THE INTELLIGENCER.

LOCAL MATTERS.

BRIEF REVIEW.

The damage done to the Baptist Church at this place by the hail storm has been repaired.

The Presbyterian Cemetery at this place has recently been nicely cleaned up, and now presents a cared-for and pretty appearance.

B. Frank Mauldin, Esq., and family, will occupy the residence of Col. James A. Hoyt during the remainder of this and next year.

Mr. J. B. Prevost is tearing down the house he recently purchased in the North-eastern portion of town, and will replace it by a handsome and more commodious residence.

The amusements in the Town of Anderson during the present season are, for men, pitching quoits, and for boy, spinning tops. Both are engaged in with zeal by numbers of our inhabitants.

Mr. G. W. McGee is erecting a handsome brick store room near his hotel in Belton. It will soon be finished and be used for a general merchandise business. Its completion will add much to the appearance of the place.

Mrs. Edna Wright, wife of the late Franklin Wright, died at her residence near Donaldsville, in Abbeville County, on last Monday. Her remains were placed to rest in the grave-yard at Honea Path, on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. J. H. Clarke has greatly improved the appearance of his lot by the erection of a neat and substantial paling fence in front of his residence. Its construction is different from anything we have seen, and is some of his own handwork.

Mr. A. B. Towers left Anderson on last Monday afternoon for New Orleans, whither he has gone to attend the annual meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian denomination in the Southern States, of which body he is a member.

Next Sabbath is the regular communion season of the Presbyterian Church at this place. As is the usual custom, services preparatory for the administration of the communion will be had in this Church on next Saturday morning, and in the evening at 8 o'clock.

All persons who have not heretofore purchased a sewing machine would do well to read the advertisement of the Singer Sewing Machine Company. The accommodating agent of the Company, Mr. J. H. Clarke, at this place, will be pleased to wait upon persons desiring to purchase.

Mr. Samuel M. Orr has commenced reading medicine under the instruction of Dr. W. H. Nardin. Dr. Orr is a young gentleman of fine talent, and we, in common with his numerous friends in this community, wish him every success which it is possible for a disciple of Esculapius to attain.

The Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Church at this place was held embracing last Sabbath. The services of the occasion were very interesting, and attracted a large attendance. Rev. O. A. Darby, Presiding Elder of this Circuit, and Rev. J. T. Attaway, assisted the pastor, Rev. H. F. Chreitzberg.

The evening train on the Anderson Branch of the Greenville & Columbia Railroad ran off about one hundred yards above the depot at this place on last Thursday afternoon. No damage was done, however, except throwing one box car from the track, and a consequent delay of about three hours to the train.

Mr. James M. Sullivan, of this place, left Anderson on last Monday for Orangeburg on very important business. He will be absent for a few days, and all persons having further curiosity as to the nature of his business will obtain the information they desire by consulting the "Hymeneal" notices in our next issue.

The entertainment given by the ladies of the Baptist Sewing Society at the University on last Friday evening was a most successful affair. We learn that they realized about ninety dollars from it, and this sum will be retained, and from time to time added to, until a sufficient amount is raised to purchase a parsonage for the Baptist Church at this place.

Col. James A. Hoyt, of the Columbia Register, spent last Sunday and Monday in Anderson, and on last Tuesday removed his family from this place to Columbia. The many friends of Col. Hoyt and his family regret to give them up, feeling that the town and County have lost a useful and faithful citizen, and that an estimable family has left our midst for another home, which we trust will prove both pleasant and prosperous.

Mr. John Rothwell, Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of Charleston, has been doing a good Christian work in Anderson for the past few weeks. Several persons have united with the Church in consequence of his labors, and others are interested on the subject of religion. He will remain in Anderson only a few days longer.

Dr. J. W. Gurley, of Atlanta, Ga., arrived in Anderson on Wednesday morning, and will remain here only a few days. His visit is a professional one, and all persons suffering from affections of their eyes, ears or throats, or having tumors, cancers, &c., would do well to consult him at once. He is a pleasant and cultivated gentleman, whose presence we are glad to greet once more in Anderson.

