POETICAL.

LOVE AT HOME.

There is beauty all around,
When there's love at home;
There is joy in every sound,
When there's love at home.
Peace and plenty here abide,
Smiling sweet on every side,
Time doth softly, sweetly glide,
When there's love at home.

In the cottage there is joy,
When there's love at home;
Hate and envy ne'er annoy,
When there's love at home.
Roses blossom 'neath our feet,
All the earth's a garden sweet,
Making life a bliss complete,
When there's love at home.

Kindly Heaven smiles above,
When there's love at home;
All the earth is filled with love,
When there's love at home.
Sweeter sings the brooklet by,
Brighter beams the azure sky;
Oh, there's One who smiles on high,
When there's love at home.

BOOK NOTICES.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for January is an unusually strong Number. It opens with Conway's second paper on the English lakes, which takes us to the homes of Harriet Martineau, Doctor Arnold and Ruskin, and to Hawkeshead, where Wordsworth went to school—with a number of artistic pictures by Abbey and Parsons. Another paper of especially literary interest is F. H. Underwood's article on the poet Lowell. A number of articles have appeared of late in Harper on what might be called 'old-time' subjects. None of these has been more interesting than Mr. Howard Pyle's in the present Number on "Life in a Quaker Town" (Wilmington, Delaware, as it was a age—with characteristic illustrations by the author's drawings of representative character. Article on "The Old New York Department" continues its gratifying gathering together and preservation of much interesting material which would otherwise soon become irrecoverable. James S. Whitman contributes a delightful article, entitled "Down the Thames in a Sixty-ton Cutter." The illustrations include views of Windsor, Westminster Abbey, Marlow, and Windsor Castle. Many readers will be surprised by the information as to great violins owned in this country, given in Harriet Phillimore's interesting article, "Some Great Violins." Lovers of Ole Bull will be delighted with Ole Bull's personal reminiscences, therein recorded for the first time. The article is illustrated with a remarkably good portrait of Ole Bull, and representations of famous violins owned in the United States. Alice Perry contributes the clever short story, entitled "Our Nearest Neighbors," and Titus Munson Coan a very important and timely article on the Life insurance business. Hardy's new novel, "A Laodicean," is begun in this Number. The opening chapters are very strong. The Editorial Departments are full of useful and entertaining matter.

BRAINARD'S MUSICAL WORLD enters upon the eighteenth year of its existence with the January number, and is well known as the best musical journal in the United States. Each number contains sixteen pages of the latest and most popular Sheet Music, including Songs, Ballads, Piano Pieces, Waltzes, Polkas, Read Organ Music, Duetts, Quartettes, Violin and Piano Music, etc. The music alone given in each volume of the World would cost over $23, if purchased separately. Besides all this choice music and immense amount of interesting and instructive reading matter is given in each number. The Musical World is just what is wanted for your home during the long winter evenings, when the family can gather around the piano or organ and with music and good cheer, laugh at Jack Frost, they may rage without and make home a place of enjoyment and delight. You can obtain a specimen copy of the Musical World by sending 15 cents to the publishers, S. Brainard's Sons, Cleveland, Ohio. The regular subscription price is $1.50 per year. By special arrangement the publishers can furnish the Spirit of Jefferson and Brainard's Musical World both one year for only $3.15. Sample copies can be examined at this office.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR JANUARY, 1881, lies upon our desk, giving promise of twelve glorious months during 1881. It is greeted in the homes of America as a well beloved friend, who gives pleasure, advice, information, and direction to the mothers, wives, and daughters of each household. The present number contains all the old well-known features, and in addition the first of the promised Novels, from the pen of Mrs. D. E. N. Southworth, the well-known author of "Hilda and I," "Ishmael," and the charming serial "Clemenchah," published in the Lady's Book in 1866. The Novelty Page alone is worth the price of the Magazine to the ladies, and the New music and a bewildering array of fashions and fancy work are added. We will take subscriptions for Godey's Lady's Book and the Spirit of Jefferson for 1881, and send the latter subscribers for the low price of $3.25 per annum.

THE NATIONAL CITIZEN-SOLDIER, an eight-page, forty column, weekly journal, published at Washington, D. C., comes to us brimful of good things for the citizen as well as for the soldier. It opposes monopoly, favors equal and exact justice to all classes, and is the special champion and defender of the rights of the soldier, his widow and orphans. Every soldier should have this paper to keep him posted. Terms, $1.50 per year; sample copy free. Address, Citizen Soldier Publishing Co., Box 388, Washington, D. C.

WORDS OF WISDOM.—Truth is the foundation of all knowledge, and the cement of all society.

A wise rich man is like the back or stock of the chimney, and his wealth the fire; he receives it, not for his own need, but to reflect the heat to other's good.

Death makes a beautiful appeal to charity. When we look upon the dead form, so composed and still, the kindness and the love that are in us all will come forth.

PONDER ON THESE TRUTHS.—Torpid kidneys, and constipated bowels, are the great causes of chronic diseases.

Kidney-Wort has cured thousands. Try it and you will add one more to their number.

Habitual costiveness afflicts millions of the American people. Kidney-Wort will cure it.

Kidney-Wort has cured kidney complaints of thirty years standing. Try it.—Exchange.

A GOOD ACCOUNT.—"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all of which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit.

—The greatest loss of time is delay and expectation, which depends upon the future. We let go the present, which we have in our power, and look forward to that which depends upon chance, and so quit a certainty for an uncertainty.

—Dip a new broom in hot water to make it durable. To keep a broom from getting stiff and hard hang it in the cellar-way.

LOSS OF APPETITE, Loss of Energy, sometimes attended with a dry hacking cough, sometimes costive, a looseness of the bowels or pain near the region of the heart, cured with Thayer's Liver Powder. 25 cts. is not much.

THAYER'S CONSUMPTION OR COUGH CURE is the best thing for Consumption known, and will cure an ordinary cough in thirty minutes.
