A Good Thing

READ THIS.

The Liver of a human being is a portion of the body which should be well taken care of, as it is called the kitchen of the body, and when the system becomes disordered it is necessary that it should be corrected. The only remedy we know of is

DR. A. S. TODD'S

PILLS

A SURE CURE FOR

Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Dyspepsia and all Liver Complaints.

These Pills have been in use for SIXTY YEARS, and we have thousands of testimonials to speak in their favor.

It affords me pleasure to assure you that after using Dr. C. McLane's Celebrated Liver Pills for more than twenty years in my family, that I regard them as being superior to any I have ever used or have seen used. I have not had them constantly and had to try others, and I have tried a good variety, but I have never had any to act so promptly, profitably, and nicely as McLane's. I have used them myself, wife, and children, with the most gratifying results. For children, having used them on my own with such easy and happy effect, I would recommend them to one and to all. These pills do the work—do it promptly, do it well, and leave no ill effects behind. As a bile remover, as a liver corrector, as a forerunner preparing the system for quinine, there is no pill or medicine equal to Dr. C. McLane's Celebrated Liver Pills. I expect to use them as long as I live, if they continue as good as they have been in the past.
Yours truly, E. H. GILES,
Pastor M. E. Church South, Myers' Station, Tampa District, Florida Conference.

TENISZIGO, Canada West, Ont.

MESSRS. FLEMING BROS.

Sirs:—Your pills came all right, and I can say they are a good bilious pill. I have used a great many pills, but I can say Dr. C. McLane's Pills, manufactured by Fleming Bros., are genuine, and gentlemen you have my thanks in sending. I gave some of those pills to my neighbors for a trial. One of my neighbors got three pills. He said they did help him. He felt the next day like a new man. He wishes me to send for fifty cents' worth for him. So, gentlemen, I will do all I can to introduce Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills, manufactured by Fleming Brothers. Yours with respect,
WM. H. DUGAN.

FLEMING BROS.

Dear Sirs:—Enclosed you will find one dollar for which you will please send me more of your Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills. I trust you have received the pay for the last two boxes I ordered and received. I would only say, they have done me more good than I could express I feel much better now than I have for two years past. Yours truly,
REV. PHIL SPARTH,
West Sandlake, N. Y.

DRUNKENNESS
OR THE LIQUOR HABIT, POSITIVELY CURED BY ADMINISTERING DR. HAINES' GOLDEN SPECIFIC.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never fails. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist.

The Intelligencer.

DEER PARK.

Notable People who are Inhaling the Mountain Air There.

Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

DEER PARK, MD., August 9.—Hotel and cottages are all full here. The hotel has 350 guests, among whom are many prominent Baltimore people.

Hon. John G. Carlisle and wife, of Kentucky, arrived Sunday morning in President Garrett's private car. Mr. John W. Davis' private car is also side-tracked here.

Senator McDonald and wife, Hon. A. S. Willis and wife, Mr. H. C. Hoyt, proprietor Victoria Hotel, New York city, are among the Deer Park guests.

Dancing is in order every night here. A children's German is booked for Tuesday night, and a German for the guests of the hotel on Thursday night.

Mr. J. W. Paxton and family, Mrs. Robert Crangle, Mrs. and Miss. Eccles, Mr. Thomas P. Howell, all of Wheeling, are at Deer Park.

Lawn tennis is the popular amusement, but the ten pin alley comes in for a good show of attention. The swimming pools are novel and attractive features here, and for fifty cents you may paddle about to your heart's content.

Deer Park's beautiful grounds and excellent accommodations combined with the bracing mountain air render it a most desirable summer resort.

MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK.

Summer Life on the Mountain Tops—Personal Mention.

Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, August 9.—The park is booming, the Allegheny house being full constantly and the other hotel almost full. The larger portion of the visitors are from Baltimore and Wheeling, but there are several registered from Philadelphia, Greensburg, (Pa., Charleston, W. Va., Grafton, W. Va., and other places.

The weather is delightful—warm days and cool nights conduce to the best of sleep.

The exercises of the Assembly are exceptionally good this year. The lectures of Rev. N. L. Reynolds, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., are attracting much attention. All Wheeling people are prepared to hear that the lectures of Rev. O. P. Masden are of rare merit and eloquence.