Messrs. Pegg and Won Hasslen have shown us a copy of their new town map, and, after examining it carefully, we are satisfied that it is both complete and accurate. It is drawn in a circle, representing the form of the town under the new charter, a mile in every direction from the Court House. It will be very convenient for reference, and every citizen of the town who can afford it should procure one.

We are sorry to announce that Mrs. Carrie Miller, wife of Dr. Miller, of Pendleton, died on last Monday evening from the effects of the burns which we recorded last week. Mrs. Miller suffered intense agony from her injuries, and the scythe of death came to her as an angel of peace proclaiming rest from her woes. She leaves a [illegible] relatives and friends who mourn on account of the place made vacant by her demise.

[illegible]

The members of the Pendleton Cornet Band have kept their organization up steadily from the time of its formation, and have improved so greatly in their musical attainments that they are now one of the best bands in the upper portion of the State, and bid fair to continue their improvement until they equal any amateur organization of the kind in South Carolina. The citizens of Pendleton enjoy frequent delightful serenades from this band to the town. We trust their example will ere long be imitated by our band, and that the people of Anderson will enjoy similar musical treats to those given our Pendleton neighbors.

The mad dog excitement is very prevalent now. Many canines have been killed in Pickens, Union and Greenville Counties, and on last Friday a dog of Mr. T. P. Phillips went mad and after biting several dogs, hogs and cows upon the place of Rev. R. W. Burts, who lives near the Abbeville line below Honea Path, was killed by that gentleman. He has the bitten stock up and will watch carefully to ascertain whether the bite of madness in the dead dog is verified by any of these going mad from the bite. This frightful evil is on the increase to an alarming extent this season, and every town should pass an ordinance requiring all dogs running at large to be muzzled. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Maj. William J. Simpson, an aged and highly respected citizen of the Dark Corner Township of this County, died at three o'clock on last Monday in the town of Williamston, whither he had gone some two months since in quest of health. Major Simpson was born in this County in the year 1818, and was in his sixtieth year. His health has been feeble for several years, but his last illness was short. He was an upright, useful and kind man, whose death will be regretted by the community at large. His remains were brought to Anderson on Tuesday, and escorted from the depot by a number of our citizens, who were acquaintees and friends of the deceased. On Wednesday the corpse was interred in Roberts' Church yard, where the remains of many of his relatives are resting.

THE COLLEGIATE MAY PARTY.

The May festival of the Carolina Collegiate Institute was celebrated at the University building on last Friday night. The attendance was large, and the decorations tasteful and beautiful. The young ladies of the College were of course as beautiful and merry as would be expected on so propitious an occasion, and by the graceful and perfect manner in which they rendered their several parts reflected great credit upon themselves and their institution. The entertainment began by the entry of six fair speakers, chatting upon topics interesting to school girls, as follows: First Speaker, Miss Mamie Bleckley; Second, Miss Mamie Todd; Third, Miss Carrie Brown; Fourth, Miss Ella Bleckley; Fifth, Miss Lou Chamblee; Sixth, Miss Texanna Burriss. At the conclusion of their dialogue, Miss Lois Watson, Fairy Queen, entered, attended by fairies represented by Misses Annie Towers, Lilly and Effie Moore, Booth Nance, Lucille and Louise Nardin, Annie Fant, Emma and Cora Chamblee and Mattie Clarke. The Queen of May, Miss Stark Bellotte, then entered, accompanied by her Sceptre Bearer, Miss Alice Catlett, her Crowner, Miss Dessie Nardin, and her Maids of Honor, Misses Victoria Catlett, Lizzie Anderson, Francis Lesser, Beula Herrick, Eliza McGregor, Hall Nance and Josie Majors. The coronation, the presentation of the sceptre and the Queen's speech were most beautifully rendered, after which Misses Mamie Towers and Annie Bewley sang the beautiful song "Charming May." The following flower girls next made their offerings with beautiful speeches at the Queen's throne: Tulip, Miss Pet Parlour; Rose, Miss Essie Burress; Lily, Miss Pet Reed; Violet, Miss Fannie Simpson; Daisy, Miss Phenie Lesser; Jessamine, Miss Helen Archer; Japonica, Miss Zulia Watson; Heartease, Miss Samuella Brown. The Queen then made a closing address, the exercises were over and all present mingled their congratulations to both pupils and teachers for the creditable and exceedingly pleasant evening they had afforded by this festival. Prof. Ligon requests us to return his thanks for the fine music furnished by the Anderson Cornet Band, which was a very enjoyable part of the evening's pleasures.

