TO CAPITALISTS

Or Parties of Small Means Desirous of Engaging in Grape Growing, Coal Mining or Market Gardening.

On account of advanced age I am desirous of changing my residence, and therefore offer for sale my farm situated opposite the city of Wheeling, on the river bank, midway between Bridgeport and Martin's Ferry, and immediately adjoining the village of Ætnaville. The property consists of 60 acres of hill and table land and 15 of river bottom. In the hill there are two seams of coal, 3½ and 3½ feet thick, three deposits of limestone, an 8 foot vein of close texture sand or free stone, an 18 foot vein of marl, which altogether make a soil and an underlying bed of deposits of a rich and valuable character.

On the surface, the larger portion of which lies gently sloping to the east, and all under direct exposure to the sun, is a vineyard of 36 acres, mostly Catawba grapes, all in fine bearing condition, about seven years old, which has proven itself able to pay a handsome per cent to the cultivator.

The property is being approached above and below by an advancing tide of persons seeking small homesteads, and is now really the only unoccupied territory between Bridgeport and Martin's Ferry. It is valuable as an investment for capital seeking a safe purchase, and valuable to those who want market gardening ground close to the city. It fronts beautifully upon the river and commands a view of the city, the island and the whole scenery of the valley.

The terms of sale will be one-third cash, balance in two annual payments, 8 per cent interest on deferred payments. For further particulars inquire of RICHARD CRAWFORD
On the premises, or by mail at Bridgeport, Ohio.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN THE FOURTH WARD.—On Saturday afternoon the Democracy of the Fourth Ward, under the leadership of Commodore John Boring and other illustrious patriots, essayed to erect a pole in honor of the Confederate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. Apropos of this, it might be added that Uncle John and his satellites previous to the St. Louis Convention were devoted followers of "Olebillallen," but have since, with Democratic-Spartan heroism, swallowed their share of crow.

While the pole was being put in its place, corner 18th and Jacob streets, one of the splicings broke and lowered Messrs. Tilden and Hendricks to the ground. The accident rather dampened the ardor of the Democracy, but they will no doubt make the best of a bad job and repair the stick if possible to-day.

The pow-wow over the new Democratic tombstone took place in the evening. The Tilden and Hendricks club of the First Ward formed into line, and headed by Kramer's band marched to the scene of the wake in the Fourth Ward. The procession was a minors' procession. There were about one hundred in line, and it is estimated that quite eighty-four per cent of them were boys. Arrived at the corners, where Petroleum V. Boring, Bascom, Pegram, Gavitt, Bigley & Co., awaited them, the mourners took their places about the platform and were ready for the obsequies to commence. George Davenport was the first speaker. Since Cicero turned up his toes, there is no man who can hold a candle to Davenport as a brilliant orator. George must have created an impression somewhere, as at the conclusion of his speech a lady sent him up a beautiful bouquet. Bob McEldowney should look to his laurels.

Counsellor Davenport was followed by J. J. Woods, Alf. Caldwell and W. W. Arnett, late of the Confederate army. By this time the audience had suffered an elegant sufficiency of crow, and were ready to retire to their several homes.

MCELDOWNEY'S NEW RIVAL.—Every notice of the press states that Col. Bob McEldowney, of Wetzel, "is the handsomest man in West Virginia." We do not profess to be much of a judge of personal beauty, but we think there are about two men in the State who can reasonably compete with him. We mention no names lest we may be sued by McEldowney for libel; but one of these gentlemen was present at the Fourth Ward Democratic meeting Saturday night, and received a splendid bouquet from a lady admirer. We never heard of Bob getting a bouquet, although, as is well known, he was the target of twenty million feminine eyes while in his seat in the House of Delegates. The superiority of McEldowney's good looks has bewildered the press. In the words of Watts:

"Great God on what a slender thread
Hangs everlasting things."

THE poet of the Inter-Ocean, after reviewing the embarrassment of persons in trying to get street cars stopped, says:

When you want to mount a csire,
Take your place fair and square—
For the east, on east cornaire,
For the west, on west cornaire,
For the north, on north cornaire,
For the south, on south cornaire;
Then will the haughty conductaire
Ring the bell for the stern drivaire,
And halt the gaily painted caire
At the very feet of the passenjaire

MR. REMICK'S FUNERAL.—The funeral of Noah P. Remick, formerly manager of the La Belle nail factory, took place from his residence, No. 2244 Chapline street, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The remains were followed to the place of interment, Mt. Wood cemetery, by a large crowd of friends. The ceremonies were conducted under the direction of Panola Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F.

