TREASURER'S REPORT.

The Revenues and Expenditures of the Government for the Year.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—The United States Treasurer has submitted to the Secretary of the Treasury his annual report, from which it appears that the net receipts of the government during the year ended June 30th, 1886, were $336,-439,727 and the net expenditures $242,-483,138. The excess of revenue over expenditures was $93,956,589. The receipts were $12,749,620 08 greater and the expenditures were $17,743,796 06 less than last year, making an increase in the net receipts for the past fiscal year, over that of 1885 of $30,402,817 29.

The receipts on account of the Postoffice Department, not included in the above statement, amounted to $52,997,135, an increase of $5,087,399 over those of the preceding year. The expenditures increased from $50,326,314 in 1885 to $56,-682,585 in 1886, or $356,271. Bonds of the United States amounting to $44,531,350 were redeemed and applied to the sinking fund. Of bonds held by the Treasurer of the United States in trust for National banks $61,042,-400 were withdrawn of which amount $6,925,300 was held to secure circulation and $4,117,100 was held as security for deposits of public moneys. The bonds deposited to replace those withdrawn on account of circulation amounted to $20,754,900, and on account of deposits to $6,170,000, making a total decrease of $34,117,500 in the bonds held by the Treasurer for national banks.

The total movement of bonds held for national banks was $87,967,300. Worn and mutilated notes, amounting to $63,-000,000 were forwarded to the Treasury for redemption during the year and new notes to a like amount issued in place thereof. THE EX-PRESIDENT'S WILL.

Leaves an Estate to Be Equally Divided Between His Son and Daughter.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The will of the late ex-President Chester A. Arthur was offered for probate to-day in the Court of Common Pleas, special term before Judge Bockstaver. This proceeding was necessary on account of Surrogate Rollins being one of the executors named in the will. Messrs. Develin and Miller appeared for the proponents. Messrs. Restus S. Ransom, James A. Briggs and James C. Reed, the three subscribing witnesses to the will, made the customary depositions as to the execution of the will. There was no opposition, but on account of the absence of Mr. Elihu Root, special guardian for Miss Arthur, further proceedings were adjourned until Monday.

The following is a copy of the will, which is a model of its kind for brevity and simplicity.

The will:

First—I direct my executors, hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses.

Second—I give and bequeath to my faithful and devoted servant, Bridget Smith, the sum of $500.

Third—I give, devise and bequeath all my estate, real and personal, to my said executors, or such of them as shall qualify and take upon themselves the execution of this my will, and the survivor of them to have, and to hold upon the following uses and trusts, and for the purposes following, to-wit: In trust to divide the same into two equal parts or shares and to collect the income, rents, issues and profits of each of such shares, and after the payment of all legal and necessary expenses to apply the income of one of such shares to the use of my son, Chester Alan Arthur, until he shall attain the age of thirty years, and when he shall attain such age of thirty years then to assign, transfer, convey, pay over and deliver said last-mentioned share to my said son. If my said son die before me, or before attaining such age of thirty years, then, and in either of such events, I give, devise and bequeath said share to his issue living at his death, and in default of such issue, to my daughter, Ellen Herndon Arthur.

And upon the further trust to apply the net income of the other of said shares to the use of my daughter, Ellen Herndon Arthur, until she shall attain the age of twenty-three years; and when she shall attain such age of twenty-three years, then to assign, transfer, convey, pay over and deliver said last mentioned share to my said daughter. If my said daughter die before me or before attaining such age of twenty-three years, then, and in either of such events, I give, devise and bequeath said share to her issue living at her death, and in default of such issue to my son, Chester Alan Arthur.

The fourth and fifth clauses relate to the manner in which the moneys of the estate shall be invested.

Sixth—I nominate, constitute, and appoint my sister, Mary E. McElroy, guardian of the person and estate of my daughter during her minority, and my friends, Charles E. Miller, Daniel G. Rollins and Seth F. French, all of the city of New York, executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former and other wills by me at any time made.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the eighth day of March, 1886. CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

The estate is estimated to be worth about $150,000, and the greater portion is thought to be in stocks, bonds and other personal property. The son, Chester Alan Arthur, has attained his majority, but the daughter, Nellie Herndon Arthur, is not yet fifteen years old. It is said that Mr. French will not qualify as executor.

The Supreme Court of New Jersey has refused to grant a rule to show cause why a new trial should not be granted to Jas. H. Titus, the Hackettstown janitor, who was convicted of the murder of Tillie Smith at Belvidere a few months ago. Titus' counsel will probably take the case to the Court of Errors and Appeals, and if they fail there to the Court of Pardons.

Advices from Oaxaca, Mexico, state that the sepulchre of a Sapoteca King has been discovered near there. In it were several obsidian images, well sculptured, and an idol of gold which weighed about fifty pounds. In the same spot were found a skull and some other bones of such dimensions as to prove that the old ruler must have been a man of gigantic proportions.

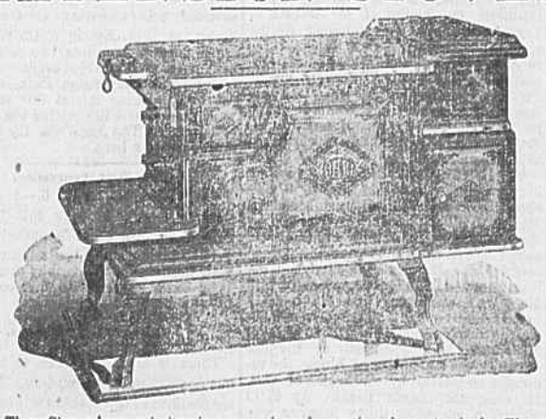
EXTENSION STOVES.



These Stoves have a hot-water reservoir and warming closet attached. These stoves are handsome; are GUARANTEED in every respect, and we sell them at prices no higher than are usually paid for stoves without the extension.
