BUFFALO LITHIA WATER.

BUFFALO LITHIA WATER FOR THE URIC-ACID DIATHESIS.

DISTINGUISHED TESTIMONY.

DR. HUNTER McGUIRE, OF RICHMOND, VA. late Professor Surgery Medical College of Virginia, President State Medical Society, ex-President Association of Medical Officers Confederate Army and Navy, Vice-President of the International Medical Congress, Vice-President American Medical Association:

"IN MY EXPERIENCE THE BUFFALO LITHIA WATER IS VALUABLE IN A GREATER VARIETY OF DISEASES AND DISORDERS THAN ANY OTHER MINERAL WATER THAT I HAVE EVER EMPLOYED. AS AN ALKALINE DIURETIC IT IS INVALUABLE. IN URIC ACID GRAVEL, and, indeed, in diseases generally of the URIC-ACID DIATHESIS, it will be found a remedy of EXTRAORDINARY POTENCY. I have prescribed it in cases of OLD RHEUMATIC GOUT, which had RESISTED THE ORDINARY REMEDIES, WITH WONDERFULLY GOOD RESULTS. I have myself suffered a great deal from this malady, and HAVE DERIVED MORE BENEFIT FROM THIS WATER THAN FROM ANY OTHER REMEDY I HAVE USED."

DR. J. S. WELLFORD, OF RICHMOND, VA., Professor of Diseases of Women and Children in the Medical College of Virginia:

"I have paid a great deal of attention to URINARY TROUBLES, and have frequently and freely prescribed the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER with the very best results. In all the various forms of the URIC-ACID DIATHESIS, whether as well-formed GRAVEL or GOUT, or in the milder forms of GOUTY DYSPEPSIA or NETTLERASH, I KNOW OF NO MINERAL WATER WHICH I CONSIDER AT ALL EQUAL TO THAT OF SPRING No. 2.

"In many SKIN DISEASES of old age, dependent on the URIC-ACID DIATHESIS, such as ECZEMA, etc., this water acts most beneficially."

LOCAL MATTERS.

Murder in a Dance-House.

POSEY DREW, THE COLORED PROPRIETOR, STABBED TO DEATH FOR REFUSING ADMITTANCE TO A MINOR—ARREST OF THE ALLEGED CRIMINAL—INQUEST TO BE HELD TO-DAY, &C.

Last night about 8 o'clock a difficulty occurred in a negro dance-house at 1807 east Cary street (better known as "Cash Corner"), which resulted in the death by stabbing of Posey Drew (colored), the proprietor of the house. The particulars of the affair, as far as could be ascertained, are as follows: About the hour above named a party consisting of one man and three boys or youths went to the house for the purpose, it is supposed, of attending a dance which was to take place there. Drew objected to one of the boys going in because he was too young, when a controversy ensued between him and the visitors, during which Fannie Chalkley, a mulatto woman who was present, shoved two of the boys out of the door, leaving Drew and the man and the oldest of the youths together. The woman states that she saw the youth hand his companion a knife, and in a few moments heard Drew exclaim "I'm cut to death! Run for the police." The party then ran off. She immediately ran out into the street and commenced to cry "murder," and when she returned she found Drew lying on the floor weltering in blood, and in a few moments he expired.

News of the difficulty was conveyed to the First police-station and Sergeant Howard and Officer Walton went to the spot. At the same time Captain Pleasants telegraphed to Dr. Brock. When the officers arrived it was found that the man was dead, and the Coroner was notified.

From a description given of the parties suspicion was attracted to a man by the name of Charles Bowen as the party who did the cutting, and William Gilham, a youth of about eighteen years, as one of the parties who were present. Gilham was found at the Theatre Comique by Sergeant Howard and Officer Walton, and when brought to the station-house was identified by the woman Fannie Chalkley as one of the party whom she shoved out of the door. Bowen subsequently came to the station-house and delivered himself up. He admitted being present during the cutting, but denies that he was one of the party, and says that the fatal blow was struck over his shoulder, but does not know who did it. Bowen bears rather a bad reputation, having served a term in the penitentiary, and also in the chain-gang.

The murdered man was about forty years of age, and, strange as it may seem, was looked upon as a quiet and well-behaved person, notwithstanding the fact that he kept a house that was resorted to by the most degraded of both sexes and color.

