Erastus Spencer, Plaintiff, vs.
Joseph W. Champlin, James M. Champlin, et al., Defendants. } Civil Action.

THE said Joseph W. Champlin and James M. Champlin, defendants, who are non-residents of the State of Ohio, will take notice that on the 11th day of February, A. D. 1864, the plaintiff, Erastus Spencer, filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court, his petition against them and others, setting forth in substance that the said plaintiff, with Url Seeley, Harvey Cram and Benjamin B. Woodbury, prior to the 25th day of January, A. D. 1859, executed and delivered to said Joseph W. Champlin their three several notes, each for the sum of $3000, dated respectively January 3d, 1857, January 14th, 1857, and February 3d, 1857, which said several promissory notes each were given for the sum of $2850 money loaned by said Joseph W. to said plaintiff, Cram, Seeley and Woodbury, and which notes were payable to said Joseph W. Champlin or bearer, with interest at ten per cent. per annum until paid, the interest to be paid semi-annually, and all interest after due to draw ten per cent. semi-annually till paid. That from the amount of each of said promissory notes, at the date thereof, there was reserved and withheld by the said Joseph W. Champlin, the sum of $150, as and for and by way of payment of usurious interest on said notes respectively, and to said amount of $450 said promissory notes were without consideration and void. That on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1859, the said plaintiff, Seeley, Cram and Woodbury took up and canceled said notes. That said notes, on said day last aforesaid, with interest as aforesaid, amounted to the sum of $10,955 72. That, by reason of the aforesaid usurious contracts, made at the date of said promissory notes, the contracts therein contained for the payment of interest became and were absolutely null and void, and that the amount really and justly due to said Joseph W., on account of the money loaned for which said notes were given, was only the sum of $9,527 87, and no more. That on the date last aforesaid, the plaintiff, with said Seeley, Cram and Woodbury, in payment of the amount claimed due by said Joseph W., on said first promissory notes, to wit: the sum of $10,955 72, and in consideration of the sum of $634 25 then loaned to them by said Joseph W. Champlin, executed and delivered to him their four several promissory notes of that date, each for the sum of $3000, payable to said Joseph W. Champlin or bearer, on the 25th day of January, 1862, with interest at ten per cent. per annum until paid, the interest to be paid semi-annually, and all interest after due to draw ten per cent. semi-annually till paid. That from the amount of said four promissory notes, at the date thereof, there was reserved and withheld by said Joseph W. the sum of $100, as and for and by way of payment of usurious interest on said notes, and to said amount of $400, in addition to the amounts above specified, said promissory notes were without consideration and void. That on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1859, the plaintiff, to secure the payment of said four promissory notes, executed and delivered to said Joseph W. Champlin a mortgage deed of the following described premises, situate in Munson in said County, and known and described as follows to wit: Forty-seven and one-half acres of land, being the same land deeded to said Spencer by John Storm and wife, by deed bearing date Nov. 17th, 1845, and recorded in Geauga County Records, vol. 30, pages 131 and 132. Also fifty acres of land deeded to said Spencer by Asher B. Fowler by deed bearing date the 16th of February, 1846, and recorded in Geauga County Records, vol. 36, pages 361 and 362. Also two other pieces of land, one of 43 27-100 acres, and one of 14 acres, described in a deed to said Spencer by Nelson Millet, bearing date Nov. 23d, 1844, and recorded in Geauga County Records, vol. 35, pages 40 and 41. Also one other piece or parcel of land deeded by Hiram Canfield, Administrator of John Kirby, to said Spencer, by deed bearing date Nov. 26th, 1846, and recorded in Geauga County Records, vol. 37, pages 236 and 237. For a more full description reference may be had to said deeds. And all of said lots of land containing one hundred and eighty-five and 50-100 acres of land. Also 25 69-100 acres of land in the township of Claridon, Geauga County, Ohio, being the same land deeded to said Spencer by John T. Talbott and wife, by deed bearing date 15th January, 1851, and recorded in Geauga County Records, vol. 43, pa. 364 and 365, reference being had to said deed for a more full description. Be the same more or less, but subject to all legal highways. And thereby conveyed to said Joseph W. said real estate, subject only to the condition that the plaintiff should pay said four notes according to the tenor and effect thereof. That said mortgage deed is duly recorded in vol. 56, pages 213 and 214, of Geauga County Records of Mortgages. That the following payments have been made on said promissory notes by the plaintiff, Cram, Seeley and Woodbury, as follows, to wit: July 25th, 1859, $600; January 25th, 1860, $600; July 25th, 1860, $600; January 25th, 1861, $600; July 25th, 1861, $600; January 25th, 1862, $300; March 11th, 1862, $3185 25, and one of said notes was taken up; and on the 9th day of June, 1862, $316. That no other payments have been made thereon, leaving a large sum due and unpaid thereon, which said sum was not paid at the time appointed for that purpose, and is still unpaid. That said three notes and said mortgage are still outstanding in full force, except as aforesaid, uncanceled & undischarged, whereby said estate in said premises of said Joseph W. Champlin and his assigns, has become absolute at law, subject to the rights and equities of the said plaintiff to redeem the same. That, by reason of the failure of considerations aforesaid, and by reason of the aforesaid usurious amounts incorporated into said four promissory notes, and by reason of the aforesaid usurious contracts made at the date of said four promissory notes, the contracts therein contained for the payment of the interest, and said other amounts aforesaid, became and were absolutely null and