Home Intelligence.

Attempt to arrest in Church.

On Sunday evening an attempt was made to arrest Andrew Barrett, who was under indictment for passing counterfeit money in Bristol, in July last. It having been ascertained that Barrett would be in Braceville, on Sunday evening Deputy Sheriff Weston went to the vicinity of the red school house north of the C. & M Rail Road and on the north and south centre road, where a meeting was being held, Rev. Mr. Smith, of the United Brethren officiating. Learning that Barret was in the house, Weston entered it just before the service commenced. At the door a friend pointed Barrett out to him, but when he had reached the centre of the house some of the men having changed position, he was in doubt which of two men who were sitting on or near the preacher's stand, was the right one. Weston therefore waited a while for some one to come in, from whom he could learn which of the two was his bird, when it was evident that Barrett had smelt a rat, and soon after ringing had commenced, some one raised a window near where Barrett was sitting, and he made a bolt for it. Weston sprang after him, bumping against the preacher, knocked him over in his rapid passage, he caught Barrett's coat just as he was getting out of the window, tearing off the skirt, then seizing the seat of his pantaloons a large portion of that indispensable garment remained in his hand, then seizing his leg he held him for some time. While he was holding Barrett's leg, Mr. Jason Hurd rushed or was thrust against Weston, who believing he was trying to assist Barrett, struck him a severe blow, felling him to the floor, and cutting his head badly. In the struggle Barrett broke loose from Weston, and slipped through the window, leaped the fence, made tracks for the woods, and the night being dark, escaped. That meeting was adjourned.

Got the Wrong Pig by the Ear.

About two months since two prisoners broke jail in Canfield, Mahoning Co., and a reward of $50, each, was offered for their recapture.—One of them whose name was Whetstone, was seen by an acquaintance, at the Mecca Oil Diggings. Accompanied by this man, Deputy Sheriff Weston went to Mecca, when he found five brothers Whetstone, one of whom was pointed out as being the one for whom the reward was offered. He was arrested, at once acknowledged the fact, and was taken to Canfield, where he easily proved that he was not the man. The man who broke jail, was his twin brother, and he had thus suffered himself to be arrested in order to give his brother time to escape, which he did. The personal resemblance between the two was wonderful, and he only proved his own identity by showing that he did not have a scar on his nose, which the other had.

Of Course it is True.

It will be recollected that a few years ago the papers gave glowing accounts of an air ship, invented by some Frenchman, the model of which was said to have been tried in Paris and was a perfect success, and that a large air ship would cross the Atlantic in a few days We read the account to an old gentleman of this town, and asked him if he thought it could be true. Of course it is said he: I never will doubt any thing, again, since the electric telegraph has been invented.

Since the pumping of oil out of the earth has proved to be a fixed fact, we feel like saying of the story below, "of course it is true."

The Commercial Bulletain says it is rumored that whelebone trees have been discovered in the vicinity of the celebrated oil springs in Pensylvania and Ohio. A chap has gone out there to start an umbrella factory, and expects to make a spread while the excitement reigns.

Cleveland & Mahoning R R Company.

We learn from good authority, that the business of the C. & M. Rail Road, from January 1st to Oct. 31st, has been as follows—to wit:

	1859.	1860.	Increase.
Earnings	$221,933 41	$312,559 12	$90,625 71
Expenses	$83,148 74	$104,546 19	$21,397 45
Net Earnings	$148,784 67	$208,012 93	$69,228 26

This exhibit showing a net increase in the earnings of the road for the last ten months, of nearly sixty thousand dollars over the same months in 1859, must be highly gratifying to its friends.

Juvenile Wide Awakes.

A company of Juvenile Wide Awakes has been organized in this town, the ages of the members varying from some ten to fifteen years, or thereabouts. One evening they paraded the streets in procession, all in handsome uniforms, with torches, a good military band of music, and by their evolutions exhibited as good knowledge military tactics as their older brethren. A Transparency with appropriate emblems, handsomely painted by Mr. C McNutt, was presented to them on that occassion The presentation speech was made by J. W Tyler Esq. Much credit is due to the whole company and especially to the officers.

Warlike.

On Tuesday, at the polls, one of the staid old citizens, of the Breckenridge variety, and one of the rampant Douglas men took a little exercise of the "striking out from the shoulder," kind, by way of proselyting each other. Not much harm was done physically, and no great effect was produced politically.

BLOOD FOOD.

Attention is called to this most remarkable and scientific preparation advertised in another column. It is entirely new discovery and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is a certain remedy for all the diseases specified, and especially those of a chronic nature—of long standing—of weeks, months and years. Sufferers, try it!

Messrs. Gregory & Brovey of New York, are the sole agents for it and also proprietors of the world renowned Dr Eaton's Infantile Cordial, an article which every Mother should have in her medicine chest in case of need; and containing, as it does no paregoric, or opiate of any kind, it can be relied upon with the utmost confidence, and will be found an invaluable cure for all cases of Infantile Complaint.—Ohio State Journal Columbus. ☞ See advertisement

In Youngstown, Wednesday, Oct 31st, FRANK H., Son of Isaac & F. W Fellows, aged 1 year and 4 months.

Young Mother! What can feeble friendship say,
To soothe the anguish of this mournful day?
They, They alone, whose hearts like mine have bled,
Know how the living sorrow for the dead;
I've felt it all, alas! too well I know
How vain all earthly power to hush thy woe!
God cheer thee, childless mother! 'tis not given
For man to ward the blow that comes from Heaven
I've felt it all—and I am feeling now;
Like thee, with stricken heart and aching brow,
I've sat and watched by dying beauty's bed,
And burning tears of hopeless anguish shed;
I've gazed upon the sweet, but pallid face,
And vainly tried some comfort there to trace
I've listened to the short and struggling breath;
I've seen the cherub eye grow dim in death;
Like thee, I've veiled my head in speechless gloom
And laid my first born in the silent tomb!

WEST & WILSON'S
SEWING MACHINE.
I WOULD hereby inform the citizens of Warren, Braceville, Newton, Lordstown, Weathersfield, Liberty, Vienna, Howland, Fowler, Bristol, Mecca and Johnston that, as arrangements have recently been made, I am now supply any person or persons residing in said territory with said machine, for the established price of $20,00.
This machine was patented in 1858, which being later than the invention of most sewing machines must have afforded its originators an opportunity to invent an improved article, which was done, and acknowledged in delivering premiums at the Ohio State Fair the same year; improvements have since been made from time to time to within a few months. From these facts and experience which I have had I think I can recommend it to all.
