They Had a Taste of Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. All the world likes it. All the world takes it.

Goethe, Beethoven, Bismarck, kings and queens innumerable, nearly all the minds that have changed the course of affairs for centuries, have been to Carlsbad for bodily aid. You cannot go—but you can have the benefit of Carlsbad at home. Take the imported Waters or the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt, or both, if you want an increased action of the same. They are natural remedies which are always effective in all disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys, in constipation, gouty and rheumatic affections. Be sure to obtain the "genuine," which have the signature of "Eisner and Mendelson Co.," Agents, New York, on every bottle.

LIVE JOTTINGS OF POLITICS.

The recent ruling of the state supreme court affirming a decision by the Luzerne county court that the power to grant or reject applications for license to sell liquor lay wholly in the discretion of the court, independent of either petition or remonstrance, recalls a circumstance that may play a prominent part in the election of a judge in Mercer county this fall. Ten years ago, when young Samuel Mehard defeated ex-Congressman Sam Miller for judge in this strongly Republican district, it devolved upon him to discover some process whereby he, a Democrat, could preserve his hold upon the people. Mercer being one of those counties in which religion, politics, social affairs and everything else hinge each year upon the question of license or no license, young Judge Mehard decided to waive his discretionary power under the Brooks law, and let the people themselves determine, by the preponderance of their signatures to petition or remonstrance, whether or not they want this or that bar licensed. This ingenious scheme, which he was the first Pennsylvania judge to adopt, relieved him of a world of anxieties, and has, with occasional exceptions, worked like a charm. Mr. Miller, whom Mercer Republicans have just chosen to reconfront his former and successful antagonist, will, it will thus be seen, have to face a man who, although yet quite young and boyish looking, is nevertheless master of several uncomfortably fine points in the game of politics.

In a personal letter to THE TRIBUNE ex-Representative W. D. Owen, of Logansport, whom Indiana Republicans have just nominated to head their state ticket, after one of the most enthusiastic conventions in the history of the party, comments favorably on the immediately outlook. "On the basis of last week's city elections," writes Mr. Owen, "we would have 50,000 plurality in November. Fifty-two out of fifty-seven cities went Republican, a reversal without precedent since war times. I'm thinking we will have at least half this plurality next fall." A good deal of interest attaches to this campaign for the reason that General Harrison has consented to take an active part in the canvass, his first real participation in politics since his retirement from the presidency. Mr. Owen is one of the ex-President's closest and most intimate advisers, is a shrewd and careful politician, and as a ready political speaker has few equals anywhere.

The last thing remarked by D. R. Thomas yesterday prior to his departure for Fair Haven, Vt., where he will attend a national assemblage of Welsh lodges, was to deny with emphasis the report that he had withdrawn from the First district legislative fight. "I am in this fight to win," he said, "and I will not be beaten until the convention beats me." The primaries occur Saturday and the convention one week from yesterday. Meanwhile the battle grows hourly more interesting.

There are fifteen counties in the state which have no representatives in the departments of the state government in Harrisburg, either as officials or employes. These counties are Adams, Bradford, Cameron, Columbia, Elk, Forest, Northampton, Perry, Potter, Snyder, Somerset, Sullivan, Venango, Warren and Wayne.

Information from Allentown is to the effect that the four Lehigh county delegates are ready for Jack Robinson. If it should appear that a complimentary vote can be given to Stewart without jeopardizing the success of Robinson it may be given him, but when the votes are to mean business they will be cast for Robinson. Two of the delegates are open and uncompromising Robinson men, and the others are not inimical to him. Stewart is believed to be scouring for points and Hastings will no doubt take care of him in his appointments.

The announcement that Mr. Powderly had recently sent out a circular accusing National Chairman Harrity of being responsible for his defeat as general master workman elicits this denial from Mr. Harrity: "The statement is almost too ridiculous and childish to deserve serious attention. Permit me to say, however, that it has no truth whatever in it. I had no part whatever in the defeat of Mr. Powderly, nor did I then or at any other time interfere in the affairs of the Knights of Labor."