void, and that the amount of the balance really and justly due on said four promissory notes, on the 17th day of December, 1862, to the said Joseph W., or the said James M. Champlin, on account of the money actually loaned, for which said notes were given, was only the sum of $5246 31, and no more. That all of said business and transactions between the parties were with the said James M. Champlin, who acted as the agent of said Joseph W., but since, and on the date last aforesaid, said James M. claimed to be the owner of said outstanding notes, and that said notes and mortgage are now the property and are in the possession of said James M. Champlin. That since the maturity of said notes, the plaintiff, Cram and Woodbury have at all times been ready to pay the same. That on the 17th day of December, 1862, at the city of Detroit in the State of Michigan, the plaintiff then and there tendered and offered to said James M. the sum of $9868 50 in legal tender, good and lawful money of the United States, in payment and discharge of said three notes and mortgage; but he then and there refused to receive said sum or any part thereof, and refused to cancel said notes and mortgage, and deliver the same to plaintiff, and that ever since the plaintiff, Cram and Woodbury have kept said sum ready to pay the amount justly due on said outstanding notes, and the plaintiff brings said sum of $9868 50 into the Court to abide the order thereof, as to the amount so as aforesaid due thereon, and no further amount. That said notes were drawn for a greater rate and amount of interest than is allowed by law; that the contracts therein contained for the payment of interest are null and void; and the only rate which the owner of said notes is entitled to is six per cent. per annum upon the money loaned, from the date of the advancement respectively, and no more. The object and prayer of which petition is, in substance, as follows: That said four promissory notes, and the said contracts and transactions concerning the same, be declared illegal, usurious and void, and that an account be taken of the amount really and justly due on said four promissory notes, on the 17th day of December, 1862, to the said Joseph W. or the said James M. Champlin, on account of the money actually loaned, for which said notes were given, was only the sum of $5246 31, and no more. That all of said business and transactions between the parties were with the said James M. Champlin, who acted as the agent of said Joseph W., but since, and on the date aforesaid, said James M. claimed to be the owner of said outstanding notes, and that said notes and mortgage are now the property and are in the possession of said James M. Champlin. That since the maturity of said notes, the plaintiff, Cram and Spencer have at all times been ready to pay the same. That on the 17th day of December, 1862, at the city of Detroit in the State of Michigan, the plaintiff then and there tendered and offered to said James M. the sum of $9868 50 in legal tender, good and lawful money of the United States, in payment and discharge of said three notes and mortgage; but he then and there refused to receive said sum or any part thereof, and refused to cancel said notes and mortgage, and deliver the same to plaintiff, and that ever since the plaintiff, Cram and Spencer, have kept said sum ready to pay the amount justly due on said outstanding notes, and that on the 11th day of Feb. 1864, said Spencer for and on behalf of himself and plaintiff, brings said sum of $9868 50 into this Court to abide the order thereof, as to the amount so as aforesaid due thereon, and no further amount. That said notes were drawn for a greater rate and amount of interest than is allowed by law; that the contracts therein contained for the payment of interest are null and void; and that the only rate which the owner of said notes is entitled to is six per cent. per annum upon the money loaned, from the date of the advancement respectively, and no more. The object and prayer of which petition is, in substance, as follows: That said four promissory notes, and the said contracts and transactions concerning the same, be declared illegal, usurious and void to the extent hereinbefore set forth. That an account be taken of the amount really and justly due on said three outstanding notes to 17th December, 1862, after deducting said illegal, unjust and usurious amounts aforesaid, and all payments made on each and all of said four promissory notes. That the Court will order the amount so found due to be held by the Clerk of this Court for the use and benefit of the said James M., and that the Court will order that said Joseph W. and James M. Champlin deliver up said three outstanding notes to the Clerk of this Court to be canceled, and that they release and discharge said mortgage, and all right, title and interest which they or either of them have by virtue thereof, and to said land, and other and further relief. The said Joseph W. and James M. Champlin are notified that, unless they answer said petition on or before the 16th day of April, 1864, the same will be taken as true, and judgment rendering accordingly.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alterative of wonderful efficiency in disease of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Sprains, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nor is this is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infected with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not untrequently restored to health within a few days, by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of DYSPEPSIA and in less confirmed forms or INDIGESTION. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it invariably relieves the CONSTIPATION superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of BILIOUS COLIC is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and, by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from OLD AGE, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases, it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and wholesome materials, and entirely from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has ever been so universally, and, it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.