THE HAIL STORM.

The recent hail storm was much more extensive and destructive than was at first supposed. Commencing above Walhalla it continued with varying fury along the general course of the Greenville & Columbia Railroad to Ninety Six. Nothing has ever been known or heard of in this section of the world to equal its fury and its extent. In many places it remained upon the ground for several days in low or shady places, and on last Friday afternoon, six days after the storm, Mr. S. M. Johnston, who lives on Broadway Creek, in the Holmes' Shop neighborhood, brought to this office a little basket of the icy missiles, which we have already stated, were very destructive in that portion of the County. These hail-stones were as large as partridge eggs when brought here on Friday, and must have been fearfully large when they fell, near one week previous. Number of our farmers have replanted their cotton-fields, some with cotton and others with corn. Some, we learn, have even been ploughing up their wheat-fields which were beaten to pieces by the hail, and planting corn to make a crop upon their lands. It is impossible even to approximate the injury done by the storm, but we know enough to say that it was enormous.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The May Term of the Court of General Sessions and Common Pleas for this County, convenes on the fourth Monday of this month. There will not be a great deal of business, and it is not expected that the session will last more than one week. The same Grand Jury which served last February will continue to serve for the balance of this year, and the following persons have been drawn to constitute the Petit Juries for the ensuing term:

Mm. McKeown, Elisha M. Walker, Francis Clark, (c,) Henry Wilson, (c,) Richard Kay, Wm. S. Martin, J. B. Watson, J. J. Mattison, J. A. Reese, George Riley, (c,) Reuben Clinkscales, Jas. A. Gray, J. A. Dacus, Anson Anderson, (c,) Andrew Harris, Thomas Grymes, D. F. Anderson, Washington Reeves, W. L. Davis, W. M. Bellotte, J. C. Cherry, John Johnson, D. S. Sherard, Pinckney Williams, J. Fletcher Anderson, Miller Washington, R. S. Bailey, J. Milton Watson, Jas. A. Montgomery, Joseph Lee, (c,) W. L. Dobbins, John H. Jones, Julius Johnson, (c,) John J. Lesley, Silas Hill, Walker Russel.

A GRANGE BANK.

At the last meeting of Hunter's Spring Grange it was resolved to endeavor to establish a Bank at Anderson, to be controlled and directed by the County Grange, and a resolution was adopted asking the INTELLIGENCER to call the attention of the subordinate Granges throughout the County to the action of Hunter's Spring Grange, and request them to discuss and act upon the proposition at their next meetings, in order to obtain and report the sentiment of the County upon the propriety of the enterprise. We have no doubt that the subject will receive general attention and discussion in all the Granges of Anderson County.

Mr. Peter McBrall has planted his whole farm in corn.....There was a picnic at Sandy Springs on Saturday, the 7th inst. It was not very largely attended, but the day was pleasantly spent by some of the elite of Sandy Springs society.

HONEA PATH.

The Second Quarterly Conference of Cokesbury Circuit, convened at this place on Saturday [illegible]. Interesting sermons were delivered during the meeting by Rev. Manning Brown, Presiding Elder, and the Revs. Messrs. Clark and Price, all of whom are zealous workers.....A mad dog, the property of T. P. Phillips, went round the neighborhood last week biting cows, hogs and other dogs in such a manner as to cause Mr. Travis to fix him.....Trial Justice Wright held Court here on Tuesday.....The question as to "who has the largest Irish Potatoes," is not definitely determined.....The crops, since the heavy rain and hail storm, are reported not doing well.....Our carriage and wagon builders, determining not to be out done in work or prices, send this week to a citizen of Greenville, a nicely finished, double-seated wagon.

