TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[REPORTED FOR THE RICHMOND DISPATCH.]

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—House.—The Utah polygamy bill was discussed all day.

During the debate, Mr. Farnsworth, (Rep.) of Ill., quoted John Wesley as saying that slavery is the sum of all villainies."

Mr. Jenkins, (Dem.) of Virginia, asked him whether he said so.

Mr. Farnsworth replied that he was very much that way of thinking.

Mr. Jenkins—Then you declare a lie.

Mr. Farnsworth—I am not in the habit of descending into cess pools to throw dirt with blackguards.

Mr. Jenkins said he would not take that as an insult.

There was further debate, but no action on the bill.

Senate.—Mr. Brown reported favorably on a House bill to incorporate the U. S. Agricultural Society.

Mr. Green reported bills providing temporary governments for the Territories of Arizona and Colorado.

He also introduced a joint resolution condemning the conduct of Comptroller Medill, in neglecting to carry out the laws of Congress, by adjusting the accounts of Ramsey & Carbon Hill Mines. Appl. to Mr. KEINS, at Coke Yard, corner 10th and Cary sts.
