
"All in a Row."

It is a unique sight to view at Carlsbad the motley row of drinkers of all nations, languages, manners and costumes hurrying down in single file to the Sprudel Spring with an earthenware mug in their hands or slung by a strap round the neck or over the shoulder, and patiently waiting their turn to sip of the precious fluid. For three centuries or more all sorts and conditions of men, from the king to the tramp, have pilgrimized hither in search of new life or relief from pain., But we cannot in these competitive days afford the time or money to travel so far afield, so it is brought to your doors bottled in its natural and original form at the Spring, or in powder evaporated on the spot, and so well known as the Carlsbad Sprudel Water, and Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. The signature of Eisner & Mendelson Co., Agents, New York, is on every bottle. Beware of imitations.

THE SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

Pleasing Entertainment Given by the Forest City Organization.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

FOREST CITY, Pa., April 24.—The order, Sons of St. George, an organization composed of Englishmen, held their annual celebration yesterday, which surpassed all previous events given by that order in this place. From 4 until 7:30 o'clock p. m., a banquet was given in Fleming's Hall. A large number of friends and members of the order satisfied the inner man by partaking of the bountiful repast placed before them.

In the evening one of the best concerts given in Forest City in a long time was listened to by a large and appreciative audience in the Opera house. Benjamin Milton, of Vandling, was chairman of exercises. The first number on the programme was a selection by the Columbian quartette, of Scranton. By the outburst of applause given at the close of the singing, it was clearly shown that the quartette had gained favor with the audience. In an encore they greatly pleased the listeners.

The next was a speech by Rev. F. Gendall, of Jermyn. The reverend gentleman made a short but appropriate speech for the occasion. Among his remarks he said, "Although we hear tell of the Germans taking a prominent part in the preservation of our Union in the late civil war, and also of the Irish and Welsh, we would like to know how many in the audience had ever heard of an Englishman." Two hands were raised. He then said that 80,000 Englishman had played a conspicious part in the late rebellion.

Henry Carr rendered "Anchored" as the third number on the programme in a pleasing manner.

The next number was a solo by Mrs. George Maxey, which though a difficult one, was well given. Number five was a solo, "Noble Boy," by P. P. Thomas, who is the possessor of a strong bass voice. Miss Maude Reynolds in a pleasing manner gave a recitation which was directed against the sterner sex in very forcible language. The Columbian quartette concluded part I of the programme by singing in their faultless style, "The Old Oaken Bucket."

The first selection of part two was a glee, "Awake Æolian Lyre," by the Philharmonic glee club of Forest City, and composed of Mrs. George Maxey, Miss Jessie Smith, Mrs. S. May, Miss May Watkins, Miss Beulah Hines and Miss Ella Hines, Messrs. James Jennings, William Jennings, George Coles, D. J. Jones, P. R. Thomas and J. C. Watres. Their rendition of the piece was excellent.

The following numbers on the program were given and greatly enjoyed by all.

Solo, "Only Speak Kindly to Me," Mrs. S. May

Duet, "Oh, Albion," Prof. J. L. Morgan and P. R. Thomas

Selection.....Columbian Quartette

Recitation, "The Maniac," Miss Maude Reynolds

Solo, "The Song That Reached My Heart," Miss May Watkins

Solo, "Flee as a Bird"...Miss Beulah Hines

Duet, "Flow Gently, Deva," Prof. J. L. Morgan and P. R. Thomas

Mrs. H. F. Aidrich, the accomplished pianist, presided at the piano. Among the visitors were noticed the following from Jermyn: William Eastlake, sr., George Blake, Frank Maynard, John Robinson, sr., Henry Smith, Alfred Waters and Erwin Waters.

SPRINGFIELD, MO., Aug. 14th, 1893.—I can speak in the highest terms of your medicine from my own personal knowledge. MESSRS. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.: GENTLEMEN—I have tried your P. P. P. for a disease of the skin, usually known as skin cancer, of thirty years' standing, and found great relief. It purifies the blood and removes all irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that a bottle or two more will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,
