LOCAL MENTION.

Dies at Hospital.

That Charles Chapman, colored, died at the Casualty Hospital from injuries received in an accident that could have been avoided, was the conclusion reached by the coroner's jury which held an inquest over the body yesterday afternoon. The jury recommended that the case be further investigated by the grand jury. Chapman was working for the Andrew Gleeson Construction Company, at Canal and D streets southwest, on Saturday, when he was struck by a derrick, which is said to have almost daily imperiled the lives of all the workmen at the place.
