ALEXANDRIA TAKES OVER N. G. ARMORY

Mayor Thomas A. Fisher Signs Resolution Giving City Property of Light Infantry.

ALEXANDRIA, Jan. 27.—Mayor Thomas A. Fisher has signed the resolution passed at the last meeting of city council providing for the taking over by the city of the armory of the Alexandria Light Infantry. In accordance with the provisions of the resolution the finance committee is preparing to complete the transaction. They have engaged Attorney Robinson Moncure to examine the title and prepare the papers transferring the property to the city. As soon as Mr. Moncure examines the title to the property he will prepare a deed which must be signed individually by each member of the company.

The city is to assume the debts of the company not to exceed $5,000. There is a mortgage of $2,500 with accrued interest, and in addition a floating indebtedness of about $900. It will be necessary for the company to obtain sworn account of those to whom they owe money. These accounts will be secured by Capt. W. M. King.

It is expected that as soon as the city secures title to the building an appropriation will be made for its improvement. A new roof, which will cost between $600 and $900, is badly needed.

A mass meeting of Republicans in Alexandria City will be held at the Hotel Rammel, February 1, at 7.30 o'clock, to elect delegates to the district convention here February 22, and to the state convention in Roanoke, March 29. Harry H. Quinn, city chairman, presided at last night's meeting which decided the date of the city meeting.

One hundred and twenty-five members of the Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees and their guests attended the annual banquet last night in the Westminster Building. The Rev. E. V. Register formerly presiding elder of the Washington District, M. E. Church South, was the toastmaster. The Rev. O. W. Triplett, pastor of the Second Baptist Church delivered the invocation. The toasts were responded to as follows: "Our Order," John J. Dozier, Norfolk; "Co-operation of Women," Mrs. Mabel La Rue, Washington; "Fraternity," D. Edward Clarke; "Solidarity of Womanhood," Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett; "Ladies of the Maccabees," Mrs. Sadie Quigley; "Our Fraternity," C. Ashby Pladen".

The musical program was furnished by Miss Anna Vierhorn, E. Albert Lang, and the Maccabees orchestra.

The Rev. John L. Allison, pastor of the Second Baptist Presbyterian Church, delivered an address before the South Gate Club, an organization of Masons, connected with the general offices of the Southern Railway, in Washington last night.

Funeral services for Thomas J. Zimmerman took place this afternoon from his late home, 1012 Duke street, and were conducted by the Rev. O. W. Triplett, pastor of the Second Baptist Church.

The last dance of the season of the Alexandria Assembly will take place tonight in the Elks' Auditorium. The Junior German Club met this afternoon.

Mrs. Maria Woodward, widow of Amos Woodward, seventy-seven years old, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 318 South Lee street. She is survived by three sons and a daughter, Harry C. Woodward, Gloversville, N. Y.; Mrs. William H. Melchole, this city; Louis P. Woodward, this city, and A. Gilbough Woodward, Philadelphia.

The second degree of the order will be conferred tonight on a class of candidates by Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows.

ANACOSTIA.

Salem Lodge, No. 22, I. O. O. F., met last night.

Anacostia Chapter, No. 12, R. A. M., will receive in annual visitation tonight the officers and members of the District grand chapter.

Mrs. Thomas L. Moore entertained a number of young people at her home in Avalon terrace yesterday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Miss Mildred Moore.

The Highland Athletic Club will give its annual banquet on Wednesday night at the parish hall of Emmanuel Church.

Mrs. C. H. Weiss entertained last night at her home in Nichols avenue in honor of her niece, Mrs. Nathan S. Healy.

HYATTSVILLE.

The program for tonight's session of the course in "Horticulture" at the Maryland Agriculture College will be a lecture on "Harvesting Fruit," by Prof. S. B. Shaw, and a lecture on "The Relation of Birds to Orchard and Garden Crops and Their Protection," by Prof. E. N. Corey.

The officers and non-commissioned officers of Company F are arranging for a smoker in February in honor of the company's re-winning of the national defense trophy and the national trophy.

Concordia Verein, of Bladensburg, will hold a ball Monday night at Loffler's Inn for the benefit of the German relief fund.

Young women of this vicinity will hold a leap year dance in the Masonic Hall, February 12. The committee on arrangements is composed of Miss F. G. Todhunter, Miss Mary Alice Dandy, Miss Dorothy N. Aman, Miss E. H. Todhunter, and Miss Angelica B. Vandoren.

ROCKVILLE.

Judge Edward C. Peter, of the circuit court, has signed a decree granting to Mrs. Minnie L. Davis, of this county, an absolute divorce from John E. Davis.

Rev. Samuel R. White, of the Baptist Church, officiated at the marriage here yesterday of Russell Beauford Ringer, twenty-one years old, and Miss Mary Elinora Tomlison, aged eighteen, both of Hagerstown, Md.

James Henry Bolton, sixty-two years old, died at his home near Potomac. He had been in poor health a long while but the immediate cause of death was pneumonia. He is survived by his wife and five children. The funeral took place today from the Methodist Church at Potomac.

Mrs. Louise Strouse Cunningham, of this county, has filed suit in the circuit court here for an absolute divorce from Joseph Mason Cunningham, of Washington, charging desertion.

To Vote on Liquor.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, Jan. 27.—Prohibitionists were victorious in the municipal elections held here today. The question of the sale of liquor will be taken on a ballot on a municipal election March 29.

"SIGN PLEDGE AND I'LL SIGN TOO," SAYS JUDGE

Boozer Jeremiah Agrees, Not Knowing That the Offer Is Made by Teetotaler.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Capt. John Greenwood, eighty-year-old fisherman, of Sheepshead Bay, hailed his thirty-year-old son, Jeremiah, before Magistrate Steers in Coney Island court on a charge of disorderly conduct, asserting that Jeremiah frequently got both drunk and abusive and wouldn't work.

"Six months in the workhouse would do you good," said the court to Jeremiah, "but if you'll sign the pledge for six months, I'll meet you half way—I'll sign it, too."

Captain Greenwood expressed great gratitude as Magistrate and defendant signed the document, but said nothing about adding his own signature as he left court with his son after Magistrate Steers had admonished Captain Carey, chief of the court officers, to see that both Jeremiah and he obeyed the pledge.

P. S.—Magistrate Steers never takes a drink, but Jeremiah didn't know it.