Drs. Brock and Taylor made a partial examination of the wound, which had the appearance of being made with a large knife, and found that it had penetrated the cavity of the chest, and that death was caused from internal hemorrhage overwhelming the lungs.

Dr. Taylor will make a post mortem examination of the body this morning at 10 o'clock, and an inquest at 4 P. M.

A FINE VESSEL.—The barkentine Harriet S. Jackson, now lying in the dock, is one of the finest and fastest of sailing vessels which has been in our port since the war. She loaded here for Rio de Janeiro with flour, making the run in thirty-one days, and thence with coffee to Davenport & Morris, and beat the fast sailing vessels which trade between Rio and Baltimore. The Jackson has a stationary engine, which she uses in hoisting all sails, taking in cargo, and, in fact, the best apparatus used for such purposes. Captain Bacon, the popular and efficient officer, has gained many friends, especially among our merchants, is now spending his time with his family in Portland, Me., and in a few days the Jackson will be ready for cargo and go on her way to Rio.

FAMILY FEUD.—Last night William Meekins and his wife Louisa (both colored), who reside on Twenty-fifth street between Broad and Marshall, got into a fight, during which Louisa struck William over the head with a pop-bottle, inflicting a painful scalp-wound. The belligerents were taken to the First police-station by Officer Tomlinson and locked up. Dr. Brock examined the wound and found that the bottle fared worse than the negro's head.

THE CITIZENS' YORKTOWN COMMITTEE.—The Citizens' Committee of the Yorktown Centennial Celebration will hold an adjourned meeting at the hall of the House of Delegates to-morrow (Monday) night at 8 o'clock, at which the sub-committee will report work to be acted upon. The sub-committee met at the office of Mayor W. C. Carrington on yesterday, and adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock at the same place, and requested the Council committee to meet with them.

AN EXCELLENT MOVE.—We understand that arrangements have been made to supply the reading-room of the Commercial Club with the annual report of the Board of Trade or Chamber of Commerce of every city of any importance in the United States and Canada. If our business-men are not fully posted about the movements of trade it will certainly not be the fault of the enterprising officers of the Commercial Club.

SALE OF LOTS.—Messrs. R. B. Chaffin & Co., real estate agents, sold last week the lot on Franklin street between Second and Third, fronting 31 5 12 feet, and belonging to Mr. J. L. Schoolcraft, to Mr. A. D. Williams for the sum of $3,927.

Also, the lot at the corner of Park avenue and Linden street, belonging to Mr. J. C. Shafer, fronting 35 feet on Park avenue, to Mr. H. Theodore Ellyson for $950 cash.

THE HUSTINGS COURT.—This court was in session yesterday, but transacted no business of public interest. The grand jury will meet to-morrow, when the Commonwealth's Attorney will prepare another indictment in the Mannerschmidt forgery case. Several other cases which have occurred since the last meeting of the jury will be considered.

MONUMENT TO MRS. BROWN.—The Ladies' Society of the Second Presbyterian church in this city intend to erect a monument in Hollywood to the late Mrs. E. H. Brown, and hope to complete their arrangements for the work by the first of June.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Dr. Hoge has returned from Norfolk.

Mons. G. de Sibourg, French vice-consul at Baltimore, is visiting the city.

EASTER.

Fine Music to be Sung To-day in Various Churches in Commemoration of the Saviour's Triumph Over Death—A List of those who Compose the Choirs.

To-day is that joyous festival of Easter, when the Christian world loves to commemorate the Saviour's glorious triumph over death. The altars of the Catholic churches will be beautifully decked with growing plants, blooming flowers, and myriads of lighted tapers, while the music in these and many of the Episcopal churches will be appropriate and of a high order. During the past month the choirs of the various churches have been rehearsing for the occasion, and at all of the churches specially-selected programmes will be presented.

AT ST. PAUL'S

the music selected is brilliant and extensive; and will be rendered by the following well-drilled and able choir, under the direction of the organist, Professor Jacob Reinhardt: Miss Blow and Mrs. M. B. Ramos, sopranos; Mrs. Robert White and Mrs. Cadot, altos; Messrs. Frank Cunningham, Monte Walker, and William Johnston, tenors; Messrs. H. T. Cardozo, David McCaw, and James Branch, bassos.

