Citizens of Salina and Vicinity, Attention

The Kansas Pacific Railway, the old Kansas Pioneer line, is making extraordinary exertions to add themselves to our population this season. It extends as you all well know from Kansas City and Leavenworth to Gray Center, Los Animas, Denver, Boulder, and Cheyenne. These points being the terminal of the main line and branches. It reaches all unsettled places in Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico, passes through all our principal cities and opens up to settlers all our fertile valleys. Its agents are constantly at work in every section of the Union and are talking to the people and distributing tracts and printed matter, illustrating and describing our State. Our people can aid in this good work by writing to their friends who wish to take a trip for pleasure or health and urge them to visit the great Colorado Resorts. You can also send the names of those of your friends and acquaintances living east of the Missouri River and whom you think might be induced to remove to Kansas, to Mr. Kenn at Kansas City, and he will send them printed matter and have his agents call upon them. In this way thousands in ignorance will obtain a knowledge of our vicinity. Mr. O. S. Lyford is General Supt., and Mr. Brierley R. Keim is General Passenger Agent with offices at Kansas City.

The "Wabash."

The line of Pullman Sleeping Cars and Palace Day Coaches heretofore run between Kansas City and Toledo via Hannibal & St. Joe and Wabash Lines, are now being run through to Cleveland, instead of Toledo.

Express Trains of the Missouri Pacific and St. Louis Kansas City & Northern Railways make direct connection with Wabash Trains from St. Louis.

Passengers taking the Wabash Line have but one change of cars from the Missouri River to Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Buffalo, New York, Boston and intermediate points.

Get your tickets by the Wabash Route, and be happy.

Greatest Event of the Age—the Old Reliable Hannibal & St. Joseph R. R.—Always Ahead.

From and after April 4th this company will run two express trains daily, each way, and arrangements have been made between this line and the Toledo, Wabash & Western Railway, whereby a through train to be known as the Kansas City and New York Express, composed of Baggage cars, day coaches and Pullman Palace sleeping cars, is to be run from Kansas City to Toledo (O.), via Quincy, Jacksonville, Springfield, Decatur, Tolono, Lafayette, Logansport and Ft. Wayne, without change. Also attached to this train is a through day coach and Pullman Palace Sleeping car through to Chicago via Chicago, Burlington & Quincy R. R. The New York express via Quincy, makes the time from Kansas City to New York in fifty hours; an advantage to the traveling public never before offered or attempted by any any other line. Arriving in Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Toledo, Cleveland, Buffalo, Niagra Falls, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and other eastern cities from three and half to twelve hours in advance of all other lines.

Through tickets and full information can be obtained at all offices of the Kansas Pacific Railroad. Baggage checked to destination. For further information consult time tables, or address T. Penfield, Gen. Passenger Agent, Hannibal, Mo., or G. N. Clayton, Western Passenger Agent, Leavenworth, Kansas.

A Square Offer

I will discuss at any place and with any individual in Saline county who will take the negative of the following propositions: 1st. Man exists after the dissolution of the mortal body. 2d. The spirit by an ever-operative law of nature can, after leaving the mortal body, still influence and communicate with the inhabitants of earth. L. L. Ruggles.

Editor Journal:—Please give notice in your next issue that the examination of teachers for the month of December will be held on Saturday, the 18th inst., instead of on the last Saturday of the month, as that comes on Christmas Day. D. I. Miner,

Mr. P. Gebhart chins the grain sellers with a more persistent chin, since he knows that he is a father, and that a young lady is depending upon him for a future stock of dress patterns.

Mr. C. C. Culp started this morning on his annual tour around the world. Charley will soon compete with Bayard Taylor as a "traveled man." But we hope there will be no Humboldt to jump up and say "Culp has traveled more and seen less than any other man living." He goes first to Ohio.

The Salina Herald compliments one of its citizens on the death of his father, because he has thus "fallen heir to a snug little sum," and that it likes to see "good luck come to good men," and that "he deserves good luck." It is the first time that we ever knew a person to be congratulated on the death of his father.—Abilene Chronicle.

Col. E. W. Ayres returned to Salina on last Tuesday evening. He is now connected with the Alliance Mutual Life Insurance Company of Leavenworth. During his absence of nearly a year, during which time he has visited several states, he claims that no state he has seen suits him as well as Kansas, and no town as well as Salina. His family will reside in Salina.

To the fact that sausage is so plenty in our market is attributed what has recurred to most of our citizens as an unusual scarcity of canine timber. A howl, a shot and then the humming machinery of the sausage mill is heard on the evening air—all pointing plainly to the idea that even a dog's life has its sunshine as well as darkness, and that life is but a fleeting show.

According to the "Annals of Kansas," in April, 1858, Salina was founded by Col. Phillips. In April, 1867, trains commenced running to this place. June 14, 1867, great flood at Salina and Ellsworth. Dec 10th, 1867, the Smoky Hill was bridged here. Dec. 1868, a building was robbed at this place of forty-three stands of Spencer arms and several thousand rounds of ammunition, owned by the State. July 1st, 1870, Salina shipped beef to New York, in refrigerator cars. Dec. 17, 1874, A. M. Campbell confirmed as postmaster. And the above is all that the "Annals of Kansas" has to say about Salina's history.

