TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[REPORTED FOR THE RICHMOND DISPATCH.]

Magnetic Telegraph Line—Office, 139 Eagle Square, Main Street.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE CIRCASSIAN.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Jan. 20.—The steamer Circassian, from Liverpool, with dates to the 7th inst., arrived this morning.

Still uncertain if the European Congress will assemble.

Count Walewski's retirement, or dismissal, from the French Cabinet, attracts much attention. The English journals construe it as another sign that Napoleon intends to espouse the Italian cause. De Thouvenal quits Constantinople forthwith to assume Walewski's position.

It is rumored that Lord Cowley's mission to Vienna had reference to a settlement of the Neuchatel question, without the necessity of submitting it to a Congress.

Marshal McMahon succeeds Gen. Vailient as Minister of the French army in Italy.

The Paris bourse continues depressed.

Austria protests against Rome enlisting troops, and threatens to send troops into the Papal dominions.

Russia is increasing her army.

A Whig Movement.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The Whig General Committee, at their meeting in this city, on Monday evening, received from a special committee a very important manifesto, which was adopted, and ordered to be published.—The document contains a platform, of which the following are the principal points:

1. The powers of the Government to be confined to the limits implied by the Constitution.

2. The rights of the State and General Governments to be held secure.

3. Accountability of public officers.

4. Confidence on the part of the people to the Union, laws, and treaties.

5. Government to be supported by duties on imports, and not by direct taxation, and encouragement to be given to American industry.

6. Congress to have power, according to the Constitution, to open and repair harbors, to remove obstructions from navigable rivers, and to make all necessary improvements.

7. The Presidential service to be restricted to a single term.

8. Prohibition of the veto power.

9. The proceeds of sales of public lands to be ceded to the States, and to be used economically.

10. Agitations on the slavery question denounced. Slavery to be left where the Constitution leaves it—to be disposed of by the people of each State.

11. Strict Adherence to the Federal Constitution and the teachings essential to the preservation of our liberties, the independence, and the union of the States.

Proceedings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The Senate was not in session.

Various personal explanations were made. Mr. Pryor spoke of the New York strictures on his political conduct.—Characterized Bennett as a wretch who carries on his back the scars of many merited castigations, and whose heart is tainted with the inconceivable contamination—a miscreant consenting to the dishonor of his own wife, a foul and filthy creature, etc., etc.

Mr. Sherman asked Mr. Clark, of Missouri, to withdraw his resolution relative to the expulsion book, in order that he might have an opportunity to make explanations.

Mr. Clark refused to do so. Mr. Sherman had sufficient opportunity to make explanations.

Mr. Hindman said he never heard of a debate in court asking that the indictment be withdrawn in order that he might explain his course.

Various questions were propounded to Mr. Hindman, to which he refused to make any answers, unless Mr. Clark's resolution was withdrawn.

Without taking a vote for Speaker, the House adjourned to Monday.

Earthquake at the South—Death of an Editor.

AUGUSTA, GA., Jan. 20.—Shocks of an earthquake were sensibly felt at Charleston, Augusta, Macon and other points, at 6 o'clock yesterday evening.

James W. Jones, Esq., editor of the Augusta Gold and Sentinel, died last night.

Northern Markets—[By Telegraph.]

EDUCATION.

THE RICHMOND FEMALE INSTITUTE, now in its sixth session, offers to the daughters of Virginia and the South the best facilities for the acquirement of a thorough and finished education. It employs fourteen able and well tried teachers, most of whom are Virginians, and two of them Masters of Arts of the University. Its course is extensive and complete, embracing all that a young lady should study. It invites comparison with the most prominent seminaries in any part of our country. Pupils are admitted at any time, but most advantageously during the first weeks of January or at the middle of February, when the second term begins.

ASTONISHING TO ALL.—MADAME RUSSELL, the celebrated Astrologist, has just arrived, and will remain but a short time. She was born with a natural gift to tell all the events of life—even your very thoughts; will tell whether you are married or single, and how many times you are to be married; will cause speedy marriage. She has astonished thousands with her magic power. No gentleman admitted. Mrs. EDDINS' Boarding-House, 25th or Governor street, between Main and Franklin streets. no 24—2m*
