The police of the Sixth precinct are looking for the miscreant who evidently desired to see the fire department horses run. The firemen retired early last evening because they had to parade today and work hard preparing for it.

We Can Sell or Rent Your Property for You

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 7, 1904.

The Washington Times Company,

Washington, D. C.:

Gentlemen: On October 19th we had placed with us to sell A. H. Barbour's Harness and Feed business, located at Falls Church, Va. To sell this business, which was a very large one, we deliberated for some time if it would not be advisable to advertise the sale of it in a foreign paper. But we decided to try the old "stand-by," The Washington Times, and, on November 1, through your medium, this business was successfully sold. We beg to say that we sell on an average from four to seven business enterprises each week, and nine-tenths of our business we owe to the valuable advertising columns of The Washington Times.

Wishing you continued success, we are,

Very truly yours,

NEW YORK BUSINESS AND REAL ESTATE BROKERS,

W. C. PRATHER, Proprietor.

E. TAYLOR, Mgr., Business Opportunities.
