Richmond Dispatch.

SATURDAY.....MARCH 11, 1882.

Remarks of Mr. Evans, of Middlesex, Seconding the Nomination in the House of Delegates of Judge Joseph Christian for the Supreme Court.

Mr. Speaker,—Representing as I do the county in which Judge Joseph Christian was born, in which he still owns an attractive home on the banks of the Rappahannock, and the people among whom his boyhood and early manhood life were spent, and who still regard him as their own, and claiming, as I do, to have been his life-long friend, I would be unfaithful to the representative trust reposed in me by the people of Middlesex and Mathews alike, and false to the friendship which I profess and feel, if I were not to second the nomination of the gentleman from Gloucester of my distinguished countyman and friend for reelection as a judge of the Court of Appeals of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, Judge Christian and myself were boys together, and I have known him long and know him well. We were schoolmates and collegemates, and it is with pleasure that I recall the scenes and incidents of those happy years and the display of those noble qualities of head and of heart which have so adorned his character through life.

Judge Christian entered the practice of his profession a few years before I did, and at once measured lances and coped successfully with such distinguished lawyers as Robert L. Montague, John T. and M. B. Seawell, and others.

In 1859 Judge Christian and myself, representing the Old-Line Whig party, were elected from Democratic districts to the General Assembly of Virginia by large majorities, secured chiefly by the powerful arguments and splendid oratory of my distinguished friend.

Mr. Speaker, I well remember the impression made upon the Virginia Senate when he made his first speech in that body, composed as it was of the most distinguished men of the State.

The bill known then as the oyster fundum bill was under discussion—a measure which received the favor of the then Governor, Henry A. Wise, and the prestige of his great fame and high official position.

Judge Christian opposed the passage of that bill in a speech of such force and power as to carry conviction to the minds of a large majority that it was unconstitutional in its provisions and harsh and oppressive in the means provided for its execution. So convincing was his argument that the distinguished Senator from Augusta, the Hon. A. H. H. Stuart, arose from his seat as soon as Judge Christian concluded, and moved the indefinite postponement of the bill for the reason that the constitutional objections presented by the Senator from Middlesex were unanswerable.

But, Mr. Speaker, I forbear to trace longer the history of Judge Christian as a lawyer and legislator, and ask the attention of the House to his career since, in 1865-'66, he was clothed by the General Assembly of Virginia with the judicial ermine and made the circuit judge of that district of country extending from the corporate limits of this city to the Chesapeake bay. Shortly after his election to this position he had to preside in the celebrated trial of Jeter Phillips, the wife-murderer—a case which excited the greatest interest in Richmond and throughout the Commonwealth. For sixty-two days that young judge occupied the chair which you now occupy, Mr. Speaker. Colonel John B. Young, of Henrico, conducted the prosecution, and A. B. Guigon, Marmaduke Johnson, and W. W. Crump, three of Richmond's brightest and ablest lawyers, defended Phillips. Fifty-seven bills of exception were filed to the rulings of the Court, and the case was taken up to the Court of Appeals, and Judge Christian was affirmed by that highest tribunal of the State.

Whilst circuit judge, allow me to say, sir, that appeals were taken from his decisions in nine cases to the District Court at Williamsburg, in eight of which he was affirmed; and when the ninth case reached the Court of Appeals the District Court was reversed and Judge Christian affirmed.

Judge Christian continued to hold the position of circuit judge for four years, when the taking of the "iron-clad oath" was made the condition of his continuance in office. This he could not and would not do, and he returned to the practice of his profession and formed a co-partnership in the city of Richmond with the distinguished lawyer-jurist of Petersburg, W. T. Joynes. This partnership, formed and conducted under the most auspicious circumstances, was terminated after eight or nine months by the election of both members of the partnership to the bench of the Supreme Court of the State of Virginia. Then it was, Mr. Speaker, that the judicial qualities of Judge Christian's mind were called forth, and the reserved supply of legal lore was brought into requisition.

The country having but recently emerged from civil war, which had subverted established institutions and disturbed the rights of property, and unsettled society in all of its departments, individual, fiduciary, and public securities or evidences of debt being greatly affected by the war and by national and State legislation, the Virginia Court of Appeals had many new and intricate questions to adjudicate, and had, as it were, to blaze the way through the unexplored forest of litigation for the guidance of succeeding courts. The practitioners in that court know of the various acts in Judge Christian's judicial cause which stamp him as one of the soundest jurists of the day, and the pages of Grattan's Virginia Reports from the 18th to the 34th volumes are covered over with his perspicuous, ornate, and able opinions on every conceivable question.

I say here, Mr. Speaker, without fear of contradiction, that among the justly-distinguished members of that high court Judge Christian stands the peer of him who stands foremost.

