THE SHARON BAPTIST CHURCH DEDICATED.

Rev. John Jasper and Other Ministers Preach—Extracts from the Discourse.

The dedicatorial services of the Sharon Baptist Church took place Sunday, 4th, inst at the new remodelled edifice, corner of 1st and Leigh sts. Prayer by Rev. C. H. Phillips of Beaver Dam, Va. A statement was read by Rev. Richard H. Miles. The buildings cost $6,000; improvements, $2,500. This church was organized by Rev. Wm. Troy with 349 members, since which time 77 has been received by baptism and 141 by letter and experience—567 in all. A letter was read from Mayor J. Taylor Ellyson expressing his regret at not being able to be present.

Rev. Troy read the names of the persons who had aided in the work. He then introduced Rev. John Jasper, of the 6th Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Rev. Jasper explained that he was unwell. "As a citizen of Richmond for 65 years I can bear witness to many things said. When I took my stand in this city there was not one African Baptist church in this city. Where the church called the First Baptist church is now was the only one in the city and white and colored worshipped there together. Then the congregation became so large that the white people withdrew and the colored people worshipped there altogether.

I know when all of them now here started and how they started. I am standing as

A FATHER IN ISRAEL.

Whether you regard it so or not it is so. There is not one here who was preaching at the time that I began. You might name Rev. Dr. Ryland, but I've never thought he was a preacher. Every one haven't the same gift as others. I've thought he was a theological teacher. He understood theological subjects. I thought him capable of training others, but never thought him a preacher. I'm square. If he were here I'd say the same thing.

If this church is not properly organized there is not a church in Richmond properly organized. It is organized according to Baptist usages. I've always known Rev. Troy to be a gentleman. I don't mind common rumors. So far as I've been able to see he has been a Christian gentleman.

His text was, Matt. 25:27, 'Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.' He related the story as told in the Scriptures, commented on the necessity of improving the gifts God had bestowed on all. There was too much jealousy and prejudice among the churches. His comment on prayer was timely.—A man should not only pray, but feel what he prays. "You can't turn corners in God. You can do it on me, but you can't fool God. Tell him what you want. Some say, 'The thing that backs me out is that they always talk about money.'

There has never been a time that the cause of Christ could go forward without money. Trust in God. Don't talk about

WHAT PEOPLE THINK.

Whatever stigma or whatever slander is cast upon you, be sure that you know it is not so. A man who tries to do right can speak fearlessly no matter what people say. Trust in God. You've come out of great tribulation. march on! The smile of God's approbation is upon you. Some times I feel as big as anybody on earth. You shant know anything about me. If you say any thing about me you will lie on me and you and God will settle the matter.

If you are hated,let it be for righteousness sake. Luke 6:26.

God brought me this far and anybody whose got commonsense can see it. When did you ever see an old man as fat as I am. Here I'm 78 years of age, and look fat and strong as an ox, and haven't commenced to bend over yet—straight as an Indian arrow. The Savior is coming again. Six feet of earth belongs to you." He spoke of the need of money, and asserted that some had a great deal of religion until you call on them for money. Prayer was offered by Rev. Jacob Turner. The 6th Mt. Zion Church choir sang. The church was packed to overflowing. The new pulpit furniture is handsome, covered with navy-blue plush. Mrs. E. A. Morris headed the club that bought it.

Rev. W. W. Colley, ex-missionary to Africa preached an able but interesting sermon in the afternoon; and Rev. C. H. Phillips at night.

They are all going to the Cantata of Ruth and Boaz at the First Baptist Church one night, and at the Calvary Baptist Church the next.

Mr. George W. Bolling at Wertheimer's Shoe Store, 422 E. Broad Street, requests the public and his friends to call and see the latest novelties in footwear, before purchasing elsewhere.

ANOTHER CUTTING SCRAPE.

A Woman Imitates Annie Taylor—Three Months in Jail.

