CURRENT EVENTS IN ALEXANDRIA

Attempt to Burn a Private Residence.

Circuit Court Decisions — Washington Pastor Officiates in Virginia Pulpit.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., March 5.—Some unknown persons, on Monday night, attempted to burn the residence occupied by Mr. George H. Hayden and his family, 507 North Columbus Street, by raising the front window and throwing a bundle of lighted paper into the room. The occupants of the house were aroused from their slumbers by the dense smoke which filled the house.

The police station was notified by telephone of the attempt to fire the residence, but by the time the officers arrived no trace of the would-be incendiaries could be found.

It is reported that Mr. Hayden has incurred the animosity of some one, and he has recently received anonymous threatening letters.

The Circuit Court of Alexandria County, with Judge C. E. Nicol presiding, was in session yesterday. The following business was disposed of: Syphax vs. Syphax, decree for partition of land and confirming report of commissioners; Helmbuch vs. Lloyd, decree for sale; Gings vs. Goings, offer of Dr. Slaughter of $400 for three and one-half acres of land accepted by the court.

In the corporation court yesterday, Judge Norton granted a charter to the Cheesman Chemical Company, the objects of which are to manufacture, buy, and sell pyrites, acid phosphate, fertilizers, and other chemicals. The sum of $50,000 is named as the capital stock.

The following are named as officers: Park Agnew, president; A. H. Agnew, vice president; W. B. Harlow, secretary and treasurer, and Lewis Cheesman, superintendent and chemist. These officers, with J. A. Eggborn, constitute the board of directors.

The directors of the Alexandria Water Company held a meeting Monday night and elected Mr. W. F. Lambert a director, and Mr. Walter Roberts was elected president of the company to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the former president, Benoni Wheat.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to draft resolutions suitable to the memory of Mr. Wheat submitted their report, which was unanimously adopted.

Rev. Father Edward Buckey, assistant rector of St. Matthews' Catholic Church, Washington, last night preached an able discourse at St. Mary's Catholic Church here before a large congregation. His subject was "The Divinity of Christ as Proved by His Miracles."

The Alexandria Light Infantry held a meeting Monday night and elected Lieut. T. B. Cochran treasurer and Corp. Samuel T. Pitts secretary of the company, in place of Corp. Allen Rodgers, whose business engagements prevent his further attending to the business of the company.

The stockholders of the Virginia Title Company held a meeting Monday night and adopted a resolution calling for a general meeting of the stockholders to be held April 7 next.

Rev. Thomas G. Smyth, of St. Stephen's Catholic Church, Washington, will deliver a lecture in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall tonight. His subject will be "Character Building."