GRANGE UNION MEETING.

MR. EDITOR: I had the pleasure of being at the Union Meeting of four Granges which met last Saturday at Harper's Grange, and of the many questions discussed none were entertained with more pleasure than the establishment of a Grangers' Bank at Anderson C. H. There was a good representation of the four Granges, besides visiting Grangers from other Granges, and several made speeches in favor of the project. It was argued by one of the members, and one of some experience in business, that national banks could make money by lending money at seven per cent. Why, he said, add seven per cent. to the six per cent. which they receive on their U. S. Bonds deposited with the Treasurer, and you have thirteen percent.; and deduct from this three per cent. for running the bank, and you have a profit of ten per cent., besides interest on deposits. It was contended that the high rate of interest must be broken down before we would see manufactories, and other local improvements spring up in our midst and flourish. The people are becoming aroused on the subject of a Grangers' Bank, and are determined to make an effort to obtain one.

GRANGER.

WILLIAMSTON.

Locals that would interest the readers of the INTELLIGENCER are few in these parts. To say that Edmund Jones' old black hen hatched fifty-eight chickens at a single squatting might have an influence toward developing the resources of this portion of our great region, but we would rather chronicle the fact that said hen hatched seventeen large fowls, full-fledged, which will be ready at our Methodist Conference in July, when Bishop Wightman is expected.....Some person has originated a rumor that there was to be no Commencement exercises at our Female College in June. This is all bosh. We are proud to say there is no Female College in the State where the prospects are so flattering for success as is the College at this place. There are over one hundred females now in attendance at this institution, and the young ladies that are to graduate at the coming Commencement are among the most gifted and accomplished that have ever passed the portals of this or any other College in the State. To say there will be no Commencement is a great mistake. We have a College of which the County is proud, and we do not propose to localize its wide-spreading usefulness.....A debate was recently inaugurated among the students of the Male Academy at this place, and was held under the shady shadow of one of those antediluvian oaks in the Spring Park. Query: "Does music on a piano, graced by a school boy during the week, make a home as happy as does a development of the muscle, in connection with literature, without music from the male portion of the family?" After a spirited debate the elected President of the occasion decided like Gov. Robertson, of New York, in his veto message recently, "The God of nature has appointed different fields of labor, duty and usefulness for the sexes; that the male by nature, with his coarse hair, has not those dainty locks and developments to cause a home to reverberate with sweet strains from the soft touch of the keys; that muscle is conducive to natural greatness and prosperity, and to produce the classics our homes would imitate modern Italy—hence, consequently, nevermelodious. Music as a gift to males is an accomplishment, but deep plowing and a cultivation of the physical, together with the faculties of searching logic, are much more necessary to the present age. Only two boys notice "music in themes;" the other portion of the students are now giving unusual attention to beans and Irish potatoes, &c.....A young lady of our town was recently in service with reference to bouquets being worn to our places of worship on the Sabbath by the young men. She said that her fondness for flowers was so great she did not like to say whether they should be worn by the young men to church or not. The father replied that for a young man to pin flowers on his coat on such occasions was an evidence of imbecility, and if a young man deserved to exhibit his fitness for female association and future usefulness as a husband, it would be commendable in him to pin a pig tail, cure the same properly and scientifically, and wear it on all such occasions as an evidence that he had a pig in the pen at home, and was constrained to believe that any sensible lady would prefer to live on pig-tail hash, rather than trust to the beauties of nature. So mote it be.....Plenty of corn for sale at some of our stores. Not much offered for cash, but an abundance on lien.

LOCUM STAGILLI.

Cross Husbands and Sickly Wives.