In those cases which have gone up from that court to the Supreme Court of the United States, Judge Christian's opinions, whether concurring with the majority of the judges or dissenting from the majority, have in almost every instance been sustained and commended by that court of last resort in the United States. Notably was this true in the cases of Antoni and Wright, Clarke vs. Wright, sergeant, and others, involving the inviolability of the contracts between the State and her creditors. In the first of these cases the opinion of Judge Bouldin, and in the second that of Judge Christian, were to the same effect, and Mr. Justice Field, in delivering the opinion of the United States Supreme Court, quoted the verbiage of these two Virginia judges, and said "these are words of wisdom which the whole judiciary of the country ought to heed and to follow." Again, in the case of Underwood and McVeigh, in which Judge Christian delivered the opinion of the court, the Supreme Court affirmed that decision.

And once more, Mr. Speaker, in the celebrated Haunstein case, which involved the construction of the treaty between the United States Government and the Swiss Confederation, Judge Christian delivered the dissenting opinion, and when the case was taken to the Supreme Court the counsel for the appellant, William L. Royall, made Judge Christian's opinion a part of his brief, and the judge of that court, who delivered the opinion of the court in the dissenting opinion of Judge Christian, referring to it in terms of highest compliment.

But why, Mr. Speaker, should I detain the House longer to hear me in the advocacy of this distinguished jurist for reelection, when already it has been decreed by the dominant party that he must step down from the high and exalted position which he has so well and ably filled to make place for another?

'Tis painful to know, sir, that the high qualifications of Judge Christian do not carry with them their merited influence; that the bench of the Court of Appeals—the holy of holies—is to be invaded; and those who have kept the ermine pure and endeavored by their decisions to maintain the honor and credit of Virginia should be made to suffer martyrdom because of their righteous judgments. I know, sir, from the indications that have already been given, that Judge Christian will be defeated, but I could not refrain from advocating the claims of this man, who has been the friend of my life and the honored citizen of my county and the State.

From Florida.

ENTERPRISE AND SANFORD, ON LAKE MONROE—WHAT WAS SEEN FROM ENTERPRISE TO ROCKLEDGE ON THE INDIAN RIVER—MR. WILKINSON'S GROVE AND RESIDENCE FOR INVALIDS AND PLEASURE-SEEKERS—PERSONAL—FISHING IN THE BANANA, &C.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

MERRITT'S ISLAND, INDIAN RIVER, FLA., February 27, 1882.

When I last wrote you I promised to say something about Enterprise and Sanford, both of which places are on Lake Monroe, two hundred miles above Jacksonville, and the head of navigation for all through boats, only small steamers going farther south. Lake Monroe is twelve miles long and five miles wide. Enterprise is on its eastern shore, and is the extreme southern point for the larger and daily line of St. John's steamers, though very small steamers run from that point to Lake Poinsett, near Indian river. Enterprise has a good hotel, a big spring of sulphur water, and a large grove of oranges, &c., and is called a good place for fishing and hunting; but I saw no extraordinary evidences of success in either sport, except an alligator ten and half feet long that was shot by one of the boarders. Sanford is on the southwest bank of the lake, five miles distant from Enterprise, and was named in honor of General H. S. Sanford, ex-United States Minister to Belgium, and owner of the "Sanford grant," the original grant of the King of Spain to Thomas Atkinson, which covers an area of 40,000 acres. The "city" is rather extensively laid out on high, dry, and poor pine land; but is the shipping point for what is considered one of the most important orange-growing regions in the State, and is the county-seat of Orange county. The South Florida railroad terminates here, and there are evidences everywhere of increasing population and expanding groves. I left Enterprise on the little steamer Marion for Rockledge, on the Indian river, distant one hundred and forty miles. The St. John's, from Lake Monroe to Lake Poinsett, is a succession of lakes, including Lake Harney, Puzzle lake, &c., between which what is called "the river" winds its narrow, tortuous course, sometimes with well-defined banks and sometimes through the "bonnets," and without a shore; nothing in sight but "bonnets" and tall grasses, with a gleam of water wherever the grass would admit of it. Where the banks are well-defined they are beautifully fringed with timber, mostly Palmetto; and there are some extensive savannas that look as green and smooth as an oat-field just before heading, with clumps of trees in the distance that look so much like the groves that ornament many Virginia homes that you cannot help looking out for a glimpse of the "house" and wondering whether it is brick or frame. You are really sailing away along crooked channels bordered by cabbage lilies, where the water and the land have long struggled for supremacy, and the effort has produced a paradise for alligators and water fowl. We saw a number of "gators" on the trip, and innumerable water-turkeys, pelicans, cranes, and ducks, and I caught some fine bass by trolling from the deck of the steamer. The stopping place for our little steamer was on the south shore of Lake Poinsett, eighty-three and a half miles from Rockledge, on the Indian river. Here we had to take passage on wagons that were standing in water up to the axles, and were driven through water from six inches to three feet deep for more than a mile of the distance to Rockledge. Rockledge is a ridge some sixty feet high, underlaid with "torquina," (a stone formed of shells and sand,) and separates the waters of the St. John's river from Indian river. It is about half a mile wide, and slopes off very pretily on the south side to Indian river, and is rich hammock land. For several hundred yards the road leads along a gradual descent, with a magnificent orange grove on one side and on the other a dense forest of palmettoes, until you reach the residence of Mr. Wilkinson, a Richmond man, who owns the grove and surroundings of this important place; for, independent of its valuable and extensive grove of nearly all the tropical productions you can think of, and as a winter residence for invalids and pleasure-seekers, it is the shipping and trading point for nearly the whole of the Indian-river country.