In the "Annals of Kansas" we find that Saline county has had the following representatives since its organization: 1862, H. L. Jones; 1863, R. H. Bishop; 1864, N. B. Hales; 1865, W. A. Phillips; 1866, A. C. Spillman; 1867, E. F. Millard; 1868, Joel Maltby; 1869, J. H. Snead; 1870, J. H. Snead; 1871, J. Boynton; 1872, E. Forsse; 1873, J. Weaver; 1874, G. C. Lockwood. In 1861, H. L. Jones represented the 11th district, composed of the counties of Arapahoe, Godfrey, Greenwood, Hunter, Wilson, Dora, M'Gee and Salina. 21 votes only were polled.

The Solomon City Reporter says:

We regret to announce another serious accident this week which befell the wife of Mr. A. J. Sellman, of Gypsum creek. Mr. S. accompanied by his wife, was proceeding to Salina with a load of wheat, when the lady becoming chilled, jumped off the wagon while in motion, slipped and fell in such a manner that one of the wheels ran over her limb in two places, between the ankle and knee and between the knee and hip. She was conveyed to Salina, but a short distance, from the scene of the accident, where surgical assistance was summoned. No bones were broken, and it is believed by the surgeon in attendance that no permanent injury will result, although some time will elapse ere the lady will be able to use the limb.

Only the other night a battle raged in the neighborhood of the depot, and it seemed at one time as if Castle Depot would certainly be captured. The commander-in-chief was stern and silent, and answered not to the cruel demands of the enemy. Orvis stood cooly up to his inalienable rights of "a ticket agent after dark," and gave the assailing party to understand and be informed that he could not "get in" under any circumstances. The assailing party fired his revolver half a dozen times, avowing his intention to capture that man Orvis dead or alive, at all hazzards. And if the assailing party had not seen fit to change his mind no doubt our friend Orvis would now be lying stiff and stark in you cemetery. Fortunately the assailing party changed his mind and Orvis still presides with grace in his usual place.

Quite a number of our prominent business men gathered at Mayor Bishop's office, last Monday afternoon, to talk up the matter of building a bridge on the Solomon at Markley's Mill, in order to draw a portion of the immense trade of the Solomon valley over to this place. ~~The proceedings of the meeting are published in another column.~~ The people living in the neighborhood of the mill also have a meeting this evening to discuss the matter, at which Salina will be represented by a committee. It is proposed to build the bridge at a point on the Solomon directly north of Salina—at Markley's mill—the business men of Salina to furnish one-half of the funds and the Ottawa people the other half. The cost of the bridge will probably be in the neighborhood of $1,500—Salina's portion of course being $750, which we believe can be easily raised. By building a bridge at that place a large amount of trade which Salina has not hitherto had will be gained.

The new dry goods house of Bruckman' & Co. is already gaining the popularity it deserves. Everything inside of their store is arranged in a most tasty manner and their handsome goods vie with the best stock ever brought west of the Missouri river. The proprietors are genial, obliging men, with whom customers become pleased at the very first sight. They already take a prominent stand among our leading tradesmen. It is their intention to build a brick store as soon as possible, as at their present headquarters they have not sufficient room.

We mentioned last week that the case of Ward vs. Saline county was being tried in the U. S. Court at Topeka. Numerous witnesses from this place were subpoenaed and went down to the trial. The case was tried before Judge Foster, and resulted in a verdict for Saline county. Ward is the Connecticut man who purchased the bogus 50,000 R. S. & A. V. bonds, and brought suit in the U. S. Court against Saline county to recover the interest claimed to be due thereon. Ward fell back on his dignity as an "innocent purchaser," and on that point the case hinged. The county has thus been successful in its first step to save itself in this grand bond swindle, and we believe the outlook to be pretty favorable for a grand final success.

MARRIED.

Culp—Nickles.—At the residence of Major G. C. Probert, on the evening of the 8th inst., by Rev. Thos. B. Dooley, Mr. Charles C. Culp, of Salina, to Miss Clara F. Nickles, of Wellington, Ohio.

We are amazed! Charley Culp married, and the boys hadn't the least inkling of it until this morning, and then he had gone, gone, gone! Salina is thunder-struck! Salina's maidens are all mad! What a commotion then had produced, Charles! Had an earthquake visited us, the confusion could not have been greater! So sig! Everybody exclaimed, "Well, I declare!" The "scrip speculator's friend," however, has this to say: That not a man of nolder mold exists than this same Charles C. Culp; and if any young man is entitled to a fair and noble bride it is the said Culp. Blessings on the noble groom and his fair bride, is the wish of every man about the Journal office.

Frank Leslie, at his Mammoth Publishing House, 537 Pearl Street, New York, issues seventeen beautifully illustrated newspapers and magazines. Mr. Leslie was the first in the United States to undertake the publication of a weekly illustrated newspaper, and to him belongs the honor of being the publisher of "The Oldest Illustrated Newspaper in America." The person who secures the agency for these publications for this vicinity, and will give our citizens an opportunity of investing the several issues and copies of the eight magnificent chromos the choice from which is given with the subscription to either of the illustrated weeklies, will have a handsome and profitable business. These papers are well known, and sell readily for from 10 to 15 cents on newsstands, and are now first offered through agents to annual subscribers, with a valuable chromo which, to all lovers of art, is alone worth more than the subscription price. An annual subscriber to the Illustrated Newspaper receives during the year over 852 newspaper pages. Folded to the size of a large octavo book, the subscriber would have 3,328 pages, equal to seven octavo books of ordinary size, say 400 pages each, and one-half of these pages would contain fine engravings, and for the centennial year will make the most accurate and valuable illustrated History of the National Jubilee published. We advise our readers, after they have subscribed for The Journal, to secure one of Frank Leslie's illustrated periodicals, and with it the beautiful chromo.
