WILL IT CURE ME?

Said a man whose wholesome countenance and broken-down constitution plainly showed traces of disease—a sufferer with Nervous Dyspepsia, in whose stomach the most delicate morsel lay like lead. Refreshing sleep and quiet nerves were strangers to him, and he despaired of ever being well.

We advised him to take

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

Which he did, and in a short time was not only relieved but cured.

Reader if you are suffering with Dyspepsia or Liver Disease in any form, do not wait until the disease has taken a firm hold upon you, but use the Regulator when the symptoms first show themselves. It has relieved untold suffering. SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR is not an alcoholic stimulant, but a purely vegetable remedy that will cure when everything else fails. It is a faultless family medicine. Does not disarrange the system. Is no violent drastic purge but nature's own remedy. The friend of everyone, and will not disappoint you. A single trial will convince you that it is the cheapest, purest and best family medicine in the world. Ask the recovered dyspeptics, billious sufferers, victims of fever and ague, the mercurial diseased patient how they recovered their health, cheerful spirits and good appetite—they will tell you by taking Simmons Liver Regulator. Purchasers should be careful to see that they get the genuine, manufactured only by J. H. ZEILIN & CO., Philadelphia.

Sold by all Druggists.

The Intelligencer.

Mr. Camden and the Oil Monopoly.

PARKERSBURG, January 1.

Editors Intelligencer.

The Parkersburg Sentinel speaks, in a general way, of the valuable assistance which Mr. Camden has rendered our State "in the opening of mines etc," but does not enter into paticulars. We beg your readers' indulgence while we state a few facts about Mr. Camden's business transactions with those who make mining for oil an occupation. He states in his published letter that his object was to build up the oil business of West Virginia. We will prove that his object was to put it down for the benefit of himself and other members of the Standard Company. So eager was the Camden Company to fasten the Standard monopoly upon the people that in purchasing the refinery of Kraft & Thomas, it made a contract so clearly against public policy that it could not be enforced.

In the fall of 1877, having gotten rid of all the competitors but two or three stubborn ones, who were engaged in the manufacture of lubricating oils, a plan was conceived for forcing these obstinate men to come to terms; this plan was, to persuade the West Virginia producers to make a contract agreeing to sell their oil to the Camden Company exclusively, binding themselves to sell to no one else. Mr. Camden, after consultation with the Standard Company, prepared a very ingenious contract whereby the Camden Company agreed to pay for crude oil at Parkersburg six cents per gallon, when refined was worth twelve cents per gallon; this would give them about fifty cents per barrel profit, an excellent business margin; then, for every cent per gallon advance on refined they were to pay one-half cent per gallon advance on crude; for instance, if refined should advance to eighteen cents, crude would be worth nine cents, and the profit would be about $1 50 per barrel. No provision was made for prices below twelve cents for refined, as they assured the producers that the Standard Company would be able to prevent it going below that figure. Now there happened to be among the producers a shrewd gentleman who is in the habit of looking two ways at once, and he said to Mr. Camden that it was barely possible that the Standard Company might not be able to keep the price up to twelve cents, so he proposed to incorporate a clause by which the Camden Company should agree to go down on the same scale, which they had declared to be an equitable one to go up on; this Mr. Camden could not refuse to do, so he somewhat reluctantly consented, and the contract thus modified was finally signed by the Camden Company and the majority of the producers. There were, however, some obstinate producers who persisted in selling to the obstinate refiners. In order to squeeze these into the arrangement, a conspiracy was formed between the Camden Company and the West Virginia Transportation Company by which the Transportation Company undertook to charge extortionate rates on all oil not sold to the Camden Company, as will appear from the following freight notice:

"The West Virginia Transportation Company announces the following schedule of rates from and after this 24th day of June, 1878, until further notice:

"To Parkersburg by pipe line—

"On oil lighter than 30°, 75c. per bbl. of 40 gallons.

"On oil 30@10° to 30°, 75c. per bbl. of 40 gallons.

"On oil 30@10° to 32½°, 77c. per bbl. of 40 gallons

"On oil 30½° and heavier, 80c. per bbl. of 40 gallons.

"To the B. & O. R. R.—

"On all grades, 60c. per bbl. of 40 gallons

"Commissions on the above rates will be given on application to the Secretary, to parties guaranteeing certain average daily shipments to one consignee.