Mr. Wilkinson is displaying a great deal of taste and judgment in fitting up his place so as to meet the demands that are being made upon it. He is assisted by his son, and they are both of them kind and attentive to their guests.

Among the agreeable persons I met with here is the ubiquitous hotel prince, L. W. Scoville, he of Lynchburg in two places—the "Arlington" and the "Norvell"—the "Kimball" in Atlanta, the "Duval" in Jacksonville, and soon to open in Charlotte, N. C., and it would not surprise me to hear of his opening at several other places—all first-class, and of course all pay. He is a good, warm-hearted fellow, has a pretty wife and pretty child, who seem devoted to him, and well deserves the success he has achieved. This so-called Indian river is nothing but an arm of the sea that runs up into the country parallel with the ocean some hundred miles. Fifteen miles below this place it splits upon a torquina-faced piece of land and sends a stream up on the Atlantic side for thirty-six miles, which is called the Banana river, thus leaving the strip of land called Merritt's island, which is from four to six miles wide. The Banana is several miles wide where I saw it, and the strip of land intervening between it and the ocean only three fourths of a mile across. It affords magnificent shooting and fishing. I caught a number of sea-trout weighing from four to eight pounds, and sea-bass three and a half feet long and weighing from twenty-five to thirty pounds each. Cocoanuts, pine-apples, guavas, &c., &c., grow on Indian river, and the oranges are esteemed the best in Florida. Large quantities of tomatoes and bananas are now being shipped North. The place I am now staying at—Dr. Whitfield's—is on a bluff sixty feet high, and between the dwelling and the Indian river is a lake one mile long and one and a quarter miles wide, with a narrow strip of land between the lake and Indian river, which has a canal for small boats cut through it. On the other side of the bluff is the Banana river, not more than one hundred and fifty yards from his dwelling—the whole distance from one river to the other being about half a mile, and you may look across the Banana and see ships sailing on the Atlantic—a most romantic situation, famous for fruits, flowers, and mosquitoes! I shall leave it to-morrow. C. M. R.

[For the Dispatch.]

A Mistake in Macaulay.

Yes, a genuine, bona fide, grammatical mistake. In his magnificent description of the trial of Warren Hastings he says:

"There were Fox and Sheridan, the English Demosthenes and the English Hyperides. There was Burke, ignorant, indeed, or negligent of the art of adapting his reasonings and his style to the capacity and taste of his hearers, but in amplitude of comprehension and richness of imagination superior to every orator, ancient or modern."

In other words, Burke was superior to himself—a mistake rather characteristic of the school-boy than of the great master.

"Tantae-ne animis coelestibus culpae?"

R. W. T., Gatesville, N. C.

But "every other" carries an idea so different from the one Macaulay wished to convey that he did well to say "every orator" rather than "every other orator."

An effective medicine for kidney diseases, low fevers, and nervous prostration, and well worthy of a trial, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

A Chicago woman drives a street-car. Hence she can't be "passing fare."—Norristown Herald.

Ring Dem Charmin' Bells.

AS SUNG BY UNCLE REMUS.

Oh, sinner! don't take yo' time,
Dar's a road we all mus' clime—
Hit's a road full er faintin' spells;
De way mighty long,
But soul git strong
W'en she year dem charmin' bells,
Oh, sing, my soul!
Oh, ring en roll!
Ring-a dem charmin' bells!

De road mighty full er dus'
But sinner kin squench his thus'
By drinkin' fum de Jacob wells;
En de soul git strong
W'en she year dat song—
Oh, ring dem charmin' bells!
Oh, Jerdun, roll!
Oh, sing, my soul!
Ring-a dem charmin' bells!

Oh, sufferin' sinner, rise—
Lif' up dem 'umsel eyes—
Listen w'at de Sperit tells;
Oh, do git strong
En sing dat song—
I year dem' charmin' bells!
Oh, sing, my soul!
Oh, ring en roll!
Ring-a dem charmin' bells!

W'en de night git dark en col',
En you year dat Jerdun roll,
Dat de place whar John befels; *
Oh, soul, git strong,
En sing dat song—
Oh, ring dem charmin' bells!
Oh, sing, my soul!
Oh, ring en roll!
Ring-a dem charmin' bells!