The musical selections will consist of "Easter Anthem," solo and chorus, Warren; "Christ our Passover," quartette, Barnett; "Te Deum Laudamus," quartette and chorus, Dachaner; "Oh! Kepler, tenors; Mr. Langhorne Putney and Mr. William Chapin, bassos. The music will be unusually fine, if we can judge from the rehearsals. Hanley as deacon and sub-deacon. The master of ceremonies and deacons of honor will be Messrs. Nelson, Fallon, and Reardon. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Father Hanley.

Weber's Mass in G will be sung by the choir, with string quartette and organ accompaniment, all under the direction of Professor Edward Caulfield, the organist. At the Offertory the Regina Cœli will be sung, and at the conclusion of the services the grand fugue movement from Haydn's Fourth Mass will be rendered by Professor Caulfield on the organ, assisted by the string quartette. SWISS IMMIGRANTS.—The Old Dominion steamship Richmond, which arrived here yesterday afternoon, had among its passengers ninety-six immigrants direct from Switzerland on their way to "Cotton Hill," W. Va., where they go to engage in farming and mining pursuits. They cannot speak English, but are a healthy, happy-looking set.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING.—Jeff. Hayden and William Bowen (colored youths) were arrested last night by Sergeant Wren and Officer Walton, charged with stealing a lot of coal from some person unknown.

EMMA ABBOTT OPERA COMPANY.—Commencing on Monday the 25th instant, it is announced, the Emma Abbott English Opera Company will appear at the Theatre for a season of four nights. The company is said to be full, with an excellent chorus and orchestra, and includes such distinguished and well-known artists as Miss Abbott, Brignoli, Castle, Rosewald, Maurel, Poole, Stoddard, James, Augustine, Tams, Strini, and Tomasi.

The following is the repertoire: Monday evening, "Martha," with Abbott, Maurel, James, and Brignoli in the caste; Tuesday, "Fra Diavolo," with Abbott, Maurel, Strini, Tams, and Castle; Wednesday, "Maritani," with Rosewald, Maurel, James, Stoddard, Tams, and Castle; Thursday, "Trovatore," with Rosewald, Maurel, James, and Brignoli. The latter opera will be for the benefit of Brignoli, and will close the engagement of the company here.

LECTURE BY RAN. TUCKER.—This distinguished scholar and statesman has consented to deliver his famous and popular lecture, entitled "Virginia, Past, Present, and Future," at Mozart Hall, on Monday evening, May 2d. The well known reputation of Mr. Tucker as an orator will alone draw a large house, but when it is announced that the proceeds of the lecture are to be donated to the Centennial fund of the Governor's Guard we feel satisfied that the hall will be thronged to its utmost capacity. The subject is full of interest, and will be a treat to every patriotic Virginian.

LADIES' SUPPER.—The Ladies' Aid Society of Trinity church, at the solicitation of many who enjoyed their late supper and entertainment, have concluded to repeat it on Easter Monday. The luxuries of the season will be obtainable, served by the ladies, and choice instrumental and vocal music will be performed on the new Sunday-school organ. A lavish display of Easter eggs with their many hues will be distributed.

EASTER FESTIVAL.—This festival at the Broad-Street Methodist church to-morrow evening promises to be a pleasant affair. The young ladies and children of the Ivy-Leaf Missionary Society, aided by the ladies of the church, have expended much time and labor in preparing this novel entertainment, and it is hoped they will reap an abundant reward.

BRIEF ITEMS.—A Railroad Panoramic Guide of Southern Routes will very shortly be published in Baltimore by the Overland Publishing Company. It describes the cities, towns, and villages on the principal roads throughout the South. Mr. F. A. Grey represents the company in this city, and will commence work here to-morrow.

A Card to Real Estate Owners of Virginia.

In a few months all Virginians will be called on to welcome hundreds and thousands of strangers from all over this country and foreign lands. We have decided to open an office at Yorktown, for which office we will publish not less than fifty thousand—perhaps half million—copies of our Virginia Real Estate Journal for free distribution. We invite all owners of real estate in city and country who wish to have their property advertised free in our Journal to call on us at once and place such property in our hands. We shall be prepared with an able corps of assistants to show any number of visitors any or all properties we have for sale.

