Ringing the Bells.

This town of Warren is a most remarkable place for consistency, and some of its customs are as unchangeable as were the laws of the Medes and Persians.

Long years, when we were a boy, the dilapidated old Presbyterian Church was new, and a bell.—the first church going bell in Warren, was "high hung away up in the steeple, calling aloud unto the people."

Many a right merry peal it rung, when it called the faithful to prayers, for then, as now it was a right brisk bell, not one of your solemn, slow, tolling kind, but on the Sabbath it rattled loud and long for Sabbath School, morning, afternoon and evening service.

It has a holy horror of tolling and was never guilty of any thing of the kind, except on funeral occasions, and then, only when the procession was in motion. As the old Presbyterian bell led off, all the younger ones have followed, and now, of a Sabbath morning, Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist, mingle in one common clatter, on the principle of the devil take the hindmost.

First, generally, the clatter of the Methodist bell strikes one or two notes, on E flat, (a brisk sextos there,) then follows the heavier G sharp of the Baptist, and these two run tolerably even for about one minute, when the Presbyterian, (a little slower on the start, on account of its age, and Patrick's infirmities,) strikes in, and then a more even race was never seen on any course than those three bells make. Neck and neck they go, and we have never yet been able to decide which was the fastest.

Now all this may be very amusing to the sextons, by good exercise for them on a cold morning, and it may have a stirring effect on the listeners, but whether such an infernal din is a very good preparation for the services which are to follow, we beg leave respectfully to doubt.

Something New.

We have just been shown a work entitled, AMERICAN HISTORY, containing Belknap's biographies of the early discoveries; Robertson's History of South America; Graham's History of North America; and a number of other celebrated works, all published in one large quarto volume, having in it more reading matter, than the Old and New Testaments combined, with handsome gilt sides and back.

Mr. O. S. Johnson is the Agent for this work, in this vicinity, and will call on you in a few days, and if any one wants a complete History of America, now will be the time to subscribe. It costs only four dollars.

Indian Summer.

During the last few days, the weather has been delightful. In the morning the sun can hardly show his red face through the hazy atmosphere, but about nine or ten o'clock the curtains rises slowly, and the rest of the day is clear and mild as May. Then the bright moonlight nights tempts some very respectable old gentlemen of our acquaintance, to keep very late hours.

I. O. S. M.

The regular meeting of this order, will be held at Malta Hall, on Thursday evening of this week. A punctual attendance is requested, as the Lodge will be opened at precisely 6½ o'clock. By order of the Grand Commander.

Warren, Nov. 7. 1859.

A Good Shot.

On Thursday of last week, Mr. George Hasch of this place, killed three wild turkies at one shot. The gun was a shot gun. The turkies were very large, one of them weighed over ten pounds, when dressed.

The Citizen's Society

Met last Friday evening, and the lecture of the evening was delivered by Mr. C. A. Adams. The subject of the lecture we have not learned

The Rev. Mr. Tribby, was announced as the lecturer for Friday evening next.

Singular.

Mr. Wm. H. Weeks, of this place showed us last week, a bunch of ripe Strawberries from the third crop grown this year on his vines.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the farm of Mr. Streight Axtell, in Hartford, this county.

The Buckeye State.

This sterling Republican journal comes to us in a new dress, and much improved in appearance. We are glad to see such evidences of prosperity, and hope the Republicans of "Old Columbiana" will respond to the exertions of the publisher, in furnishing them with a first rate paper.

REMARKABLE YIELD.—Mr. Adam Miller, of this place raised from one bushel of seed one hundred and seven bushels good clean buck wheat.—West Greenville Times.

LEGAL NOTICE.

The State of Ohio, } In the Probate Court of said
Trumbull County, ss. } County.

James Wilson, Administrator of the Estate of John W. Fox deceased vs.

Mary Fox, widow of said John W. Fox, dec'd, Sebra Whitman, (Stephen Whitman, her husband,) Lewis Fox, Ellis Fox, children of said age of said John W. Fox, sons of said Carson Fox, William Fox, Mary Fox, Maria Fox, Samuel Fox, Daniel Fox, Daniel S. Woods Samuel Moser and Cornelius Moser.

Said defendants will take notice that on the 9th day of November, 1859 James Wilson, Administrator of the Estate of John W. Fox, deceased, filed in the Probate Court of said county a petition alleging that said John W. Fox in his lifetime owned, held a contract to sell and convey by deed in fee simple to one Seth Green the following described real estate situate in Warren, being township No. 4, in the 4th range of Township, in the Connecticut Western Reserve, and which is also in the County of Trumbull and State of Ohio and is known by being part of lot No 2 in the township aforesaid, and bounded as follows to wit:

On the south by the Paramus road—so called; on the west by lands owned by Joseph Wilson; on the north by the township line between Champion and Warren, and on the east by lands of Giles O. Griswold, and is supposed to contain twenty five acres of land, be the same more or less.

