LOCAL MATTERS.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.—From our reports this morning the probabilities are that the weather to-day will be clear.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Yesterday morning, about 5 o'clock, Mr. David N. Patterson, aged seventy years, residing at No. 500 north Second street, attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. He was discovered by some member of the family, who stopped him and sent off after surgical aid. Drs. Bright and McCaw responded and rendered the necessary medical attention, but it is said that his recovery is very doubtful.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION.—At the last meeting of the City Conservative Committee commissioners and clerks of the primary election were appointed for Clay, Monroe, and Madison Wards. At the meeting of the committee to-night appointments for the other wards will probably be made, and the propriety of postponing the primary election some ten days or two weeks beyond the time fixed (28th instant) will be considered.

PERSONAL.—Judge John A. Meredith left for Washington yesterday on important business connected with the Miller will case.

Within the past two weeks Rev. J. L. M. Curry, D. D., has been tendered the presidency of two colleges in other States.

Colonel John H. Guy is paying a brief visit at Cobb's Island.

A number of young gentlemen of this city have chartered a yacht at Norfolk, and will spend three or four days in the early part of August in fishing in the prolific waters along the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

The report in circulation on Wednesday that Mr. Douglass Doswell had died from the effects of the injury which he recently received in one of the tunnels on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad is incorrect. At last accounts Mr. Doswell was improving.

General Asa Rogers, Second Auditor, expects to leave the city in about two weeks for a brief visit to Loudoun county.

Colonel John M. Clarkson, Major A. H. Drewry of Charles City, and Colonel Lewis E. Harvie and Judge F. R. Farrar of Amelia, were among the guests registered at the Exchange Hotel yesterday.

Mr. Travis Daniel, of Alabama, brother of the late John M. Daniel, is in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Judge E. H. Lane, of Louisa county, is in the city.

Mr. C. B. Habliston is lying quite sick at his residence, in this city.

Dr. W. H. Ruffner, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Virginia, is in Lexington, Va.

ACTS OF ASSEMBLY.—The acts of Assembly of last session, including the index, have been printed, and comprise a volume of 532 pages, being the largest since the first session after the adoption of the new Constitution. That session was of seven months' duration, and the laws passed made a little over 100 pages more than this volume. Considering the fact that the larger portion of the present volume was approved during the last three days of the session, and also that the Legislature met in January, which extended the session one month later in the spring, this work has been done with promptitude.
