DAN'L PRATT'S IMPROVED

"REVOLVING HEAD" COTTON GIN.

PATENTED JULY 15, 1873.

Price Reduced to $4.50 Per Saw.

THIS GIN HAS BEEN IN USE FOR the past three seasons, and several recent improvements have been added. It operates all friction as the ends of the cotton box, prevents the roll from breaking, and gives a LARGER FIELD OF LINT FROM THE SAME AMOUNT OF SEED THAN ANY OTHER GIN IN USE! The revolving head lightens the draft and causes the gin to run faster with less driving power, thus doing a great deal more work within the same time while economizing time or animal power than any other gin. The seed being ginned very close, the length of the staple is increased, producing cotton on this account of a greater market value. This improved value, given by length of staple, with extra production of lint, added to increased amount of work done; more than covers the cost of the gin in every 100 bales ginned. Testimonials sent by mail on application.

CALL FOR A PARISH CONVENTION.

THE DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE Delegates of the Parish of Rapides, to be chosen on the 28th day of August 1876, will assemble in the TOWN HALL in ALEXANDRIA at 11 o'clock A. M., on SATURDAY, 24th of SEPTEMBER 1876, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices: 2 Representatives in the Legislature, a Parish Judge, a Sheriff, a Clerk of the District Court, a Recorder, a Coroner, five Police Jurors, and Ward Justices of the Peace and Constables.

Also to select and appoint EIGHT DELEGATES from the Parish of Rapides to meet in Convention the Delegates from the Parish of Vernon, and Delegates from the Parish of Grant, to nominate Democratic-Conservative candidates for DISTRICT JUDGE and DISTRICT ATTORNEY for the Judicial District composed of the three Parishes of Rapides, Vernon and Grant.

And to meet in Convention Delegates from the Parish of Vernon to nominate a Democratic-Conservative candidate for STATE SENATOR, for the Senatorial District composed of the Parishes of Rapides and Vernon.

The Parish Convention shall consist of sixty-four members, taken from the vote of J. C. Moncreur at the last general election, each Ward being entitled to one Delegate for every twenty-five votes cast at that election and one for every vote over the fraction of fifteen. The following apportionment of the Delegates from each Ward on the basis of the votes cast in them, is hereby published and will be the official data and guide of the Convention:

J. A. WILLIAMS, Chairman Executive Committee.

SHORT SERMON.

BY ALICE GARY.

Children, who read my say,
 This much I have to say:
 Each day, and every day,
 Do what is right—
 Right things in great and small;
 Then, though the sky should fall,
 Sun, moon, and stars, and all,
 You shall have light.

This further I would say:
 Be ye tempted as you may,
 Each day and every day,
 Speak what is true—
 True things in great and small,
 Then though the sky should fall,
 Sun, moon, and stars, and all,
 Heaven would show through.

Figs, as you see and know,
 Do not out of thisles grow,
 And though the blossoms blow
 While on the tree,
 Grapes never, never yet
 On the limbs of thorus were set;
 So, if you a good would get,
 Good you must be.

Life's journey through and through,
 Speaking what is just and true,
 Doing what is right to do
 Unto one and all.
 When you work and when you play,
 Each day, and every day,
 Then peace shall gild your way,
 Though the sky should fall.

PLATFORM

OF THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

WE, the Delegates of the Democratic Party in National Convention assembled, do hereby declare the administration of the Federal Government to be in urgent need of immediate reform, do hereby enjoin upon the nominees of this Convention, and of the Democratic party in each State, a zealous effort and co-operation to this end, and do hereby appeal to our fellow-citizens of every former political connection to undertake with us this first and most pressing patriotic duty. For the Democracy of the whole country we do here reaffirm our faith in the permanency of the Federal Union, our devotion to the Constitution of the United States with its amendments universally accepted as a final settlement of the controversies that engendered civil war, and we do here record our steadfast confidence in the perpetuity of republican self-government, in absolute acquiescence in the will of the majority, the vital principle of republics; the supremacy of the civil over the military authority; in the total separation of Church and State for the sake alike of civil and religious freedom, in the equality of all citizens before the law, and in the maintenance of the liberty of individual conscience untrammelled by any law; in the faithful education of the rising generation that they may preserve, enjoy and transmit these best conditions of human happiness and hope we behold the nobility, greatness of a hundred years of liberty, and the high and noble principles of our Union and great charter of those our rights, it behooves a free people to practice also that eternal vigilance which is the price of liberty.