A sensation was caused in this city last Saturday night by the report that another colored man had been cut in the same locality that James H. Bradley had met his death. The case was called last Monday morning in the Police Court.

Mary Parker and Emma Walker had been charged with the crime, but further investigation brought out the fact that Emma did the cutting, so Mary was retained as a witness. Officer E. R. Robinson said that Saturday night between 7 and 8 o'clock some one told him that a man had been cut. He hurried down and arrested Emma Walker.

She said she cut Grant Woodson. She pulled out a knife and said it was the one she cut him with, and announced that she would be another Annie Taylor.

Grant Woodson was put upon the stand, and said that he was in Bropher's alley talking to one of the women, when Emma Walker joined in. He told her to go away as he didn't want to have anything to do with her. She reflected on his mother and said she would be a young Annie Taylor. She called his mother an unmentionable name. He told her if she said that again he'd smack her in the mouth. She repeated it and he whirled around and she caught him in the left breast. She cut at him again, but was prevented from doing further injury by Mary Parker. Woodson opened his shirt. The wound was in the left breast, about three quarters of an inch long, and about two inches above the heart. Woodson stated that he did not know he was cut until he saw the blood.

Giles B. Jackson appeared as counsel for the accused. The case was sent on to the grand jury. She was indicted and the case tried Wednesday in the Hustings Court. She was given three months in jail and one cent fine.

The woman is a light brown skin girl apparently about 17 years of age and it was surprising to see one so youthful in appearance, so hardened in crime.

Hannahs Council.

The 2d annual supper of Hannah's Council, No. 123 I. O. of St. Luke was given on the 24th ult. at Fisherman's Hall. It began with 29 members and now has 55 members and is in a prosperous condition. M. H. Griffin stated the condition of the Council.

Dr. S. H. Dismond, Revs. W. H. White, Geo. E. Johnson, and John Mitchell, Jr. made appropriate addresses. Presents were given various officers. Mrs. Fannie E. Brown of Antioch Council, No. 81 was given a present. The following are the officers.

P. W. D. C., Hannah Robinson; P. W. Chiefs Maria Wilson, Martha A. Smith, Jane Miller; W. Chief, Adline Henly; V. Chief, Maria Johnson; F. Sec't. Mary E.Smith; Treasurer, Mary E. Johnson;S. Cond, Alsie Epps: J. Cond. Eliza Goode; W. Chaplain,Elizabeth Lockett: K. of Wardrobe, Lidira Garrison: Outside Sentinel, Sarah Ann Blinkly; Inside Sentinel, Fannie Lee: W. Father, M. H. Griffin.

Mrs. Hannah Robinson was loaded down with presents. The supper was a grand affair and all heartily enjoyed themselves. The attractive Miss Mary E. Smith, has an excellent voice and entertained those present with musical selections.

THE MOVING OF THE LEE STATUE.

Confederate Flags on Every hand—The Stars and Stripes Entirely Ignored.

The statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee arrived in this city and was removed to the site upon which the pedestal is built, last Wednesday afternoon about 5 o'clock. The four boxes were upon the wagons to which had been attached long ropes. Men, women and children pulled these. The procession was headed by a band of music. A detachment of police and the veterans of R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1. and George E. Pickett Camp were also in line. The boxes were decorated with bunting and Confederate flags. On every hand could be seen the "stars and bars." No where in all this procession was there a United States flag. The emblem of the union had been left behind. The rebel yell, reinforced by a glorification of the lost cause was everywhere manifest.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

The Attempted Lynching.

John Phillips was arraigned in the county court of Mecklenburg on Thursday the 24th of April upon the charge of the murder of Capt. Obverby. Phillips elected to be tried in the Circuit Court which meets on Tuesday the 27th of this month.

John Irvin was also indicted as on accessory after the fact and sent an to the June term of the county court.

Both prisoners are now in the Petersburg jail. On Tuesday night the 24th of April about one hundred armed men went to the jail demanded the key and went through the jail saying, that either would suit them.