SAMUEL J. TILDEN looks like Uncle Jake Hull, constable for Union district, and Uncle Jake was so disgusted when he heard of it that he went immediately and had seven teeth pulled, beside adorning his nose with a cupola. He now walks the streets in comparative comfort.

ADMINISTRATOR.—In the County Clerk's office on Saturday, Wm. Phillips was appointed administrator of the estate of Thomas Denning, deceased; bond, $4,000.

UNLESS we have a rise in the river, navigation will soon be numbered among the things of the past. At this writing the prospect is a good one.

Va., August 23; Mount Sewickley, Pa., August 22; Burrs' Mills, O., August 22; Loyalhanna, Pa., August 23; Winchester, O., August 24; Shinnston, W. The camp-meeting fever rages pretty high just now—especially among the Methodist brethren, who are making preparations to attend some one of the various gatherings.

The Chautauqua Lake Sabbath School Assembly commences to-morrow.

On last Saturday the "West End" M. E. Church, Bridgeport, took into full membership a goodly number of those who had been on probation. Baptism being necessary, some were sprinkled at the church, but as the discipline allows a choice between sprinkling and immersion, Rev. Appleton, assisted by Mr. Jos. McConnaughy, immersed in the back river the following named persons: Mrs. E. A. Porter, Mr. Wm. Woods, and the Misses L. Stotler and R. Campbell. A large crowd assembled on the banks to witness the impressive ceremony.

Quarterly meeting services were held in the Fourth Street M. E. Church yesterday. Rev. Reiley preached at 10:30 A. M., and was followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. In the afternoon memorial services occasioned by the death of Miss Annie Bocking were held in the Sabbath School. Rev. Snodgrass, of Chapline Street M. E. Church, officiated in the evening. Love feast will be held to-morrow evening.

High Mass will be celebrated, when the members of the St. Alphonsus Society will take communion in a body. Grand High Mass will be celebrated at 10 A. M., after which Father Schwabl, of Pittsburgh, will deliver a sermon. A number of visiting priests are expected to be present.

POLICE COURT—Judge Cranmer.—The following docket was disposed of in this court on Saturday:

Jacob Frazier and Mrs. Wm. McManaway were charged with using abusive language toward each other. The former was fined $5, and the latter $2.

F. W. Baicker, for failing to take away the garbage from the premises of J. G. Morris, was fined $2.

George Duncan, John Hill and Edward Dixon were charged with disorderly conduct. Duncan and Dixon were fined $2 and costs each, and the case against Hill was dismissed.

"GREEN stuff" in the markets shows the reviving effects of the down-pour of the rain. The berries are recovering plumpness, vegetables are cheaper and jucier, and the heart of the market gardener would leap for joy if he could receive assurance that the skies would not again become as brass.

BIBLE CAUSE.—West Virginia contributed $60 95 to the Bible Society during the month of May—about half as much as any of the prominent churches of Wheeling should take in a single collection for such an object. Charlestown and vicinity contributed $46 95; Pocahontas county $14.

ROBINSON'S circus showed at Bellaire on Saturday, and yesterday morning the wagons, animals, etc., were brought up to this city, via Benwood. A large number of persons visited the Fair Grounds during the day to inspect Uncle John's trappings.

THE Democratic voters didnt turn out to any great extent at the Fourth Ward meeting Saturday night. The patriotic voters didn't seem to take as much interest in the Tilden and Hendricks pole as certain candidates for county offices.

A LETTER from Brooklyn states that Miss Kate Wise, of this city, who was a few weeks since injured by a railway accident, is getting along nicely, and that it is now thought amputation of the limb will be avoided.

FOUR elephants attached to Robinson's circus were taken in the river near the suspension bridge last evening for a bath. The city ordinance in relation to bathing was not enforced.

SEVERAL extra cars were taken out the Hempfield yesterday for the purpose of bringing Washington county people to he circus.

BAD PUNS.—If things keep on this way it will be necessary to establish an asylum for decayed punsters in Wheeling. On Saturday one solid man met another solid man (we withhold names out of respect to their families) at the McLure House corner, and the following conversation ensued:

"Well, George, how are you feeling today?"

"Not very well."

"What's the matter?"

"I have the vertigo; what shall I take?"

