FELLOWS HOME PREY TO FLAMES

INTERIOR DAMAGED BY FIRE AND WATER.

Overheated Furnace Apparently the Cause of the Disaster—Family Rendered Homeless—Hon. John H. Fellows and His Family Were Enjoying a Sleigh-ride at the Time the Fire Occurred—P. O. S. of A. Notes—Events That Are Scheduled for Tonight—Personal Notes.

The home of ex-Mayor John H. Fellows, near the corner of Luzerne and Tenth streets, was almost completely ruined by fire and water yesterday afternoon, and the contents nearly all destroyed.

The family left home about 1 o'clock for a sleigh-ride into the country, and while they were away the furnace evidently became over heated and set fire to the woodwork. From the condition of the premises, it would appear that the flames spread all over the house by means of the furnace pipes.

The floors and partitions through which the pipes passed were badly burned, and the firemen experienced much difficulty in reaching the flames.

Volumes of smoke filled the building and made the work of the firemen difficult. All the carpets were destroyed, but some of the furniture was removed in time to be saved. A telephone message was sent to Mr. Fellows, and when they returned they found themselves homeless.

The damage to the interior will reach a considerable amount, although Mr. Fellows could not make any estimate last night. He carries some insurance, but was unable to give any details at present.

The family is temporarily quartered among friends and relatives, as their home will have to undergo general repairs before it can be occupied.

The firemen worked heroically, under the most exasperating difficulties, and deserve much praise for the work accomplished under the circumstances. In addition to the West Scranton companies, the Crystal steamer was called into service.

SOUTH SCRANTON

OPTIONS SECURED ON CEDAR AVENUE PROPERTIES.

Man Who Obtained Them Says He Does Not Know the Names of the Persons for Whom He Is Acting. Enjoyable Masquerade Ball of the Scranton Athletic Club—Time for Holding Mothers' Meetings Has Been Changed—Miss Meredith Appointed Secretary of Y. W. C. A.

Considerable speculation has been caused on this side the past week by the actions of an individual who has been taking options on properties along Cedar avenue in the vicinity of No. 8 school and near Maple and Elm streets.

All efforts to discover what the properties were wanted for failed, and all that could be learned was that Mr. Fisher, as the agent called himself, was acting for parties not known to himself and that he was as much in the dark as the property owners.

After getting the prices on various properties he called again a few days later with papers drawn for sixty-day options on which he made a deposit of one dollar. He was anxious to get an option on the Philip Kirst lots at the corner of Cedar avenue and Elm street, but refused an offer of several cheap lots which are located just below the cemetery.

Masquerade Ball.

Last night's masquerade ball and festival, given under the auspices of the Scranton Athletic club at their hall on Alder street was a financial and artistic success. The hall, which had been prettily draped for the occasion, was thrown open at 7.45 p. m., and from that time until 9 o'clock a steady stream of merry maskers passed through the portal, so that at the hour last named the management could have followed the example of theater people and hung up a sign reading "standing room only."

It was a brilliant scene, and the contrast of coloring shown in the various costumes, and offset by the bunting and drapery, produced an effect that was delightful to the artistic mind, and charming to the eye.

All the nations of the earth were represented, and also some that are not on this earth. The hobo was in evidence and played tag with a dude. Uncle Sam and John Bull, also were in attendance and became quite friendly to the evident annoyance of Russia, France and Germany. Some of the characters represented were amusing and great care was evident in some of the make ups, as various prizes were offered for the best dressed couple, the poorest dressed couple, and the most comical make up.

Taken altogether, it was a great social event, and the arrangements reflect much credit on the following committee, who had charge of the affair: Fred Weinig, Adolph Hammen, Charles Diesing, Henry Meyers and Adolph Heusner.

MRS. ALICE HINE BRANDOW.

Mrs. Alice Hine Brandow, wife of W. W. Brandow, of 1012 Olive street, Scranton, died Jan. 29, 1902. Mrs. Brandow leaves a husband, two daughters, Charlotte R. and Frances W. D., four brothers, N. F. Hine, F. H., M. D. and J. M., all of Scranton; two sisters, Mrs. A. O. Salisbury, of Thompson; Mrs. H. H. Vaughn, of New York city, and a host of friends here and in the state of California, to mourn the loss of one possessing many noble Christian graces.

Some years before her health failed, she was a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance union of Lackawanna county and held the office of county treasurer. Mrs. Brandow was born in Lenox, Susquehanna county, Pa., and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hine. Seven years ago she left her loving home and went to Los Angeles, Cal.; from there to the Antelope valley; thence to North Carolina and then back to the Antelope valley again, in hopes of regaining her health. Everything was done that loving hands could do, but all in vain. To know the love and respect in which Mrs. Brandow was held by her friends in Scranton was only to look upon her casket, which was completely buried in beautiful, fragrant flowers, contributed by friends far and near. She was converted at the age of 10, joined the Methodist Episcopal church, and lived an earnest Christian life.

TOLD IN SCRANTON.

It's the Evidence of Scranton People Published in Scranton Papers That Has Made Such a Reputation for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Standing clear and distinct, marking the difference, the superior merit, the adaptability to present-day ailments is the volume of local testimony for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. It's so different to the ordinary remedies referring to cures made at distant points which it is hard to verify. There is a reason for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills commanding home evidence wherever they are known. It is their wonderful influence in bringing up the standard of nerve force.

Mr. Henry Alberts, of No. 616 Birch street, Scranton, Pa., says: "For about two years my back and kidneys had been sore, lame and the secretions in bad shape. Nothing seemed to help me until I got Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Matthews Bros.' drug store, No. 320 Lackawanna avenue. They did the work, curing the soreness and lameness, making the secretions healthy, and generally giving me health and strength."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.