My Lord, he done enroll
Dat shinin' clof uv gol',
En de heav'ms dey sinks en swells!
Oh, soul, sing strong!
Des shout dat song—
Oh, ring dem charmin' bells!
Oh, sing, my soul!
Oh, ring en roll!
Ring-a dem charmin' bells!

* In other words, this is what befell St. John. It may be well to state in this connection that this attempt to render the spirit of a very quaint song should not be confounded with "Roll, Jordan, Roll," the music of which has been preserved with wonderful success by the late Mrs. Lucy McKim Garrison, nor with another song with the same refrain. The rolling of the Jordan and the ringing of the charming bells are heard in a dozen negro songs.

AFTER BEING TREATED by physicians for a long while in vain for a severe Blood Disease, I cured myself with S. S. S. C. G. Rateliff, Richmond, Va. Price, $1 and $1.75 per bottle.

Fun, Fact, and Fiction.

Probably they call them State-prison birds because they are sent to Sing Sing.—Boston Transcript.

Cardinal Newman says that a gentleman is one who never inflicts pain; then no dentist can be a gentleman.—Buffalo Courier.

It is a time-honored custom in Quincy, Fla., to salute a newly-married couple by firing a cannon. This is to remind them that the battle of life has fairly begun.—Burlington Hawkeye.

The intelligent compositor left out the letter d in a paragraph about a beautiful actress, and informed the public that crows flocked to see her wherever she went.—Exchange.

"The simple utterance of joy is poetry," says Oscar Wilde. That settles it. We shall allow no joy in our family. It will be tossed into the waste-basket.—New Haven Register.

"There!" triumphantly exclaimed a Deadwood editor, as a bullet came through the window and shattered the inkstand. "I knew that new 'Personal' column would be a success."—San Francisco Post.

No tidings have been received from Stanley, the explorer, for two years. It is rumored that he did not go into Africa, but that he joined the New York police force and has gone to sleep on his beat.—Boston Breakfast-Table.

Conversation at the Rink: She—"What a horrible noise this band makes!" He—"I beg your pardon." She—"Excuse me." He—"Pardon me. Did you speak?" She—"I didn't catch your last remark." Both relapse into silence.—Yale Record.

Little Edith was terribly sleepy the other night. She began her customary prayer upon retiring, but when she got as far as "Our Father" her eyes closed and her head tumbled onto the pillow. "I tan't tay it to-night," she said, "I'm too s'eepy. He knows the yest of it."—Boston Transcript.

A giveaway: Yesterday the wife of our friend returning home rang at her own door. Nobody coming she rang again. Still nobody. Finally, at a louder, longer ring, the valet concluded to show himself. "Pray, are you deaf?" said the lady. "I beg pardon, madame," said the valet tranquilly, "but I heard only the third ring." Le Figaro.

She sat down at the piano, cleared her throat, and commenced to harmonize. Her first selection was: "I cannot sing the old songs," and a gloom that was colder and blacker than a Sunday dinner fell on the company when the stranger in the corner said: "And we trust you are not familiar with the new ones."—St. Louis Hornet.

"Some years ago Miss Libbie Minkler, of Rochelle, Ill., lost both arms by falling in front of a reaper. To-day she is earning a good living by oil-painting, holding the brush in her teeth." The above item, now going the rounds, reminds us that this is the first instance where a tooth-brush was utilized in the pictorial art. Wonder if the young lady also utilizes her palate.—Boston Transcript.

Lady Haines, the wife of the Indian hero, is credited with a mot too good to be thrown away on account of prudes. Having stated her intention of going to a fancy ball as Old Mother Hubbard, an enthusiastic admirer of hers vowed frivolously that he would take the character of the "cupboard." "You cannot," said her ladyship quickly. She added, after a telling pause, "the cupboard was bare."—London Life.

A pure strengthening tonic, free from whiskey, and alcohol, cures dyspepsia and similar diseases. It has never been equalled. Brown's Iron Bitters.

UNDERTAKERS.

JOSEPH W. LAUBE,
FURNISHING-UNDERTAKER,
CORNER FIRST AND BROAD STREETS,
RICHMOND, VA.
WOOD AND METALLIC BURIAL-CASES, ROBES, HEARSE, HACKS, and all things requisite at LOWEST RATES.
Telegraphic and country orders solicited. mh 6

PROFESSIONAL.

DR. W. H. GIBBS respectfully informs his friends and the public that he will RESUME THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE. Office at present No. 736 west Broad street, corner of Gilmer. mh 5-1w

ROASTED COFFEE.

LEVERING'S ROASTED COFFEE.

HIGHEST AWARD ATLANTA EXPOSITION, 1881.

