PERSONAL.

Mrs. A. W. Haslam is visiting friends in Binghamton.

Mrs. Joseph Levy has returned from a visit in New York city.

Mrs. W. N. Brooks, of Linden street, has returned from a visit in Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. John Simpson will give a reception this afternoon at her home on Clay avenue.

Mr. J. H. McMurray, of New York, a traveling man of national reputation as a great glove salesman, is in the city, selling the well known "Adler" gloves to the trade.

Some members of the Twitchell-Winton bridal company had a box party at the Lyceum last night. Others of the company attended the Princeton Glee concert at Wilkes-Barre.

James R. Liller, champion high slack wire trick bicycle and ladder rider and fancy shooter in mid-air, is stopping off in Scranton. Mr. Liller's work is of the most remarkable that is performed upon a wheel. He rides upon a slack wire and does trick and fancy riding. He had a fall recently at Onventon, Ky., and broke his left leg in five places and his left arm in eight places between the elbow and wrist, besides staving in three ribs. After leaving the hospital in Louisville, Ky., Mr. Liller went to Philadelphia, Pa., where he was taken down with la grippe for eight weeks, but has recovered and in the near future will return to his profession. He is the only man in the world who can balance himself on his head upon a wheel in mid-air.

In behalf of the late Mrs. Anna Powell, thanks are due the management of the Hahnemann hospital for her care and kind treatment, especially to Mrs. Boles, whose presence always caused Mrs. Powell to bear her suffering with fortitude and patience.

Also thanks are due to the matron, Miss Smith, and her corps of nurses, whose indefatigable energy was ever directed towards giving relief to this sufferer. Her Surgeon.

A SOCIABLE HIGHWAYMAN.

Visited the County Jail, Was Recognized and Arrested.

On the night of June 4, 1898, Thomas Ruddy, a West Side cripple, was waylaid and robbed of $50 on Scranton street by three men who were afterwards identified as Michael Goggins, William Lyons and John Nealon.

The latter two were captured and are now in jail under sentence. An indictment was found against Goggins, but he had skipped out and the subpoena had to be marked "not found."

Efforts were made to find him at various times since, but, further than that he was at one time in the vicinity of Delaware working on an oyster boat, nothing could be learned of his whereabouts.

It was expected that he would come back to the city when he thought the affair had blown over, and true to expectations, he did. Tuesday afternoon he was among the visitors at the county jail and was recognized by one of the deputies, who notified the police.

Search was made for him about town during the night but it was unavailing. Yesterday morning Detective Moir and Patrolman Walsh chanced a visit to Goggins' home and found him there.

He is now in the county jail and will be arraigned at the next term of criminal court.

A GREAT BALL.

To Be Given by the Wilkes-Barre Press Club on Friday.

One of the leading social events of the season, the annual dance of the Wilkes-Barre Press club, will be given in the armory, at Wilkes-Barre, on Friday evening, April 7th, and the affair promises even to surpass the former events which have so pleased the people. The decorations, which have always been a dazzling display, will be more elaborate than ever and will be put up by Fuhrman, of Scranton. A florist will assist and furnish the plants and ferns.

The music is another important feature of the Press club affairs, and will be up to the usual standard. Alexander's full concert band and Oppenheim's complete orchestra have been engaged. They will combine in a delightful introductory concert, after which each will play alternatively, a charming program of dance music. All arrangements will be perfected for the entertainment, comfort and pleasure of the club's guests, and the 1899 dance promises to surpass in every way its three predecessors.

A number of Scrantonians will attend, as they have done in years past, and a number of tickets for reserved seats have been set aside for them and can be had at the box office the night of the ball.

WHY THEY REFUSED.

Statement Made by One of the Leading Painters of This City.

"The master painters of the Master Painters' association, of the Builders' Exchange, have been paying, previous to the demand of the journeymen painters, the amount of wages they ask for and in many instances more," said a prominent master painter yesterday. "They even pay weekly, and kept the journeymen employed at actual expense during the dull season.

"The only point actually in question is that the journeymen ask the leading and more intelligent contracting painters to sign an agreement which empowers them to dictate at any time how the Master Painter shall conduct his own business. This demand is contrary to American principals and was refused."

City Engineer Phillips Prods the Dilatory Contractors.

Dunn Brothers, the contractors for the South Side sewer, having failed to begin the work of construction on April 1, as directed, City Engineer Phillips yesterday sent them a notice to the effect that if they do not at once enter upon the execution of the contract he will call the matter officially to the attention of select council.

