NOTIONS OF LIBERTY.

A Toledo Brewer Thinks Pittsburg a Sad and Silent Sufferer.

A TOOTHBRUSH, BREAD AND BEER

Are Denied Him on Sunday, and He Thinks It's Awful.

AN IDEA OF CONFISCATED PROPERTY

Mr. M. M. Eppstein, Secretary and General Agent of the Finlay Brewing Company, of Toledo, who has been in Pittsburg since the latter part of last week, has been traveling in the eastern part of the State in the interests of his business, but not in any way connected with the anti-Prohibition campaign, left for home last evening. Before going, he chatted entertainingly with reporters, and said:

This is, indeed, a queer community. I am astounded that it silently and without protest tolerates some things. My ideas of liberty in a republican form of government are not, I think, exaggerated; but they conflict radically with the exhibition of arbitrary judicial power which Pittsburg exemplifies and suffers from. Here is a man who assumes that the Brooks law meant practical prohibition, and confiscation of valuable property, whatever to sanction such interpretation. The law was manifestly never meant to do anything but restrict the lower and regulate the better elements of the liquor business.

WITH NO CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE

I never saw or heard of anything like it and the effects it has produced. At my hotel here, last Sunday morning, I found I had lost my toothbrush. Before completing my toilet, therefore, I sought to buy a new toothbrush at the drugstore over the way. "No, you don't," exclaimed the druggist's clerk. "There are too many Law and Order spies abroad in this city. You may not be one of 'em; but we can't sell you anything but medicine, and that only on prescription." A toothbrush being one of those things a fellow cannot borrow, I had to go without one till Monday.

I have never been drunk in my life; yet I like my glass of beer with my morning meal. But I couldn't have it, even at my hotel, on Sunday. But, worse than that: I went out Sunday to take dinner with friends in the East End—nice, well-to-do people—who believe, as I do, in observing every law in its letter and spirit, if not misconstrued or strained into something never contemplated by the law-makers. At dinner I related my experience in the morning.

NO BREAD FOR DINNER.

The lady of the house replied: "That reminds me, Mr. Eppstein, that I have an apology to make. We have no bread for dinner. Circumstances I couldn't control led me to forego the Saturday custom of baking for Sunday. I had no idea that our grocer, who has to keep open store to handle milk on Sunday morning, would refuse to sell me a loaf or two of bread; but he did. He said he dare not do it. My nearest neighbor hadn't enough bread to lend, without making her own supply short for Sunday; so here we are, with a very good dinner otherwise, but no bread."

I say this is a strange community that will submit to such environments without a protest. The practical prohibition applied here, without any vote as yet to sanction it, ought to have aroused your business men, your Chamber of Commerce. I believe that Mr. Busch spoke truly when he said your community would be boycotted by Western brewers. Our business here is ruined; and why should we, in return for such treatment, buy bottles, corks or apparatus in Pittsburg? We won't do it.

We all believe that Philadelphia mandamus on the License Judges will result in such a review as will necessitate at least the granting of licenses to the Prospect Brewing Company there, and to Mr. Harry Darlington here.

In Memoriam.

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the German-American Insurance Company of Pennsylvania, held Tuesday evening, May 28, 1889, the following minute was unanimously adopted:

Otto Helmold has answered the dread summons and passed through the valley of the shadow of death. His departure was startling in its suddenness.

In his accustomed place in the committee room last Thursday at noon and dead at midday Saturday is a bricler call than comes to most of the race outside the battlefield.

His 36 hours of excruciating pain ended with the blessed relief that death alone can give.

His connection with this company dates from its organization. Last January he commenced his twelfth year as director and for 11 years he has been a faithful and efficient member of the Committee on Insurance Risks. His relations with his fellow-directors and with the officers of the company were of the most cordial nature. He was prudent in counsel and sound in judgment. His business intercourse was marked with fidelity and fair dealing. He was gentle and unassuming in manner; high-minded and honorable in all the relations of life. What prouder record can any man leave than that he was upright in all his dealings with his fellows?

The death of Otto Helmold makes a void in this board that will be hard to fill. We have lost a useful member, the community a good citizen, and his family a kind and loving husband and father. He passed the allotted three score and ten, and "after life's fitful fever sleeps well."

To his bereaved family we tender our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their sad affliction.

From the record.

W. J. PATTERSON, Secretary.

THE STONES REPLACED.

An Alteration Was Found Necessary on the New Postoffice.

Work was resumed on the new Government building yesterday, and, according to Superintendent Malone, as well as to a statement from the Government Building Inspector, Pattison, there will not be any more delays until the building is finished.

About 30 men were occupied around the building during the afternoon. Some of them were hauling the granite blocks, by means of a derrick, to the top of the building, and others were engaged with trowel and mortar to put them in their proper places.

"Now, then, who was right," said a gentleman who may be called Mr. Malone's right hand man, "when we said the top layer of stone was out of plumb where the men are taking the stones away and replacing them to make everything come into line? There was something wrong after all."

Mr. Pattison, the Government Inspector, was sitting in the office, and when a DISPATCH reporter asked him whether he would not say anything regarding the building he stated:

"I can very well understand that the people of Pittsburg are unusually interested in the progress of this structure, and I wish I were in a position to be able to tell you something, but I have to obey orders. However, you may be assured of one thing, and that is that the work will be prosecuted now without any material delay. You hear the noise of the steam engine, the clicking of the hammer, the grating of the chisel and the scraping of the trowel; well, that is a good sign, is it not?"

"Would you tell me whether there really was much wrong with the building to cause such a delay as has already taken place?"

"Well, there was something wrong, but not enough to justify us in blowing up the whole building with dynamite. No, I cannot tell you any particulars. I am a Government official and I report to the Government."