A dispatch credits Jack Robinson with claiming 136 delegates, but it is not probable that the Delaware county man has been thus prematurely showing his hand.

The William R. Leeds association, of Philadelphia, 100 strong, will be at Harrisburg on the 23rd, piloted by the venerable deacon himself. They will make their headquarters at the Hotel Columbus.

Speaking of the state convention reminds us that Secretary Fetterolf says "everybody will be treated fairly in the distribution of tickets, especially the candidates and their friends and there will be no disposition to pack the Opera house with favorites, as there was in 1893."

The Harrisburg correspondent of the Norristown Herald thus grows reminiscent: "Like Governor Beaver, who received an unanimous nomination in 1886 after the revolt of 1882 when Governor Pattison served a term of four years, General Hastings comes along from the same county after the revolt of 1890 with the same Governor Pattison intervening and will likewise get an unanimous endorsement. This seems to be somewhat of a coincidence and is only another evidence that history repeats itself even in politics. In 1886 when Beaver was nominated with such unanimity there was a big fight over the lieutenant governorship, and if you remember Davies, of Bradford, who was nominated, only had one more vote than Montooth, and the latter, like Lyon, was an Allegheny county candidate." Does this mean that Robinson will win?

It seems yet to be the concensus of slate makers that Colonel James H. Lambert can have the secretaryship of state under Hastings, should he desire this position.

THE EARLIER symptoms of dyspepsia, such as distress after eating, heartburn and occasional headaches, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla if you wish to be cured.

No Guesser Dare Estimate.
Reading Times.

It is estimated that the American people annually eat 20,000 tons of candy. But no one has found out the amount of sour grapes consumed.

GENERAL NEWS OF INDUSTRIES.

A Philadelphian, talking to the Times, presents this opinion, which is printed for what it is worth: "It has always been the custom for the Reading's rivals and competitors to confess to believe that Reading coal lands are more difficulty to work than those of other companies. It is a fact that Reading's coal lies deeper than the coal in the Lehigh and Wyoming regions, but its seams are larger and, consequently, easier to work when once developed. Furthermore, Reading's position gives it an enormous advantage as a carrier. The haul to tidewater from the Schuylkill region is a descending gradient all the way, and not an up-hill and down-hill haul. Then, too, Reading is thirty miles nearer to tidewater than any other company, and it can place coal at tidewater points as cheaply as any other company can, even though the actual cost of mining may be a trifle higher."

Shipments of coal are now being made by the Reading company by way of Schuylkill canal. So far twenty-two boats have passed inspection, and are now being loaded with coal at Port Clinton. A number of boats that were in service on the Delaware river last year, may be consigned to the Schuylkill canal this season. The channel has been thoroughly cleaned out and is now in first class condition.

* * *

Work has been begun on the Mill Creek Coal comoany's new breaker at New Boston. Superintendent Jones say she expects to have it completed and ready to ship coal before Sept. 1. The new breaker will give employment to 200 more men. The coal will be shipped over the Pennsylvania railroad.

Gordon planes have resumed work after an idleness of five weeks. Reading collieries in Schuylkill county are now averaging four days per week. Superintendent D. J. Thomas, of the Dodson Coal company's Morea colliery, will visit relatives in Wales for ten weeks, beginning the last of this month.

Experienced miners give it as their opinion that the Packer colliery fire will offer a more stubborn resistance than is now anticipated.

Shipments of Pocahontas coal for the week ended April 28, aggregated 66,164 tons, a decrease of 21,604 tons, as compared with the corresponding period last year. For the year to the date named shipments decreased 90,582 tons, or 6 per cent.

