THE ROAD RACE.

There Will be a big Field of Entries in this Contest.

THE HANDICAPPING COMMITTEE

Is Considered an Excellent One—Result of the Base Ball Games and Horse Races Yesterday—Pittsburgh Team Defeated Cincinnati Overwhelmingly—Other Sporting Items.

As the time draws nearer for the INTELLIGENCER road race on Decoration Day, the interest among the wheelmen of the city and vicinity grows more pronounced. As mentioned in these columns before, the rivalry between the riders will be great, and the dealers themselves are figuring on the possibility of having some cycler riding their make of wheel, pull down that high grade safty bicycle which has been hung up as first prize. Wheelmen intending to enter this contest should do so pretty soon now, so that the handicapping committee can get the data in shape to give out the handicaps in good time. The committee selected for this arduous work is generally conceded to be a good one which will award handicaps that will be fair and satisfactory to all the riders. Entry blanks can be obtained at the following plates: INTELLIGENCER office, Fourteenth street; Jason C. Stamp, Reilly building; Hiener Hardware Company, Masonic building; George W. Johnson's Sons, 1210 Main street; K. Hoge Company, 1113 Market street; Cleveland Cycling Agency, South Market street and other places.

Woodbines Win.

The match game of ball between the John Loomis and Woodbine teams, which has been looked forward to with a great deal of interest by the friends of the contesting nines, was played yesterday afternoon on the old fair grounds, resulting in a victory for the Woodbines by a score of 6 to 1. About fifty spectators witnessed the contest, and as they filed off the grounds at the conclusion of the game, double file, the procession was mistaken by some to be a contingent of the Coxey army.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

H. A. Webster, a chemist, has made an analysis of some of the pepper sold here and finds it to be made of ash, cocoanut shells, saw dust, rice, flour, wheat product, cayenne pepper and a little black pepper. It is no wonder that dyspeptics kick. In the affidavit upon which Mr. Baer was arrested he is charged with selling pepper made of the above articles.

A trunk was left in front of the postoffice last Saturday by Mrs. De Vault, who lives in the country, saying that William Williams would call for it. An effort was made yesterday to find the owner. Three different men were found by that name, but it does not belong to any of these. The trunk was turned over to Constable Stanton. What it contains is not known.

A couple of Slavs came down from Laurelton yesterday and were married by Rev. S. S. Mattingly. They were accompanied by several friends, and all wore flowers, ribbons, etc., and seemed supremely happy notwithstanding the strike. Their bridal tour consisted of dinner at the Boylees House and the sights of Martin's Ferry.

William Dean Howells, the well known author, contemplates visiting Martin's Ferry, the place of his birth, this summer, and the citizens should show their appreciation for the distinguished gentleman by giving him a fitting reception during his stay. He expects to visit relatives here.

Mr. John McKim, of this city, has taken the position of trainmaster of the Walhonding Valley railroad at a much higher salary than he received on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad.

The Allerheny Guitar, Banjo and Mandolin Club, of Allerheny, Pa., spent Sunday with the families of George Arbaugh and P. McDonough.

A time registering clock was placed in the office of the Zhus-Standard mills yesterday, and the employes will have to register four times daily.

Mrs. Isaac Jones was summoned to Keyser, W. Va., last night by the dangerous illness of her father, Henry Troutman, aged 82 years.

Jacob Arn, Will Thomas and J. B. Burnell leave next Monday for Cleveland to attend the state convention of the Foresters.

Thomas Moore, the well known river pilot, is at the bedside of S. G. Robinson who is not so well.

Mrs. Michael Williams got $175 from the saloonkeepers. She sued for $3,000 and compromised.

Mr. Kissam, the southern salesman for the West Virginia glass works, is in town.

Frank Beaumont, of Mingo, spent yesterday with his cousin, Miss Bess Griffith.

James A. Gray, esq., will entertain the Old Men's Club at dinner to-day.

Thomas Williams's pup has been entered at the Chicago dog show.

Richard Ellison, of Pittsburgh, visited Lyman Himes yesterday.

Work will be commenced on the Y. M. C. A. grounds to-day.

BELLAIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

Thomas Bailey was taken to St. Clairsville yesterday to serve out his fine and sentence for fornication, to which he had pleaded guilty. Just before leaving he was called as a witness before Mayor DuBois in the case of Caroline Lipperman, charged with adultery. The mayor was astonished. The fellow had changed his tune. He regarded Mrs. Lipperman as a decent woman; knew no wrong about her, etc. The mayor asked him who had been in to see him and Bailey said no one, but a man told him through a window that he had made a fool of himself and got himself and the woman into trouble. It was plain that the fellow was in a pickle, but he succeeded in getting the woman off on that charge. The mayor held her for intoxication and fined her $10 and costs.