"Domestic infelicity," which newspaper reporters nowadays credit with playing such an important part in life's drama, is often the result of lingering, or chronic disease. What husband or wife can be cheerful, smiling, and pleasant, when constantly suffering from the tortures of some dread disease? Perhaps the husband's liver becomes torpid, and he experiences bitter, disagreeable taste or nausea, has chills, sometimes alternating with great heat and dryness of the surface of his body, pain in his joints, shoulders, or back, eyes and skin are tinged with yellow, feels dull, indispored, and dizzy. Through his suffering he becomes gloomy, despondent, and exceedingly irritable in temper. Instead of resorting to some reliable remedy as a few small doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets, and following up their action with the use of Golden Medical Discovery, to work the biliary poison out of the system and purify the blood, if he play the part of a "penny wise and pound foolish" man he will attempt to economize by saving the small cost of these medicines. Continuing to suffer, his nervous system becomes impaired, and he is fretful and peevish—a fit subject to become embroiled in "domestic infelicity." Or the good wife may, from her too laborious duties or family cares, have become subject to such chronic affections as are peculiarly incident to her sex, and being reduced in blood and strength, suffering from backache, nervousness, headache, internal fever, and enduring pains too numerous to mention, she may become querulous and fretful—anything but a cheerful helpmate. In this deplorable condition of ill health, should she act wisely and employ Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, it will in due time, by its cordial, tonic and nervine properties, restore her health and transform her from the peevish, scolding, irritable-tempered invalid into a happy, cheerful wife. Laying aside levity and speaking seriously, husbands and wives, you will find the Family Medicines above mentioned reliable and potent remedies. For full particulars of their properties and uses, see Pierce's Memorandum book, which is given away by all druggists.

BIG INVENTION.—Lloyd, the [illegible] man, who made all the, [illegible] Grant and the Union army, certificates of which he published, has just invented a way of getting a relief plate from steel so as to print Lloyd's Map of American Continents [illegible] on a convenient sheet of bank note paper, 26x20 inches large, on a lightning press, and colored sheet and varnished for the mail so as to stand washing, and mailing anywhere in the world for 50 cents, or unvarnished for 25 cents. This map shows the whole United States and Territories in a group, from surveys to 1877, with a million places on it, such as towns, cities, villages, mountains, lakes, rivers, streams, gold mines, railroad stations, &c. This map cost the inventor over $5000. Also Lloyd's Great Map of Philadelphia and the Centennial Grounds, showing every house, street and number. Same size and price as America. Send 25 cents to the Lloyd Map Company, Philadelphia, and you will get a copy by return mail.—N. Y. Illustrated Christian Weekly.

[illegible] the annual celebration of the Calhoun Literary Society of Furman College, Spartanburg, [illegible] last, the debate is, "Should the leading European powers unite to drive the Turk from Europe?" The speakers are for the affirmative, Messrs. Henry A. Yeam and L. Jon. Bleeden, of South Carolina, and for the negative, Messrs. E. Coit Conner, of South Carolina, and Warren Tupper, of Va.

The annual celebration of the Philomathean Literary Society of Furman College will take place on June 28th. They propose discussing the subject, "Have false systems of religion caused more misery than false systems of government?" The orators for the occasion are Messrs. R. C. Davis, of Ga., and J. T. Chalmers, of N. C., for the affirmative, and Messrs. J. C. S. Brice and J. E. McDonald, of S. C., for the negative.

Good Advice!

Now is the time of year for Pneumonia, Lung Fever, &c. Every family should have a bottle of BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP. Don't allow for one moment that cough to take hold of your child, your family or yourself. Consumption, Asthma, Pneumonia, Croup, Hemorrhages, and other fatal diseases may set in. Although it is true GERMAN SYRUP is curing thousands of these dreaded diseases, yet it is much better to have it at hand when three doses will cure you. One Bottle will last your whole family a winter and keep you safe from danger. If you are consumptive, do not rest until you have tried this remedy. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by your Druggists, Willis & Williams.

OBITUARY.

DIED, near Williamston, S. C., on Saturday, May 12th, 1877, L. PRESTON COX, after a lingering disease of several months. In the death of our young friend we are called upon to record many commendable traits of character. He was always social, genial and honorable in his transactions of life. For the past seven years he had been engaged in mercantile pursuits at Williamston and Belton, and has left a good name with all who knew him. Peace to his ashes.
