CITY NEWS.

—The picnic season is upon us.

—This will be a big day at the race track.

—The boss plasterers will meet this evening.

—The Evil Genius, by Wilkie Collins price 20 cents, now for sale at Mansford's.

—Edward Goldsmith was yesterday appointed guardian of Henrietta and Nannie Vosse.

—If there are any pickpockets in the city this week they are keeping remarkably quiet.

—A marriage license was issued yesterday, to Chas. Williams and Miss Letha Franklin, colored.

—Loveless, the ex-policeman, was sent to jail on a State's warrant from the Police Court yesterday.

—About $5 damage was done by fire to the stable of Martin Kelly, 213 Desoto street, yesterday at noon.

—No admission will be charged for the lecture by Mrs. Carr at the Strangers' Church this evening.

—The will of Mrs. Mary Hope was admitted to probate yesterday, and Mr. John Peters was appointed administrator cum testamento annexo.

—A white infant, prematurely born, was found wrapped in a towel in the bayou near Washington street yesterday. An inquest was held by Justice But'enburg —Mrs. Sallie Houston Carr woman's part in temperance work. Fine elocutionary exercises and music. To-night at 8 o'clock at Strangers' church. Admission 25 cents.

—A crowd of several hundred people gathered on the corner of Main and Linden streets at 1 o'clock yesterday, when a small darky, who had been fighting a few moments before, fell in an epeleptic fit.

Columbus, O., May 5.—Warrants for the arrest of the absent Democratic Senators are being issued to-night, and the deputy sergeant-at-arms will make an effort to serve them to-morrow. The warrants are made returnable immediately.

—The gnats were unusually bad yesterday. The air was close and they fairly swarmed. Stock was nearly frantic. Cows and horses suffered alike. Gnat oil seemed to afford very little relief, and considerate hackmen made smokes under their horses when they had to stand for any length of time.

—The coming Mardi Gras promises to be the most gorgeous of the many grand affairs the Germans of Memphis have ever handled. The arrangements for it have all been made on a gorgeous scale. The various committees are determined to leave nothing undone to make it a pronounced success, and it is safe to say their efforts will not be in vain.

—Treasurer Green's benefit, which was to have taken place last night, was postponed until next week on account of the storm. The theater, and the ladies and gentlemen who were to have taken part, were all in readiness, but so many had purchased tickets who could not be expected to attend, that the affair was advisably put off. Notice of date will be given.

—Mr. Tamura, the Japanese Presbyterian clergyman, now a guest of Mrs. Church on Shelby street, will speak to the ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church at 4 o'clock this evening, and to the public in the church at 8 o'clock to-night. Subject: "Home Life in Japan." Admission free. Mr. Tamura is a thoroughly educated gentleman and a most interesting speaker. He ought to, and no doubt will, have as large an audience as the church will hold.

—At the meeting of cotton crushers yesterday, Mr. Mansfield was permitted to make a statement in favor of the machinery used in what is known as the new process, now used by mills in the country. Mr. Algee reported that dispatches had been forwarded to Washington protesting against the passage of the butterine bill, in accordance with the resolution passed yesterday. A lengthy paper was read by Col. Fairly of Charleston, S. C., upon the various processes of separation, and one by Mr. J. C. Johnson of Memphis, upon the general subject of manufacturing cotton-seed oil.

A New Wholesale Notions and Furnishing Goods House.

Messrs. W. B. Robson and Ben Block, late with B. Lowenstein & Bros., left last night for New York to purchase a large stock of goods for the the new wholesale house they propose to establish here on the 1st of July, in the store formerly occupied by Langstaff & Co. They are both popular, energetic and thorough business men, and have an extensive acquaintance among the merchants in the territory contiguous to Tennessee, who will doubtless welcome them to their new field of usefulness with large orders. There is no reason why an establishment devoted to the sale of notions and furnishing goods should not succeed here, and we are confident that the new firm has the ability and determination necessary to success.

Memphis and Charleston Railroad.

MEMPHIS, May 3, 1886.

On each day of race week trains will leave the Memphis and Charleston depot for the race track at 10 a.m., 12 noon, 12:30 p.m., 1 p.m., 1:30 p.m. and 2 p.m. Returning, the trains will leave race track at close of races.

Round-trip tickets (good on day of sale only) will be sold at No. 278 Main street and at depot at 25 cents each.

No tickets will be sold at Vance street crossing, nor will trains stop there for passengers.

Trains returning from track will, however, stop at Vance street to let off passengers.

Two lines of street cars (red line and new Citizens' line) run between the Memphis and Charleston depot and the various quarters of the city.

C. A. DESAUSSURE,
Assistant General Passenger Agent.

A Druggist's Story.

Mr. Isaac C. Chapman, druggist, Newburg, N. Y., writes us: "I have for the past ten years sold several gross of Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I can say of it what I cannot say of any other medicine, I have never heard a customer speak of it but to praise its virtues in the highest manner. I have recommended it in a great many cases of whooping cough, with the happiest effects. I have used it in my own family for many years; in fact, always have a bottle in the medicine closet ready for use."

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
