FOR CONGRESS.

FIRST DISTRICT,
GEN'L NATHAN GOFF, of Harrison county.
SECOND DISTRICT,
JOHN W. MASON, of Taylor county.
FOURTH DISTRICT,
HON. GEORGE LOOMIS, of Wood county.

HUNTERS in Washington county, Pa., report squirrels scarce.

THE Augusta (Me.) Journal says that Blaine never was so popular in that State as now.

THE prospects for Bethany College this coming session (Oct. 1st) are said to be very encouraging.

GOV. FOSTER is reported as saying that the temperance issue is the absorbing topic throughout Ohio.

WHEAT, $1; corn, 90c; oats, 35c; hay, $8; potatoes, 40c; new corn, 8c per dozen; butter, 25c, and eggs, 14c at Washington, Pa.

THE prolongation of the strike at Pittsburgh is having a discouraging effect on local business, especially the wholesale and retail grocery trade.

SUMMER has come and gone, and left us, at least in this part of the country, the most bountiful crops ever perhaps since its settlement.—Waynesburg, Pa., Republican.

THE Washington Examiner reports Col. Boyd, the genial and jolly old Scotchman who was to have put the Hempfield extension through, as saying that he expects to finish it yet. This is all true, no doubt, but it is because the Col. comes of a very long-lived stock.

WE had a pleasant call yesterday from our valued Republican friend and correspondent, T. N. Parks, Esq., a young and promising attorney at Middlebourne, Tyler county. He feels very hopeful of Goff's prospects in that county. Also of the election of Anthony Smith to the Senate from that district, and thinks that Hon. W. I. Boreman will be nominated for the House of Delegates.

WE are under obligations to Col. Frank A. Barr for a copy of his book entitled the "Life and Achievements of Gen. James A. Beaver," the Republican candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania. It is one of the many literary productions that are passing under the hand of the Colonel these days, and is a very interesting work. It has had a wide distribution in Pennsylvania during the present canvass.

AN Ohio reader tells us that Ross Alexander is only a mild type of a Democrat. Ross ought to stop all such talk. He might not even get the Democratic vote, small as it is, if that impression gets out. It is bad enough to be beaten 3,051 votes without swelling it from the Democratic ranks. We insist that Mr. Alexander shall not be buried under such an everlasting avalanche.

Wanted—Office.

It is astonishing how many people in this country, old and young, men and women, want to make their living by an appointment to an office of some sort. The rage for these appointments knows no end or any let up, as the following advertisements from the Wasnihgton, D. C., Republican will show:

WANTED—SITUATION—By a young man, in the Bureau of printing and engraving, to learn plate p inting, for which I will give $50 to any person securing the same. Address O. K., Star office. 3t

LIBERAL COMMISSION will be paid for Government Department. Address "Business," Republican office.

A YOUNG LADY of culture would like a position in one of the Departments, and would give a good percentage of her salary to one who would procure her a posit on. Address G. W. C., Republican office.

WANTED—Will give $100, in large installments, for a situation in one of the Government Departments. Address T. L. A., Republican office.

$100—A LADY—with good endorsements will give $100 for a good, permanent position in one of the departments. Address R. G. Republican office.

WANTED—BY A YOUNG LADY—With best of references, a position in one of the Departments, for which 25 per cent of salary will be paid as long as retained. Address Maud, Critic office.

WILL give fifty dollars cash and 25 per cent of salary as long as retained to any person procuring me a position under the Government. Address Money, Republican office.

$200 or more for a position in one of the departments, by a person with a good claim upon the Government. Address "Q," Republican office.

$200 and 10 per cent of the salary will be given for a situation in one of the Departments. Address "Confidence," this office.

WANTED—A lady who can give testimonials of unquestionable character and capable of filling any position given to ladies, will pay 30 per cent of salary for a position in one of the Government departments, Washington. Address B. A. M., Baltimore Post Office, Baltimore, Md.

ONE THIRD of salary will be paid for a situation as watchman or messenger in one of the Departments. Address "One-third," Republican office.

These advertisements are nothing more nor less than offers to bribe somebody of supposed influence with the heads of bureaus or departments at Washington to secure the desired appointments. It is well known that three or four hundred appointments are to be made in the Interior Department shortly, to look after the largely increased pension rolls, and there is a great pressure, especially among women, to secure these places. A Washington correspondent, seeing these advertisements, called on an experienced gentleman in the matter of appointments to office, and had the following conversation with him about these overtures. He asked whether situations were reallp obtained in this way:

"In many cases they are," he replied, "though how many, of course, is only conjecture."