The sermon of Dr. G. W. Miller on Sunday was one of such power in reasoning and eloquence as is seldom heard. Dr. Miller is to lecture Tuesday evening on "Eyes; or the Art of Seeing," and on Wednesday evening on "Our Country and some of its Needs." The regular work in Normal Outlines (Sunday School) corresponds exactly with that of Chautauqua and the same text book is used. It is a matter of surprise to me that a much greater number of Sunday School workers do not take advantage of this excellent opportunity to prepare more fully.

Prof. A. A. Line is quite popular as instructor in photography, and has quite a number of pupils, among whom are several West Virginians.

Rev. C. E. Young, as instructor on New Testament Greek, grows more interesting daily.

Mrs. Eva Hubbard's work in art, Miss Pollock's kindergarten class and the elocution class are still doing good work.

Among the late arrivals at the Allegheny House are Mr. M. Dinger and wife, Mrs. Geo. Paull and Mrs. Jaeger, of Wheeling, Mrs. Margaret Barnsley, Mr. J. W. Barnsley, Miss Susie G. Jones, Mrs. J. C. Williams and Mrs. E. E. Farquhar, of Olney, W. Va., at Grace Cottage, Miss Jennie Wilson.

Dan Ought to be Happy.

Washington Critic.

"Daniel," said the President this morning, as he stood by his window gazing thoughtfully out upon the beautiful picture painted by the Master Hand and framed in living green.

"Yes, sire," responded Daniel, in a convalescent tone.

"Did your mother ever have a wife?"

"Sire?" questioned the astonished Daniel, looking at the President anxiously.

"I said, Daniel, did you mother ever have a wife?" he repeated.

"Sire," said the anxious Daniel, "you speak strangely this morning. How could my mother have a wife?"

"Did I say that, Daniel?" asked the President, brushing his hand across his eyes.

"Yes, sire."

"Pardon me, Daniel; I mean, did your wife ever have a mother?"

"Yes, sire," replied Daniel, with a faint smile.

"Did it occur before or after you were married, Daniel?"

"Before, sire; several years before."

The President nodded his head as if awaking to some great truth within him.

"You are very happy, Daniel," he continued, with a touch of bitterness.

"Very, very happy, sire."

Again that pensive thoughtfulness flitted across the President's face, and he looked far away beyond the picture spread before him. He nodded his head slowly, and finally rested his chin in his hand.

"Um—um," he soliloquized, "he ought to be happy."

"Sire," said Daniel, but his master did not heed his faithful squire.

As stood Napoleon on the rocky desolation of St. Helena's shore, stood Cleveland there enwrapped in thought, and Daniel softly slipped away.

Just Like Mamma.

Exchange.

If mothers could always realize the ideals they represent to their children they would be greatly encouraged in their arduous duties. A lady riding upon a street car saw a little boy whom she knew.

"So you have a little sister, Willie," she remarked, pleasantly. "Is she a pretty baby?"

"She looks just like mamma," was the smiling answer.

"What do you call her?" asked the lady.

"She's named after mamma," answered the little fellow promptly.

Everybody was smiling, and to relieve the lady's embarrassment her friend inquired the color of the baby's hair.

"It's the same color as mamma's," he responded, timidly.

A gentleman who had been amused by the dialogue asked the wee man if the new little sister was a good baby.

"Yes, sir," was the prompt reply. "She is just like mamma."

New England Women.

Boston Letter.

Some curious features of New England life came to me during my trip. A woman where I stopped over night lamented her inability to procure female help. She told me that although there are 60,000 more women than men in Massachusetts you can scarcely get one to do housework. They have been spoiled by factory work and dabbling in literature, as they call it. If they can't get factory work, as a great many of them can't get just now, they won't do any work. In many towns you can't get a woman to do a day's washing for any price. The lady who told me this added that she was heartily in sympathy with the movement to import Chinese houseworkers, and was also in favor of letting the lazy female drones starve, as they seem to be willing to do rather than perform household duties.

Why Vassar Girls Do Not Marry.

Cincinnati Commercial.