That by a decree of the Court of Common Pleas of said county, entered at the June term, A. D., 1857, said lot was sold, and the balance of the purchase money upon said land paid to the legal representatives of said John W. Fox, deceased—that after work at the same term of said court of common pleas, A. D. 1859, said sale and proceedings were supported by said court, and deed of said premises ordered to be made to Samuel Moser, Cornelius Moser, and Daniel S. Woods who were the purchasers of said premises and that said John W. Fox deceased without making said deed

The prayer of the petition is for authority to make a deed to said Samuel Moser, Cornelius Moser and Daniel S. Woods, by the Administrator of the Estate of said John W. Fox, deceased.

Said petition will be for hearing on the 12th day of December, 1859, at 10 o'clock, A. M., before said Probate Court. JAMES WILSON, Adm'r of the Estate of John W. Fox dec'd.

NOTICE
THE COPARTNERSHIP heretofore existing between Burroughs & Iddings is this day dissolved, by mutual consent. All persons indebted to the above firm will please settle the same with Dr Burroughs, at his office over Smith & McCombs' Store.
BURROUGHS & IDDINGS.

DR BURROUGHS would respectfully inform his friends and the community generally that he will continue the Dental business in all the different branches of the profession, at the old stand, where he has been spending a few weeks, for the purpose of better acquainting himself in the different kinds and styles of Dental Work, some of which are decidedly beautiful, and every way adapted for a substitute for the Natural Organs giving a like expression, easily to be worn and will stand the hardest kind of usage and not break. Specimens can be seen at my office. Dr H. has in his employ an experienced and competent workman, who will assist him in the Mechanical Department. Himself performing all operations at the Chair, and sparing no pains in converting and filling the Natural Teeth, having one regard at all times,

For the Ease and Comfort of his Patients, as well as the permanency of his operations. All kinds of Artificial Work done that is done by the profession, in a neat and durable manner. No work will be permitted to leave the Office until the entire satisfaction is secured and warranted. Prices as low as good work can be done.

BEULAH! BEULAH! BEULAH!!
A learned writer, in speaking of "Beulah," a new work written by Miss Evans, of Mobile, Alabama, says:

"What shall I say of this book? I have no words to tell you of the wonder and satisfaction with which I have perused it.

"The book as a story is full of interest It alone would have brought her such laurels as newly fledged authoresses seldom indulge in, but the profound issues involved in the moral search, and the logical power displayed, the Gospel preached, are elements which stamp it regal.

"I am very proud of Miss Evans; I am very grateful to her; here is a bold, masterly hand; the age needs her; her book will live and do a noble work to the end What can she ask more?

"She has touched me nearly Please give her my hand and woman's blessing for this right royal gift of a royal gift. Heaven and her own heart will reward her."

WONDERS, WONDERS, WONDERS!
This World is full of Wonders, and one of the Wonderful Places of Attraction at the present time, is Reed's Stove Store or Foundry, where can be found as good an assortment and BETTER STOVES than have ever been offered in this market. In addition to my former large assortment of patterns, I have this season got out a number of New Ones, and among them is THE PRESIDENT.
This for a Cooking Stove has No Equal. The patterns of this stove I have had made under my Own Supervision, so as to get a proper proportion in the thickness of the plates for Durability.
This Stove has more good qualities combined than can be found in any other stove now manufactured. The surface is smooth, easily kept clean, but rich in its appearance. The fire arch is of the usual width and height and will take in wood 22 inches long and 6 inches in diameter. The boiler holes range from 8 to 11 inches, and it has an elevated oven which is so arranged that the fire is thrown once and a half around it, thereby extinguishing all the heat the fuel will make. This stove is well arranged for warm weather, by turning the damper down, the fire passes under the oven and into the pipe, and does not cause any more heat in the room than a square or low oven stove.
THE ADMIRABLE QUALITIES of this stove—if there were none others—would be the construction and form of the plates, and of such unusual thickness, consequently it must be more durable than any other stove of modern manufacture.
I also intend to keep on hand some foreign made stoves, and if possible such an assortment that all can be suited.
Also a general assortment of Foundry Castings, Stove Pipe and Stove Trimmings.
I shall also have for sale a superior article of Sugar Cane Mills, manufactured by Reed & Roberts.
It has been a wonder for years why Good Stoves could not be made in Warren. I have learned by experience that stoves manufactured in Warren have not been considered a No 1 article. I think I can explain the reason of this. There has been an opposition between eastern stoves and those manufactured in Warren, and it is a self evident fact, that the great majority of foreign stoves are not thicker than seven by nine window-glass, while the stoves made in Warren have generally been heavier; consequently they could not be sold as cheap as the foreign stoves and afford equal profit, and those engaged in manufacturing, have many times undoubtedly bought and worked a poor and cheap grade of iron, so as to compete with the foreign stoves. The result has been, the stoves made here have cracked and gone to pieces, while the foreign make have stood but for a short time before burning out, and as a general thing those that have bought of either class have been disappointed.
N. B. I should be pleased to have those wishing to purchase give me a call and Examine Thoroughly the Class of Stoves that I Manufacture. I will warrant as good a quality of Iron worked into my stoves as there is on the globe. I am determined to make that quality of stoves that as soon as the public become acquainted with their merits and worth, they will be bought by those needing stoves and considered as current as a Western Reserve Bank Bill.