The notice was delivered personally to one of the members of the firm by an attache of the engineer's office. It has not as yet been answered.

BRILLIANT AFTER EASTER WEDDING

PERFORMED IN GREEN RIDGE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Miss Frances Winton Was the Fair Bride and Arthur Clement Twitchell the Fortunate Groom—Ceremony Was Performed by the Rev. Dr. I. J. Lansing—Members of the Wedding Party—Reception at the Winton Residence on Sanderson Avenue After the Marriage—The Out-of-town Guests.

The Easter bride who chose yesterday for her wedding day surely entered the gateway of her new life with the happiest of omens for clear skies smiled over the earth from dawn to dark and the birds sang and the world seemed new after the dreary weeks of cloud and storm.

It is seldom that even the most notable society wedding has aroused the eager anticipation that has existed since the announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Frances Winton to Mr. Arthur Clement Twitchell. With beauty of an extraordinary type, belonging to a family of wealth and position and having enjoyed the advantage of being much under the chaperonage of her aunt, Mrs. E. L. Fuller during a paricularly brilliant social career, Miss Winton's approaching marriage has excited the friendly interest of a large circle. The event of yesterday was therefore one that will be recorded in the society chronicles of Scranton as distinctive.

The Green Ridge Presbyterian church is a pretty edifice and made an effective setting for the scene of the ceremony, which was at noon and was characterized by many elaborate details. The organ and the altar were closed about with a rich mass of green with many annunciation lilies breaking through the shadows. The wedding marches were rendered most effectively by Bauer's orchestra, Miss Becker, the church organist, presiding at the piano.

THE BRIDAL PARTY.

The bridesmaids, preceded by Miss Helen Winton, the flower girl, walked up the aisle toward the entrance, to meet the bride, who entered with her father. At the same time the ushers from the left met the groom and his best man, Mr. Robert Brown, of Portland, Me. The effect was wonderfully attractive. The bride made a rarely lovely picture in her white satin gown, extremely plain in cut, but with a flounce of Duchesse lace and a yoke of chiffon and pearls with garniture of point lace. She wore a veil with orange blossoms and carried a prayer book, the markers of lilies of the valley. It was a white wedding. The bridesmaids and flower girl all wore the filmiest, daintiest white. The bridesmaids' gowns were of fine white net dotted with chenille, with yokes of finely plaited and corded liberty silk. The needed accent of color was given by the large picture hats profusely trimmed with pink roses and pink ribbon and the great cluster of American beauty roses which each carried. The maid of honor, Miss Dorr, of Saginaw, Mich., wore white organdie and lace over pink silk and carried violets. Her hat was trimmed with white plumes and ribbon. The bridesmaids were Miss Lowe, of Dayton, O.; Miss Twitchell, of Portland, Me.; Miss Augusta Archbald, Miss Belin, Miss Hunt, Miss Boles and Miss Elspeth Winton, of this city.

The ushers were Messrs. D. E. Bird, Gordon Brown, of New York; Harry Hyde, Syracuse; Harry Fenton, Jamestown, N. Y.; G. M. Alden, Troy, N. Y.; L. Winton Barry, of Williamstown, Mass.; Mortimer B. Fuller, of Scranton; Mairs, of Brooklyn.

DR. LANSING OFFICIATED.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. I. J. Lansing, pastor of the church. At the conclusion a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winton, 1545 Sanderson avenue, when a breakfast was served. The beautiful rooms were decorated in the greatest taste. White predominated, but the reception hall was adorned with a profusion of American beauty roses. The table in the dining room was picturesque, with a huge central mass of bride roses. The library adjoining was fitted up with small tables for the bridal party and was decorated in white. It is seldom that at so large an affair such a delightful spirit of informality prevails. The gaiety of the scene was enhanced when a silver loving cup, richly engraved, was brought in and as one after another drank from its brim there was many a clever toasts and witty rejoinders. The cup was presented by a fraternity of Williams' college, to which Mr. Twitchell belonged.

Mr. and Mrs. Twitchell left for New York on the 3.30 train and the scene at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station, where two society weddings were present, was one of unusual effect. Upon their return they will reside at 745 Quincy avenue. Mr. Twitchell was formerly of Portland, Me., but has been engaged in the coal business in this city for some time. He is a young man who has made many friends here and is receiving congratulations on all sides for having secured one of the loveliest girls to be found in this region for his bride.