"I think you had better take a street car."

Ten minutes later a little row of solid men ranged themselves in front of Lewis Kœflein's bar in the Opera and proposed to take a round of libulations. Said one as he held up his first glass: "This is fine ale."

"No," said another, "this is only the overture."

Again, last night, one of the clerks at a prominent hotel, after standing wrapped in deep meditation over the register for an hour two, suddenly brightened up, rang for a servant, and sent for a gentleman in the house against whom he had an old grudge. When the gentleman arrived, the clerk pointed to the name of a town in Northern Ohio on the register, and asked: "What is the difference between this desk back here and that town?"

"I don't know what particular difference you allude to," replied the victim.

"Well, it is this: one is veneered over, and the other is Canal Dover. Oh! my poor head!"

The epidemic seems to be spreading, and there is no foretelling to what we may come.

COSTLY EGGS.—On Saturday morning a well-known Main street merchant got into a bad speculation at the Second Ward market. He went to a wagon and purchased three dozen eggs for half a dollar, giving in pay a five-dollar bill; the dealer went off to get the note changed; our Main street friend stood by the egg wagon for near a quarter of an hour, when an elderly country gentleman made his appearance, and took charge of affairs. Mutual explanations followed. The countryman had gone to breakfast, leaving posession in charge of a strange young man whom he had met at the hotel the night before. The business man made known the fact that he had given a five dollar bill in payment for three dozen eggs, and was awaiting the return of the strange young man with his change. The countryman declined losing his eggs, and another five-dollar note was produced by the business man, the fifty cents paid, and thus ended the purchase of three dozen eggs for five dollars and a half.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.—The following deeds, transferring real estate, were admitted to record at the office of the Clerk of the County Court Saturday:

BRIDGEPORT has long been noted for its midnight rowdyism, and the trouble has always been that the Council has never appropriated a sufficient amount to pay a police force. At the last meeting a petition having been presented by Ætnaville asking protection, the Council authorized the Mayor to enforce some ordinances to prevent this nusiance, and as a result under the strict surveillance of James McConnaughy, assisted by Reason Burdett, the town has been kept quiet. So great is the change that several citizens have told McConnaughy to keep it up and if Council did not pay them a sufficient amount would be raised by subscription to justify their being on hands at all hours to keep the streets quiet and free from these chronic pests.

AN OLD LAND-MARK GONE.—The old original log cabin built about the beginning of this century by Mr. Kirkwood in Kirkwood, is being torn down. It was the first house erected in Kirkwood, and was the home of Mr. Kirkwood until his death. It had been weather-boarded and added to so much that not until it was stripped was its original architecture manifest. The sugar and beech tree logs are in a good state of preservation, and are as solid as the chinking between them, both having stood the blasts of at least seventy-five winters.

GLEE CLUBS.—A Hayes and Wheeler glee club should be started in every ward in the city. Patriotic songs will do much toward amusing the people. Anything that tends to make the people patriotic makes them good Republicans. Republicanism and patriotism are so closely allied that the two go together at all times. Singing should be one of the powers of the campaign. We throw out the idea with the hope that our friends will take it up and organize glee clubs wherever singers can be found to start them.

A BRASS band (colored men) from Wheeling serenaded some of our citizens Monday evening—among others, Dr. M. W. Junkins. The doctor responded in a brief speech, in which he informed his serenaders that he had always been the fast friend of the colored man; that he had stood by him here while he had but sixteen friends in the township, but now, he thanked God, he had 846, and stood forth like a man. The doctor's speech was applauded, whereupon the gentlemen of the brass horns gave another toot and departed.—Bellaire Independent.

PICNIC AT STELLE'S GROVE.—The grand re-union and picnic at Stelle's Grove on Saturday was a complete success. Dancing was kept up until 11 o'clock in the evening. Cockayne's full band was in attendance. Wm. Gibson had charge of the refreshments. Messrs. John Ball, John Fendt, Wm. Demmy and Henry Seibert done all they could to make everyone feel at home.

A POOR, disgusted-looking, little half-moon has been furnishing the Islanders with light for several nights past. The light given by the fraction of a moon was barely sufficient to show the outlines of church spires and tree tops; yet the street lamps were not lighted. Such a state of affairs is a disgrace to a city of the size and boasted enterprise of Wheeling.

