PATRIOTIC TALK.

The Dedication of the Confederate Monument at Chicago.

CIRCUMSTANCES ARE EXPLAINED

By the Commander of the Confederate Veterans—The Dedication Fixed For Decoration Day at the Suggestion of Leading G. A. R. Officials in Order That the Union Veterans Might Take a Courteous Part—He Will See That No Disloyal Word is Uttered.

CHICAGO, May 14.—A local paper says: So many statements have gone abroad from other cities than Chicago as a result of Department Commander Thayer's recent letter to the Massachusetts G. A. R., protesting against the proposed dedication of the confederate monument at Oakwoods cemetery memorial day, that many people deeply interested in the event believe a part of the public has been led to misconstrue the significance of the ceremonies to be performed. General Underwood, commander of the division of the north, United Confederate Veterans, deemed it advisable to issue a letter defining his position. The letter, which is issued "To the Citizens of the United States, and United people of One Nation," says in part:

"The permission to erect a monument over the remains of 6,000 southern soldiers in Oakwood cemetery was granted by the secretary of war.

"Accordingly a fund was raised, two-thirds of which having been contributed by citizens of Chicago, and the monument as it stands was erected under direct provision of the permit that emanated from the war department.

Last Decoration Day a number of G. A. R. posts joined with the Confederate camp in the memorial exercises and profusely decorated the Confederate graves with northern flowers—the southern men returning the courtesy in memorial ceremonies by decorating the graves of Union soldiers in the same cemetery. On that occasion Maj. H. G. Purinton, commander of Columbia Post No. 706, G. A. R., suggested that the monument be dedicated the next Decoration Day, May 30, 1895, that G. A. R. veterans, because of its being a holiday, might attend and take courteous part in the ceremony. The holiday feature of the day applying as well to my own command, that day was selected; and without any thought or intention of infringing upon a prerogative of the Grand Army of the Republic.

"I am the recipient of a letter from Lieut. Gen. John M. Schofield, commanding the United States army, and endorsement on the back of his photograph by Gen. Thomas G. Lawler, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., each commending the monumenting of my dead comrades, the confederates sleeping in Oakwoods, as laudable and praiseworthy, etc. It is pardonable to refer to such high and disinterested approval of humanitarian acts; and, although at this juncture no character of discussion is desired, still I deem it entirely right, proper and due the public to announce that in monumenting the confederate dead every observance of law was complied with, and no purpose of unearthing the dead confederacy, or acting disloyally, or flaunting the confederate flag that went down at Appomattox was for a moment entertained, the only purpose of the living confederates being to monument the fortitude and bravery constituting the heroism of the private soldiers who surrendered their lives under the most trying circumstances imaginable, and by so doing have added a page to the renown of the American volunteer. I will be in command during the dedication of the confederate monument, and know in advance that neither an unpatriotic sentiment nor disloyal word will be uttered, and I will personally see that the stars and stripes alone are given to the breeze on that occasion."

SABIN'S PREDICTION.

Admiral Meade the Kind of a Man Americans Want—May Yet be Secretary of the Navy.

NEW YORK, May 14. — Ex-Senator Dwight M. Sabin, of Minnesota, left early this morning for Boston. Mr. Sabin is practically out of politics, but nevertheless he takes a keen interest in the affairs of the day. Speaking of the case of Admiral Meade, who so bluntly gave his reasons for retiring from the navy, Mr. Sadin said: "There was a ring of patriotism and an air of independence in Admiral Meade's utterances that found an echo in every loyal man's mind. It may be it was a lack of discipline, but he had grave cause, and I think Meade was about right. I see that President Cleveland and Secretary Herbert talk of court-martialing Admiral Meade. I do not think that they dare take the step. Let them go ahead and they will see how much this country honors a brave man. Let Admiral Meade stand by his words and the policy they outlined. There will be another administration in a short time and we want a man with sentiments like that at the hand of the navy department. He may be secretary of the navy yet."

Collecting a Forced Loan.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phœbe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. 5

FINANCE AND TRADE.

The Features of the Money and Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, May 14.—Money on call easy at 1½ per cent; last loan 1½ per cent; closed at 1½ per cent. Prime mercantile paper 2¼@4½ per cent. Sterling exchange dull at $4 87@4 87½. Silver certificates 67½@67¾c. The total sales of stocks to-day were 341,677 shares.