The statement of coal shipments over the Huntingdon and Broad Top railroad for last week shows: From the Broad Top region, decreased 8,268 tons, the figures being 2,785 tons last week, against 11,053 tons for the corresponding period last year. This loss, however, was more than made up by increased shipments from the Cumberland region, the tonnage for the week having been 50,507 tons, against 36,081 tons for the same period in 1893, an increase of 14,426 tons, thus making an net increase of 6,058 tons for the week as compared with the corresponding period last year.

The directors of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company have just declared a semi-annual dividend of 2¾ per cent., or $1.25 per share, payable May 25 to stockholders of register on April 30. This is a reduction of ¼ per cent. from the dividend declared in November last, when 3 per cent. was paid to the shareholders, making 6 per cent. for the year 1893. The intervening six months, however, have covered a period of exceptional depression in the anthracite coal trade, and as the company depends very largely on its earnings from this branch of its business, the directors have merely adhered to their conservative policy in reducing the dividend. Last year was the most prosperous in the history of the company. In the years 1889, 1890 and 1891 the Lehigh Navigation paid dividends of 8 per cent. annually; in 1892 the rate was increased to 5½ per cent., and in 1893 the stockholders for the first time received 6 per cent.

HOW TO GROW FLESHY

It is a Question of Food and Nothing Else.

AND EASILY UNDERSTOOD

A Clear and Simple Explanation of the Entire Subject Drawn from Nature.

If we want to learn about this we must study nature. Let us look at the lower animals. The pig contains more fat in proportion to its weight than any other animal. What food does it eat? Starchy food. It can digest its food. The animals that eat starchy food are the heaviest in the world, as witness the elephant, the rhinoceros, the horse, the steer, etc.

It is well known that people who are too fat are always advised by doctors not to eat starchy food. The reverse is always true. If you want to get fat eat starchy food.

But digestion. That is often the trouble. Anaemics and dyspeptics cannot properly digest starchy food. It causes pain, eructations and distress. By eating starchy food that has been artificially digested, you can overcome this trouble. Paskola is such a food.

The specialists who first prepared Paskola made it of starch because they knew that starch is the only food that fattens. They made it of fruit because fruit is naturally healthy, and because the fruit of which Paskola is prepared, contains ferments which help to digest other food.

They thought Paskola would be good food for their people, but they little thought it would be such a wonderful success as it has become. What it does for one person, always makes ten buy it. It cures dyspepsia.

If you have the slightest doubt of this read the following:

PORTSMOUTH, Va., March 7, 1894.

The Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade st., New York.

GENTLEMEN: I have for more than three years been afflicted with a very weak stomach, the most distressing symptom of which was a dreadful nausea after eating. In many cases I lost my meals entirely, especially breakfast, as my stomach was weaker in the mornings than at other times. I have had a great many doctors of different cities prescribe for me, but none of them gave me any permanent relief.

They all said I was suffering from indigestion. They would give me pepsin and a tonic to build up my debilitated system, but I did not experience any material benefit from any of them.

I became thin, very thin, in fact I was extremely emaciated. A physician recommended the use of the "Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil," but my stomach was so very weak that it seemed to aggravate the nausea and I could not continue it. In fact, nothing did me much good until I began the use of Paskola. Now my appetite is splendid, my food does me good. I have gained in flesh and have not suffered that dreadful nausea after eating one single time since the very first dose of the food I ever took. I really cannot say too much in favor of it and I sincerely hope that any one suffering as I did may take this means of relieving themselves, as it is a speedy and certain cure.

Yours very respectfully,
MRS. A. D. MOSELEY, 229 High st.

ELLERSLIE, Ga., April 6, 1894.

The Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade st., New York.

GENTLEMEN: Your sample of Paskola came safely to hand. I did not give it to others but took it myself. Was from home while taking it and did not weigh myself, but it is all you claim it to be, a flesh maker, aid in digesting other diets, and not only a food but very pleasant to take. With thanks I am

Most respectfully,
D. P. BELL, M. D.

Paskola may be obtained of any reputable druggist. A pamphlet on food and digestion will be mailed free on application to The Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade st., New York.