Nevertheless, it was positively demonstrated to the reporter that the upper layer of stone is being replaced to make the work perfect.

A WELL-EQUIPPED SNAKE.

Two Sets of Fangs in a Copperhead in Robinson Township.

People who make a study of venomous serpents say they renew their fangs soon after losing them and renew them indefinitely often, so that it isn't safe to fool with them for a very great length of time after dentistry has been performed.

R. J. Phillips, of Robinson township, collared a copperhead on Sunday which had two complete sets of fangs, the underlying set being fully half an inch long, and had the longer ones been extracted the reptile would have still been able to do effective work, and it certainly showed sufficient disposition to be ugly to be a very uncomfortable neighbor.

POSTPONED FOR A WEEK.

The Condemnation of Property for the Herr's Island Dam.

A meeting of the Government Board of Viewers had been called for yesterday afternoon, to determine the value of property at the foot of Twenty-second street, before its condemnation for the erection of Herr's Island Dam.

The board consisted of Messrs. D. B. Oliver, Captain W. W. Young and T. C. Lazear. The meeting was postponed until next Tuesday, because there was no quorum of the board. Captain Vandergrift owns the property. He wants more than U. S. District Attorney Allen was willing to allow.

Sent to the Poorhouse.

Mrs. J. W. Edict was sent to the Allegheny City Home by Secretary Hunker yesterday. She was deserted by her husband about six months ago, and has been in the Homeopathic Hospital for three months suffering from paralysis. The other day she was taken to the house of some friends on Goodrich street, but they could not keep her and she was taken in charge by the Poor Board.

Philadelphia Dental Rooms.

There is no profession more necessary and useful for the good appearance and well-being of mortals than that of the dentist. As much care and attention should be given to the teeth as to any other part of the physical structure. If not for health sake alone, it should be attended to for the fact that there is no other one thing that so detracts from the beauty of man or woman as a bad set of teeth. To keep them in good order a visit should be paid to a dentist at least twice a year, if not oftener, and no other gentleman in this profession can we more willingly recommend those of our readers who desire a superior style and quality of dental work, combining naturalness, elegance and completeness in every respect, than to Taft's Philadelphia Dental Rooms, 39 Fifth ave., Best sets of teeth only eight dollars.

CASSIDY IN EARNEST.

He Prosecutes His Warfare Against Disorderly Houses—Circulars Being Prepared—His Object.

Alderman M. F. Cassidy seems to have been in earnest when he made the assertion that he was going to start a systematic warfare against all disorderly houses in the First ward. While talking to a DISPATCH reporter about his proposed crusade, he said, yesterday afternoon:

"I have made up my mind to do this thing, and if I am let alone I will accomplish it. I know all the places which are a disgrace to the city, and I am going to have them locked up. If you want to know what object I have in view in making myself a public benefactor, I will only tell you this: The Police Department has commenced the work in the First ward, but they have not finished it yet. Well, that is what I intend to do. Where they left off I shall start in."

"Are you going to confine yourself to the First ward alone?"

"Oh, no. I am going at all of them, over the entire city. Wherever I can find a house of disorder and can get sufficient evidence against it I will have an information made against the party or parties keeping the house and the case will be vigorously prosecuted. I am having 200 circulars printed now, and as soon as I get them one of the circulars will be mailed to each house against which I have a charge to make. It will be a notification that prosecution will be commenced on them at once. I have already four people notified, and when these cases are disposed of others will follow. No, I am not going to make the names public until I have them all together."

SHADYSIDE EPISCOPALIANS.

The Church of the Ascension to be Dedicated To-Morrow.

To-morrow morning, Ascension Day, a new Protestant Episcopal Church in this city, lately erected on Ellsworth avenue, near Neville street, will be dedicated. Rev. George Hodges, of Calvary Church, will preach the dedicating sermon, and the Bishop and other clergy of the diocese will be present. The vestry of the church have made strenuous efforts to have the edifice ready for occupancy on Ascension Day, and have succeeded.

The rector of the new church is the Rev. Robert W. Grange, late of Steubenville, O. He has been with this new parish in its chaotic state for the last three weeks, and in that short time has taken strong hold upon his people. The Rev. Mr. Grange will conduct services on Sunday next, and preach for the first time in the new church.

This new parish starts under very favorable auspices. The present church will accommodate about 400 people; has a beautiful Sunday school room, vestry room, kitchen and everything a modern first-class church requires. All the pews have been already taken except 12.

Mr. E. M. Fergusen gave a large lot of ground, on part of which the present church is built, and there is sufficient left for another church. The success of this new parish has been so encouraging to the vestry and the congregation that already there is talk of building another church and using the present one as a chapel. The vestry are: E. M. Fergusen, L. M. Plumer, John B. Doyle, J. D. Long, Samuel Martin, P. C. Knox, William L. Chalfant, C. C. Briggs, L. M. Mason, Allen W. Wood, Edwin Bindley and A. E. Frost.

GOSSIP IN THE CONGREGATION.

That is What Led Rev. J. K. Melhorn to Decide to Resign.

Rev. J. K. Melhorn, of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Southside, says that a lot of clashing women have caused the trouble which, on Sunday next, will result in his resigning to become the pastor of his former and always united and harmonious congregation at Freeport. These women got a lot of gossip going, for which they alone were responsible, and then, by telling him some of their stories, managed to hitch his name thereto when next the gossip was retailed.

This, taken in connection with his public utterance to American Mechanics—"Palsied be the hand that casts a vote for whisky"—had made such trouble that, since Easter, it had been an unpleasant pastorate to hold. Accordingly, against the expressed wish of the majority, who would have preferred to purge the church of its brimstone, he had decided to resign and go back to a more harmonious congregation. His services here have always been well attended, however.