The volume of business on the stock exchange was little more than half of yesterday's. There was a pressure to sell the coal shares at the opening, which weakened the general list to some extent, and a decline was recorded of ½@1 per cent, the latter in Chicago Gas, Lake Shore and Minnesota & Oregon. The depression was of brief duration and before the end of the first quarter of an hour a good buying movement had set in, under the influence of which prices began to move upward, the industrials in the lead. The advancing tendency was in force up to 1 o'clock, at which time Sugar and Wheeling & Lake Erie preferred had advanced 1¼ per cent, New England 1½, Commercial Cable and General Electric 1½. The leather stocks were weak during the morning, selling off ¾@1½ per cent, rallied ½@¾, and again sagged off ¾@¾. About 1 o'clock a renewal of the selling movement depressed the speculation and the tendency was downward up to the close. Losses ranged up to 2¼ per cent, the latter in Manhattan; New England and Northern Pacific preferred 1½, Sugar 1¼, Lackawanna 1¼, Distilling, Cotton Oil preferred, Flint and Pere Marquette and New Jersey Central 1½, Pullman, Hocking Valley, Wheeling & Lake Erie, Lead and Starch 1 per cent. At the close Hocking Valley recovered ¾ and Manhattan 1 per cent, but the market was generally weak and in the main ½@2¼ per cent below the final sales of yesterday. The dealings in bonds to-day were again heavy, the sales aggregating $5,689,000.

Breadstuffs and Provisions.

Chicago—Wheat to-day made a bold advance of ½c per bushel in the face of a battery of bearish statistics, but the price was beaten back, and at the close was ⅝c lower than on the day before. The bearish features which prevailed in the end over crop damage reports and diminishing receipts and stocks was the absence of export demand to Europe at current prices. Corn ruled heavy near the end and lost ½c per bushel and oats lost ½c. Provisions ruled dull and weak, pork losing 25c.

Wool.

Boston, Mass.—The wool market has been week, remains unchanged, and as far as domestic wools are concerned, the market is a waiting one. Considerable surprise is expressed by several of the large wool houses here over the high prices obtained in the west for new wools. It is stated that some of the new clips have sold in the west for prices which could not be secured. Australian wools are steady with fair supplies being picked up from week to week. Illinois wool is still an unknown quantity here, there being none on the market, the new clip not being expected for some time. The following are the selling prices of some of the leading descriptions. Ohio and Pennsylvania fleece XX and above 14@14½c; X and above 13@13½c; No. 1 combing 20c; unwashed 11@12c; Michigan 17½@18c; N New York, New Hampshire and Vermont 17@17½c; Kentucky and Maine quarterblood combings 16@17c; Indiana and Missouri quarterblood combing 15@16c; Montana fine, medium and fine 9@10c; Wyoming and Utah fine medium and fine 9@11c; Australian combing, super fine 41@42c; combing good 32@40c; Queensland combing 32@36c.

Live Stock.

Chicago—In cattle the arrivals for Monday and Tuesday foot up about 16,000 head, showing an increase of 5,000 head over the same time last week. There was a moderate general demand, but choice cattle and medium weight dressed beef steers were selling the best and prices were about steady at yesterday's quotations. Native steers averaged 10c per 100 lbs lower than at the close of last week and sales were on a basis of $4 00@6 00 for common to extra choice beeves weighing from 940 to 1450 lbs, the bulk of the transactions being at $5 00@5 75; export beeves sold at $5 40 and upwards and it took extremely fine cattle to bring $5 85@6 00; cows are selling at $1 75@4 50, chiefly at $2 50 and upwards, with an occasional sale of extra cows around $4 75. Today's receipts approximated 22,000 head of hogs, making about 15,500 head for the week so far, an increase of 10,000 head over the same time last week. Buyers acted cooley at first, but after prices had slid off 5@10 cents per 100 lbs packers began to purchase and there was also a reasonably good demand for good hogs to ship to different eastern markets. Common to extra heavy hogs—lots weighing 200 lbs and upwards—sold at $4 25@4 70, while light hogs averaging 140 to 190 lbs brought $4 25@4 60. The bulk of the sales were at $4 30@4 60, the range being very narrow. In sheep the demand was again exceedingly good at stronger prices, the receipts being only about 9,000 head, which is much below the receipts of a few weeks ago. Sheep and lambs averaged 15@25c per 100 lbs higher than at the close of last week, part of the advance having occurred to-day. Sheep sold at $2 50@5 00, an extreme range and lambs at $4 50@5 95; Mexican wooled lambs weighing 66 to 82 lbs sold at $5 15@5 55 and good shorn native lambs brought $5 00@5 40; some choice shorn sheep with a few yearlings brought $4 75; the Colorado lambs are unshorn, but other sheep and lambs are mostly shorn; nice 54 lb spring lambs sell around $6 00 per 100 lbs. Receipts—Cattle, 7,500 head; calves, 2,000 head; hogs, 23,000 head; sheep, 9,000 head.

UNION STOCK YARDS, CLAREMONT, BALTIMORE, MONDAY, May 13, 1895.
