BANK ROBBED IN CADIZ, OHIO.

$350,000 ABSTRACTED.

REWARD OF $20,000 OFFERED

On Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, a bold and daring robbery was committed in the First National Bank, in Cadiz, Ohio, about twenty-six miles distant from this city. It appears that for several days past, (ever since the attempt to rob the bank in Wellsburg) some suspicious individuals have been loitering around Cadiz, and they have been watched up to Saturday evening, when it was thought incredient to watch them any longer. They had made frequent visits to the bank, and presented very trifling business. About 2 o'clock yesterday morning these strangers, six in number, proceeded to the residence of the cashier of the bank, called him out of bed, and when the door was opened they seized the cashier, "bonked and gagged" him, and then demanded of his wife the keys of the bank, threatening her unless she immediately produced them. As a matter of course the lady was terribly frightened, and gave up the keys, when she was gagged and secured, and the husband and wife were both left unable to give any alarm. The robbers then started to the bank, which is some distance from the cashier's residence, and unlocked the door and entered, and caught the watchman in the bank and "bonked and gagged" him, and proceeded in a "business-like" manner to examine into the financial status of the institution. The watchman could hear all their conversation, and sufficiently see them. A portion of them were dressed in soldiers' clothes. They had some difficulty in unlocking the vault door, one remarking "that d—d woman has given the wrong keys after all;" but finally the door swung on its hinges, when the contents of the bank were at the mercy of the thieves. The first "pages" their prudent hands fell upon were United States seven-thirty bonds to the amount of three hundred thousand dollars, the chief who lifted them exclaiming, "By G—d, these are the 'papers' we want"—and they took them. They then made a descent upon fifty thousand dollars in greenbacks and took it. They pitched into the silver and gold, filling the former over the floor, but specie was too heavy for them to carry, and we suppose they considered the fluctuation of the gold market, and upon the whole they concluded to leave it. The total amount stolen from the bank was between three hundred and fifty and three hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars. Before they left the bank they locked the watchman in the vault for "security." An alarm was soon after given, and several gentlemen immediately left Cadiz for the city. The robbers had cut the telegraph wires in two places when they left. They came towards Alexandria, and when near that place took possession of a hand-car on the P. C. & C. Railroad, and left it near Smithfield's Station, taking to the woods, as their foot-prints indicated. Every conceivable effort is being made to apprehend these men, which, with a reward of twenty thousand dollars offered, cannot fail to catch them. The country on both sides of the river is thoroughly aroused, and a large number of detectives and policemen are on the trail. A force left Pittsburgh yesterday, and also this city and other places. A minute description of the thieves cannot be given, but one is described as being a tall man, with side whiskers and sandy complected; another as a small man, mustache and goatee, and sandy complexion. There can be no doubt that there is an extensively organized band of thieves in the part of the country, who will take it by storm one of these days unless they are subbed, and we have not the slightest doubt but that some of them will be brought to justice this time, as everybody is on the alert and working in earnest for the capture.

It is stated that the man found in this city a few nights since, about 1 o'clock, loitering near a bank door, with a skeleton key in his possession, answers the description of one of these robbers. It will be remembered that this man was arrested, but discharged, there being no evidence against him.

SAD DEATH BY DROWNING.—A number of people on the Ida-bug Saturday morning, had a deep gloom thrown around about them. Three fourteen-year old boys, on their way around the river, near the steamer Wheeling, when they thought they were insulted by a colored individual on board the steamer, when they made for and boarded her, and began to fasten the yell boys in their home to vent their indignation upon the black man. The boat moved off in the river with a very worthy "party" on board, and he not understanding the ropes, the boat was driven, by the took-less wind and tide, into the wheel of the packet Argosy where it upset, precipitating the young and innocent Scotch terrier into the river, where he fought and struggled with the waves for a time and then gave up the contest and quietly turned over on his side and gently went to sleep in the watery deep. The sudden departure of the estimable "dog" is deeply lamented by his friends, who said with tears dribbling down their cheeks, that they would rather have lost their boat.

THIEVING.—On Sunday night, between 9 and 10 o'clock, a man got on the roof of the Virginia House, on the corner of Water and Quincy streets, by which means he effected an entrance into a bedroom of the hotel and abstracted a quantity of bed clothing. When about making his escape with the booty he was discovered by some one in the house, who raised an alarm, whereupon the thief dropped the clothes and made his escape.

ROBBERY AT GRAFTON.—A confectionery establishment was broken into at Grafton, the latter part of last week, and a quantity of goods stolen. About twenty persons were arrested in that vicinity, among whom were a father and his six sons. One of the boys, on being arrested, remarked to the old man, "Father, see what you have brought us to! You always whipped us becase we would not steal."

WATER.—The Superintendent of the Water works, Mr. John W. Cummings, was examining the water-plugs and sewers in various parts of the city yesterday, something being wrong with the supply of water in certain portions of the city. He thinks the fault lies somewhere between Monroe and John streets, on Market street.

MINSTRELS.—To-night the grand combination troupe, composed of Tony Pastor's and Sam. Sharpley's troupes, will open their budget of fun and music at Washington Hall. The simple announcement of this renowned company is sufficient.

AMUSEMENTS.—This will be a lively week in the way of amusements. We will have minstrels two nights, circus two days and nights, lectures three or four nights, and by way of variety, we suppose the usual number of robberies and blowing up of safes, and so on.

THAYER AND NOYES' CIRCUS.—As will be seen by advertisement, this renowned Circus Combination will perform in this city next Thursday and Friday. These gentlemen present an unparalled programme, 'and they mean just what they say.

POLICE COURT.—There were two cases before the police court Saturday morning, who were fined, and sent on their way rejoicing.

RIVER NEWS.—There were between twelve and thirteen feet water in the channel yesterday evening, and falling.

The Hillman left for Cincinnati Saturday afternoon, with a good trip.

The Eagle is the Parkersburg packet to-day.

The Potomac will arrive to-day from Cincinnati and leave for that place to-morrow evening at 5 o'clock.

The Henry Logan will leave for Steubenville to-day at 3:00 P. M.

The Leslie Combs will leave for Sandy to-day at 3 P. M.

The Zanesville will make her usual trips.

KISSING.—We hear of a young lady not a great way off, who broke her neck restraining an attempt of a young gentleman to kiss her. Had she broken her dear neck trying to get a smack, we would admire her view; but to think that she—oh, no, it is too much.