DOCUMENTARY STAMPS.—Gen. Harris, Internal Revenue Collector, has been directed by circular to redeem all documentary stamps in good order, so that parties holding such stamps will on presenting them at the collector's office, receive the value represented by them less five per cent in cash on proprietary stamps.

PROPERTY SOLD.—Mr. J. C. Hervey, the auctioneer, on Saturday sold a house and lot on South Front street, near the suspension bridge, belonging to Mr. John Morgan, to Dr. J. C. Happ, for $1,750. Also lots Nos. 4 and 5 in square No. 1, Churchill's addition, to W. C. Handlan, for $550.

THE residence of the late Wm. Ewing was offered at public sale on Saturday. The highest bid was $5,500, but as the property is valued at $10,000 the sale was continued to a future day.

A CART loaded with bricks broke down on Main street, near 14th, Saturday evening at 5 o'clock.

SATURDAY'S BOAT RACE.—The single scull race for $100 a side between Geo. Weisgerber, of the C. P. Brown boat club, and Jimmy Johnson, of the Nail City boat club, which has been on the tapis for some time, came off on Saturday afternoon. The weather and river were all that could have been desired, the first being cool and pleasant while not a ripple ruffled the surface of the latter. The river was quite gay with numerous crafts of all kinds from the reporters' yacht (had through the courtesy of Mr. Joseph Stewart) to the home-made flat-bottomed scow propelled by the ubiquitous river rat.

There was the usual vexatious delay on the part of the contestants, which we cannot help thinking might be avoided, and thus make it in every way more enjoyable. At 5:15 the word was given by the starter, Mr. Charles Adams, and they got away in good style.

Wiesgerber soon drew ahead, and when the stake boat was reached was at least 50 yards ahead of Johnson, the gap being filled by several oarsmen in sculls dressed so like the racers that we were uncertain who the contestants were. Altogether we came to the conclusion that as a race it wasn't a success, and we don't believe Wiesgerber ever did, or ever will make another $100 as easily. The Nail City Boat Club, of which Johnson is a member, must put forward a little better material if they would retain their place in the front ranks of the numerous boat clubs in our city.

Messrs. Chas. Queen and Frank Wiesgerber, of the C. P. Brown Boat Club, and Ed. Knowles and Bob Johnson, of the Nail City Boat Club, were the judges, and Mr. H. J. Leasure referee, with Mr. Lawrence Heller as stake holder.

THE CIRCUS.—Of course all our readers are aware that "Old John Robinson's" show will exhibit on the Fair Grounds to-day, and of course everybody will go. Mr. Robinson is known to all of our people as a successful manager and a genial gentleman. He has the reputation of always showing just what he advertises, and of giving his patrons at least double the worth of their money. The show consists of menagerie, museum, circus and aquarium, each department as complete as ample means and long experience would render possible. In addition to fifty dens of wild animals, the menagerie contains many rare species, only exhibited by Mr. Robinson in America. The circus, which comprises over one hundred well known artists, is complete in all its particulars. Among its members will be found the famous Robert Stickney, the funny John Lowlow, John Wilson, El Nino Eddie, Charles McCortney, Emma Lake, Rosaline Stickney, Mollie Turnour, and other artistes of celebrity. Two large bands will enliven the entertainment with choice musical gems, and produce for the first time in public the Grand Centennial March, composed expressly for the occasion. The price of admission to the entire show is only 50 cents for adults, and 25 cents for children.

COMMENDABLE ACTION.—At a special meeting of the St. Alphonsus Society, held at their hall yesterday afternoon, it was unanimously resolved to donate the proceeds of their picnic on Wednesday next to the Orphan Asylum under the charge of the Sisters of St. Joseph. This action is very commendable, for no object is more worthy of support than this institution. There are in it at present about fifty children; whilst others equally as needy are applying for admission. All therefore who will patronize the picnic, will be at the same time aiding a most noble work of charity.

THE Committee on Capital met on Saturday at the office of the Fire and Marine Insurance Company and audited bills aggregating $7,509 10. The committee agreed to recommend Council to purchase an illuminated clock for the dome of the Capital. The clock will cost $2,200.

NOTWITHSTANDING the heavy rain of yesterday the picnic of the Mænnerchor Singing Society will be held, according to previous announcements, at Zanes Orchard to-day, providing the weather remains favorable.

THE heavy rain caused the river bank just below the east end of the suspension bridge to give way yesterday. The P. W. & Ky. railroad bed will soon be a thing of the past.
