THE OFFICIAL BALLOTS—CONCLUDED.

Democratic Ticket.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—YES.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—NO.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—YES.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—NO.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—YES.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—NO.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—YES.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—NO.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—YES.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—NO.

For Representative in Congress:
MADISON R. SMITH.

For Representative:
C. H. POLK.

For Judge County Court—Southern District:
WM. STEVENSON.

For Judge County Court—Western District:
W. A. THOMPSON.

For Prosecuting Attorney:
CHARLES P. DAMRON.

For Sheriff:
JNO. I. MARSHALL.

For County Assessor:
J. W. LOVELACE.

For County Treasurer:
THOMAS JONES.

For County Surveyor:

For Public Administrator:

For Coroner:
DR. G. W. FARRAR.

For Justice of the Peace—Union Township:
SYLVESTER KITCHELL.

For Constable—Union Township:
A. L. DANIEL.

Republican Ticket.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—YES.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—NO.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—YES.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—NO.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—YES.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—NO.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—YES.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—NO.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—YES.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—NO.

For Representative in Congress:
POLITTE ELVINS.

For Representative:
ED. H. CALDWELL.

For Judge County Court—Southern District:
LOUIS L. SCHMIDT.

For Judge County Court—Western District:
JAMES C. PAULLUS.

For Prosecuting Attorney:
WM. H. TEMME.

For Sheriff:
GEORGE A. LEFF.

For County Assessor:
JOS. C. FORSHEE.

For County Treasurer:
WILLIAM KEATHLEY.

For County Surveyor:

For Public Administrator:

For Coroner:
FRED. F. FARR.

For Justice of the Peace.....
Township:

For Constable—Arcadia Township:
WM. WOOLEM.

Prohibition Ticket.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—YES.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—NO.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—YES.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—NO.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—YES.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—NO.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—YES.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—NO.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—YES.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—NO.

For Representative in Congress:

For Representative:

For Judge County Court—Southern District:

For Judge County Court—Western District:

For Prosecuting Attorney:

For Sheriff:

For County Assessor:

For County Treasurer:

For County Surveyor:

For Public Administrator:

For Coroner:

For Justice of the Peace.....
Township:

For Constable.....Township:

Socialist Ticket.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—YES.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—NO.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—YES.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—NO.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—YES.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—NO.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—YES.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—NO.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—YES.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—NO.

For Representative in Congress:

For Representative:

For Judge County Court—Southern District:

For Judge County Court—Western District:

For Prosecuting Attorney:

For Sheriff:

For County Assessor:

For County Treasurer:

For County Surveyor:

For Public Administrator:

For Coroner:

For Justice of the Peace.....
Township:

For Constable.....Township

Socialist Labor Ticket.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—YES.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—NO.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—YES.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—NO.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—YES.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—NO.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—YES.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—NO.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—YES.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—NO.

For Representative in Congress:

For Representative:

For Judge County Court—Southern District:

For Judge County Court—Western District:

For Prosecuting Attorney:

For Sheriff:

For County Assessor:

For County Treasurer:

For County Surveyor:

For Public Administrator:

For Coroner:

For Justice of the Peace.....
Township:

For Constable..... .....Township:

People's Party Ticket.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—YES.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—NO.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—YES.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—NO.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—YES.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—NO.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—YES.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—NO.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—YES.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—NO.

For Representative in Congress:

For Representative:

For Judge County Court—Southern District:

For Judge County Court—Western District:

For Prosecuting Attorney:

For Sheriff:

For County Assessor:

For County Treasurer:

For County Surveyor:

For Public Administrator:

For Coroner:

For Justice of the Peace.....
Township:

For Constable.....Township:

Independence Ticket.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—YES.

FOURTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Increasing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court from seven to nine; providing for the appointment of two judges by the Governor upon the adoption of this amendment, to hold office until January 1, 1911; creating a new division and fixing the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals to be the same as now provided for Judges of the St. Louis Court of Appeals.)—NO.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—YES.

FIFTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for the separation of the sources of State and local revenue; establishing local option for the counties and municipalities of the State in the selection of the subjects of taxation; authorizing them to subject to taxation, for local purposes, the real and personal property within their jurisdiction; discontinuing the general property tax upon real and personal property for State purposes.)—NO.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—YES.

SIXTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing that the indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred by any city containing not more than 30,000, nor less than 2,000 inhabitants, for the purchase or construction of water works, electric or other light plants, shall not be considered in determining the amount of indebtedness which may be incurred under the provisions of Section 12a of Article X of the Constitution of this State.)—NO.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—YES.

SEVENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Providing for a State tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation, said moneys to be apportioned in the several counties of the State as a permanent fund for public roads and highways.)—NO.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—YES.

EIGHTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—(Authorizing cities of 100,000 inhabitants or over to become indebted in excess of the amount provided in Section 12, Article X of the Constitution for the purpose of constructing or purchasing subways.)—NO.

For Representative in Congress:

For Representative:

For Judge County Court—Southern District:

For Judge County Court—Western District:

For Prosecuting Attorney:

For Sheriff:

For County Assessor:

For County Treasurer:

For County Surveyor:

For Public Administrator:

For Coroner:

For Justice of the Peace.....
Township:

For Constable.....Township:

STATE OF MISSOURI, } SS.
County of Iron.

I, JOSEPH A. REYBURN, Clerk of the County Court of Iron County, Missouri, in compliance with Section 7091, Revised Statutes of Missouri, hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true, full and complete list of nominations as fully as they have been certified to me by the Secretary of State, under Section 7090, and also those filed in my office, under Section 7087, Revised Statutes of Missouri.

[SEAL.] Witness, my hand and seal of said Court, in Ironton, Missouri, this 19th day of October, A. D. 1908.

JOSEPH A. REYBURN, CLERK.

The Ironton Meat Market

F. O. CODDING, Proprietor.

(SUCCESSOR TO JOHN NAGEL.)

Dealer in Choice Beef, Veal, Pork, Mutton, Lamb, Ham, Bacon, Corned Beef, Tongues, Lard, Etc.

Fish and Oysters Friday. 'Phone No. 20.

Cash Paid for Poultry And Hides

IF you are going to Build or Repair your House this Fall, go to the Arcadia Store Company for your

Shingles, Brick, Lime AND Cement

We can also sell you a CREAM SEPARATOR, Cheap. It will save your Wife Lots of Work.

IF YOU NEED SPECTACLES

—GO TO—

ADOLPH'S Jewelry Store, Ironton, Mo.

REPAIRING

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Etc., a Specialty.

SPECTACLES AND LENSES FITTED

WORK PROMPTLY DONE

at Reasonable Charges and Satisfaction Fully Guaranteed.

PROBATE DOCKET

Term Docket of the Probate Court of Iron County, Mo.—November Term, A. D. 1908.

Monday, November 9th.

Arthur Huff, administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Harriet H. Emerson, deceased.

Josephine Effinger, administratrix, with the will annexed, of the estate of Valentine Effinger, deceased.

John F. Logan, guardian and curator of person and estate of John F. C. Logan, insane.

Wm. Trauernicht, guardian and curator of the person and estate of John Myer, insane.

Tuesday, November 10th.

Elza Hale, curator of the estate of Jacob Spitzmiller, a minor.

Cordelia Jane Pinkley, guardian and curator of the person and estate of Archie O. Pinkley, a minor.

Mary Agnes Maddock, administratrix of the estate of John Patrick Maddock, deceased.

Wednesday, November 11th.

Matters continued from last term and allowances tried against estates.

E. L. BARNHOUSE,
Judge of Probate and ex-Officio Clerk.

For Sale.—Six room residence on Main street. Apply to John Nagel, Ironton, Mo.