CITY NEWS.

—The Marble Heart at the New Memphis Theater tonight.

—Charles Ross, a white man, was arrested last night for stealing clothes from Tom Gervey.

—There is now no longer any doubt that Memphis will receive 600,000 bales of cotton this season.

—Interest in the Meyer case increases as the trial progresses, and the daily papers are eagerly scanned for the testimony.

—Gould's visit was the talk of the town yesterday and much curiosity was manifested to see him. Wherever he went and stopped a crowd collected.

—Jim Walker, who escaped from the Police Station about three months ago by breaking out of the iron cage and climbing over the rear wall, was captured yesterday on Ensley's farm by Officers Jackson and Lee and lodged in the Station House.

—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Horace Thomas and Rosey Davis, A. B. Shuster and Miss Carrie Bruer, B. Henderson and Miss Fannie Pearce, Ernest Davies and Miss Josephine Gerrenter, N. C. Hicker and Miss Ira Howie, W. A. Brown and Miss Annie L. Holland.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Marble Heart."

The remarkable company now playing at the New Memphis Theater will tonight produce that old time favorite, The Marble Heart, and as Robert Mantell has all the qualifications to make an ideal "Raphael," the house will doubtless be crowded. Much curiosity is also manifested with reference to "The Voyage," which part has been consigned to that accomplished actor and finished artist, Nelson Wheatcroft. The witty, mercurial, wise, cynical Frenchman of the world will doubtless have a skillful interpreter in the clever impersonator of "Hoxson." New costumes and scenery have been provided and every detail carefully looked to. In the singing scene a well known young Memphis tenor will appear, who has been especially engaged for the occasion. The performance will likely be one to be remembered.

PERSONAL.

JOHN P. FINLEY, of Greenville, Miss., is in the city.

G. MCLAURAN, a prominent attorney of Rolling Fork, Miss., was in the city yesterday.

WALTER GREGORY assures the APPEAL that he has no idea of moving to Birmingham, as has been reported. He merely went there on a business trip.

HARRY HOGAN and bride, of Blanton, Miss., left for home yesterday, after a sojourn of several days in this city. He is a prominent merchant and planter of Deer Creek.

DR. GRANDOFF, a prominent physician and planter of Rolling Fork, Miss., passed through the city yesterday en route for home, after spending the summer in New York and other Eastern cities.

STIWELL HARRIS and wife, of Louisville, Ky., are stopping at the Gayoso. Mr. Harris is prominently engaged in the hotel register business, and holds contracts for supplying over six hundred leading hotels with his register.

J. S. CAMPBELL, owner of Jim Gray and other noted horses, arrived yesterday and registered at the Peabody. He brings the following string of horses with him: Jim Gray, Punka, Little Joe, Lafitte, Ligan, Berlin, Kiohba, Miss Goodrich, Lucy Lewis, Waukesha, Bessie B. and Logan.

TOM E. NORMAN and Miss Ida Lee Ellis were married last night at the residence of the bride's mother, No. 145 Madison street, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Eugene Daniel. Quite a large crowd of well known Memphians were present on the occasion. The groom was formerly connected with the Charleston railroad, but more recently an attache of the express company. The young bride fortunately enjoys the friendship of a large circle, all of whom will join in the hope that the bright skies which ushered in her wedding day may be typical of her wedded life. A large number of handsome presents attested the esteem in which the bride is held by admiring friends. The newly wedded couple left on the midnight train to visit relatives of the groom in North Alabama.

THE Louisville Times thus speaks of Maj. H. M. Doak: "The Times sincerely mourns the secession of 'Parson' Doak from the ranks of the hard workers of the press to accept a sinecure as Clerk of the United States Court. As a writer of English, pure and undefiled, he has few equals in the profession which he so long adorned, and his loss will further weaken it at a point where it most needs strengthening. Having been a brave soldier, a fair lawyer and an excellent journalist, it goes without the necessity of saying that he will make a model Clerk of Court—so long as he sticks to the typewriter. The man who can read the 'Parson's' manuscript has not yet been born, and this sweeping limitation must be understood to include the 'Parson' himself. Of course he is to have a fat salary and a lean amanuensis, and, as this is a consummation devoutly to be wished, we weep with the Avalanche and rejoice with the late editor." To which the Nashville Union adds as follows: "We enter our solemn protest against the appointment of H. M. Doak to be Clerk of the United States Circuit Court at Nashville upon the ground that nobody can fill the vacancy which his resignation will create. The press can't spare him, while the woods are full of fellows who can make a clerk."