The reception was a scene of unusual brilliance as it was remarkable for the great number of elegant costumes worn. Mrs. Winton, mother of the bride, wore pale lavender brocade, combined with violet velvet and duchesse lace. Mrs. Twitchell, the groom's mother, wore black silk. Mrs. E. L. Fuller's gown was of pale turquoise cloth, appliqued and exquisitely garnished with jewel trimmings. The out-of-town guests at the wedding were:

MAC INTOSH-BROWN NUPTIALS.

Ceremony Performed at the First Presbyterian Church.

A beautiful church wedding yesterday noon was that of Miss Olive MacIntosh, who was married to Dr. Harry MacVeagh Brown, of Philadelphia. The ceremony took place in the First Presbyterian church, and was performed by Rev. Dr. Logan, assisted by Rev. Dr. McLeod. The bride entered with her stepfather, Mr. Walter Edward Chase, of New York, and was preceded by the maid of honor, her sister, Miss Hope MacIntosh, of New York, and the flower girls, little Louise Connell and Eleanor Kingsbury.

The bride wore a charming gown of gray cloth with gray velvet garniture and a white silk yoke and front embroidered in spangles. Her hat was of gray chip with gray trimmings and white wings. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was attired in a pale tan cloth with white chiffon yoke and applique trimming, combined with violet velvet. She wore a violet hat. Her flowers were carnations. The little maids wore white organdie with large white picture hats and carried carnations. The effect of the bridal group was exceedingly pretty.

The best man was Mr. George Platt Pilling, of Philadelphia. The ushers were Charles G. Wightman, jr., Dr. Edward Elmslie Pyle, Edward C. Dixon, Edgar Brown, a brother of the groom, all of Philadelphia, and Harry Simpson and Arthur Foote, of this city.

The church was prettily decorated. Miss Florence Richmond played the wedding music. At the conclusion of the ceremony a breakfast was served at the residence of Mrs. George B. Chase, on Quincy avenue, when only the immediate family and friends were present. Among the guests were: Messrs. W. E. Chase, Arthur Chase, Miss Mina Stevens, Miss Elizabeth MacIntosh and Robert MacIntosh, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Basil Brown, Miss Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dixon, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Connolly, of Chester; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Kingsbury, Rev. Dr. McLeod, Rev. Dr. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weichel, Mrs. M. Norton, Mrs. S. L. BIG INDUSTRY NOW AN ASSURED FACT

BOARD OF TRADE SECURES THE BOLT AND NUT WORKS.

Directors Elected and Steps Taken to Begin Building Operations. The Plant Will Have a Capacity of 10,000 Tons per Annum at the Outset and Will Employ 200 Men. Capable Management and a Safe Market Assure Success from the Outset.

After two years of unremitting, zealous effort, the Scranton board of trade has landed the much discussed new industry, the big bolt and nut works. It will be in operation before autumn.

The last block of the capital stock was subscribed Tuesday, and yesterday a directorate was chosen and a committee sent down to the South Side to select a site.

The directors are W. D. Zehnder, L. M. Horton, C. H. Welles, Hon. William Connell, John Jermyn, J. A. Lansing and T. H. Watkins. W. D. Zehnder is to be president; L. M. Horton, secretary and treasurer, and C. H. Welles, attorney.

Mr. Welles was instructed to proceed at once to secure a charter and Secretary D. B. Atherton, of the board of trade, who was appointed acting secretary-treasurer, was directed to send out notices of a ten per cent. assessment to be paid forthwith.

CAPACITY OF 10,000 TONS.

The company will have the corporate title of the Scranton Bolt and Nut works. Its capital stock is $150,000. The plant will have a capacity of 10,000 tons a year at the outset and will employ 200 men. The capacity and working force will be trebled, it is believed, within two years.

Orders for the machinery will be placed today and building operations will begin at once. The probable location of the plant is in the neighborhood of the Meadow Brook breaker. A rolling mill will be erected in connection with the plant so that the company can manufacture its own bars.

W. D. Zehnder, the president, is a brother of C. H. Zehnder, of the Dickson Manufacturing company, and has been for sixteen years connected in a managerial capacity with the Lebanon Bolt and Nut works, the largest concern of its kind in the United States. He is considered one of the best men in the business.

IS A STAPLE ARTICLE.

There has been an advance of from twenty to thirty per cent. in the price of bolts and nuts within the last few months and the factories throughout the country are rushed with orders. It is acknowledged to be one of the safest markets in the commercial world today. The value of the output of the Scranton factory will be $400,000 a year and over $100,000 will be paid in wages.

This is the biggest industry ever secured through the board of trade and its secretary, D. B. Atherton, to whose efforts mainly the board's success is attributable, is receiving no end of congratulations.