Fortunately the prisoners in the early part of the night had been secretly removed from the jail and driven several miles to the next station on the Atlantic and Danville R. R. Notwithstanding that this seems to be a case of killing in self defence there are many who are not willing to wait the action of the law.

This does not speak well for Mecklenburg. This kind of high handed outrage will continue until the Negroes do just as the whites do—take the law in their own hands and resist force with force.

Lynch-law must go.

——Don't yell so loud about it! The people are all going to the May Queen Monday, May 12th, at the 5th St. Baptist Church.

Pulpit Notes.

On last Sunday the congregation of the Mt. Calvary Baptist church, anticipated a good time. At 12 M. a large number of both races were seen wending their way to the little stream known as Gillis Creek to witness the baptizing of seventeen candidates by Rev. A. Ferguson. At 4 o'clock p. m. communion took place. The hand of fellowship was extended to 21. Elder seemed to be much pleased over his labor. Simper Idea's [illegible] for a little money. Rev. S. [illegible] Christian will deliver a popular lecture at the above named church Monday, May 12, 1890 at 8 p. m. for the benefit of the church. Subject: Great Stones and Costly [illegible]. At the Ebenezer church Sunday, Rev. Daniel James being absent, Rev. [illegible] Meadow and J. J. Sweet [illegible] Seminary, filled the pulpit at [illegible] and 8 o'clock p. m. The audience [illegible] well pleased at the sermons.

F. C. Campbell the chaplain of the S. S. U. has gone to Liberty, Va. probably for the summer.

Mrs. Amanda Hi[illegible]rd, is very sick under the treatment of Dr. Tancil.

Church Notes.

There will be a Musical and Literary Entertainment given at the Asbury M. E. church 25th st. on Tuesday night next the 13th inst. The following subject will be debated—Resolved;—"That the world has grown worse since the [illegible] of Christ." Affirmative, R. M. Monroe and T. T. Thompson. Negative, J. R. Griffith and J. H. Chrutchfield. Exercises commence at 8:30 o'clock. Admission 10 cents.

The Mission Sunday school heretofore conducted at St. Luke's hall, on 26th St. will be held at the hall of the Lily of the Valley Club, P. St. near 31st. Exercises commence at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon the 11th inst.

We are always glad to see the PLANET newsy, and shall endeavor to solicit contributions for East End notes. Yet as it is quite out of our sphere to note our such casualties as come directly under our observation and requires but little space to relate, we therefore are unprepared to reply in detail to the origin of the so called church, that has held meeting on Church Hill for two consecutive Sundays.

From information received it seems as if the founder of the said one of [illegible] has took exceptions to the discipline of that church because the brethren never called upon him to pray, therefore he left them about 5 years ago, and has not united with any other church until a few weeks ago; when under the delusion of a divine inspiration he called together a few excluded members and decided to start a church. One whose fundamental principles should be that the Gospel is free, and that they did not believe a pastor should be a compensated officer.

That any of their brethren who may desire to exercise their several gifts, shall be privileged to do their preaching, and all the members (whosoever will) can offer up their ejaculations whether the preacher calls upon them or not.

We cannot be responsible for the authenticity of the foregoing statement, only let us add that they will not have to give money for the support of the proposed edifice. Yes, some other folks pretended to espouse the same theory, but got left we believe.

JUPITER.

Manchester Notes.

The Republicans in this city made no nominations for the Municipal Offices to be filled in the coming election May 26th except in the 3rd Ward (Black belt) where Mr. Geo. D. Patch (white) was nominated for the Council and Mr. John E. Hall, for Justice of the Peace. Mr. Patch is to succeed Mr. Robt Harris, the only colored man in that body. Mr. Harris has made an excellent councilman. Mr. Hall the nominee for J. P. is one of the most popular and prominent young men [illegible] and possesses every quality that would make him an excellent magistrate. Let us rally to his support.
