ONE DAY LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE AFRICA.

Garibaldi Still Outside of Palermo—The Insurgent Army of 20,000 Men Surrounding the City—Naples Preparing for an Attack, &c., &c.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The Africa, from Liverpool on the 26th ult., arrived to-day.

There is no confirmation of the rumor that Garibaldi had entered Palermo.

The latest telegram from that city, dated May 23d, P. M., announces that Garibaldi's troops were still in position near there; that the insurgents occupied the heights which commanded the town, and that an attack was momentarily expected.

Another dispatch, received at Turin, dated Palermo, the 24th, says that Garibaldi had approached near to the heights, which were in the hands of the insurgents, and an attack was imminent.

Gen. Larra, who commanded the Neapolitan troops, had demanded an armistice of Garibaldi.

An Austrian flotilla arrived at Naples on the 21st May.

Advices from Messina, to the 21st, say an insurrection had broken out at Adenaio and Bronco Villa.

The English and French residents at Palermo had sought refuge on board their national ships.

Another dispatch says Garibaldi's movements in Sicily are for the purpose of fixing that island the basis of operations against Naples, and as soon as a formidable expedition can be undertaken, a descent will be made in Calabria.

Six squadrons, numbering 50 vessels, will be chartered by the King of Naples for the protection of his coast, and placed under command of Count D'Aquila, his uncle.

A Cork (Ireland) paper says the American bark Chas. B. Truitt, which for six months has been lying at Queenstown, has sailed for Liverpool. She was freighted with rifles, by the Garibaldi committee of New York.

LONDON, Saturday.—The directors have decided that the Great Eastern shall return from New York direct to Milford Haven.

LONDON, May 27—Via Queenstown.—Letters from Palermo, on the 21st, say the popular passion was greatly inflamed. Several shots had been fired from the balconies on the Rue Toledo, which were returned by the police, wounding several citizens. There was a panic among the public functionaries, and the directors of the Official Journal had fled. The fires of the insurrectionary bivouacs were seen on the heights surrounding the city.

The Paris Patrie has information indicating that the assault on Palermo would take place before the 27th.

ROME, May 23.—Prince Dowlowski, the new Russian Plenipotentiary left to-day for Naples. It is asserted that he is the bearer of very precise instructions in reference to Sicily.

The Japanese in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, June 7.—The arrival of the Japanese Embassy here this morning was announced by salute, and they were received by a grand turn-out. The procession of military was very large, and the Paid Fire Department, with its steam fire engines, formed an interesting feature of the display. The ambassadors rode in open carriages, each attended by a member of the Naval Commission. They were welcomed at the Maryland Institute Hall by Mayor Swann. They observed great solidity, seeming to notice, and be surprised at, nothing. The subordinates, however, manifested the greatest interest in the scene, acknowledging and returning salutations with enthusiasm, some of them even taking off their hats, American fashion, to the ladies. On arriving at the Gilmor House the whole procession was reviewed by the Embassy.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—House.—The House expelled Barrett, (Dem.) of Mo., in favor of Frank P. Blair, (Rep.) by three votes. Davis, of Md., and Anderson, of Ky., whose seats are contested, voted with the Republicans. The rest of the Southern Opposition members voted with the minority.

The House adopted a resolution in opposition to the President's protest against the authority of the Covode Committee for investigating the acts of the Executive. The resolution passed—ayes 87, nays 40.

Senate.—About 40 private bills were passed, and after an Executive session the Senate adjourned.

Inauguration of the Governor of N. Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., June 7.—Gov. Goodwin was inaugurated to-day. There was an unusual military and civic display on the occasion.

The Governor's message is brief. It is mainly devoted to local affairs, of which he speaks encouragingly. In conclusion he says that New Hampshire declares to all disorganizers and disunionists, wherever found, that she stands by the Union and the Constitution as interpreted not by any new lights, sectional cliques or party platforms, but by itself, its framers, and the precedents of all departments of the Federal Government.

Nomination in Maine.

BANGOR, ME., June 7.—At the Republican State Convention, held to-day in this city, Israel Washburn, Jr., was nominated for Governor of the State.
