See

That your grocer gives you "Ozark" Vinegar and take no other. Your health depends upon it.

MISSISSIPPI Diarrhœa Cordial has been used in this section for upwards of thirty years and today is accepted as the standard remedy for bowel troubles, and makes a friend and advocate of its merits every time it is used.

Floyd & Mooney's Candies.

They have no equal.
They are always fresh.
They are always good.
They are elegant for presents.

"MY sewing machine won't work, where can I have it thoroughly repaired and made to do good work? I need some supplies, where shall I go for them?" "Go to P. M. Miller & Co., No. 300 Second street, who will do well all you need, furnish all you want and show you the two best machines on the market."

M. H. Coover & Co.,

Dealers in lumber, doors, blinds, sash, flooring. Lowest prices. 157 Washington street.

MISSISSIPPI Diarrhœa Cordial is entirely vegetable and leaves no reacting pains to harass the patient. It soothes, heals and relieves, and is the greatest bowel remedy of the age.

"NOW I LAY ME DOWN TO SLEEP."

Near the camp fire's flickering light,
In my blanket bed I lie,
Gazing through the shades of night
At the twinkling stars on high.
O'er me spirits in the air
Silent vigils seem to keep,
As I breathe my childhood's prayer—
"Now I lay me down to sleep."

Sadly sings the whippoorwill
In the boughs of yonder tree;
Laughingly the dancing rill
Swells the midnight melody.
Foemen may be lurking near,
In the canyon dark and deep;
Low I breathe in Jesus's ear—
"I pray the Lord my soul to keep."

'Mid the stars one face I see,
One the Savior called away;
Mother, who in infancy
Taught my baby lips to pray.
Her sweet spirit hovers near
In this lonely mountain brake;
Take me to her, Savior, dear,
"If I should die before I wake."

Fainter grows the flickering light,
As each ember slowly dies;
Plaintively the birds of night,
Fill the air with saddening cries.
Over me they seem to cry:
"You may nevermore awake."
Low I lisp, "If I should die,
I pray the Lord my soul to take."

'Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep;
If I should die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take."

A Holdover Slaveholder.

From the Jacksonville Times-Union.

At Miami Messrs. Jones and Robert Wylie, who recently finished their trip from Tarpon Springs in the little steamer Margaret to a point on the Indian River, had the pleasure of meeting the only genuine slaveholder in the land of the free, namely, the Hon. Cypress Tiger, of the Everglade Seminoles. When the crops are good and there is a scarcity of labor in Mr. Tiger's dominions, he is believed to sally north into the neighboring settled country and lasso a few negroes, who are taken into the glades and consigned to unlawful servitude. "Injun's niggers no free," says Tiger when it is intimated to him that slavery has been abolished. Some fifteen years ago the country laughed over the story, in lengthy detail, of the old cracker from somewhere near the jumping off place, who drove his cart into St. Augustine and offered a fine, big, sleek-looking negro for sale as he needed a little extra money, and it will probably receive the story of Tiger's practices in the same way. But it is all the same to Tiger.

Sanitary Plumbing.

The enterprising firm of Latting & Bailey are rapidly building a reputation for doing good work. They have already completed some of the most thorough and well ventilated jobs of plumbing ever done in Memphis. Their idea is to use the best materials and workmanship, which results in comfort and satisfaction to their patrons. They make a specialty of remodeling old plumbing work.