TO THE RESIDENTS OF RICHMOND AND VIRGINIA GENERALLY

Appreciating the growing want and demand for ROASTED COFFEE, we have recently added to our COFFEE IMPORTING AND JOBBING BUSINESS, THAT OF A ROASTING DEPARTMENT.

Our many years' experience in the handling of coffee, and the large stocks we now carry, give us UNUSUAL facilities for securing the MOST DESIRABLE coffees for ROASTING.

In this age of adulteration, it is all-important that in all ARTICLES OF FOOD we secure those free from all deleterious manipulation. These goods of ours WE guarantee ABSOLUTELY PURE, the coffee being well selected and roasted by the most approved machinery—not glazed or polished in any way.

The present HIGH STANDING of OUR HOUSE throughout the country, attained ONLY after MANY YEARS of ACTIVE and HONORABLE BUSINESS EXPERIENCE, is your guarantee that you can RELY upon OUR GOODS being AS REPRESENTED.

By permission, we append a certificate from a number of your fellow-townsmen which speaks for itself. E. LEVERING & CO., Baltimore, Md.

These goods will be for sale by leading grocers in this city.

The undersigned take great pleasure in testifying to the high character of Messrs. E. LEVERING & Co., of Baltimore. Any statement they may make in regard to their goods may be implicitly relied upon. Wherever they are known this assurance will be altogether unnecessary.

SPOTTS & GIBSON,
DAVENPORT & MORRIS,
H. K. ELLYSON,
GATES, BROWN & GATES,
J. T. ELLYSON.
mh 7

AUCTION SALES—This Day.

RICHMOND BAZAAR,
NOS. 1438 AND 1440 FRANKLIN STREET.

THIS DAY
at 10 o'clock we will sell
A REGISTRY OF FIRST-CLASS ANIMALS,
just received from Clarke county, and having been selected by a competent judge, we can safely say that there are in this lot some as fine as we have offered this season.
PREVIOUS TO WHICH
we will offer our usual variety of
NEW AND SECOND-HAND VEHICLES.
WILL BE ADDED,
FIVE WELL-BROKE FARM MULES.
JOHN B. DAVIS, Proprietor.
E. B. COOK, Auctioneer. mh 11

AUCTION SALES—Future Days.

By Chewning & Rose,
Real Estate Auctioneers and Brokers,
No. 5 north Tenth street.

COMMISSIONERS' AUCTION SALE
OF
TWO VALUABLE CORNER LOTS
IN THE
NEIGHBORHOOD OF MONROE PARK;
ONE ON THE NORTHEAST CORNER OF FRANKLIN AND SHAFER STREETS, AND THE OTHER ON THE SOUTHWEST CORNER OF FLOYD AND LINDEN STREETS.

By virtue of a decree of the Richmond Chancery Court in the suit of McCarthy vs. Dickinson and als., entered February 18, 1882, the undersigned, special commissioners thereby appointed for the purpose, will sell by auction, on the premises, on

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 1882,

at 4½ o'clock P. M., the above-mentioned PROPERTY.

LOT corner of Franklin and Shafer streets has a front of 21 feet 6 inches on said Franklin street, and a depth of 156 feet, more or less, to an alley 16 feet wide.

LOT corner of Floyd and Linden streets fronts 30 feet on said Floyd street, and runs back 199 feet to an alley 20 feet wide.

The sale of TWO WEST-END CORNER LOTS should attract the attention of all in quest of handsome lots upon which to erect dwellings.

TERMS: One fourth cash; balance in six, twelve, and eighteen months, interest added, and title retained till the purchase-money is paid, and deed ordered by the Court. JACKSON GUY,
ROBERT STILES,
THOMAS J. EVANS,
JOHN H. DINNEEN,
A. R. COURTNEY,
Special Commissioners.
mh 11

By Quarles & McCurdy,
(successors to Robert B. Lyne,)
Real Estate Agents, Auctioneers, and Brokers,
1212 Main street.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF VALUABLE PROPERTY ON THE EAST LINE OF THIRTEENTH OR GOVERNOR STREET BETWEEN MAIN AND FRANKLIN STREETS.—By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond in the suit of Schofield vs. Ehors and als., pronounced on the 21st of June, 1881, and another decree of resale in said cause entered on the 4th day of March, 1882, the undersigned, as sheriff of said city and commissioner named in last-mentioned decree, will offer for sale, upon the premises, on

FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1882,

at 1 o'clock P. M., that VALUABLE LOT, fronting about 24 feet, more or less, on the east line of Thirteenth street near Main street, with a LARGE THREE-STORY BRICK STORE AND DWELLING thereon, now in the occupancy of Mr. Denis Brophy. The lot is about 125 feet deep, and runs back to an alley in the rear. The location is a desirable one for business.