Motherhood is beautiful, and a babe in the house is a wellspring of joy. But this dwarfs the mind. At each event the mother's mind goes back to begin anew with the infants. She loses articulate speech and jabbers a jibberish, to begin with its inarticulate language. What an intellectual tumble for a Vassar graduate! A young one in the family gathers to its insanities the mind of all the company, and the visitors go away with a sense of taking to intellectual vacuity. All this is lovely and does well enough for the present domestic state of woman; but it is not for the emancipated, elevated, intellectual woman that is to come. She is not to serve as a domestic wellspring of joy, but as an intellectual terror.

Gave Her Flower to God.

Detroit Free Press.

At a baby's funeral in Elmwood last week the family gathered about the little open grave, and each one dropped into it a sweet fragrant snowy blossom, the last souvenir of earthly love. All but one. When it came to the youngest, a little girl of a few summers, to part with her precious flower she held it tightly in her clasped hands, as if defying any one to take it from her.

"Give it with the rest," urged her father gently; "Mamma had to give up hers."

"O, but mamma gave her flower to God," lisped the child instantly.

A suggestion that carried an infinite peace into the hearts bowed down with grief.

Didn't Care Two Cents for Him.

Philadelphia Herald.

"Mean! Why she is the meanest girl in town."

"Why, what's the matter? I thought you loved that girl."

"So I did once, but now I despise her."

"Refused you, did she?"

"Yes."

"Well, you ought not to mind a little thing like that. Perhaps it has saved you from a life of trouble."

"Oh, I don't mind her refusing me, but, in reply to my letter proposing for her hand, she sent me a brief 'No' on a postal card. The idea; a postal card! That was an uncalled-for insult."

"Why?"

"Because it showed that she didn't care two cents for me."

Only Thirty-six Percent of those who die from consumption inherit the disease. In all other cases it must either be contracted through carelessness; or, according to the new theory of tubercular parasites, received directly from others as an infectious disease. But in either case Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is a positive remedy for the disease in its early stages. It is delay that is dangerous. If you are troubled with shortness of breath, spitting of blood, night sweats or a lingering cough, do not hesitate to procure this sovereign remedy at once.

A Valuable Remedy.

Brandreth's Pills have been used by millions of human beings. Their success is founded upon the theory of reason, and an attentive observation of symptoms of disease. Whatever makes bad digestion breeds disease, and whatever makes good digestion cures disease. Brandreth's Pills makes good digestion, purify the blood, and remove all bad humors out of the body by the organs of the stomach and bowels. They act in harmony with vital action and work of nutrition; the strength increases, the skin and the eye become clear, and the symptoms of the malady are surely rendered milder by their use. They are harmless for all ages and conditions.

Got a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which did me so much good that I bought a dollar bottle. After using three bottles, found myself once more a man, completely restored to health, with a hearty appetite, and a gain in flesh of 48 lbs." Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The declared exports of domestic cotton goods the past week were, 3,082 packages, making the total for the expired portion of the year 148,400 packages against 13,415 packages last year and 104,700 for the same time in 1882—the largest total in any previous year. For Tuesday there was a very good order trade for prints, bleached and colored cottons and dress fabrics. The popular dress fabrics and New York City novelties from the George H. Gilbert manufacturing company, of Ware and Gilbertville, Mass., comprising upwards of 1,500 different patterns, will be opened to-morrow by leading jobbers throughout the country.

STOCKS—The stock market recovered to-day from the tight money scare, although it is believed that the adjustment of loans will be a disturbing element for some days to come. The conclusion that money will command higher rates in the future and the trouble between the Baltimore & Ohio and the Pennsylvania Railroad Companies caused a disposition to sell in the early trading, but the effect of the latter influence was short lived and the market quickly recovered. The first prices showed irregular changes, but were within ⅛ to ¾ percent of yesterday's closing figures.

After some hesitancy the entire list advanced. A moderate business was transacted until after midday, when a dull and featureless market was had, followed in the last hours by a moderate advance, and the market closed firm at about the best prices of the day. The closing prices show a decided gain for almost everything on the active list. Pacific Mail being the only exception with a loss of ¼ percent. New Jersey Central is up 1¼ percent, Consolidated Gas 1¼, New York and New England 1¼, Omaha preferred 1, New York Central, Missouri, Kansas & Texas and Erie each ⅞ percent, and others smaller fractions.

Transactions 196,635 shares.
