[REPORTED FOR THE RICHMOND DISPATCH.]

Excitement at Boston—Arrest of F. W. Sanborn by U. S. Officers.

BOSTON, April 4.—Dr. F. W. Sanborn was arrested at Concord last night by Federal officers, under a requisition from the Harper's Ferry Committee of the U. S. Senate. The arrest caused much excitement, and he at first refused to accompany the officers. He was handcuffed and taken into a carriage, struggling violently.

The town bell was rung, and a crowd collected, took Sanborn forcibly from the officers and retained him until a habeas corpus could be obtained from Judge Hoar, of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts.

The case is now progressing in Boston before a full bench, consisting of Judges Shaw, Metcalf, Bigelow, Merrick and Hoar.

The subject was introduced into the Legislature in the form of resolutions to employ the State's Attorney to defend him, but the resolutions were briefly discussed and laid on the table.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

BOSTON, April 4.—Chief Justice Shaw, on the writ of habeas corpus, decided that the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate could not depute his authority to another party, and Sanborn was therefore discharged.

He left with his friends for Concord.

There was much applause in the courtroom at the decision.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Senate.—The Chair presented a message from the President relating affairs in Utah.

Mr. Green called up his resolutions rebuking the conduct of Gov. Medill, the Comptroller, and asked their reference to the proper committee.

Mr. Saulsbury defended Medill, as a meritorious officer. A warm discussion ensued, and the subject was postponed.

The Homestead bill was up, and advocated by Mr. Pugh and opposed by Mr. Wigfall.

Adjourned.

House.—The Committee on Military Affairs reported against the amendment to the Military Academy bill, calling out volunteers in Texas.

The Polygamy bill was discussed, and will be voted on to-morrow.
