DUE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

IT gives us pleasure to make this acknowledgement of the splendid showing that the people of School District No. 51, both white and colored, have made in meeting their War Savings Stamp apportionment. Our apportionment was $3,950, and the amount raised was $4,990, of which $2,760 was subscribed by colored people. It is with especial pleasure that we note the generous response of our colored people to every patriotic call, whether for Red Cross, Bonds or Savings Stamps. Also we beg to acknowledge the splendid assistance that has been rendered by Mesdames W. E. Sanders and Mason Bratton and Miss Kate Crawford. The names of the War Savings Stamps subscribers, together with the subscriptions of each, are herewith attached.