Hope Commandery, Knights Templar, will hold Ascension Day services in the First Presbyterian church, in this city, Thursday evening. Cyrene and Wheeling commanderies will attend and Rev. R. R. Swope will preach the sermon. The public has been cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Keepers, of Monroe county, was in town again yesterday on his way home. The delegation from that county will probably compliment the doctor in the congressional convention; also Hon. W. N. Cleveland and Senator Hardesty.

Mrs. C. Bippus and Frank Loothise were arraigned before Mayor DuBois yesterday under the state law, which forbids common labor on Sunday. They had sold ice cream and cake. Both cases went to court.

The circus will arrive in town this morning. The advance gang of sharpers and slick people began to come in yesterday to get the lay of the land and to size up the new administration.

There will be no school to-day, though the announcement was made yesterday that all who brought excuses would be excused, and if any wanted to remain and study they could do so.

The steel works are idle this week, but not on account of the coal strike, while the stove foundry is also idle. Other industries will close this week for want of coal.

Charles Brickmyer has received his papers for a patent car coupler that has been tried on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad and pronounced a success.

The colored dancing master, Budanero, who was sent to jail for keeping a ring belonging to a Miss Lucas, was not indicted by the grand jury.

Henry Nagle is home from Chicago, where he was called to work up a prosecution for the Chicago & Rock Island Railroad Company.

City Solicitor Armstrong returned yesterday from Monroe county, where he spent Sunday with his father, Dr. Armstrong.

John Davis assumes control of a Steubenville hotel this morning, and will place John Whelan in charge as clerk.

Mayor DuBois and Marshal Bahr are having their offices nicely fitted up.

Rodefer Bros.' glass factory is closed this week, but will work next week.

MOUNDSVILLE.

A Miscellaneous Medange of Minor Matters from Marshall's Metropolis.

The city council will meet in regular session to-morrow. At this meeting the liquor licenses for this year will be granted. One saloonkeeper in the Third ward quit the business, but a new one will step in and take his place. A number of licenses will likely be granted, as the majority of the council are for license.

Mrs. Robert Mankin, of Fayette county, W. Va., died yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the residence of her brother, J. M. Williams. Mrs. Mankin was just married about four weeks ago, and she and her husband were in Moundsville on their wedding tour.

Some scoundrels had nothing else to do on Sunday evening, and to put the time in they went to the trouble of carrying an empty beer keg, several bottles, a chair, signs, etc., to the M. E. parsonage and placed them at the front door.

A postal received of S. W. Mathews, at Syracuse, N. Y., yesterday, says that Miss Laura Lindsey, whose serious illness was noted in Saturday's INTELLIGENCER, is still alive, but no better.

Miss Lindsey Horan and Mr. Mead Miller will be united in marriage tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of G. C. Gordon. They will immediately go to housekeeping.

The lightning on Saturday evening struck several trees in the lower ward, a party of gentlemen standing near them being stunned by the stroke.

All the difficulties in regard to the right of way to the Roseby bridge have been settled and the road has been ordered opened up.

Special efforts are being made by the sheriff and his deputies to meet the demands of the school teachers in the county.

SATURDAY, THE 26 DAY OF JUNE, 1894, commencing at 10 a. m., the following described property, that is to say: A certain lot or parcel of land lying in Ohio county, W. Va., on the National road, about three miles from the city of Wheeling, bounded as follows: Commencing from the northeast corner of said lot at a stake on the west side of a drain in William Porter's field, on the east side of the National road, and running thence north 29¼ degrees, west 8 28-100 poles to a stake, north 6¾ degrees east 9 44-100 poles to the middle of the National road, and with said National road south 39¼ degrees east 8 33-100 poles; thence south 51 degrees 36-100 poles to the place of beginning, containing 3¾-1,000 acres, together with all and singular the improvements and appurtenances thereon or in any wise belonging thereto, being the same property conveyed to the said Noah Zane by William Porter and S. J. Boyd by deed dated the 21st day of October, 1891, and recorded in the office of the said County Court in deed book No. 87, pages 156 and 157. The title to said property is believed to be good, but selling as trustee I will convey only the title vested in me by said deed of trust.

TERMS OF SALE—One-half of the purchase money or as much more as the purchaser elects to pay cash on the day of sale, the balance in twelve months, a note bearing interest from the day of sale to be given for the deferred payment. The title to be retained until payment has been made in full.

B. B. DOVENER, Trustee.
W. H. HALLER, Auctioneer. 4p10