[Signed] "M. C. CHURCH, "Secretary."

The distance to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad for which 60 cents per barrel was charged was four miles, the freight on the Baltiomre and Ohio to Parkersburg was 35 cents, total charge for transportation 95 cents per barrel. The daily average shipments necessary to obtain the rebate of about 50 per cent, here innocently called "commissions," were so large that no one except the Camden Company could obtain them. The ingenious arrangement of which the foregoing notice is merely offered as a sample, worked like a charm and brought the Eureka Oil Works and the Windsor Tub Works, of Parkersburg, and the Cincinnati firm of Gunnison, Hamilton & Miller, into the Standard's fold. In the meantime the producers, under the assurance that crude would not go below 6 cents in Parkersburg, had commenced drilling a large number of wells to increase their production, but, "it is the impossible that always happens," and the fall for which our shrewd gentleman had wisely made provision, actually occured. Some necessity compelled the Standard Company to drop the price of refined to eight cents and the sliding scale which Mr. Camden had prepared became a snare for his own feet. If the sliding scale had been truly equitable it would have made no difference whether refined rose or fell, the refiner would have had his profit; but Mr. Camden's equity, when turned against himself, devoured the profits so rapidly that, with the Standard Company at his back, he was compelled to brand with his own hand upon his business record the ugly word, repudiator; for, after having brought the obstinate refiners to terms by means of the contract he squarely repudiated the whole thing, for no other reason than this, that he could not afford to pay the prices which he had agreed to pay. The producers being at his mercy, were compelled to take fifteen cents per barrel less than Pennsylvania certificate prices, and instead of getting the six cents per gallon assured them when the contract was made, only realized one and a half cents at the wells.

At this point Mr. Sweetzer, who alone had maintained his independence, and Messrs Kraft and Thomas, who were not legally bound by their unlawful contract, commenced bidding against the Camden Company for the West Virginia oils. In order to check this new competition and ruin any one who should attempt to revive the refining business in Parkersburg, Mr. Camden voluntarily pays a higher price for the oil than he was compelled to pay by the contract which he had repudiated, and thus he is compelled to admit either that he did not tell the truth, or that he can afford to lose money for the sake of breaking down honest competition, but cannot afford to lose it for the sake of protecting his business record from dishonesty.

"Save Your Hair." Keep it Beautiful.

The "London Hair Color Restorer" is the most delightful article ever introduced to the American people, and is totally different from all other Hair Restorers, being entirely free from all impure ingredients that render many other articles for the hair obnoxious. Where baldness, or falling of the hair exists, or prematurely grayness, from sickness, or other causes, its use will restore the natural youthful color, and cause a healthy growth, cleansing the scalp from all impurities, dandruff, &c., at the same time a most pleasing and lasting hair dressing, fragrantly perfumed, rendering the hair soft and pliable, making it an indispensable article in every toilet.

Ask your druggist for London Hair Color Restorer. Price, 75 cents a bottle. Six bottles, $4. Main Depot for the United States, 330 North Sixth St., Philad'a.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of Curtis & Perkins is on the outside wrapper. Sold by all Medicine Dealers. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Beware of imitations. MWAF

W. E. MILLER, of Bellvue, Ohio, says: I have been troubled with asthma, and received no relief until I procured your "Only Lung Pad." I can recommend it to any one having the asthma.—See advertisement. MWFAW

MEDICAL.

Gentle Women

Who want glossy, luxuriant and wavy tresses of abundant, beautiful Hair must use LYON'S KATHAIRON. This elegant, cheap article always makes the Hair grow freely and fast, keeps it from falling out, arrests and cures grayness, removes dandruff and itching, makes the Hair strong, giving it a curling tendency and keeping it in any desired position. Beautiful, healthy Hair is the sure result of using Kathairon.

TO THE PEOPLE!

The best evidence of a physician's success is the testimony of his patients. The increasing demands for my professional services prove that I have dealt honorably and fairly with those who have consulted me. I never use a patient's name without permission, though I have many hundred certificates from those whom I have cured after they had been pronounced incurable. A thorough medical education, with many years hospital experience and familiarity with therapeutic agents, a close observance of temperamental peculiarities and strict attention to hygienic management insure success, if cure is possible, and I frankly give the patient my opinion.
