AT THE THEATERS.

Kernan's—Managerial Benefit.

The friends of Eugene Kernan packed his house last night, upon the occasion of a benefit tendered to the veteran manager, who could not have been otherwise than flattered by so large a response. "The Broadway Girls Company," which is the attraction for the week volunteered its services for the occasion, and was well received. The company is a good one, and presents an attractive program. It is especially strong in its olio, in which appeared Williams and Hood, in a comedy sketch; Englehart and Rose, female athletes; Marie Richmond, Brooks and Brooks, in a lot of amusing seriocomic nonsense; the Darling Sisters, change artists; Ed. Chrissie; Harry and Dolly Carlos, comedians and acrobats, and Bennett and Rice, in illustrated songs. The volunteers outside of the company were Miss Susie West and Peter Barnes.

Columbia—"Held by the Enemy."

As previously announced, the excellent business done last week by the Columbia Stock Company warranted it in continuing Gillette's great war play, "Held by the Enemy," indefinitely. The house was well filled at last night's performance, and the excellent work of James O. Barrows, William Ingersoll, Edward Mackaye J. R. Furlong, Alexander Kearney, Maud Haslam, Margaret Mayo and Agnes Findlay was so continually applauded that it seems probable that the drama will hold the boards until next Monday night, "Brother John" being held over until then.

"Hula Girl" Postponed.

The production of "The Hula Girl," which was to have been made by Columbia students last night at the Lafayette Square Opera House, has been postponed until this evening. Lack of sufficient preparation was the reason assigned yesterday.

Parry Opera Company.

"The Mikado," as charmingly presented by the Parry Opera Company, remains the bill at Glen Echo all this week. Yesterday's performances were well attended, and there is now every prospect that the organization will achieve the success it so thoroughly deserves.

"Battle of Manila."

Yesterday was the ideal day for a patriotic festival, and a goodly crowd assembled shortly after nightfall at Baseball Park to witness Paine's much-advertised "Battle of Manila." While not quite up to expectations, the exhibition was deserving of much commendation, and won the greatest enthusiasm from those present. The spectacle included the showing of an illuminated sentence, "Remember the Maine," with an electric picture of Admiral Dewey, and a general display of fireworks. "The Battle" proper brought the entertainment to a close, and was appreciated to the full extent of its merits.

The game yesterday afternoon at National Park was all the most ardent advocate could desire, for it was replete with clever and sensational fielding, opportune hitting and excellent, all-around team work. SAMUEL FRIEDLANDER, Successor to
New York Clothing House,
Seventh "311" Seventh.

A young saleswoman in one of Brooklyn's large stores recently apologized to a lady for having kept her waiting so long, adding: "I am not fit for work to-day, can scarcely see because I have such a sick headache." In answer to the remark that headaches were an unfortunate ailment, she replied: "Yes, indeed, and I am so subject to them that just as sure as there is a special sale on, or any unusual commotion I am laid up, and they are a great misfortune, for I am dependent on my own exertions, and previous to coming here I lost a good position on account of them. They said I was too much of an absentee." In connection with the headaches this girl suffered much from what the doctor told her was acidity of the stomach. Some of her spells were more severe than others, but nothing helped her for more than a short time. The conversation above related led to this young woman's hearing of the wonderful efficacy of Ripans Tabules for such troubles as she suffered from. She sent out and bought some within the hour, and the good effect was found to be immediate. The rebellious condition of her stomach was corrected, and before she realized it her headache was gone. This young woman now keeps Ripans Tabules with her at the store, and takes two every night. She says they dispel her old troubles, and cause them to vanish like the dew before the rising sun. Through her influence, other girls in the store who had suffered from headaches learned what the Tabules could do for them, and now there are four who resort to them just as soon as they feel the miserable and discouraging symptoms approaching.

A new style packet containing two RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (60 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.