Editors Dispatch: Dear Sirs,—In your edition of April 15th (Friday) the name of William Walker appears as a delegate from Madison Ward, elected to the Readjuster State Convention. If intended for William Walker, cigar manufacturer, the same is unauthorized by me. WILLIAM WALKER.

MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

Convention Called.—B. A. Hancock, superintendent of the Conservative party of Chesterfield county, has called for primary meetings in the different precincts in the county for April 30th—next Saturday week—to elect delegates to a county convention to be held at the Chesterfield court-house Wednesday, May 4th, to nominate county officers. Midlothian sends six delegates; Manchester township, five; Dale, five; Matoaca, five; Bristol, seven; Winfree's Store, three; Goode's Store, three; Clover Hill, seven; Bermuda Hundreds, one; Chester, two—total, forty-four. Two clerks—circuit and county—a sheriff, a treasurer, and a commissioner of the revenue for District No. 1 are to be nominated.

Brief Rems.—In the Mayor's Court yesterday morning Walker Johnson and Dolly Lockett (both colored), were up, charged with fighting and creating a disturbance. The offence was committed Friday, and during the fight rocks and bottles were thrown promiscuously. Dolly Lockett was struck on her head, receiving a blow which knocked her senseless for a few moments. They were fined $2.50 each.

At Providence church, in Chesterfield county, Friday night, there was a large audience to hear the lecture delivered by Mr. David L. Pulliam, "The Nobility of Labor." The lecture was interesting and entertaining. The proceeds will go towards securing a library for the Sunday school of this church.

A regular meeting of the City Council was held Friday night, but no business of importance was transacted.

The roads in the county are in a very bad condition at present, particularly those leading to and from this city.

Rev. W. A. Campbell, of the Presbyterian church, is attending the session of the East Hanover Presbytery, consequently there will be no preaching at that church to-day.

The Board of Supervisors of Chesterfield will meet on the fourth Monday of April to lay the county levy and to receive the final settlement of the executors of the late Treasurer.

The railroads in the county will be taxed for county and school purposes in the coming levy.

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF DALE LODGE, NO. 593, KNIGHTS OF HONOR.

MANCHESTER, VA., April 8, 1881.

The undersigned, appointed to draft suitable resolutions commemorative of our loss in the death of Colonel W. B. WOOLDRIDGE, beg leave to present the following:

The lives of good men, of men who, through a long and eventful series of years, have discharged faithfully every duty devolving upon them, should hold out to those who survive them examples for their guide and government. Their loss creates a vacuum which the recollection of their virtues sadly but partially fills. 'Tis with feelings such as these that we are now called upon to mourn the loss of our deceased brother, Colonel W. B. Wooldridge was truly a Knight of Honor. With him, where honor was involved there was no compromise. With a heart full of benevolence and a temper that neither trifles nor adversity could ruffle, yet he felt a stain like a wound, and that honor was his pride as well as his wealth. Charitable and sympathetic he was a most to a fault, and no friend in distress or any object of charity ever appealed to him in vain. In private life he was so kind and amiable, in his public life he exhibited every trustworthy trait. Where duty called he was foremost to lead, and in both his military and civil life his cool courage and discriminating judgment made him at once the idol of his troops and the incorruptible officer.

But Death has claimed him for his own, and his fragrant memory is all that is left to us. Like his illustrious leader, he has "passed over the river," where under the shade of the trees he has found the long wished-for "rest," where he awaits the blast of the bugle that will call us all to "fall in." Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Colonel William B. Wooldridge we have lost a friend who in every relation of life faithfully discharged the duties devolving upon him, and the memory of his many virtues will long be cherished by all who knew him.

Resolved, 2, That while we deplore his loss we bow with abject submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well and whose mercy endureth forever.

Resolved, 3, That we condole and sympathize with his family and friends in this their hour of affliction, and tender them every comfort our sympathy can afford.

Resolved, 4, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our deceased brother, a copy published in one of the daily papers, and the same be spread upon the records of this Lodge.

Fraternally submitted. H. A. JORDAN, E. MORRISSETTE, I. C. WELLS, Committee.