TERMS: One third cash; residue in equal instalments at six and twelve months for negotiable notes, with 6 per cent. interest added, and the title retained until the whole purchase-money is paid and a conveyance ordered by the Court. The purchaser may at his option pay the entire purchase-money in court and obtain a conveyance at the confirmation of the sale.

JOHN W. WRIGHT,
Sheriff of City of Richmond,
mh 11 Special Commissioner.

By George S. Vashon & Son,
Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers,
No. 7 Tenth street.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF FRAMED STORE, WITH DWELLING ABOVE, ON SOUTH SIDE OF BAKER STREET BETWEEN ST. JOHN AND ST. PAUL STREETS.—In pursuance of a decree of the Chancery Court of Richmond in the cause of Slater, Myers & Co. vs. Metzger, trustee, and als., entered on the 7th of March, 1882, I will sell at public auction, on the premises, on at 4½ o'clock P. M., that certain property above described. The lot fronts 25 feet, extending back between parallel lines 78 feet.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15, 1882,

TERMS: One third cash; balance in equal sums at six and twelve months. F. M. CONNER, mh 10 Commissioner

REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE.

TIMBERED LAND.

FOR IMMEDIATE SALE, about 4,000 ACRES OF LAND—half cultivated and half heavily timbered with fine white-oak and pine—three miles from railroad and twenty-two from Petersburg. Land and Timber sold separately or together. For full particulars apply to CAPTAIN BARKLEY, Royal Navy, care of John Dunlop, Esq., mh 2-Th&Ss2w Bank street, Richmond, Va.

$200 CASH AND BALANCE ON LONG TIME, at 4 per cent. interest, will buy an IMPROVED FARM near Ashland, Hanover county, Va. Address Box 252, Ashland, Va. mh 2-d12t&w2t*

GROCERIES, LIQUORS, &c.

LARGE BUFFALO TONGUES,
CHIPPED BEEF,
TODD'S SHOULDERS and BREAST BACON,
HARD CRABS and LOBSTERS,
MILWAUKEE BEER (is said to equal the best imported),
ECLIPSE CHAMPAGNE (equal to the best imported and 33⅓ per cent. cheaper), GIBSON'S PURE OLD WHISKEY (straight), for sale by JOSEPH M. BLAIR, GROCER, mh 11 826 Main street.

CUBA MOLASSES.

DAVENPORT & MORRIS
offer for sale a CARGO OF
NEW-CROP CHOICE MATANZAS MOLASSES,
now landing in the dock.
[mh 9-7t]

SMOKED HERRINGS;
SMOKED SALMON;
SMOKED BEEF;
SMOKED TONGUES;
SARATOGA CHIPS;
FINEST VIRGINIA HAMS IN THE STATE AT
mh 7 CHRISTIAN & WHITE'S.

50 BARRELS WHISKEY, GELATINE, COOKING WINE and BRANDY, PORT, SHERRY, and CATAWBA WINES, FRENCH BRANDIES, APPLE BRANDY, RUM, HOLLAND GIN, CHOICE SUGAR-CURED BACON, OAT MEAL, GREEN and BLACK TEAS 50c. a pound, SUGARS, COFFEES, and FLOUR, various grades, at JOHN M. HIGGINS'S.
de 6-Tu,Th&Sa

COFFEE-DRINKERS WHO LIKE GOOD COFFEE,
TRY THUEBER'S No. 34.
For sale by McCARTHY & HAYNES, fe 18-S&8t 627 east Broad street.

SARATOGA CHIPS,
ARBUCKLE COFFEE, SPANISH OLIVES, HORSE-RADISH, PLUM-PUDDING, CALIFORNIA APRICOTS, PLUMS, and PEARS; EDAM, YOUNG AMERICA, and PINEAPPLE CHEESE;
THOMAS'S BEST and DIANORA TOBACCO;
BONELESS HAM, TURKEY, and CHICKEN; PARMASON CHEESE, at McCARTHY & HAYNES'S,
fe 18 627 Broad street.

HERRINGS.—500 barrels N. C. CUT HERRINGS; 100 barrels N. C. GROSS HERRINGS. [fe 8] A. Y. STOKES & CO.

FINANCIAL.

TO THE PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA:
We beg to offer you our services for the PURCHASE AND SALE OF ALL CLASSES OF BONDS AND STOCKS in this and other markets. Exception facilities for buying, selling, and carrying VIRGINIA BONDS. Our office being in the Stock-Exchange building, all orders receive immediate attention. Correspondence solicited.
REFERENCES: National Mechanics Bank, Western National Bank, Bank of Commerce, Howard Bank. RAMSAY, CLABAUGH & CO., Bankers and Brokers, Baltimore, Md.
de 75-6m

CROCKERY, GLASSWARE, &c.

NEW GOODS.

