CONEROSS AND COMMUNITY.

Flu Patients Improving — Program for Meeting—Other Items.

Coneross, Dec. 18.—Special: Owing to the weather there was no Sunday school at Coneross on Sunday. It had been the purpose if the school to elect officers and teachers for the coming year. The election will probably take place next Sunday. So let every teacher and scholar come, and let us put in those officers who will be best for our Sunday school for the year 1923. W. F. Haynes, who has been our superintendent for the past year, has made an enthusiastic and efficient worker, and the school has been successful under his leadership, and we feel that we will do well to re-elect him for the coming year.

The children of this community are counting the days until Christmas, and we doubt not that this week will seem like a very long one to them as well as the grown-up people. The youngsters are looking forward this year to the coming of Old Santa in his flying machine.

Miss Jessie Barker, who has been confined to her home for the past week, is able to take up her work as teacher at Blue Ridge again this morning.

Miss Lucy Patterson, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Lester Alexander, here for a few months, left last Wednesday for Ninety-Six.

Stanley and Robert Morgan, of Pickens, were welcome guests of J. C. Barker last week.

Mrs. L. A. Cleland and children, Morris and L. A., Jr., were guests at the home of Henry Hesse and wife recently.

Miss Beulah Barker entertained last Tuesday evening in honor of her Sunday school class the Baraccas. A few guests out of the community were Miss Thomas, of Oak Grove; Stanley and Robert Morgan, of Pickens, and Messrs. Elrod and J.S. Goodman, of Clemson.

Quite a number of our people have been suffering from the influenza for the past week or two. Among these are Mrs. E. C. DuBose, Melton and Carl DuBose, Victor McDonald Miss Edna McDonald Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Barker, Misses Lettie and Jessie Barker and Thode Ab'ott, Mrs. W. F. Haynes and children, Ophelia, William and Virginia; J. B. and Robert Dilworth. There are several others of the Blue Ridge pupils. We are glad to note that the patients are getting along nicely, and at present no one is seriously ill. We hope that they will all soon be up again.

The regular meeting of the R. A.'s will be held next Saturday at 10.30 a. m. Let every member be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lin Duckworth, of Coneross; W. M. Murphree of Wolf Stake and Mrs. Mary Murphree of Westminster, spent last Monday and Tuesday with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Dolah White, of Greenville, who has been quite ill for some time. They also attended the burial of Mrs. White's babe on Tuesday at the same place.

The Blue Ridge School Association will hold its regular meeting at the school building next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The pupils will render a Christmas program, after which the school will dismiss for the Christmas holidays.

J. C. Barker spent a short while with his brother, S. J. Barker, of Calhoun, one day last week.

We are sorry to announce the serious illness of Grady Smith, of this community. He is suffering from an attack of appendicitis, and his physicians are expecting to operate this morning. We hope to hear encouraging news from him soon, and that his operation will prove successful.

Mrs. Hattie Alexander was a spend-the-day guest of her sister, Mrs. S.M. Gambrell, of Westminster, one day last week.

Claude, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Alexander, who has been quite ill for the past week, is very much improved.

Miss Nina Abbott, of Isaqueena, spent Saturday and Sunday with her homefolks here, and Miss Lena Abbott, who is teaching at Salem, was a recent visitor here. She was accompanied by several of her friends from Salem, among them being Mr. Murphy, principal of Salem school, and Miss Pearle Chastain.

Let everybody be present at Coneross at preaching next Saturday and Sunday at 11 a. m.

Mrs. Eulous Smith, of West Union, spent some time last week with her father, J. D. Abbott.

Mrs. Julia Arve was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Rothell, of Toccoa, Ga., last week.

Mrs. Mary Murphy, of near Westminster, made a short visit to relatives here last week.

Owing to the bad weather and to sickness in the community, we were unable to hold our B.Y.P.U. meetings for the past two Sunday nights. We were expecting to hold our elections for officers next year. This will probably take place at the next B.Y.P.U. meeting. Our present president, W. T. Alexander, is a very enthusiastic worker, and we will do well to secure his services for the ensuing year.

Following is the program to be rendered by the B.Y.P.U. on next Sunday night: (1) Hymns, "Joy to the World" and "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing"; (2) Prayer; (3) "Holy Night"; (4) Scripture lesson, Miss Lena Abbott; (5) Introduction by group captain, Colie Abbott; (6) "Baptist Church of To-day—1, Our churches are great world forces and (2) The churches of our day must also be reckoned among the great teaching forces," by W. T. Alexander; (7) Third, "The churches of our day are also a vital factor in social progress, and, 4th, The churches of our day, as in all ages when they have been true to their calling, are great spiritual forces," by W. F. Haynes; (8) Special music; (9) "Why not purpose to give your life to work of the church?" by Miss Ora Arve; (10) "If we do this, we shall have to train for church membership," by Clarence Deal; (11) "What shall this training consist of?—1st, we should have an intelligent knowledge of the Bible, and 2d, we must have some training in the practice of those phases of Christian work which we shall have to undertake," by Miss Jessie Barker; (12) "Opportunities for training," Miss Nina Abbott; (13) Hymn.

Oconee Cotton Statistics.

Seneca, Dec. 19.—Special: A tabulation of the cotton ginning statistics for Oconee shows that there were 14,403 bales ginned in Oconee from the crop of 1922 prior to Dec. 1st, 1922, as compared with 20,890 bales to Dec. 1st, 1921.