REFORM IS NECESSARY

to rebuild and establish in the hearts of the whole people of the Union, eleven years ago happily rescued from the danger of a corrupt centralism which, after inflicting upon ten States the rapacity of carpet-bag tyrannies, has honeycombed the officers of the Federal Government, itself with incapacity, waste and fraud, infected States and municipalities with the contagion of misrule, and locked fast the prosperity of an industrious people in the paralysis of hard times. Reform is necessary to establish a sound currency, restore the public credit, and maintain the national honor. We denounce the failure of these eleven years to make good the promise of the legal tender notes, which are a changing standard of value in the hands of the people, and the non payment of which is a disgrace to the pledged faith of the nation. We denounce the improvidence which in eleven years of peace have taken from the people in Federal taxes, thirteen times the whole amount of the legal tender notes, and squandered four times the sum in useless expense without accumulating any reserve for their redemption. We denounce the financial imbecility and immorality of that party, which, during eleven years of peace, has made no advance toward redemption; that instead has obstructed the public credit, and maintained an exhausting all our surplus income, and while annually professing to intend a speedy return to specie payments, has annually enacted fresh hindrance thereto. As such a hindrance we denounce the resumption clause of the act of 1875, and we here

DEMAND ITS REPAL.

We demand a judicious system of preparation by public economies, by official retrenchments and by wise finance which shall enable the nation to insure the whole world of its perfect ability and its perfect readiness to meet any of its present needs at the call of the creditor entitled to payment. We believe such a system well devised, and, above all, entrusted to competent hands for execution, creating at no time an artificial scarcity of currency and at no time alarming the public mind into a withdrawal of that vast machinery of credit by which 35 per cent. of all business transactions are performed—a system open, public and inspiring general confidence would from the day of its adoption bring healing on its wings to all our harassed industry and set in motion the wheels of commerce, manufactures and the mechanical arts, restore employment to labor, and renew in all its national source the prosperity of the people. Reform is necessary in the sum and mode of Federal taxation, to the end that capital may be set free from distress and labor lightly burdened.

WE DENOUNCE THE PRESENT TARIFF

levied upon nearly four thousand articles, as a masterpiece of injustice, inequality and false pretence. It yields a dwindling, not a yearly rising revenue; it has impoverished many industries to subsidize a few; it prohibits imports that might enrich the products of American labor; it has degraded American commerce from the first to an inferior upon the high seas; it has cut down the sales of American manufactures at home and abroad, and depleted the returns of American agriculture, an interest, followed by half our people, it costs the people five times more than it produces to the treasury, obstructs the processes of production and wastes the fruits of labor; it promotes fraud and fosters smuggling, enriches dishonest officials and bankrupts honest merchants. We demand that all custom house taxation shall be only for revenue. Reform is necessary in the scale of public expenses, Federal, State and municipal.

FEDERAL TAXATION HAS SWOLLEN from $16,000,000 gold in 1860 to $450,000,000 currency in 1870; our aggregate taxation from $184,000,000 gold in 1860 to $730,000,000 currency in 1870, or in one decade from less than five dollars per head to more than eighteen dollars per head— Since the people have paid to their tax gatherers more than three times the sum of the national debt, and more than twice that sum for the Federal Government alone. We demand a vigorous frugality in every department and from every officer of the Government. Reform is necessary to put a stop to the profligate waste of public lands and their diversion from actual settlers by the party in power, which has squandered two hundred millions of acres upon railroads alone, and out of more than twice that aggregate has disposed of less than a sixth directly to fillers of the soil. Reform is necessary to correct the
