confident of getting just what they bargain for.—This is the second new store that has opened in Jasper this Spring, thus giving a sure indication of prosperity, enterprise and advancement in our thriving little city.

[illegible] ing were a portion of the pro- [illegible] s in the U. S. Senate on the passage [illegible] the Kansas bill through that body:

Mr. Crittenden moved a substitute for the [illegible] l, in substance, that the constitution formed by the Lecompton Convention be submitted to the people of Kansas now; that if it be approved of, the President shall admit Kansas by proclamation; if it be rejected, the people of the Territory shall call a convention to frame a new substitute. The substitute makes a special provision against the occurence of frauds. Several Senators here took occasion to explain their votes. Mr. Kennedy, of Maryland, as a conservative middleman, would support Mr. Crittenden's substitute, reserving the right afterward to vote for the original bill. Mr. Houston would vote for the original bill, in obedience to the resolutions passed by the Legislature of his State. Mr. Pugh reluctantly voted against it for the same reason. Mr. Iverson of Georgia, defined his position. Mr. Green accepted the suggestion of another verbal alteration. Mr. Crittenden's substitute was then put and lost—yeas 24; nays 34. The bill, as amended, to admit Kansas into the Union with the Lecompton Constitution, was then put and passed—yeas 33; nays 25. Yeas—Messrs. Allen, Bayard, Benjamin, Biggs, Bigler, Bright, Brown, Clay, Evans, Fitch, Fitzpatrick, Hunter Iverson, Jones, Johnson of Arkansas, Johnson of Tennessee, Kennedy of Maryland, Mallory, Mason, Pearce, Polk, Sebastian, Slidell, Thompson of Kentucky, Thompson of New Jersey, Toombs, Wright and Yulee—33. Nays—Messrs. Bell, Broderick Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Crittenden, Dixon, Doolittle, Douglas, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Hale, Hamlin, Harlan, King, Pugh, Seward, Simmons, Stuart, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade and Wilson—25. Absentees—Messrs. Bates and Davis. Mr. Reid, of North Carolina, paired off with Mr Cameron, of Pennsylvania. The announcement of the result was received with applause and hisses. The Senate then adjourned.

WASHINGTON, March 29.

A caucus of the Democratic members of the House was held last night, and it was fully attended by both Lecomptonites and anti-Lecomptonites. A committee of twenty, composed of ten of each side, were ordered to be appointed, to report at an adjourned caucus on Wednesday night next the best mode and manner of admitting Kansas into the Union under the Lecompton Constitution.

The following is the committee appointed: Messrs. English, Keitt, Groesbeck, Stephens, Sandridge, Owen, Jones, Craig, Cockrill, Demart, Tentman, Foley, J. Glancy, Jones, Pendleton, Houston, Clark, (of New York) Bocock, Hall, (of Ohio) Stevenson, McKibben and Corning.

NEW YORK, March 30.

The Times' Washington correspondent says every member of the caucus committee was present at the meeting yesterday. Mr. English, of Indiana, led off on the anti-Lecompton side, but would not make a formal proposition until certain concessions were granted. The Lecomptonites would concede nothing, and the committee adjourned, after a conference of over two hours, without an agreement.

There was a caucus of 22 anti Lecompton democrats to day. They resolved to stand firm by Crittenden's amendments, and all the Republicans have accepted Crittenden's amendments. The opposition still count one hundred and twenty votes.

FOR YOUR
Wife, Daughter, Sister or Friend.
Arthur's Home Magazine.

Edited by T. S. ARTHUR and VIRGINIA F. TOWNSEND. For choice and elegant literature, high moral tone, peculiar adaptation to the home circles of our land, freshness, originality and cheapness, this Magazine is acknowledged, on all hands, to be without a rival. It is equal in the beauty of its typography and the richness of its embellishments to the most ambitious and dearest of our Magazines, while it claims to lead all of them in many essential features. For correctness and exquisite beauty, its colored steel fashion plates were unrivalled in 1857. They will maintain this superiority in 1858. Volume XI began in January.

TERMS—$2 a year in advance Four copies for $5; twelve copies for $15, and one extra to the getter up of the club.

☞ Specimens sent free to all who wish to subscribe or to make up clubs. Address T. S. Arthur & Co., 103, Walnut street, Philadelphia.

JENKINS & CO.,
WHOLESALE DEALERS
IN TEAS ONLY,
PHILADELPHIA.

THE new crop of Tea is now arriving, and selling much below the high rates of the past year; the present therefore opens with the pleasing prospect of our again being able to furnish as good an article for the price, as formerly. We also take pleasure in announcing that we have concluded to extend the time on small bills, heretofore sold on two and three months, to three and four months credit.

Thousands of Grocers and general Store keepers now sell Teas in our Metallic Packages, and the number is constantly increasing, notwithstanding the strong prejudice that once existed against teas put up in this convenient form. This unexampled success is the legitimate result of a business uniformly done, for a long term of years upon just and fair principles, and especially with an eye to that wholesome one of "SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS."

Teas being a perishable article, dealers are recommended to order small and frequent bills.

Those who still prefer the old way, are furnished with teas in the original half-chests, at three cents per lb. less than in Metallic Packages.
