To the Afflicted!

ABOUT the first of November 1815, the Subscriber commenced the Art of destroying CANCER WORTS, and continued successfully until April 1847, when he was struck with the afflicted hand of Providence, which rendered him unable to attend to business of that kind. Many applications have been made which were refused, and repeatedly his affliction and age has entirely acquit him of that practice. Within the last twelve months he has received several letters from his friends, containing small amounts of money, stating their name and the particular place they are afflicted, which is all that he wishes to know.

I am prepared, with small tin boxes, to send by mail, my application to any part of the United States, where complaint is visible. If invisible, I shall try the strength of Art. Should the person strictly follow the directions that I will give for three months, and should fail to cure, I will replace half the money back to them again.

THE CONGAREE HOUSE,

COLUMBIA, S. C.

By W. Maybin & H. E. Hardy.

CHANGES AND IMPROVEMENTS.

THE Proprietor of this universally-known and long established Hotel takes this opportunity of returning his sincere thanks to his friends and the public for the very liberal patronage he, for so many years, has enjoyed at their hands; and begs to inform them that he has taken into partnership with himself in the management of the business Mr. H. E. HARDY, the former gentlemanly superintendent of the house, whose urbanity and unremitting attention have afforded so much satisfaction to the frequenters of the CONGAREE.

We are not in favor of great promise, and desire to avoid boasting, but we can assure those who stop at our Hotel that nothing which personal effort or liberal expenditure on our part can accomplish to contribute to their comfort will be left undone—our intention being to make the CONGAREE HOUSE a temporary HOME for its guests.

W. MAYBIN.

N. B.—Mr. W. Hitchcock's fine Omnibuses will convey passengers to and from the various Railroad Depots to this House; and his elegant Carriages will always be promptly at the service of those who desire to ride about the city or visit the adjoining country.

NOTICE!

THE Subscriber having other important business which imperiously demands his attention, has determined to dispose of his business in connexion with the Carolina Hotel. He will therefore sell at private sale the Furniture of the Hotel, as also, the unexpired term of his lease. Any person desirous of purchasing the same will please call on him on or before the twenty-first of July next, on which day he will sell at public outcry the said property, if not otherwise disposed of.

The Carolina Hotel is situated at a central point in the Town of Hamburg and is an old established and well known stand, and is now doing an excellent business, considering the dullness of the season.

The Subscriber has no hesitation in saying to those who may desire to conduct a Hotel, that the Carolina Hotel is an excellent stand and likely to be profitable to the proprietor.

Annual Fair

OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA INSTITUTE,

FOR the promotion of Arts, Mechanical Ingenuity and Industry, and Agricultural pursuits.

The Fourth Annual Fair of this Institute will be held in Charleston, S. C., commencing on ——— November next, and continue open during the week.

It is expected that the opening address will be delivered by the Hon. PIERRE SOULE, and an Agricultural address by EDMUND RUFFIN, Esq., of Virginia.

Specimens in every branch of Mechanism, Art and Industry, also of Cotton, Rice, Sugar, Tobacco, and all other agricultural products—Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Swine, are solicited, for which suitable premiums will be awarded.

To the Ladies' work, which has contributed so much to the success of the Institute at all of its Exhibitions, the Committee have been specially charged, and suitable and appropriate premiums will be awarded to the best specimens in every department.

The Board of Directors of this Institute feel great pleasure in announcing to its numerous friends and members the triumphant success which has thus far attended their endeavors to awaken the Southern States to their true interests in diversifying their labor, encouraging their own Mechanics and developing their resources, and the Board have no doubt that the ensuing Exhibition will convince all who may attend it, that the efforts which this Institute has made for the last three years, have not been thrown away, but fully appreciated throughout the entire South.

Persons desiring to exhibit articles at the ensuing Fair will please address L. M. HATCH, Esq., Chairman Committee of Arrangements, at as early a day as possible, so that suitable preparations may be made and all articles exhibited to the best advantage.

DR. DENNIS'S

GEORGIA SARSAPARILLA,

FOR

Jaundice, Sick Head-ache, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Constipation of the Bowels, Piles, caused by Costiveness, Pain in the Bowels, or Rheumatism, caused by the use of Mercury, Syphilis, Scrofula, Boils, Ulcers, &c.

THIS PREPARATION is made as pure as possible. Its bitter taste, and beneficial effects in diseases of the Liver, and diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, prove it to be the preparation of Sarsaparilla that is made.

Those who have used the various preparations of Sarsaparilla will find, by the taste and effect, that there is more Sarsaparilla in one bottle of Dr. DENNIS' preparation, than in half a dozen bottles as it is generally made.

Its alterative and mildly purgative effects upon the bowels, make it not only a good substitute for Mercury, but useful in removing all diseases arising from the imprudent use of Mercury.

☞ Prepared only by J. DENNIS, M. D., Augusta, Georgia.

Sold by A. G. TEAGUE and G. L. PENN, Edgefield C. H.; P. M. COHEN and CAREY & COUTURIER, Charleston; BOATWRIGHT & MIOT and F. CURTIS, Columbia; A. J. CREIGHTON, Hamburg; WM. F. TUTT, D. B. PLUMB, HAVILAND & RISLEY, W. F. & J. TURPIN, W. K. KITCHEN, BARRETT & CARTER, Augusta, Geo., and by Druggists generally.

Price—$1 per bottle; 6 bottle for $5.

☞ Remember to ask for DENNIS' GEORGIA SARSAPARILLA.