We have just opened the largest stock of SPRING GOODS ever exhibited in this city, consisting of RICH BISQUE and DRESDEN FIGURES, VASES, and FANCY ARTICES;
ELEGANT DINNER-, TEA-, GAME-, FISH-, OYSTER-, ICE-CREAM-, and DESSERT-SETS.
In CHAMBER TOILET-WARE our assortment cannot be surpassed.
Our stock is complete in every department, and the prices very low. Call and examine it.
E. B. TAYLOR,
mh 8 1011 Main street.

AUCTION SALES—Future Days.

By Jno. E. Laughton, Jr., Auctioneer,
1206 Main street.

$10,000 WORTH OF
FINE SILVER-PLATED WARE,
RODGERS'S KNIVES, &c.,
AT AUCTION.

I shall begin during the early part of next week my fifth annual sale of a large and valuable collection of embracing every article known to manufacturers, in the latest designs, and of the best quality made.

RICH TRIPLE-PLATED SILVERWARE,

These goods have been sold directly by me for five years past, and under my direction and patronage for ten years past, and their character is attested by the best families in our community; and I am authorized to say that the money will be cheerfully refunded for any goods so sold in the past ten years that have not come fully up to the representations then made.

Due notice will be given in future advertisements of the time and place of commencing the sale.

JNO. E. LAUGHTON, JR.,
mh 10-2t Auctioneer.

By Furman Tupper,
Real Estate Agent and Auctioneer,
1016 Main street.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF THAT ATTRACTIVE AND VALUABLE FARM KNOWN AS "FRINGELAND," SITUATED ON THE BROAD-STREET ROAD TWO MILES FROM THE WESTERN LIMITS OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND, CONTAINING 36⅝ ACRES OF FIRST-CLASS TRUCKING LAND AND AMPLE IMPROVEMENTS.—By virtue of a certain deed of trust executed to the undersigned as trustee, dated March 1, 1881, and recorded in the clerk's office of Henrico County Court, D. B. 106, page 209, to secure the payment of certain notes therein mentioned (default being made in the payment thereof), and being required so to do by the beneficiary, I shall sell by public auction, on the premises, on

MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1882,

at 12 o'clock M., the VALUABLE ESTATE conveyed by the deed aforesaid. A COMFORTABLE DWELLING with large rooms, halls, and porches; two kitchens with four rooms each, barn, stable, cow-house, dairy, &c., are on the premises. There is on it a young orchard of 800 trees of the choicest kind of fruit; also, a fine assortment of grapes and strawberries, and 20 acres in grain.

This place is desirable either as a trucking farm or a summer residence.

TERMS: One third cash; balance in one and two years, interest added to deferred notes, and secured by a trust-deed.

mh 10 T. TUPPER, Jr., Trustee.

By Frank D. Hill & Co.,
Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers,
1108 Main street.

TWO NICE NEW BRICK DWELLINGS AND FRAME DWELLING, Nos. 509, 511, AND 513 CATHERINE STREET, NEAR BROOK AVENUE, AT AUCTION.—On

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1882,

on the premises, at 4½ o'clock P. M., we will sell the VALUABLE PROPERTY located as above. The HOUSES contain each six rooms, gas and city water on each lot. The whole property is in excellent order, and the BRICK HOUSES are entirely new, and now renting to good tenants. Brick tenements front each 23 feet, and Frame 24½ feet, running back good depth to an alley in rear, which property is well built, and will pay good interest on the outlay.

TERMS: One third cash; balance in six, twelve, and eighteen months.

FRANK D. HILL & CO.,
mh 8 Auctioneers.

By George H. Poindexter,
Real Estate Agent and Auctioneer,
1200 Main street.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF THE REAL ESTATE OF GEORGE CUNNINGHAM, DECEASED, CONSISTING OF AN EXCELLENT FARM IN MECHANICSVILLE AND VERY DESIRABLE REAL ESTATE IN THE CITY OF RICHMOND.—In pursuance of a decree entered in the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond on the 4th day of March, 1882, in the cause of Cunningham et als. vs. Cunningham et als., the undersigned, special commissioners therein named, will proceed to sell on the premises by public auction the REAL ESTATE of George Cunningham, deceased, as follows:

ON MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1882, commencing at 4 P. M., we will sell the REAL ESTATE in the city of Richmond in the order named:

THREE BRICK TENEMENTS on the west side of Wall or Fifteenth street between Main and Franklin, fronting 65½ feet and running back 45 feet.

THREE BRICK STORES, with dwellings above, south side of Grace between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, one being the store and dwelling lately occupied by George Cunningham, deceased, with which we will sell the five brick and three framed dwellings in rear, with stable and wagon-yard.

A TWO-STORY BRICK DWELLING on the south side of Marshall street at its intersection with the west line of Sixteenth street, having a front of 16½ feet on Marshall street and running back 95 feet to an alley.

If the whole of the above property is not sold on this day the sale will be continued the following day, commencing at same hour.