"Are there persons here then who make a business of getting places for pay?"

"Yes," he answered; "I myself have the name of one man who does that as a business, and I am informed that there are others."

"And how do they accomplish this; how do they get the positions for which they obtain pay?"

"That is a mystery," was the reply. "Some of them doubtless have large personal influence, and others probably obtain the influence of members of Congress and others to assist them, and perhaps in some cases the same influence which prompts them to ask the position prompts others, in power, to aid in getting it."

MR. C. B. DOTY while East was on his native health, Wareham, Mass., where Mr. Spaulding was born also. Both of these gentlemen learned their trades there, and at that time Wareham made more nails than any city in the United States, but now not more than 4,000 kegs a week are made there. The West is far ahead of the East in nail making.—Steubenville Gazette.

MONONGALIA COUNTY.

The Colored Camp Meeting—The Relative Harm and Good Resulting Therefrom. Contraband Trade Carried On—Political Notes and Comments—Mason Solid on His Native Heath.

Editors Intelligencer:

GEORGETOWN, W. VA., September 5.—The camp-meeting of the M. E. Church, which began here August 18th, closed on Sunday night. During the first week, the meeting was very well attended, and the ministers consider that it was a success. At no time were there present more than fifty colored persons; but the whites attended during the first week in great numbers. During the second week the attendance was not so great, partly owing to the fact that the novelty of the affair had worn out, but principally owing to the inclement weather. On Sunday, August 20th, the number of persons present has been variously estimated between two and three thousand.

Though much dissatisfaction was expressed by many persons when it was announced that the colored people were going to have a camp meeting here, and though much evil has undoubtedly been done, yet, considered as a whole, we believe the meeting has resulted in good to the race, and to many others whose faces are white. The colored people have conducted themselves well during the whole time, but those who prophesied that many acts of petty thieving would be committed by them, have found that they were very poor prophets, and that almost every act of the kind has been fastened on persons of the other race.

There were sermons preached, language used, figures of speech and rhetoric employed, and eloquence displayed that many preachers whom we know might attempt to imitate but in vain.

The meeting has had a tendency that will be felt for years, to break down the prejudice which exists toward the African race.

But another affair has manifested itself in such a manner that we may draw important lessons from it. Here in Monongalia county there exists not one whisky saloon; and, so far as we know, it is retailed at only two drug stores in the county, and that strictly for medical purposes. But here for two weeks the supply of whisky has been equal to the demand. It has not been sold publicly; but it has been sold in such a manner that every man, woman and child knows it, and not an effort has been made by those who clamor for prohibition to put a stop to it.

Now, gentlemen of the prohibition persuasion, suppose you have the manufacture and sale of ardent spirits prohibited in West Virginia. The whisky which was sold here was not manufactured in this State; and thus far your law is a failure. Already the penalty for the sale is as stringent as is consistent with law and with reason. Now, what would you have gained had you had prohibition in West Virginia?

The nomination of John W. Mason for Congress is hailed with delight by the Republicans of this county. He is one of our own young men, and we know him. Indeed, we have heard Democrats say they have not decided that they will not vote for him, no matter what may be the result of the "Grafton prayer meeting."

The Democrats of this county met in convention yesterday at Morgantown for the purpose of nominating two commissioners of the County Court, a representative for the House of Delegates and a Senator for the Eleventh District. The only nomination made was that of W. E. Watson, of Smithtown, for the Senate. It is not yet known whether he will accept. Mr. Watson was defeated four years ago by his present opponent, W. C. McGrew. The Republican majority in this district is about 1,400. No Democrats seem willing to face the majority in this county for any of the county offices.

We hear it whispered that Alpheus Garrison, who was an independent candidate for Sheriff shome years years ago, will be an independent candidate for the House of Delegates. MARCUS JUNIUS.

WE learn that wool is being shipped from West Alexander, Claysville, Burgettstown, Taylorstown, McDonalds, Canonsburg, Mon. City, West Brownsville, Prosperity, Washington and other points in this county. It appears from these indications that the producers have generally concluded to accept the situation.—Wash., Pa., Examiner.
