DIOCESAN CONVENTION.

Proceedings of the Fifth Quarterly Gathering Held at Pittston.
List of Delegates.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

PITTSTON, July 15.—The fifth quarterly convention of the Third district of the Scranton Diocesan union convened in the St. Aloysius hall in this place this afternoon. The meeting was called to order at 3 p. m. by Vice President M. J. Walsh, of Wilkes-Barre. All the directors were present except Miss Nora Dolan, of Sugar Notch.

The following committee were appointed on credentials: P. J. McCafrey, Thomas Gaffney, P. J. Conlan. A paper treating on cadet societies and their relation to the cause of Total Abstinence was read by Mr. McElwer, of Plymouth. It was an able document and received unanimous applause. President John Devine, of Scranton, made an address in which he defined the difference between the man who drank and the abstainer.

Editor Judge, of the Index, was present and was called upon for an address. Mr. Judge said that he had no plans to offer and therefore asked to be excused. Treasurer Thomas Callery, of Pittston, was called upon for an address but declined. The committee on credentials reported the following delegates present. The delegates present were:

Avoca, Father Matthew—Patrick McNulty, John McKeown.

Kingston, St. Aloysius—John Nelson, R. E. Cronin, P. H. Monahan, Thomas Murphy, J. H. Brennan.

Parson, St. Aloysius—P. J. Ruane, M. Ruane, John Ward, James Constine, Hugh McCale.

Pittston St. John's—M. J. Tighe, P. J. Burke, T. Callahan, Edward Dougher, Owen T. Mahan.

Plymouth, St. Vincent—Neil Sweeney, John D. Gallagher, John McAliver.

Grand Tunnell, St. Vincent—Patrick Jennings.

Pittston, Father Mathew Total Abstinence—M. W. Morris, Thomas Murphy, John D. Quinn, J. A. Collier, M. McAndrew.

Wilkes-Barre, Father Mathew—Charles Lavan, Thomas Gaffney, James Curran, M. J. Harris, M. J. Walsh.

Pittston, St. Aloysius—John McHale, John F. Costello, William McCawley, M. V. Quinn, Phil Higgins.

Plains, St. Aloysius—John O'Hara, P. J. Conlon, John E. Kinney, Frank A. McCarthy, Ed. L. Barrett, P. J. McCaffrey, Thomas Gaffney, P. J. Conlan.

Port Griffith, St. Joseph's—James Carrol, P. J. Murphy.

After the adoption of the report Vice President M. J. Walsh, of Wilkes-Barre, addressed the convention at length.

Vice President Walsh, upon a motion made by Thomas Gaffney and seconded by James Kern, appointed the following committee to secure speakers for a course of lectures to be given the coming winter throughout the diocese: M. W. Morris, P. J. Ruane, Owen F. Mahon, Frand McCarthy and Thomas Gaffney.

Mr. Devine, of Scranton, offered a suggestion that the next national convention be held at Scranton. The suggestion was the signal for an outburst of opposition on the part of the Wilkes-Barre delegates headed by Thomas Gaffney. Mr. Gaffney intimated that Scranton was not the whole diocese as some might be led to suppose. On the contrary there were Wilkes-Barre, Pittston and several other towns. His opposition carried with it little weight and after a heated discussion a motion made by Mr. Lavin, of Wilkes-Barre, and seconded by Thomas Callery, prevailed, that the Third district instruct the delegates at large to do all their power to have the next convention held at Scranton.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year without opposition: President, M. J. Walsh, Wilkes-Barre; secretary, James Gaffney, Wilkes-Barre; treasurer, John McElwee, Plymouth; directors, J. J. Quinn, Pittston; John McKeown, Avoca.

It was decided that the next convention be held the third Sunday in October, at Parsons.

All subscribers of THE TRIBUNE who have not yet received their premium books will receive them on or about July 25. A rush of orders for the books in question prevents the publishers from supplying the demand as promptly as desired.

The indications are that the excursion to Farview of the Knights of Father Mathew, which takes place today, will be a great success. A great interest has been aroused on account of the band tournament and it will have the effect of bringing large crowds to the popular mountain resort.

The funeral of the late John Murray, whose death was noted in THE TRIBUNE of Thursday, took place on Friday afternoon. A requiem mass was sung in the morning, but the funeral did not take place until the afternoon, when Mr. Murray's son, Michael, arrived from New York. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large number of people. There were many from out of town at the funeral.

At last the electric road of the Carbondale Traction company is in complete operation and it is now possible to ride from Carbondale to within twenty-five yards of the Blakely borough line. The first car made the trip on Saturday morning. At present one car is doing service between the Riverside store and Moyles' hotel and an additional fare is being charged to all who ride between these points. The patrons of the road are thus obliged to pay two fares within the borough limits. It is said that this arrangement is only temporary. There is general dissatisfaction expressed over this course of the company in charging two fares. It is doubtful, however, if it is in the power of the borough council, as some people allege, to prohibit the charging of two fares. There is nothing in the ordinance granting the right of way to the Traction company which regulates the charging of fare, and it is the opinion of the borough attorney that it is clearly at the discretion of the company to make reasonable charges for transportation.

The meeting of the borough council announced for Saturday evening was postponed until Tuesday evening owing to the absence of two of the councilmen. Several important matters are to be considered, and it is the wish of the president to have all the members present.

Eilby, went down the mines and got the watch and returned it to the owner.

Discretion as Necessary as Zeal.

Wilkes-Barre Times.

It is not sufficient in the conduct of the affairs of the public that the leaders be animated by good purposes. They must have also the judgment to discriminate between the right and the wrong way to accomplish desired objects.