ON WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 1882, commencing at 4 o'clock, we will sell that VALUABLE FARM at Mechanicsville, in the county of Hanover, five miles from the city of Richmond, containing 327 ACRES, occupied by George Cunningham, deceased, at the time of his death, and lately the property of Dr. J. G. Lumpkin. This is a most valuable property, and is too well known to need any further special description. The dwelling and out-houses are commodious and in most excellent condition. There is a store on the premises, with wheelwright- and blacksmith-shops, and location most excellent one for business.

TERMS AS TO CITY PROPERTY: One fourth cash; balance at six, twelve, and eighteen months—the purchaser to execute his negotiable notes, with interest added, for the deferred payments, with title retained until the purchase-money is paid and conveyance ordered by the Court.

In the sale of the farm the commissioners are authorized to extend credits one, two, and three years, if the purchaser so desires.

HENRY G. CANNON,
A. R. COURTNEY,
Special Commissioners.
GEORGE H. POINDEXTER, Auctioneer. mh 9

By Furman Tupper,
Real Estate Agent and Auctioneer,
1016 Main street.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF FOUR VALUABLE BUILDING LOTS SITUATED AT THE NORTHWEST INTERSECTION OF SPRING AND BELVIDERE STREETS.—By virtue of a decree of the Richmond Chancery Court, in the suit of McCarthy, &c., vs. Dickinson and als., entered February 18, 1882, the undersigned, special commissioners thereby appointed for the purpose, will sell at public auction, on the premises, on

SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1882,

at 4½ o'clock P. M., ALL THAT LAND described in a deed of trust from A. L. Dickinson and wife to A. R. Courtney and L. R. Dickinson, trustees, dated December 5, 1877, and recorded in the clerk's office of Richmond Chancery Court, D. B. 112 C, page 34, as follows: "Those four certain lots of land lying in the city of Richmond at the northwest intersection of Spring and Belvidere streets, fronting together 112 feet on the north line of Spring street, and running back between parallel lines along the west line of Belvidere street 128⅝ feet." These LOTS lie beautifully, and are in that part of the city so rapidly growing and enhancing in value, and will pay handsomely as an investment.

TERMS: One fourth cash; balance in six, twelve, and eighteen months, interest added, and title retained until all the purchase-money is paid and deed ordered by the Court.

ROBERT STILES,
ALFRED R. COURTNEY,
JOHN H. DINNEEN,
THOMAS J. EVANS,
JACKSON GUY,
mh 8 Special Commissioners.

By W. Goddin & Son,
Real Estate Auctioneers,
corner Eleventh and Bank streets.

SALE AT AUCTION OF FOUR VALUABLE BUILDING LOTS ON THE NORTH SIDE OF BROAD BETWEEN SEVENTH AND EIGHTH STREETS.—Will be sold at auction, on the premises, on

THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1882,

at 5 o'clock P. M., that VERY VALUABLE and HIGHLY-ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE, located as above, fronting 80 feet, running back 70 feet to Euker's Garden, to be sold as a whole or divided into four lots, each fronting 20 feet. These LOTS are located on Broad street, where real estate is much sought after. They are well located for first-class retail stores, for which there is a special demand.

TERMS: Liberal, and made known at the time of sale. W. GODDIN & SON, mh 8 Auctioneers.

By Sutton & Co.,
Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers,
1108 Main street.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LOT WITH A FRAME HOUSE THEREON, ON THE NORTH SIDE OF DUVAL STREET BETWEEN PRENTICE'S ALLEY AND BROOK AVENUE, AT AUCTION.—In part execution of a certain deed of trust dated February 20, 1875, to me as trustee, I will offer for sale at public auction, on the premises, on

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1882,

at 4½ o'clock P. M., the above-described PROPERTY named in said deed, and designated as Lot No. 4 on a certain plot, which is duly recorded.

The house contains three rooms, and the lot fronts 38 feet 4 inches, running back a good depth.

TERMS: Whilst the deed requires cash, more liberal terms will be given.

mh 8 E. Y. CANNON, Trustee.

By W. H. Lyne & Co.,
Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers,
1113 Main street.

VALUABLE TWO-STORY-AND-BASEMENT BRICK DWELLING AND LOT ON TWENTY-FIFTH STREET NEAR LEIGH STREET FOR SALE BY AUCTION.—By request of the owner we shall sell by auction, on the premises, on

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1882,

at 4½ o'clock P. M., that DESIRABLE TWO-STORY-AND-BASEMENT BRICK DWELLING, No. 607, on the east side of Twenty-fifth street between Leigh and M streets, containing six rooms and in good repair. Lot 22½x126 feet, with alley in the rear.

This sale will afford an opportunity for the purchase of a comfortable and desirable home in a good neighborhood and at a low price.

TERMS: One third cash; balance by negotiable notes at six and twelve months, with interest added and secured by a deed of trust.